Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Formative assessment relates to the summative assessment for unit (performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLEs). Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

The lesson assessment will be the checklist and the discussion about interpersonal skills.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: What does a quality relationship look like and how is it maintained?

Engagement (Hook): Pass out a mirror to each student and ask them to take a minute to look at themselves. Ask them to reflect on what is on the inside and not the outside. Ask them which is more important when it comes to making and keeping friends.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. Ask the students what “interpersonal” means then discuss their responses until there is a suitable definition.

2. Discuss and define what constitutes a relationship (family, friends, romantic).

3. Explain the Quality Control Checklist (“I Am” worksheet) to the students. Review the use of a Likert Scale. Stress that honesty is essential in this evaluation and that is for self-awareness and improvement.

4. Explain to the students how to score the checklist. After scoring time, explain the scores and ask the students to comment on their personal score.

5. Review the skills listed in the checklist and evoke comments from students regarding the importance of the skill/quality in relationships.

Student Involvement:

1. Students propose definitions of interpersonal until a suitable definition is proposed.

2. Through input, students will explore and define relationships.

3. Students will use the Likert Scale to honestly evaluate themselves on skills needed to maintain quality relationships.

4. Students self-score the checklist and comment on their score.

5. Participate in discussion regarding the importance of the skill/quality listed on the checklist.
6. Collect the checklist scale to add to student portfolio.

7. Create “key-word posters” with the following words: Thoughtful, Good Communicator, Positive Body Language, Forgiving, Patient, Honest, “I” Messages, Respectful, and Say Sorry. Leave them with the teacher to post around the room as reminders throughout the year.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Teacher will post the “key-word posters” around the room and refer to them when necessary as a reminder of the lesson with the students.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)

Total score ________

What your score means:

70 – 56 You have excellent interpersonal skills. You probably have many valuable relationships. You are well-liked by your peers and your family. You are a very mature young person.

55 – 40 You are well on your way to learning excellent interpersonal skills. The fact that you recognize your weaker areas is a great stepping stone to realizing your potential. You probably have a lot of friends, but there are probably people out there who would like to be your friend—reach out to them using some new skills.

39 – 26 You appear to be lacking some skills that you should have acquired by this age. You need to take an honest look at yourself and where you need to make some changes in order to fit into society. If you are struggling in a particular area, please ask your friends, a counselor or another trusted adult for help.

25 -14 If your score falls here, don’t panic! If you want to improve your interpersonal skills, first look at the areas that you scored yourself low. Next, think for a minute about the friends that you have now. Do your actions sometimes upset others? Are you the best friend you can be? Would you be your own friend? Be honest with yourself. That is the only way to improve.

Are you surprised by your score? ________________
