Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Individual plans are kept in the students’ portfolios and plans are made with the high school counselor(s) to do a follow-up the following year. In addition, counselor will invite guest speakers (law enforcement, health department, etc.) to share information regarding safety issues.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)
Where Are My Friends Now?

Cassie drags herself out of bed and before she even opens her eyes she reaches for the pack of cigarettes on the nightstand. With bloodshot eyes, she fumble for a lighter and relaxes as she inhales deeply. She hated the habit, one she acquired her junior year of high school when Tiffany had said, “Come on, don’t be such a drag, Little Miss Goody Two Shoes.” So to nix that awful nickname she had to join in….now she couldn’t quit.

Getting up from bed, she looked around the room. It was a far cry from the cool, modern apartment she had envisioned she would have when she went to college, but it was all she could afford. She hadn’t been successful in getting any job that paid more than minimum wage. If only she hadn’t listened to Kirk! “Come on, sweetie. Quit school and marry me. I’ll take care of you.”

Well, she had dropped out and even though she and Kirk had stayed together for two years, the marriage never happened and Kirk soon lost interest in her and moved out one day while she was out shopping.

And college? She had always wanted to be a fashion designer, living in a swanky apartment in New York City but when she dropped out, that dream ended. She had considered trying to earn her GED and entering a community college, but with no money that modified dream appeared to be out of her reach too.

Looking in the mirror, she saw the stress was causing a canker sore to flare… it was a gift from Derek her sophomore year. Why could she never say no?!

It all seemed so depressing. Cassie just wasn’t sure she could handle her life anymore. She had made choices to satisfy others that were not good for her, but now there seemed no way to make things better. Stressed, she reached for a beer. Lately, alcohol was all that seemed to make things better… a little trick she had also learned from her friends.

Her friends? Where were they now? Cassie thought of Derek, Tiffany and the gang—even Kirk. She never saw them anymore…but her choices because of them had left a lasting mark.
