I sat there with Sally.
We sat there, we two.
And I said, "How I wish
We had something to do!"

Too wet to go out
And too cold to play ball.
So we sat in the house.
We did nothing at all.

Dear Great Pumpkin,
I'm looking forward to seeing you on Halloween night. I hope you will bring me lots of presents. . . .
Every year Linus writes to the Great Pumpkin. And every year he waits in the most sincere pumpkin patch he can find, hoping to see his mysterious hero.
"On Halloween night the Great Pumpkin rises out of his pumpkin patch and flies through the air with his bag of toys for all the children," Linus explained to Charlie Brown.
"You must be crazy," Charlie Brown said

Copyrighted Material

Linus's sister, Lucy, cried, "Writing to the Great Pumpkin again? You'll make me the laughing stock of the neighborhood!"
Linus sighed. "There are three things I've learned never to discuss with people: religion, politics, and the Great Pumpkin."
