

Review this document on Increasing the Accessibility of Application Software to People with Disabilities and Older Users: http://trace.wisc.edu/docs/software\_guidelines/software.htm or another appropriate website.

Explain how you might incorporate accessibility accommodations into developing a software program. Be specific on what you would incorporate, how you would incorporate it, and what disabilities and/or handicap that your accommodations might address.