OVERVIEW OF EACH OF THE COMPREHENSIVE GUIDANCE PROGRAM STRANDS, BIG IDEAS AND CONCEPTS

Personal And Social Development (PS) Strand

The knowledge, skill, and “positions-of-the-mind” developed via the lessons in the Personal and Social Development Strand of the Guidance Curriculum form the foundation for learning in the Academic Development and Career Development Strands. The Big Ideas and Comprehensive Guidance Standards provide the framework for understanding and respecting self as an individual and as a member of family, school, and community groups. The concepts which serve as K-12 guides for the Comprehensive Guidance Curriculum emphasize personal responsibility, respect and social responsibility as a part of living and working with others—the rights and privileges of being a contributing citizen of the local and global community. Students are supported as they become advocates for the well-being of themselves and others.

PS STRAND BIG IDEAS/COMPREHENSIVE GUIDANCE STANDARDS AND CONCEPTS

Big Idea1/CG 1      Understanding self as an individual and as a member of diverse local and global communities

Concepts:      PS 1/CG 1 A.      Self concept
                         PS 1/CG 1 B.      Balancing life’s roles
                         PS 1/CG 1 C.      Citizenship and contribution within a diverse community

Major Points: * Personal characteristics * Interrelationship of thoughts, feelings and actions in daily life * Each person is important in/to his or her extended (global) as well as immediate community * All people of the world are inter-related

Big Idea2/CG 2      Interacting with others in ways that respect individual and group differences

Concepts:      PS 2/CG 2 A                      Quality relationships
                         PS 2/CG 2 B                      Respect for self and others
                         PS 2/CG 2 C                      Personal responsibility in relationships

Major Points: * Respect is the right and responsibility of each individual * Each person is like all other people in some ways * Each person is like some other people in some ways * Each person is unlike all other people in some ways * Similarities and differences contribute to people working together in our diverse world

Big Idea 3/CG 3      Applying personal safety skills

Concepts:      PS 3/CG 3 A                      Safe and healthy choices
                         PS 3/CG 3 B                      Personal safety of self and others
                         PS 3/CG 3 C    Coping skills

Major Points: * Physical and psychological safety * Peer pressure influences individual choices * External influences interact with individual factors in the decision-/choice- making process *
Advocacy for self and others * Seeking help when external or internal conflict threatens well being (e.g. suicidal thoughts) * Respond to personal concerns as well as the needs of peers *
Develop skills to cope with “happy” and/or “unhappy” events—expected/unexpected

Academic Development (AD) Strand

Embedded in the Academic Development Strand are three critical aspects: Self-efficacy, attribution, and empowerment. Self-efficacy refers to each student’s belief in his or her ability to set and attain goals. Attribution refers to the individual’s belief that his or her own behavior and effort can directly impact success and/or failure. Empowerment refers to the educational system equipping the individual with the skills and tools necessary to achieve goals—throughout the lifespan. Test taking skills are systematically and intentionally taught to every K-12 student. Students are taught to recognize the need for academic assistance, and that assistance is available and accessible to all students. Students learn that transitions are a part of life. They learn that anticipating transitions and what is expected in the next phase of academic life will make transitions from grade to grade and setting to setting (e.g. elementary school to middle school; school to career) easier. Understanding expectations of teachers and requirements of subject areas are examples of information that will help students understand the personal changes transitions require. The Missouri School Improvement Program requires that all students engage in the on-going development of Personal Plans of Study beginning no later than 8th grade. The Academic Development Strand places emphasis on the knowledge, understanding and skills K-12 students need in order to develop meaningful Personal Plans of Study.

Big Idea4/CG 4            Applying skills needed for educational achievement

Concepts:        AD 4/CG 4 A    Lifelong learning
                         AD 4/CG 4 B    Self-management for educational achievement

Major Points: * Academic self efficacy * Set and attain academic goals * Self-management *
Study and test taking skills* Recognize need for academic assistance and where and how to get help

Big Idea5/CG 5            Applying the skills of transitioning between educational levels

Concept:        AD 5/CG 5 A    Transitions

Major Points: *Acquire the information necessary to make smooth transitions from grade to grade and setting to setting *Know and understand expectations of teachers and requirements of subject areas * Know and understand the personal changes required to make successful transitions

Big Idea6/CG 6            Developing and monitoring personal educational plans.

Concept:            AD 6/CG 6 A    Educational Planning for Lifelong Learning

Major Points: (The Missouri School Improvement Program requires all students to have a Personal Plan of Study initiated no later than 8th grade.) * Develop a meaningful educational plan. * Set goals * Develop plans to reach goals * Know and use sources of information and assistance * Review, re-think and revise plans

Career Development (CD) Strand

The over-arching purposes of learning and understanding within the Career Development Strand are: to help students develop an awareness of the world of work and workers; to understand the role and meaning of work in our lives and society, and making career decisions. Specific skills and understanding include: individual planning processes, knowing and using sources of career information, post-secondary options, employment readiness skills and personal skills that lead to job success. The developmental aspect of career exploration, planning and decision-making is addressed through systematic and sequential K-12 strategies. Underlying themes include the dignity and necessity of all work and workers; the role of one's preferences and skills in overall job satisfaction, the inter-relationship of all parts of ones' life (e.g. family, community, work, and leisure) across the life span, and knowledge of and access to career information. The real test of effective learning and understanding in the Career Development Strand is getting and keeping a job! The focus on personal character helps K-12 students develop individual skills of: Responsibility taking, dependability, punctuality, integrity, self-management and effort. Employment readiness skills include appreciation and respect of other's differences and the ability to work effectively as a team member to accomplish the goals of the organization. These are the skills that contribute to work performance and add value to one's contribution in the classroom and in the workplace.

Big Idea7/CG7 Applying career exploration and planning skills in the achievement of life career goals

Concepts:            A.        Integration of self knowledge into life and career planning
                              B.        Adaptation to world of work change
                              C.        Respect for all work

Major Points: * Career exploration * Individual planning skills * Dignity and necessity of all work and workers * Preferences and skills influence overall job satisfaction * A "balanced life" * Inter-relationship of all parts of one's life across the life span * Life career planning * Know and understand skills required in the world of work and daily living

Big Idea8/CG 8            Knowing where and how to obtain information about the world of work and post-secondary training/education.

Concepts:            A.        Career decision making
                              B.        Education and Career Requirements

Major Points: * Seeking and using information that is credible, age-appropriate, and unbiased * Know and understand the level of preparation required for various occupations (e.g., apprenticeships, vocational and technical education, 4-year and 2-year college or university). * Career information resources (e.g., print/electronic/personal interviews) * Ability to access information * Self-advocacy as a career decision-maker.

Big Idea9/CG9 Applying employment readiness skills and the skills for on-the-job success

Concepts: CD 9/CG 9 A Personal skills for job success
CD 9/CG 9 B Job seeking skills

Major Points: Employment readiness * individual responsibility, dependability, punctuality, integrity, self-management * Work ethic and effort * Appreciation and respect for co-worker differences * Working as a team member to accomplish the goals of the organization * Understand these skills as contributing to work performance and effectiveness in the classroom and in the workplace.

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Students will discuss/respond to how they feel when they exhibit various character traits in the roles that they have in their families.

Brief Summary of Unit:

Lesson one provides students with an introduction to the four basic feelings of happy, sad, mad and scared. The lesson concludes with them completing a Feelings Worksheet.

Lesson two, through a discussion with 2 puppets, allows students to identify the roles they play in the families and the accompanying character traits that assist in them playing these roles.

Unit Goals:

- Identification of basic feelings.
- Identification of personal roles played in the family.
- Identification of character traits required in these roles.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Familiarity with basic feelings.

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Students identify the personal roles they have in their community and discuss the feelings and character traits exhibited in those roles.

Brief Summary of Unit:

In lesson one, students review the story of Goldilocks and the Three Bears. As the jury of her peers, the students work in cooperative groups to determine the feelings and personal character traits Goldilocks had and elicited from the Bear Family.

In lesson two, students identify the personal roles that they have in their community by creating a community role web.

Unit Goals:

Expression of a variety of feelings.

Identification of personal roles in the community.

Comparison and contrast of different character traits needed in different situations.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Students need a basic understanding of feelings, roles, and character traits.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Each cooperative learning group will determine Goldilocks’ fate: did she consider the feelings of others and did she demonstrate positive character traits in her decisions?

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

Why do people need to know about feelings?
 How do people know how to act?

Engagement (Hook):

Counselor enters the room and says: “Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, today I will present to you the case of Goldilocks. Your charge will be to determine the feelings of Goldilocks and her victims, the Bear Family and to decide if she demonstrated positive character traits in the situation.”

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. After the introduction, counselor reads the story of Goldilocks or briefly summarizes the story.
2. Students are broken into groups of four. Counselor explains that each group will deliberate on Goldilocks’ fate. Did she consider the feelings of the Bear Family and did she demonstrate positive character traits?
3. Counselor explains that each group will identify the steps that Goldilocks took and the possible feelings that were exhibited by both Goldilocks and the Bear Family.
4. Counselor now needs to review the actions of Goldilocks (entering an unknown home, helped herself to food, sat in and destroyed furniture, slept in someone else’s bed). Counselor asks for the traits that Goldilocks exhibited and feelings shown. Counselor

Student Involvement:

1. Students listen.
2. Students move into cooperative groups.
3. Students listen to directions, and then work in small groups to formulate responses.
4. Students offer responses.

records responses on the chart paper (titled “Goldilocks”) in a compare/contrast manner. 5. Counselor asks the students to look back at the situations. Identify the actions of the Bear and ask what feelings and character traits the Bear Family exhibited because of Goldilocks actions. Counselor records on chart paper titled “Bear Family”. 6. The counselor asks for suggestions of better decisions she could have made. If Goldilocks decisions had been different, how would the characters’ feelings be different? 7. In summation, the counselor explains that every individual has a variety of feelings and that every individual will use different character traits in different situations. What is most important is that each person chooses wisely and positively, keeping in mind the impact that personal choices have on those around us. Counselor then reviews that charge of the “jury” and has students deliberate. Did she consider the feelings of the Bear Family and did she demonstrate positive character traits?	5. Students offer responses. 6. Students listen to directions, and then work in small groups to formulate responses. 7. Students deliberate and report their decisions.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

If there is an issue that the classroom is dealing with, teacher could follow the same format as described above using “the jury of peers” to resolve the issue. During the process, teacher will emphasize the character traits and feelings of the parties involved.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Each student will complete a personal community role web.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:
 What roles do people have in the community?

Engagement (Hook):
 Have the teacher or principal join the counselor. The counselor has a large web on chart paper (see directions for student web). The counselor asks the partner, what roles he/she plays in the community. Partner responds with the roles he/she has (father/mother, church member, voter, coach, farmer, Sunday School Teacher, etc.). As the teacher/principal responds, counselor records responses on the chart paper. (If teacher or principal is not available, then the counselor will implement the lesson independently. This will serve as a model for the activity the students will complete.)

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
1. Review last week’s lesson and the tree poster. Tell the students that today they will help their classmates discover some of the traits that we see in each other.	1. Students participate in the review of the tree poster.
2. Counselor brainstorms with the class the positive traits and behaviors needed to be successful in school. These are written on chart paper or the chalkboard to create a word bank.	2. Students contribute ideas.
3. Counselor distributes blank paper to students and tells them that they are to write their names at the top and they should draw four large apples on their paper.	3. Students follow directions.
4. Counselor divides the class into groups of five. Students are instructed to pass their paper to the person to their left. That person is to select a trait from the word bank that describes the person and write it in one of the apples.	4. Students follow directions.
5. Counselor tells students to pass that paper to the person to their left. Students are instructed to look at the name on the paper that they have and then select a trait from the word bank that describes the person and write it in one of the remaining blank apples.	5. Students follow directions.
6. Repeat Step 5 until each student’s apple	6. Students follow directions.

sheet has been completed. Then, have students pass the paper to the left, which should result in students having their own paper back. 7. Counselor tells students to look at the traits written on their paper by the group. The class discusses whether they feel the traits described them or if they were surprised by any traits. 8. Have students write on the back of their paper some of the traits that they would like to develop for their own personal growth.	7. Students participate in the discussion. 8. Students follow directions.

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Students will be able to identify the difference between positive and negative thoughts and feelings in "Think Positive!" by performing a skit that turns a negative situation in a positive one. In "I'm a Star!" students will be able to answer questions about being responsible community members by playing a game and writing what constitutes being a star community member. In "What Do I Think About Me?" students will be able to write positive statements about themselves on the "I'm Thumbody" worksheets.

Brief Summary of Unit:

This unit addresses positive self-talk, communicating personal thoughts and feelings, identifying the responsibilities of a community member and becoming a contributing member of school community. The unit lessons will use small groups, board games, and performance art to demonstrate the students' acquired knowledge of the subject areas being taught.

Unit Goals:

In this unit, students will be recognizing positive self-talk and communicate personal thoughts and feelings. They will be able to consider what personal roles they possess and will identify the characteristics needed to be a positive community member.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

What are personal roles?

What is a positive self-concept?

The meaning of personal characteristics.
Knowledge of how people express feelings differently.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Counselor will critique how students are able to explain how group roles were applied to the cooperative group work in their previous lesson (PS1-Gr5-Unit1-Lesson1).
 Counselor will critique students' explanation of how their collage choices demonstrated positive self-concept.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: How does positive self-concept help students contribute to the school community?
Engagement (Hook): Use cooperative learning role titles (reporter, recorder, timekeeper, leader, collector, & encourager). Prepare a set of flash cards for each group that describes each role. Each set should include the following cards: Leader, Presenter, Recorder, Encourager, Timekeeper, and Collector.

Procedures

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Summative assessment relates to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Teacher and Counselor will observe student behaviors that indicate awareness of similarities and differences between self and others, respectful friendship skills, and ability to recognize the feelings of others.

Brief Summary of Unit:

Students are introduced to friendship by focusing on things friends say and do. Children are introduced to differences between themselves and their classmates. They are also guided to be aware of the ways they are like their classmates. The students are guided to act out the four basic feelings, and then given instruction on how to tell what others are feeling by watching facial expressions.

Unit Goals: Students will learn how to behave and speak like a friend, be aware of similarities and differences between classmates, and identify feelings of others.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Students need to have been introduced to basic feelings, and have some knowledge of the concepts of alike and different.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: How does a friend act?

Engagement (Hook): Bring in two puppets. Introduce them as Juan and Jill. Show the puppets fighting and hitting each other, one grabbing at a toy to keep it away from the other puppet. Ask the children, “Show thumbs up if you think these two are acting like good friends.” Wait for the response from the children. Next show the puppets being kind to each other. Ask the children, “Show thumbs up if Juan and Jill are acting like good friends.” Wait for response from children. Then say, “Today, Jill and Juan are going to help us learn about friends.”

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement
1. Counselor says, “Hold up your thumb. You will hold up your thumb when I tell about something a friend would do. Point your thumb down. You will point your thumb down when I tell about something a friend would NOT do.”	1. Children follow directions.
2. Counselor says, “Juan shares his cookies with Jill. Would a friend do that?”	2. Children show thumbs up.
3. Counselor says, “Jill says, ‘Thank you, Juan!’ Would a friend do that? Show thumbs!”	3. Children show thumbs up.
4. Counselor says, “Juan gets mad at Jill for playing with Travon. He hits Jill. Would a friend do that?”	4. Children show thumbs down.
5. Counselor says, “Juan sees that Jill falls down at recess. He goes over to help her up. Would a friend do that?”	5. Children show thumbs up.
6. Counselor says, “Jill pushes Juan out of line so she can be first. Would a friend do that?”	6. Children show thumbs down.

7. Counselor says, “Jill goes to the bathroom. She runs down the hall and crashes into another student. Would a friend do that?”	7. Children show thumbs down.
8. Counselor says, ”Juan is angry because he doesn’t get to play with the truck at recess. He is crying. Jill goes over and pats him on the back and tells him she is sorry he is sad. Would a friend do that?”	8. Children show thumbs up.
9. Counselor says, “Juan hits Tom for taking a ball away from him at recess. Would a friend do that?”	9. Children show thumbs down.
10. Counselor says, “Jill tells Juan that his picture is really neat. Would a friend do that?”	10. Children show thumbs up.
11. Counselor says, “Juan tells Jill he likes her and is glad she is his friend. Would a friend do that?”	11. Children show thumbs up.
12. Counselor picks two students to come up. Each child takes a puppet. Counselor says, “What would good friends say to each other? _____(name the child holding Juan), what is a good friend thing Juan could say to Jill?” Affirm correct response or guide child to an appropriate response. Then say, “_____, (name of child holding Jill), what is a good friend thing Jill could say to Juan?” Affirm correct response or guide child to an appropriate response.	12. Children respond appropriately.
13. Counselor says, “Give Jill to another student who is sitting ‘criss-cross applesauce, spoons in the bowl’ and has been listening. Give Juan to another student who is sitting ‘criss-cross applesauce, spoons in the bowl’ and has been listening.”	13. Children respond appropriately.
14. Continue with this procedure until all children have had an opportunity being a puppet and saying kind things.	14. Children continue demonstrating appropriate responses.

15. Counselor shows puppets being kind to each other and saying nice things. Counselor says, “You have helped Juan and Jill learn what a friend does. Now you are going to get a paper to do at your desk to show me how much you have learned. Go to your seat and sit down.” 16. Counselor hands out the Student Activity Sheets and demonstrates /directs students to write their names at the top. 17. Counselor says, “You will circle the picture if it shows what a friend would do, draw an “X” on the picture if it shows something a friend would not do.” 18. Counselor collects the papers.	15. Children go to their seats. 16. Students write their names. 17. Students circle the three pictures that show what a friend would do, draw an “X” on the picture that shows the children fighting.

Someone is waiting to swing on one of the swings at recess. You have been swinging all recess long. What would a good friend do?

You hang up your coat in the closet and the coat next to yours falls down. What would a good friend do?

Friendship

Written by Annie Moffatt

(Sung to the tune of "If You're Happy And You Know It, Clap Your Hands")

If you're friendly and you know it

Say, "I'll help"

If you're friendly and you know it

Say, "I'll help"

If you're friendly and you know it

Then your friends will say

You show it

If you're friendly and you know it

Say, "I'll help"

If you're friendly and you know it

Say, "I'll share"

If you're friendly and you know it

Say, "I'll share"

If you're friendly and you know it

Sharing is the way to show it

If you're friendly and you know it

Say, "I'll share"

If you're friendly and you know it

Say kind words

If you're friendly and you know it

Say kind words

If you're friendly and you know it

Being kind will always show it

If you're friendly and you know it

Say kind words

Essential Questions: How am I alike my friends? How am I different from my friends?

Engagement (Hook): “Look at these two glasses. They are the same. Look at this carton. What is inside of it? (Call on students who have raised their hands to give guesses.) Let’s open this carton and pour what is inside in this glass. (Demonstrate.) What’s inside? (Milk.) Raise your hand if your guess was correct. Look at this can. What do you think is inside of it? (Call on students who have raised their hands to give guesses.) Let’s open this can and pour it into the other glass. What was inside? (Soda.) Raise your hand if your guess was correct.”

Stand Up Sit Down Song

Written by Annie Moffatt

(Sung to the tune of Old MacDonald Had A Farm)

In this class there are some kids,
We are all alike,
We look different, yes, it's true
Different things we like.

Will the boys stand up?
Will the girls stand up?
Boys down,
Girls down,
We are kids all around

In this class there are some kids
We are different too!

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Students will complete the basics feelings activity sheet.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: How can you tell what others are feeling?

Engagement (Hook): “Today our friend Emo (short for emotions) is going to help us learn a poem about feelings. Listen to Emo and repeat each line after he says it.” The second time the children say the poem, put up the feeling cards as the children talk about that feeling in the poem. Say the poem with the children one more time, pointing to the feeling card as the feeling is discussed.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement
1. Counselor says, “Emo is going to pick a friend to come up here. That friend must be sitting ‘criss-cross applesauce, spoons in the bowl’ to be chosen.” Emo whispers the name of one of the children to the counselor. Counselor says, “Emo picked _____(say name of child) for sitting so nicely.”	1. Children are watching as the chosen child comes to the front.
2. Counselor says to chosen child, “You are going to reach into this bag and pick out one of these pieces of paper. On the paper is something that might happen to you.”	2. Children watch as the child picks a piece of paper out of the bag.
3. Counselor says, “Give the paper to me. Emo and I will whisper what it says to you. Keep it a secret and don’t tell!”	3. Children watch as Emo and the Counselor read the card and whisper what it says to the child.
4. Counselor says, “Now _____ will act out the feeling he/she would have if the thing that was written on the paper really happened. Watch his/her face and decide which of these feelings you see.”	4. Children watch as the child acts out the feeling.
5. Counselor says, “What was he/ she feeling? Was he/she feeling (hold up 1 finger) mad? Was he/she feeling (hold up 2 fingers) sad? Was he/she feeling (hold up 3 fingers) happy? Was he/she feeling (hold up 4 fingers) afraid?”	5. Children watch and hold up fingers as the counselor demonstrates.

6. Counselor says, “_____, act out your feeling again. Class, which feeling was it?”	6. Children hold up the appropriate number of fingers to designate the correct feeling.
7. Counselor says, “Yes, the feeling was _____. The piece of paper said: -----. That would make most of us feel _____. How could you tell he/she was feeling _____?” Counselor calls on several different children.	7. Children raise their hands to answer the question.
8. “Emo wants to know how her/his face told you the feeling he/she was acting out? What clue did you get?” Counselor calls on several children.	8. Children raise their hand to answer.
9. Counselor says, “_____ will pick another friend to come and act out the next feeling. That friend must be sitting ‘criss-cross applesauce, spoons in the bowl’ to be chosen!”	9. Children sit correctly to be chosen.
10. Procedure is repeated with all the scenarios on Student Activity Cards (or any you would like to add). Emphasis should be placed on how the face gives away how people feel.	10. Children follow directions.
11. End by having the children say the poem again.	11. Children recite the poem.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Teacher may have the children illustrate a feeling of their choice. The children could draw a picture showing themselves when they felt angry, sad, happy, afraid.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)

OPTIONS: Counselors could make a set of feeling flash cards, laminated and held together by a metal ring for each child to use (instead of having children hold up fingers, they could show the feeling card). These could also be enlarged for display on the board.

Feelings

Written by Annie Moffatt

Sometimes I feel sad,
Sometimes I get mad,
Then before you know it
My face begins to show it.

Sometimes I feel happy,
Then I'm nice and snappy,
Singing all day long
My face, a happy song.

Other days, afraid I feel,
Some things that scare me are not real,
Like a monster by my bed,
The scary thoughts are in my head.

On days when I am feeling mad,
Everything seems really bad,
When my temper gets real hot,
I want to fight but I must not!

Watch my face and you will see
Feelings deep inside of me
Happy, scared, or mad, or blue
My face it always gives a clue

Essential Questions: What does a quality relationship look like and how is it maintained?

Engagement (Hook):

Counselor asks puppet why he is feeling bad. Puppet says that he is down because he is having difficulty keeping friends. Counselor lets puppet know that he's in luck because today we are going to be practicing ways of keeping friends.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. Counselor enters the classroom with puppet. Counselor asks the puppet why he looks sad today. Puppet says that he is having trouble keeping his friends. Counselor says that she/he is sorry that he is feeling sad but that the puppet is in luck because today we are going to practice ways of keeping friends.
2. Counselor divides the students into two groups and asks them to form two lines that will face each other.
3. Counselor states "I would like the people in the left line to shake hands and say "Hi, my name is _____?" to the person across from them in the right line.
4. Counselor has the person in the right line say and do the same thing to the people in the left line.
5. Counselor then has a person from the left line move to the end of the line and everyone in the left line moves to the right. Counselor asks the person in the left line to say 'How are you today?' with a smile. The person from the right line answers the

Student Involvement:

1. Students will observe the short puppet interaction with the counselor.
2. Students stand up and form two lines facing each other.

Essential Questions: Why is respect for others important?

Engagement (Hook): Counselor has class do a song regarding similarities and differences to the tune of “If You’re Happy”.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. Counselor has the class form a circle sitting on the carpet. The counselor says that they are going to do an activity that goes to the tune of “If You’re Happy and You Know It”. Counselor is going to say, “If you’re 6 years old and you know it, clap your hands. If you’re 6 years old and you know it, clap your hands. If your 6 years old and you know it and your birth certificate shows it, if you’re six years old and you know it clap your hands. If you’re in first grade and you know it stomp your feet, if you’re in first grade and you know it stomp your feet, if you’re in first grade and you know it and your teacher really shows it, if you’re in first grade and you know it stomp your feet. If you’re wearing blue today wave your hand, if you’re wearing blue today wave your hand, if you’re wearing blue today and you only have nice things to say, if you’re wearing blue today wave your hand. If you like to read and you know it, blink your eyes if you like to read and you know it, blink your eyes, if you like to read and you know it and you do so with some speed, if you like to read blink your eyes.”

Student Involvement:

1. Class forms a circle and students participate in what the song says if that quality applies to them.

2. Counselor asks the students if all of the parts of the song fit all of us? Which parts of the song did you notice did not fit everyone (i.e. hair color, clothing)? The parts of the song that fit all of us were the ways we are the same. The parts of the song that did not fit all of us were the ways we are different. Even though we are not the same in every way can we still be friends? Can we still have fun together? 3. Counselor writes the words same and different on the white board. Counselor asks students to name ways we are the same and the ways that we are different. Counselor writes these ideas on the board. 4. Counselor concludes the lesson by reiterating that although we have similarities and differences, we can still get along with each other.	2. Students will answer questions that the counselor asks regarding similarities and differences based on the song. 3. Students name ways that they are the same and different.

Engagement (Hook): Counselor will hook the students by having them in the circle singing the “Express Yourself” song to the tune of “London Bridges” and acting out the motions.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. Counselor will have the students form a circle standing up around the carpet.
2. Counselor will introduce the students to the song by letting them know it is sung to the tune of “London Bridges” and let them know that they will not only be singing but also using hand motions. The counselor will sing the first verse to the song “Express Yourself” and do the hand motions. The counselor will ask the class to repeat after her. The counselor will sing the 2nd verse and have the class repeat after her. The counselor will continue singing each verse and having the students repeat after her.
3. The counselor will then ask the students to go back to their desk/table and get out a pencil
4. Counselor will hand each student the “Express Yourself Handout”. Once each student has the worksheet, the counselor will read the directions with the class.
5. Counselor will recap with students the importance of releasing their feelings in good ways that don’t hurt themselves/others.

Student Involvement:

1. Students will form a circle standing up around the carpet.
2. Students will repeat each verse after the counselor and do the appropriate hand motions.

Express Yourself Song

Written by Annie Moffatt

(Sung to the tune of "London Bridges Falling Down")

When I feel sad I write in a journal, write in a journal, write in a journal, when I feel sad I write in a journal; whenever I feel sad.
(Counselor and students pretend like they're writing in air)

When I feel happy, I like to smile, I like to smile, I like to smile, when I feel happy I like to smile; whenever I feel happy.
(Counselor and students put a big smile on their faces)

When I feel worried, I think good thoughts, I think good thoughts, I think good thoughts, when I feel worried, I think good thoughts; whenever I feel worried.
(Counselor and students point to their temple on their head)

When I feel proud, I pat myself on the back, pat myself on the back, pat myself on the back, when I feel proud I pat myself on the back; whenever I feel proud.
(Counselor and students pat themselves on their own backs)

When I feel mad, I count to 10, count to 10, count to 10, when I feel mad, I count to 10; whenever I feel mad.
(Counselor and students count to 10 with their hands)

When I feel loved, I give good hugs, give good hugs, give good hugs, when I feel loved, I give good hugs; whenever I feel loved.
(Counselor and students give themselves their own personal hug)

Brief Summary of Unit:

Students will learn positive ways to interact with their peers. Students will also solve problems through the STAR problem solving method.
 Students will learn about their family traditions.

Unit Goals:

1. Students will identify and demonstrate the interpersonal skills needed to make and keep a friend.
2. Students will learn about their family traditions.
3. Students will identify the steps to solve a problem.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

The students will need to know how to be a friend.
 The students will need to be familiar with similarities and differences.
 Students having knowledge about feelings would be helpful.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: What does a quality relationship look like and how is it maintained?

Engagement (Hook): Begin the lesson by using two puppets to illustrate inappropriate ways of interacting with others, such as, shoving, shouting, pushing, and not sharing. Ask students if they would like to play with these “friends,” and if not, why not?

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. Using the puppets, ask students: What are some ways that we show others that we want to be their friend?
2. Write responses on the chalkboard.
3. Ahead of time, make a puppet using the paper bag, yarn, and markers.
  - a. Give each student a bag and yarn.
  - b. Students get out their markers and glue (for the yarn) to complete the puppets.
4. The instructor divides the students into pairs and gives them the following situations to act out with their partner.
  - a. Name your puppet and introduce your puppet to your partner’s puppet.
  - b. Tell your partner puppet something you like to do.
  - c. Tell your partner about your family.
  - d. Make up your own idea.

Student Involvement:

1. Students respond with answers such as, we share, listen, keep secrets, no fighting, and being kind to each other.
2. Students review the responses.
3. Students use the brown paper lunch bags to make puppets to practice friendship skills.
4. Students practice friendship skills with their partner’s puppet.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

The teacher encourages students to use appropriate friendship skills at all times.

Engagement (Hook): Puppet dialogue illustrating negative communication between friends (see scripts, page 4)

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
1. Counselor begins with puppet dialogue hook depicting an argument typical of the age grade (see script of negative scenario).	1. Students watch negative puppet scenario.
2. Counselor asks students to describe what happened in the scenario.	2. Students talk about the dialogue they watched.
3. Counselor asks what will probably happen next.	3. Students offer ideas and discuss whether this friendship can be saved.
4. Counselor asks what could have been done differently to prevent losing a friend.	4. Students offer ideas.
5. Counselor presents a new puppet dialogue between the same friends demonstrating the use of “I messages.”	5. Students watch scenario.
6. Counselor asks students to describe why the second scenario had a more positive outcome.	6. Student discussion.
7. Counselor points out the use of “I messages” in the second dialogue and tells the students about “I messages.”	7. Students listen.
8. Counselor ends the lesson by telling students that next time they will learn more about “I messages.”	8. Students listen.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Teacher models and encourages the use of “I messages” during the next week.

“I Messages” Scenarios

Scenario #1 – Negative interaction

This scenario is a puppet dialogue of an argument between two friends, Amy and Mary.

Amy: You invited Shelly to your house. That’s not fair. I invited you over last week.

Mary: So what? I can do what I want!

Amy: You’re supposed to be my friend, so why didn’t you invite me?

Mary: I wanted to play with somebody different.

Amy: I hate you!

Scenario #2 – Positive interaction using “I Messages”

This scenario is similar to the first one, but is more positive and demonstrates the use of “I messages”

Amy: When I heard you invited Shelly to your house instead of me, I felt angry.

Mary: I didn’t mean to make you feel angry. I found out Shelly collects butterflies and I wanted to show her my mom’s butterfly collection.

Amy: We’ve been friends a long time. I felt left out when you didn’t invite me, too.

Mary: I still think of you as my best friend, but I want to make new friends, too.

Amy: OK. It makes me feel better to know we’re still friends.

Essential Questions: What happens when someone doesn’t talk about their feelings with others?

Engagement (Hook): Remind students of previous lesson involving puppets. Tell students that I this lesson they will learn more about putting “I messages” to use for themselves.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. Counselor reminds students of previous lesson and briefly reviews what they did.
2. Counselor talks about “I messages” and tells students how they can let others know their feelings.
3. Counselor distributes copies of “I messages” handouts to students. Students take turns helping to read the handout.
4. Counselor and students brainstorm situations where “I messages” could be useful in communicating with others. A list is developed on white board/ chalkboard/ or chart paper.
5. Counselor directs students to pair up and practice using “I messages” with some of the situations from the list they developed.
6. Counselor asks students to share what happened during their practice and how this can be applied to everyday life.

Student Involvement:

1. Students listen and add ideas.
2. Students listen
3. Students volunteer to read portions aloud
4. Students participate in brainstorming activity.
5. Students pair up and each pair selects a situation from the list to use for practice in using “I messages.”
6. Students participate in discussion.

“I Messages”

When communicating with others, it is important to be honest in what you say. It is also important to say things in a way that get your message across without sounding mean, hurtful, or accusing. “I Messages” are one good way to do this.

“I Messages” show that you:

- Own your feelings
- Own your opinions
- Are honest in your expressions

When using “I Messages” you speak from your own point of view. Using “I” instead of “WE,” “YOU,” or “THEY” takes ownership of the feelings and opinions you are trying to express to others. For example, saying, “You spoiled everything when you told the class I won the trophy last weekend” sounds like someone is accusing or blaming. Using “I Messages” instead would sound more like this: “When you told everyone my exciting news, I felt cheated because I wanted to tell them myself.”

“I Messages” can be used anywhere: at school and at home, with friends and with family.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Students are able to use STAR to solve common problems in the classroom.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: How do others react when someone doesn't take responsibility for their own behavior? What happens when they do take responsibility for their own behavior?

Engagement (Hook): Counselor writes a math problem on the board to begin discussion of problem-solving using the STAR steps

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. Counselor writes a math problem on the chalkboard or white board and asks the students what it is. What do you do with a math problem?
2. Counselor selects a student to come up and solve the math problem.
3. Counselor introduces the STAR steps for problem solving, giving each student a copy of the handout. Counselor talks about each of the items and elaborates.
  - S = Stop, when you have a problem you don't rush in with just any solution. You want to take time to look it over and figure out the right solution for the problem.
  - T = Think, take time to think about possibilities, and what could happen with each one.
  - A = ACT, take the action you think is best for the situation.
  - R = Review, think about the choice you made, look it over and if you don't like the way it turned out go back and think again.
4. Counselor demonstrates how to use the STAR problem-solving steps to solve the math problem on the board, and then tells students that these same steps can be used

Student Involvement:

1. Students respond that it is a math problem, and you answer it or solve it.
2. A student volunteer solves the math problem.
3. Students look at the handout as the counselor explains the problem-solving steps
4. Students listen and ask questions for clarity.

to solve other problems we face every day. 5. Counselor names a common conflict such as someone cutting in line, and leads them through using the STAR process to solve the problem. 6. Counselor asks students to name other common conflicts, and then has students divide into pairs or small groups to practice using STAR to solve the problems they have named.	5. Students participate in deciding what to do for each of the STAR steps. 6. Students as a pair or in small groups practice using STAR to solve problems.

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Summative assessment relates to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Complete this summative assessment at the end of the unit:

1. Students will be divided in small groups and presented with case situations.
2. Student groups will assess if each situation conveys respect or disrespect, and, if the latter, how things could have been done differently.
3. Students will reflect on the causes and consequences of disrespect in each case.

Brief Summary of Unit: The lessons in this unit contain the rationale, strategies, and examples of interacting with others in positive ways that acknowledge and respect individual and group differences.

Unit Goals: Foster students' understanding of self as a social individual and as a member of diverse local and global communities.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Students should be able to:

- Identify most verbal and nonverbal emotions
- Identify the behavioral consequences of those emotions
- Know a variety of social skills and manners
- Understand and apply basic steps to problem solving.

Students will be able to conceptualize the value of respect for self, and give examples and non-examples. For non-examples, describe how things could've been done differently.

Students will be able to conceptualize the value of respect for others, and give examples and non-examples. For non-examples, describe how things could've been done differently.

Students will be able to role-play facial expressions and sounds of respect and disrespect.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

- Why it is important to recognize that respect is a human need?
- How important is it to respect others the way we need to be respected ourselves?
- What does a quality relationship looks like & how is it maintained?

Engagement (Hook):

Students are given an extreme make-believe situation where they are appointed i.e., as ambassadors of the US somewhere abroad, or recruited to go to war overseas, and they must leave everything behind, in the hands of a “respectable” agent. By secret ballot, students will select the most respectable students in their classroom. Students help tally the votes for boys and for girls.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Introduce the purpose of the lesson and specific vocabulary.</li><li>2. Ask students to conceptualize the meaning of the word “respect.” Discuss the word “respectable.”</li><li>3. Give students directions to vote for the most respectable student in the classroom. Distribute the secret ballots. Select two students to tally the votes and present the 2nd runner up, the 1st runner up, and then the absolute winner. Ask students what would be the situation of their belongings if their “agent” were not respectable?</li></ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Students put away their work and quietly await instructions.</li><li>2. Students listen attentively and answer the counselors’ questions, as appropriate.</li><li>3. Students receive their secret ballot and vote for the one student they consider most respectable and respectful to manage their affairs while they are outside the US.</li><li>4. Designated students tally the votes.</li><li>5. Students answer the counselors’ questions, as appropriate.</li><li>6. Students place a folder in front of their survey, for privacy, and fill out the survey – 1 answer per item.</li><li>7. Students score the survey under the counselor’s directions.</li><li>8. Students participate in-group discussions about the concept and importance of respect.</li></ol>

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

In subjects such as social studies and communication arts, teachers pinpoint to situations involving respect or disrespect, and promote group discussions including correctives if necessary.
Teachers praise bibliographical and historical characters that are respectable and respectful.
Teachers have a “Good Manners” table or corner in the classroom, designated to discuss and sort out situations involving disrespect.

RESPECT: IS IT WORTH IT FOR ME?

Give only one answer per line. Be Honest!

RESPECT IN SCHOOL:	Regularly	Sometimes	Never
1. I follow the rules whether I like them or not.
2. I follow teacher's directions because they are helpful.
3. I respect authority. Authority figures have a hard job to do.
4. I am punctual. I respect the time of others.
5. I respect good hygiene: I bathe and brush my hair and teeth, and I wear clean clothes every day.
6. I respect the truth and I tell the truth even if it gets me in trouble.
7. I don't poke or push friends. I believe that true friends show respect to each other and to other people.
8. I know I can earn respect for myself by being polite, helpful, and considerate of others.
9. I do not judge or criticize other people. Otherwise, I won't be able to respect them.
10. I do not tease, laugh, or ridicule anyone, because I don't want anyone to do that to me.
11. I show consideration and compassion for people who are disabled or different from me.
12. I do not like to see other people being mistreated; that's why I do not laugh at rudeness or impolite people.
13. I remember that the best way to show respect is by observing good manners and by the way I act.
14. I know that respect can be shown with my eyes. I avoid rolling my eyes or giving dirty looks to others.
15. I can show respect with my heart, by appreciating and celebrating other people and creatures.
16. I know one more way to show respect to myself and to others: With the words I say.

RESPECT WITHIN THE FAMILY:	Regularly	Sometimes	Never
1) At home, we have family rules that everyone respects.
2) I respect my parent’s authority whether it comes from mom or dad.
3) I listen to my parents’ advice and directions. My family and I can get in trouble if I do not listen.
4) I talk respectfully to my parents.
5) The grown ups and the teenagers at my home respect the law and the authority figures.
6) I leave my siblings alone when they need private time.
7) I always ask for permission before using my relatives’ toys or belongings.
8) My family respects my body by helping me stay healthy.
9) I respect my bedtime, because it’s good for me to have a good night sleep.
10) I do not make noise when my relatives are sleeping or are sick, or even when they are studying for a test.
11) I treat my relatives as if they were as important as I am. My relatives treat me the same way.
12) I speak politely to all the people who live in my house, and I do not like to shout or hear cuss words.
13) When I make a mistake, I show respect by accepting fault, instead of blaming my brother or sister.
14) I respect my relatives’ feelings and they respect my feelings as well. We show compassion to each other.
15) I help with cleaning chores and I also pick up my room.

16) Home is where I relax and have peace. My family avoids shouting arguments or fights for small stuff.

- Students will be able to discuss their observations and experiences about human similarities and differences.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

Why is important to recognize individual and group similarities and differences in the school?

Why is important to recognize individual and group similarities and differences in the community?

Why is it important to learn to deal with human diversity

What is the advantage of emphasizing similarities over differences

Engagement (Hook):

THE UNTANGLE GAME (Directions attached at the end).

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
1. Form groups of 8 to 10 students. Play the untangle game. (See directions below). After the first group has successfully finished, dissolve the groups.	1. Students put away their work and await instructions.
2. Request and provide feedback for this activity.	2. Groups of about 8 students play the untangle game.
3. Introduce today’s lesson and review/teach vocabulary: Collaboration, empathy, trust, similarities, differences, stereotype, and antagonistic.	3. Students participate by listening attentively and reflecting and answering questions at the counselor’s prompt.
4. Distribute the “Diversity Puzzle” handout. Have students answer the questions in small groups.	4. In small groups, students answer and solve the diversity puzzle.
5. A group discussion about diversity and respect follows.	5. Students listen attentively and participate in the group discussion.
6. Introduce/teach the acronym CARE as a way of dealing with diversity. Discuss as a group.	6. Students color and cut their puzzle pieces. Later, a mixer game may be conducted in which students circulate and place one of their puzzle pieces on other student’s puzzle.
7. If time allows, have students color, decorate, and then cut their puzzle pieces. Provide a plastic bag to keep the pieces.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

- Teacher assigns an essay related to diversity (could be a personal experience or reflections related to the “Diversity Puzzle”)
- The classroom has a “Good Manners” table for students to discuss and reflect issues pertaining to diversity.
- Teacher can go back and play the diversity puzzle again and again.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)

THE UNTANGLE GAME

Divide the class into groups of 8 or 10 (must be an even number). Form one group only if space is limited. Standing facing one another in a circle, instruct each student to grab the right hand of a student across from (not next to) him or her. Next, join left hands with a different person. Then, try to untangle without anyone letting go or falling down.

Debriefing:

- What was this game experience like for you?
- How can you relate this to something in your life?
- Are there situations or relationships with other people that is hard to untangle?
- What factors make it difficult to untangle these relationships?
- How can we do a better job of fixing tangled relationships?

TYPICAL SCENARIOS OF CHILDHOOD CONFLICT IN SCHOOL

(Have props, such as toy telephones and puppets, for pairs of students to role-play situations in this list. In small groups, students should provide solutions that involve compromise).

1. To tell or not to tell: You don't want your friends to think you are a snitch.
2. Gossip: Such and such said that you are all that.
3. Jealousy: Becoming upset at your friend when he or she plays with someone else.
4. Ostracizing: Leaving someone isolated, out of games, sleepovers, or parties.
5. Bossiness: Wanting to play only what you like, not giving others the chance of being the leader.
6. Not fair - Not sharing: Showing something off, or sharing only with a few selected people.
7. Cheating: Trying to win at any expense including dishonesty and unfairness.
8. The Queen / King: Trying to be better than someone else.
9. Playing dumb: Not doing your best in school because of being embarrassed to show your intelligence. Or trying to act dumb and funny.
10. Tough act: Using cuss words to make believe you are tough, or sabotaging your teacher's lesson to appear cool.

“TIC TAC TOE, GET OFF MY TOES” GAME

Materials:

- A Tic Tac Toe floor game: In an economy shower curtain, preferably of the school color, with extra-wide permanent marker design the tic tac toe game squares – approx. 1½‘ by 1½‘.
- Out of construction paper, make nine X’s and nine O’s signs players to hold as needed – use different a different color for each (lamine for future use).
- Scenarios on peer pressure and conflict (attached below).

Directions:

- 1) Divide the large group in X’s and O’s.
- 2) Flip a coin to determine which group goes first, the X’s or the O’s.
- 3) Present a conflict scenario for the chosen group of students to solve using the “STAR Steps to Solving Conflict”:
  - Stop (Use self-control)
  - Think (Think about what’s happening - Listen for feelings, brainstorm solutions)
  - Act (Talk it over & work it out– Choose & apply a win-win solution)
  - Review (Find out if the problem was solved – Do you need help?).
- 4) Students can discuss solutions using their whispering voice. The group chooses who is going to present the win-win compromise.
- 5) The counselor, assisted by the other group, determines if the compromise was a win-win solution. If the solution was right, a group member is chosen to pick up the corresponding sign and stand on the Tic Tac Toe game board. But, if the solution was wrong, the turn to study the same situation goes to the next team.
  - In this case, this next team will be first in line to solve the subsequently scenario.
- 6) Steps 3, 4, and 5 are repeated for the other group.
  - Each player picks the X’s or O’s sign of their group, chooses a place to stand, and won’t be able to trade or change places until the game is finished. Ties are allowed.
- 7) The winning group may call “TIC TAC TOE, GET OFF MY TOES.”

CASE SCENARIOS FOR THE “TIC TAC TOE, GET OFF MY TOES” GAME

(Students are welcomed to provide their own scenarios and examples)

1) While going to the P.E. class, your best friend walking behind you pokes you and knocks your head and then tells you to pass it on. You get really mad at your friend. How could you compromise in this case?	2) A student in your classroom appears to seldom bathe or wash his or her clothes. You feel sorry for this student but you do not want to associate with him or her. This person wants to be your friend and follows you at recess time. Any compromise?
3) You and your friend find a $20.00 dollar bill in the school restroom. Your close friend wants to keep the money to buy candy and cards after school. What could've happened? What are your choices? Could this be compromised?	4) You see some cool and popular students writing on the bathroom walls. They are writing stuff about other students. You laugh and feel tempted to do the same. Instead, you decide to tell them to stop or you are going to tell on them. Now they are not talking to you. What could be done?
5) Your best friend since kindergarten is dumping you and playing with other kids. You get mad and ask him or her what's wrong. He or she says: “Nothing.” Your birthday party is coming up and you want to invite this friend but you are mad at him or her. What could be done to compromise?	6) You and your partner are working on a computer research project in the classroom. Your partner wants to hug the computer and doesn't want to give you a chance to work on it. What would be a good compromise that doesn't involve tatter telling?
7) You are riding your bike with your two friends. They are willing to race in the highway but you feel really scared. What can be done to compromise without loosing their friendship?	8) You try to be nice to an unpopular student when you are alone, but not when you are with your friends. However, they see you and they start teasing you for associating with the wimp. What can be done to compromise this situation?
9) In the school cafeteria, at lunchtime, your friend starts flicking peas to other students. Everybody starts laughing. When the lunch supervisor comes, your friend points at you and gets you in trouble. You loose recess but your friend doesn't. How could a compromise solve problem?	10) A new student gives a funny answer in the classroom and you start to giggle loudly. The rest of the class laughs after you. The new student thinks you were laughing at him and is mad at you. He is throwing a pool party and not inviting you. Is any compromise possible here?

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Summative assessment relates to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE’s. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Students will make posters displaying the reasons it is important to respect individuals and group differences.

Brief Summary of Unit: Fifth grade students will practice interacting in appropriate ways that display respect for individual and group differences. Role-playing will help students act out proactive behaviors, understand the importance of respecting others, and identify skills necessary to maintain relationships. Students enjoy mingling and learning about other people. In the second lesson, students will sign a worksheet for each characteristic that pertains to them. This activity emphasizes similarities and differences.

The Problem Solving Game activity gives students an opportunity to have fun while practicing appropriate problem solving skills. Students make the game board and use the problem cards that are with the lesson. Students can brainstorm additional problem cards. Every relationship has problems but with effective problem solving skills, compromise, and mutual respect, we can work and learn together successfully.

Unit Goals:

- Students will show respect to their peers and other relationships.
- Students will compromise in their relationships.
- Students will demonstrate and show respect for diverse groups.
- Students will practice strategies to resolve problems and conflicts.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Students need to understand the STAR steps to problem solving. Stop, Think, Act, Review.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Formative assessment relates to the summative assessment for unit (performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLEs). Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

In a classroom discussion, students identify how mutual respect and compromise in relationships is important.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: What does a quality relationship look like and how is it maintained?

Engagement (Hook): In a prearranged role-play with the classroom teacher, the counselor loudly and irately complains about someone taking a favorite pen out of the office without permission. Ask the class: What should be done to resolve the situation using respect and compromise?

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
1. Introduce what it means to compromise.	1. Students share ideas. Examples: Compromising means to give and take in a situation. Each person involved may have to give up the way they think it should be and accept someone else's ideas.
2. What are the words or actions someone would need to use in order to compromise respectfully?	2. Students share ideas. Words – Please, thank you, excuse me... Actions – Smile, nice tone of voice, appropriate body language.
3. Introduce the steps of compromise to students using the STAR method of problem solving. a. Stop – Identify the situation or problem to compromise that needs to be solved. b. Think – Think about the choices or options to solve the situation or problem. c. Act – Decide how you are going to compromise. d. Review – Review the final compromise to the situation.	3. Students will review the steps of compromise.
4. Divide the class into teams of four to five students.	4. In small groups, students will role-play the following scenarios.
5. Give each team a scenario on a slip of paper to work out and role-play for the	5. Team s work out and role-play the scenarios.

Role Play Scenario:

A. John is accused by Jeff of stealing a set of “collector cards” that were left in the lost and found for several weeks.

B. Carol tells Sallie that she won’t be her friend anymore if Sallie continues to play with Ashley.

C. Andrea is really upset because Jill and Linda are talking about her hair behind her back.

D. During recess, David and Charles picked teams. Everybody was on a team except Karl, who never gets picked.

Students will identify the similarities and differences they have with their classmates from the Respect Mixer worksheet.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: What does a quality relationship look like when individuals respect each other? What does a person need to do to maintain a quality relationship?

Engagement (Hook): The instructor asks two students to stand up in the room. How are the two students alike and different? After comparing the instructor asks the class: How much do you really know about your classmates? Today we are going to find out about our likenesses and differences.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
1. Copy the attached Respect Mixer worksheets for each student. Make sure students have a pen or pencil.	1. Ask classmates to sign the appropriate box that applies to them.
2. Go over the directions to make sure students understand what they are expected to do.	2. Students complete their Respect Mixer worksheet.
3. Collect the first five completed sheets and number them in the order received. Stop the signing of sheets at this point.	3. Students turn in their sheets to the counselor.
4. Call up the first person to turn in a completed signed sheet. Check some of the signatures by asking the person who signed if this is really true.	4. Student participates.
5. After processing the five that were turned in, lead a discussion regarding respecting differences in others.	5. Students discuss.

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Lesson 1: Students will complete an activity page that allows each student to demonstrate his/her ability to identify safe and unsafe touch by cutting and pasting situation cards in either a Safe Comfortable Touch column or an Unsafe Uncomfortable Touch column.

Lesson 2: Students will demonstrate their understanding of safe and unsafe drugs/medicines/objects by sorting cards that have safe/healthy or unsafe/unhealthy statements/scenarios on them (25 items) into a safe paper bag and an unsafe bag. And/or helping place them on the correct part of the chart or poster.

Brief Summary of Unit:

This unit introduces the concepts of safe/comfortable and unsafe/uncomfortable touch, safe and unsafe drugs/medicines/objects, and the problem-solving model for staying safe: Say no; Get away; Tell someone you trust. Activities include a cutting and pasting activity that allows students to choose between safe and unsafe touch and a sorting activity that allows students to choose between safe and unsafe items and a take home page with the staying safe problem-solving model.

Unit Goals:

The goals of this unit are to teach students to:

- 1) Identify safe and unsafe touch.
- 2) Identify safe and unsafe drugs/medicines/objects.
- 3) To introduce students to the problem-solving model for staying safe from unsafe touch: Say, "No." Get away. Tell someone you trust.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Students will need to know the meaning of safe and unsafe terminology.

Written by: Kathy Keller

Touching, hugging, kissing too,
Makes a comfy, happy you.
Comfy touch feels warm and safe
Comfy touch from a familiar face.
Touching, hugging, kissing too,
Makes a comfy, happy you.

When touch, or hug, or kisses too,
Make an uncomfy, unhappy you.
You know what you need to do.
Say, “No”, Get away, Tell someone too.
If touching makes you scared or blue,
You now know just what to do.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Students will demonstrate their understanding of safe and unsafe drugs/medicines/objects by sorting cards that have safe/healthy or unsafe/unhealthy statements/scenarios on them (20 items) into a safe paper bag and an unsafe bag.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: What are safe drugs/medicines/substances/situations? What are unsafe drugs/medicines/substances/situations? How do I keep myself safe and healthy?

Engagement (Hook): Show students two paper bags with the two identifying labels on them. One bag has a picture of a healthy/happy/safe child, and the other bag has a picture of an unhealthy/unhappy/unsafe child. Ask the students what is different about the two pictures?

Procedures*Instructor Procedures:

1. Counselor: “Students, I wonder if you could help me figure out what might be making the child in this picture unhappy, unhealthy or unsafe? (Counselor shows the students the bags with the picture of the hurt child.)

2. Counselor: “I was thinking about what might be making this child unhappy or unhealthy or unsafe and I came up with some guesses. I wrote them on these cards.

The problem is I got them mixed up with the cards that I wrote explaining why the boy in the other picture looks happy, healthy and safe. Can you help me sort them out?”

3. Counselor: “Okay, the first one says (read first card). Which boy do you think would feel this way? Is this a safe/healthy choice or an unsafe/unhealthy choice? (Student volunteer places the card in the correct sack.)

Student Involvement:

1. Students might say: “He looks like he got hurt. Maybe he fell down. He might be being bullied; He might have been touched by a stranger, etc.”

2. Students will most likely respond by saying, “Yes.”

3. Students select the appropriate sack.

4. Counselor proceeds by reading all the cards following the procedure in step 3. 5. When all cards have been sorted, Counselor takes the cards out of the two sacks and puts them into one sack and asks each student to reach into the sack without looking and select a card. 6. Counselor: “First we decided together how to sort the cards into the sacks and now we will see if each of you can decide for yourself where the card should go. Please stand one at a time and I will read your card so that you can decide which end of the room your card/you should go to and then you can walk to that side of the room and stand there so that we can see your card. One side of the room is for safe/healthy/happy choices and the other side of the room is for unsafe/unhealthy/unhappy choices. After students have completed the game, the counselor helps students to tape or glue them on the bulletin board or large piece of paper on the wall under either the heading “Healthy, Happy, Safe Choices” or a heading that reads “Unhealthy, Unhappy, Unsafe Choices.” 8. Counselor may close the lesson by asking the students to echo the safe/healthy/happy choice cards as he/she reads them.	4. Students continue to select the appropriate sack. 5. Students reach into the bag with cards and pulls out a card. 6. Students will stand one at a time so that Counselor can read the student’s card. Students will first try to individually decide which side of the room they should walk too in order to sort safe from unsafe cards. If student has difficulty determining the sort, the student may ask a classmate to help. Student will walk to one side of the room or the other depending upon the sort. 7. Students place the cards in the appropriate place on the display area. 8. Students echo the safe/happy/healthy choice cards.

Lesson 1: Students will draw pictures of their families. Students will “Show and Tell” about their families with emphasis on how their families might have changed.

Lesson 2: Students will draw a picture of something they had to change when he/she started kindergarten.

Brief Summary of Unit:

In lesson one, students are given the opportunity to share how their families may have changed and participate in a discussion addressing the following concepts: Change is a natural part of life. Change may require coping skills. In lesson two, students will share their stories about life-changing events as prompted by drawing a picture of the changes he/she has made as a result of being a kindergarten student for the first time.

Unit Goals: (Lessons 1 and 2)

1. Students will be able to identify some of the changes that occur within families.
2. Students will understand that change is a natural part of life and that some changes may require coping skills.
3. Students will understand that all people experience some kind of changes in their lifetime and that such life-changing events may require coping skills.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Knowledge that people come from different types of families.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Students will draw a picture of their families and “Show and Tell” changes that have occurred within their families.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: How do families change?

Engagement (Hook): The counselor enters the room with shiny pieces of foil that she/he passes out to each student. “Today, we are going to draw our families.”

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. Counselor distributes paper and drawing materials.
2. When students have finished, the counselor will say, “Students, thank you for doing such a nice job on your family picture. I would like for each of you to tell the rest of us about your family. Tell us who the people are and tell us if there have been any changes in your family. Families change. Maybe a baby has been born in your family. Maybe a relative has died in your family. Maybe parents have separated or divorced. Maybe your mom or dad got a different job, or you moved to a different place. Maybe an older sister or brother has married or moved away or gone to college.

NOTE: The counselor will facilitate a discussion of how change is a natural part of life and some changes require adjustments (coping skills) during student presentations.

3. Counselor will say, “Today we listened to our friends tell us about their families and changes that have happened in their families. Do you remember some of the changes that our friends talked about?”

Student Involvement:

1. Each student draws a family picture.
2. Each student will participate in a “Show and Tell” about his/her family, being prompted by counselor to talk about any changes that have occurred in his/her family.
3. Students will review the changes that occur in families.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

1. Teacher may choose to read related books about new babies, new jobs for parents, new houses, death, loss, or divorce.
2. Counselor/Teacher may identify the need for some students to join a counselor lead small group dealing with the issues of grief, loss, and divorce.
3. Teacher may choose to display the students' families alongside stories the students have written about their families.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: What are life-changing events? What are some possible coping strategies/skills to use to adjust to life-changing events?

Engagement (Hook): Counselor will show students pictures of life-changing events. A family moving to a new place. A child starting a new school for the first time at the kindergarten level.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
1. Counselor will say, "Students, today we will be talking about change. I brought two pictures that show change."	1. Students listen.
2. Counselor shows students the picture of people moving and asks, "What do you see happening in this picture?"	2. Students might say, "A family is moving to a new place."
3. Counselor asks, "What kinds of changes do you think the family will experience? What will be different for them?"	3. Students respond.
4. Counselor will say, "What do you think the family will have to do to adjust, get used to, or be happy with their new house?" Counselor would explain/assure students that change is a natural part of life and that there are always steps that can be taken to adjust to change and return to some type of normalcy.	4. Students respond.
5. Counselor will show students picture number two of a child starting kindergarten for the first time and ask, "What do you see happening in this picture?"	5. Students will look at second picture and respond.
6. Counselor asks, "What do you think will be different for the child? How do you think his life will change now that he is going to school?"	6. Students respond.
7. Counselor says, "Great job students. You are really thinking about this. Do you	7. Students respond.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

1. Teacher can sing "I Can Change" lesson song with students throughout the week.
2. Teacher can bring in current event pictures of how events change our lives (natural disasters, re-location, births, deaths, etc.).
3. Teacher can ask students to draw a picture, write or tell a story about how they were able to change to meet a new situation.

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Students will be able to identify the three problem solving safety rules and use them during a role-play, and will identify the four basic feelings in a feelings game.

Brief Summary of Unit:

This unit introduces the concepts of comfortable and uncomfortable feelings and touches. The lessons help students to identify different feelings. The students will learn the three problem solving safety rules for personal safety.

Unit Goals:

The goals of this unit are to teach students to:

- Identify feelings in comfortable and uncomfortable situations.
- Identify the three problem solving steps for personal safety.

And to introduce students to the problem-solving model for staying safe from unsafe touch or situation: 1) Say, "NO!"; 2) Get away; 3) Tell someone you trust.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Students will have some knowledge of different types of feelings.
 Students will have knowledge of the three problem solving safety rules introduced in kindergarten if they participated in the lesson. Rules will be reviewed in this unit.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities:

The teacher will post the safety rules in the classroom and review when appropriate.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson):

1. Say "No"
in a Big Voice.

2. Get Away to a safe place.

3. Tell
Someone
You Trust.

Can be adapted K-5th grade. The counselor should review this sheet before sharing the second and third lessons of the personal safety unit. Modify the information to meet the appropriate age level. The counselor can adapt this to meet students' needs.

Personal Safety Presentation to Students

This information was adapted from Columbia Public Schools Sexual Abuse Prevention Program Information.

Below are important points to discuss when presenting personal safety information to students.

- Discuss comfortable (good), uncomfortable (bad) touches, feelings or situations.
- Discuss confusing touch such as tickling. Tickling can be fun or uncomfortable.
- Discuss healthy touch – Healthy touches can come from a medical person, parents helping you change, bathe, check private parts of your body for rashes or put medicine on. These are usually quick touches and always have purpose.
- Discuss feelings meter (gut feelings). Example: “Belly Button Radar”, Belly Button Warning, “Gut Feeling”
- It’s not the child’s fault.
- Why do adults use threats and bribes?
- Discuss sexual harassment or other types of harassment.
- Discuss where the private parts of your body are. These are parts of your body where your swimsuit covers.
- Share that most adults want a child to grow up to be happy and healthy, but once in a while a child may come in contact with someone who tries to make them feel uncomfortable.
- Always respect the body rights and personal space of others.
- Discuss what the words abuser or molester mean. This type of information should be shared at the judgment of the instructor.
- Share that an abuser could be a man or woman. Strangers can be abusers, however, most of the time it is someone that the child knows and maybe even loves.
- Abusers are not always adults. It could be an older child, teenager or someone his or her own age.
- Discuss the difference between a good secret and bad secret.
- Review safety rules for staying home alone.
- Review the three problem solving safety rules (1. Say “NO!”; 2. Get away to a safe place; 3. Tell an adult you trust.)
- How do you say no? (Assertiveness, broken record techniques, etc.)
- Who are trusted adults you can tell? Ask students to share ideas.

Handout for Parents

Keeping Your Child Safe

- 1) Teach children they have the right to say “No,” their body is their own.
- 2) Teach children to recognize different types of comfortable and uncomfortable touches.
- 3) Teach children to tell someone they trust. Help children identify those people.
- 4) Teach children to trust their own feelings about what is comfortable & uncomfortable.
- 5) Help children discover where their resources are: family, teachers, principals, counselors, trusted friends ...
- 6) Review the three problem solving safety rules:
  - a. Say “NO” in a big voice.
  - b. Get away to a safe place.
  - c. Tell an adult you trust.

This lesson can be adapted to meet the needs of K-5th grade.

Suggestion: Sample letter to send home before the personal safety and body rights unit is presented. Copy the handout for parents on the back "Keeping Your Child Safe."

Dear Parent,

This fall the counselor will present two classroom presentations and discussions about safe and unsafe situations. During these lessons we talk about comfortable (good) and uncomfortable (bad) feelings, situations and touches. We also talk about what children can do if someone tried to touch them in an uncomfortable way. Children are encouraged to remember three main safety rules:

- 1. SAY NO IN A LOUD VOICE.
- 2. GET AWAY TO A SAFE PLACE.
- 3. TELL A GROWN-UP WHO CAN HELP.

To reinforce these lessons, you might ask your child to tell you the meaning of comfortable (good) and uncomfortable (bad) feelings, situations and touches. Encourage your child to identify the adults that she/he could talk with about a problem. Besides you and your immediate family, these people may include a baby-sitter, aunt, grandparent, teacher, adult friend, or neighbor. Attached you will find a sheet that will give you ideas of how to help your child feel safe. Please contact me if you have questions or concerns about the presentation.

Sincerely,

School Counselor

Suggestion: Sample letter to send home after the personal safety and body rights unit is presented. Copy the handout for parents on the back "Keeping Your Child Safe."

Dear Parent,

Today at school your child participated in the first of two classroom presentations and discussions about safe and unsafe situations. The second presentation will take place next week. During these lessons we talk about comfortable (good) and uncomfortable (bad) feelings, situations and touches. We also talk about what children can do if someone tried to touch them in a bad way. Children are encouraged to remember three main safety rules:

- 1. SAY NO IN A LOUD VOICE.
- 2. GET AWAY TO A SAFE PLACE.
- 3. TELL A GROWN-UP WHO CAN HELP.

We also made a list of many people a child can tell, who will help.

To reinforce these lessons, you might ask your child to tell you the meaning of comfortable (good) and uncomfortable (bad) feelings, situations and touches. Encourage your child to identify the adults that she/he could talk with about a problem. Besides you and your immediate family, these people may include a baby-sitter, aunt, grandparent, teacher, adult friend, or neighbor. Attached you will find a sheet that will give you ideas of how to help your child feel safe. Please contact me if you have questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

School Counselor

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Summative assessment relates to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Students will be able to share coping strategies for dealing with change in their life.

1st Lesson - Students will complete a timeline story of their changing events in their life from birth to 1st grade. Students will share timeline stories and talk about how the changes affect their life.

2nd Lesson – Students will complete a wish for one year into the future activity sheet. This sheet will help students share a change that they anticipate in the next year. Coping strategies are given for each idea.

Brief Summary of Unit:

The students will participate in two lessons. The first lesson will help students to identify life-changing events in their life from birth to first grade. They will share how they handled the changes. The second lesson will share possible life changing events for the students during this next year of their life. Strategies for handling the changes will be discussed. Students will learn how to use the STAR Model for solving problems and coping with life changes.

Unit Goals: (lessons 1 and 2)

1. Students will be able to identify some of the changes that occur in past years and their present life.
2. Students will understand that change is a natural part of life and that some changes may require coping skills.
3. Students will be able to identify changes that occur in life due to events.
4. Students will understand that all people experience some kind of tragedy in their lifetime and that such life-changing events may require coping skills.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Students need to understand change is going to happen in their lives and that it is important to have coping skills or resources to help them handle change.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Formative assessment relates to the summative assessment for unit (performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLEs). Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Each student will complete a timeline of life changing events in their life from birth until the present time.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: How does it affect you when something changes at home? How does it affect you when something changes at school?

Engagement (Hook): Show the students a picture of four trees (show it as a picture/transparency). The picture is titled: A year in the life of a tree. What is happening in the life of the tree in these four pictures? What is happening in picture 1,2,3 and 4? Do we go through changes in our life that affect us like the tree? The students discuss the changes they recognize in pictures. Possible answers: The tree is planted. It grows taller. The tree blooms. The tree loses its leaves each year.

How does the tree's life compare to our life as a human? We are born. We grow taller. Our body changes.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. Introduce two puppets. The puppets talk about how life is different for them now in first grade compared to when they were babies.
2. How did some of these changes affect your life from then until now?
3. The puppets say to the students...think about your life changes and brainstorm what they might be. The instructor gives the students a timeline story sheet to complete. Make your own timeline story of the changes you have had in your life so far.

Student Involvement:

1. Students respond. They discuss the different changes (bathing, dressing, diapers, eating, crawling, walking, etc.) Parents had to help me bathe. vs. Now I can bathe myself. Parents helped me get dressed vs. Now I can dress myself. I stayed at home/went to daycare. vs. Now I go to school...
2. Students brainstorm ideas. Possible ideas: I crawled when I was younger. Now I can walk and run. I stayed at home/went to daycare and now I go to school. Other ideas are shared.
3. Students brainstorm and complete their story.

4. After the stories are completed the instructor gives students a chance to share and discuss how each change affected their life.	4. Students share stories and how the life changes affected their life. Examples: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>a. When I was 4 my little brother was born. I was no longer the youngest in my family. I liked being an older brother.</li><li>b. When I was 5 I started school. I missed my mom.</li><li>c. When I was 6 my grandma died. I was sad.</li></ul>

The instructor may want to show the tree picture from the last lesson to remind students of the changes in a trees life during a year’s time. 6. When completed students are asked to bring their pictures and sit down and make a circle around the magic carpet. The counselor introduces a quick problem solving method. Students are given an opportunity to share their picture for the future and how they think the event might affect their life. 7. The instructor will use the STAR Model for Problem Solving. This model is used help students brainstorm problem solving ideas and coping strategies for change.          Stop – What changing is happening?          Think – is this a good thing or a bad thing?          Act – What will help me deal with this change?          Review – How is this going to affect my life?	5. Students will complete the picture. 6. Students share their ideas. When the students share their ideas the puppet or students come up with ideas on how the student might cope with change using the STAR Problem Solving Model described in step seven. Ideas on how to cope with the change. Example: I will have a new teacher next year. You can work hard and listen then your teacher will think you are a good student. If your math work is harder you can study more. If you make a new friend you will have more friends. You might have more chores so you should get them done faster so you don’t have to miss your favorite television shows and your parents would be proud of you. 7. Students will use the STAR Model with the instructor’s guidance when sharing their ideas on the activity sheet.

Students will be given the opportunity to present a skit on how to solve a variety of safety situations.

Brief Summary of Unit:

In lesson one, students will review the STAR model of problem solving and work together to solve safety problems. During lesson two, the students will role-play/perform a skit showing how they would solve safety problems based on a variety of situations.

Unit Goals:

Students will practice and apply the problem-solving model to different safety situations.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Students will review the STAR method to solving problems.

Students will need basic knowledge of how to work together in groups.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: What are the steps for problem solving? How do I use the problem-solving model to keep myself safe?

Engagement (Hook): Walk in with a STAR badge on saying that you are the STAR sheriff on problem solving and you need some STAR deputies to make sure people make safe choices.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
1. Walk in wearing a STAR badge, saying that you are the STAR sheriff for problem solving and you need some STAR deputies to make sure people make safe choices. Tell students they need to be trained as STAR deputies. Review the STAR model of problem solving (worksheet). Use an example such as “what would you do if an older kid told you he would beat you up if you didn’t give him your lunch money?” to practice using the STAR model.	1. Students answer questions on the overhead/worksheet.

2. Now, you are going to do one in a group of deputies. Hand out STAR worksheet.	2. Students get into small groups and each has a different colored marker and a STAR problem solving worksheet.
3. Tell them, “You are out on the playground and someone gets a cut on his head and is bleeding. What do you do, deputies? Fill in the blanks.”	3. Each student contributes to answer the questions.
4. Facilitate a discussion.	4. Students contribute their answers to the questions.
5. “You have gained your STAR deputy badges.” Hand out and allow them to color and cut out their badges.	5. Color and cut out STAR deputy badges.
6. “Next week, we will role-play solving problems. Are there any questions before we move on?”	6. Students ask appropriate questions.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Remind students to use the problem-solving model when they are faced with an unsafe situation.

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Students examine and produce examples of what is in and not in their control, and practice showing empathy when others face life-changing events.

Brief Summary of Unit:

In lesson one, students examine a fictitious story about someone who has had a bad day because of her choices. Students are given the opportunity to see how she can change the outcome of her day by changing her behaviors, choices and what is and is not in her control. During lesson two, students will learn about life-changing events that are out of their control, and practice empathizing with others based on those events.

Unit Goals:

Students will learn that many events are their responsibility and that they can take control of how they react. They will also learn and practice ways of empathizing with others.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Stressed Out Sally

Written by Jennifer Frankenberg

Sally got up late this morning because she forgot to set her alarm clock. She yelled at her mom for not getting her up on time. Since she got up so late, she was not able to eat breakfast before having to get to school. On her way out the door running to the bus, she forgot her homework on the table. Because of this, she had to stay in at recess to finish her homework. When her friend came in from recess, she was angry with Sally because Sally was not outside to play with her. They got into a fight and didn't speak the rest of the day. During lunch, Sally spilled her milk all over herself, got angry, and threw her tray on the floor. When she lined up to go back to class, the boy behind her accidentally bumped into her. Sally got so angry that she punched him in the stomach. A teacher saw this and sent her to the principal's office. Sally was given a detention for fighting. By the time Sally got home, she was very angry. She saw her brother playing with her favorite game and yanked it away and yelled at him. Her father grounded her for a week because of her behavior. At dinner, the family was having meatloaf, and Sally hated meatloaf. She told her mom she hated her for fixing the meatloaf. After dinner, she was sent to her room to finish her homework and think about her day. She had a lot of homework, but did not do it all. She decided to go to bed early.

Sally's Super Day

Written by: Jennifer Frankenberg

Sally got up on time and was in a good mood because she had plenty of time to get ready for the day. Her mom was waiting in the kitchen for her with a healthy breakfast. She told her mom, "Good morning," and gave her a big hug. She rode the bus to school and greeted her teacher when she got to the classroom. Since her homework was finished, she got to go outside during recess and play with her best friend. Sally was excited to get to the lunchroom, because they were having tacos, and she liked tacos. She accidentally spilled milk on herself, and asked to go to the restroom to clean up. When lining up, she bumped into the boy in front of her. She said, "Excuse me," but the boy started yelling at her to watch where she was going. He got sent to the principal's office. She went back to the classroom and worked hard to get all her assignments finished so she didn't have any homework. When she got home, she was in a really good mood. Her brother was playing with her favorite game and she joined him. She didn't really like what they were having for dinner, but she ate it politely. After dinner, she helped clean up the kitchen before sitting down to read her library book. As Sally was getting ready to go to bed, the phone rang. It was her aunt, calling to say that her grandmother had died.

What an end to a super day!

What can Sally do now? What would you say to her?

---

Brief Summary of Unit:

In lesson one, students will learn why people tease and bully others, and ways to more appropriately communicate their needs. During lesson two, they will participate in a demonstration of how words cannot be erased once they are said.

Unit Goals:

Students will learn the damaging effects of teasing.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

The students need to be able to articulate their feelings.

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Lesson 1 Students will be able to use the STAR problem solving method to solve a real life scenario. Lesson 2 Students will share their knowledge by creating and presenting a poster, puppet show, skit, or oral presentation.

Brief Summary of Unit:

Lesson 1 – Students will learn about the four types of bullying and a definition of harassment. They will use the STAR problem solving method to solve real life scenarios.

Lesson 2 – Students will teach each other about four different categories of drugs and share facts and refusal methods.

Unit Goals:

Students will be able to identify bullying and harassment situations.

Students will know facts about drugs and alcohol and how to not use or abuse them.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Students will review the STAR method to solving problems and the “Say No” method of dealing with dangers. Students will need basic knowledge of how to work together in groups.

Unit #1 Title: Keeping Myself Safe By Making Safe and Healthy Choices.

Lesson Title: What Are Bullying And Harassment?

Teacher Notes and Key

Answers to the survey:

They are all FALSE except number 6. It can be True and False. If you leave a bully alone sometimes they do go away.

1. Bullying is more than teasing. It can include teasing but it can also be violent and intimidation. Bullying always hurts while teasing can be fun sometimes.
2. No one asks to be hurt and bullying is intentional hurting.
3. Both boys and girls bully although they can do it in different ways. Boys tend to be much more physical and girls can be less obvious. They can use looks and words to hurt others.
4. People who say they don't like to be hurt are standing up for themselves. They are more grown up than the bullies.
5. Having someone HURT you should not be a normal part of growing. Bullying is hurtful. If you think that hurting others is okay then you are saying it is okay to bully. It is not.
6. Sometimes this is true. Sometimes if bullies cannot use intimidation they will move on to someone they can use it on. Other times ignoring can make the bully angry and cause a worse situation. Reporting is the best thing to do.
7. Some bullies feel good about themselves and that is why they bully. They feel more powerful when they bully someone. Others were victims themselves and are taking out their hurts on others. It's all about power.
8. It's smart to tell an adult when someone bullies you or when you see someone being bullied. That is the best way to break the cycle.
9. Fighting is never a good answer. It always leads to someone getting hurt. Many times this only makes the bully angrier and can cause worse problems.
10. Bullying hurts for a long time. Statistics show that children all over the country stay home from school each day because they are afraid to go. Physical bullying can leave visible marks that will eventually go away but emotional and verbal bullying can leave marks forever on a person.

Definitions:

Bully: people who pick on other people for a variety of reasons. Usually the need for power is behind the bullying action.

Target: person a bully picks on. Bullies choose targets for many different reasons. They may see them as weak or just different.

Witness/Reporter: a person who witnesses a person being bullied. A reporter tries to get someone OUT of trouble while a tattletale tries to get someone IN trouble. A witness who does not report the act of bullying aligns themselves with the bully by their inaction.

Harassment: To wear out; exhaust or to impede and exhaust (an enemy) by repeated attacks. Sexual harassment is using sexual touch or words to continually bother someone one. According to the law it is the perception of the person being harassed not the harasser that matters.

Physical bullying: when the bully physically hits, punches, or hurts someone physically. Many times this leaves marks.

Verbal bullying: name-calling, put-downs, using your words to hurt someone else. A good phrase to remember is “Sticks and stones can break your bones, but words can break your heart.”

Emotional bullying: this is non-verbal bullying such as laughing, pointing, writing notes, shunning, mocking, and using various kinds of body language to put someone down.

Sexual bullying: this can be verbal or physical. Using sexual words as put downs (fag, gay, dyke, slut, etc.) or touching others in a sexual way: hitting their butt, touching their chest, etc.

Scenarios for group discussion

1. Fifth graders Keya and Andre are walking and talking together in the hall after school. There are many people in the hall. Andre is smaller than the average fifth grader. Thomas, a bigger fifth grader walks up and begins to tease Andre by calling him names (punk, sissy). Keya is also teased because she is walking with Andre.	2. A group of four girls including Tamisha and Jennifer are standing in a circle waiting to go into the cafeteria. Tamisha, a seemingly confident fifth grader, is pretty and has many friends. She teases Jennifer gently about her less than stylish (not name brand) clothes. Jennifer takes the teasing for a while but gets angrier and angrier. Jennifer does not like to talk about her clothes. She knows that her mom works very hard to provide her with nice things but just can't afford "labels."
3. Michael works very hard in his fifth grade math class. Because of his reading problems, however, he has a hard time keeping up. Usually, Michael is a cheerful person with a great sense of humor. Today, however, he erupts in anger when Sean calls him a dummy. Sean says this in front of Michael's friends because he feels Michael is slowing down his group.	4. During free time on the playground, Deontay, a fourth grader who is large for his age, corners Charles, a third grader. Deontay demands Charles' lunch money. Charles is afraid of Deontay but does not want to give up his lunch money. There is a teacher on the playground but she is on the other side with her back to the boys.
5. A group of five fifth grade girls chat informally on the playground during recess. Samantha invites three of the girls to her birthday party to be held at a local pizza parlor. Jamila, though standing with the group, is not asked to the party.	6. Tom and Dion do not much care for school, except as a place to showcase how tough they are. Many of the other fifth grade boys are a little frightened of them. Yesterday, Juan brought his violin to morning meeting. This morning before school, on the playground, Tom and Dion followed Juan around and harassed him by calling him "sissy" and mocking him by pretending to play the violin saying that only "fags" play such an instrument. Juan knows that if he says anything that the two will beat him up. Many other students see the exchange including Juan's best friend John and his sister Margaret.

Three Different Approaches to Conflict

Aggressive

Passive

Assertive

Mediation Do's and Don'ts

1. Do listen carefully.

Don't take sides.

2. Do be fair.

Don't tell them what to do.

3. Do ask how each feels

Don't ask who started it.

4. Do let each one state what happened.

Brief Summary of Unit:

Lesson 1: Students will look at peer influences in various situations and use problem-solving strategies to avoid violent situations.

Lesson 2: Students will look at the cost of using cigarettes both on their bank account and their health and then look at what they would rather spend that money on that would be healthy and make them happy.

Unit Goals:

Students will be able to evaluate peer influence and use problem solving skills to deal with violent situations.

Students will be able to make better informed decisions in relation to dangerous situations.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Students will review the STAR method to solving problems and the “Say No” method of dealing with dangers. Students will need basic knowledge of how to work together in groups. Students need knowledge of the use and abuse of legal/illegal drugs.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)

Student Safety Rules
Words to Remember

Say NO!

Get Away!

Tell!

Definitions:

Bully: people who pick on other people for a variety of reasons. Usually the need for power is behind the bullying action.

Target: person a bully picks on. Bullies choose targets for many different reasons. They may see them as weak or just different.

Witness/Reporter: a person who witnesses a person being bullied. A reporter tries to get someone OUT of trouble while a tattletale tries to get someone IN trouble. A witness who does not report the act of bullying aligns themselves with the bully by their inaction.

Harassment: To wear out; exhaust or to impede and exhaust (an enemy) by repeated attacks. Sexual harassment is using sexual touch or words to continually bother someone one. According to the law it is the perception of the person being harassed not the harasser that matters.

Physical bullying: when the bully physically hits, punches, or hurts someone physically. Many times this leaves marks.

Verbal bullying: name-calling, put-downs, using your words to hurt someone else. A good phrase to remember is “Sticks and stones can break your bones, but words can break your heart.”

Emotional bullying: this is non-verbal bullying such as laughing, pointing, writing notes, shunning, mocking, and using various kinds of body language to put someone down.

Sexual bullying: this can be verbal or physical. Using sexual words as put downs (fag, gay, dyke, slut, etc.) or touching others in a sexual way: hitting their butt, touching their chest, etc.

|---|-------------|--------------|
| 1. The drug in tobacco is called nicotine.  | True | False |
| 2. Nicotine is as addictive as heroin.  | True | False |
| 3. Over 400,000 people die annually from smoking cigarettes.                                | True | False |
| 4. Cigarettes contain over 4,000 chemicals.   | True | False |
| 5. Over 40% of all children in the US live in a household where at least one person smokes. | True | False |
| 6. Smokeless tobacco is more addictive than cigarettes.                                     | True | False |
| 7. Addiction to cigarettes often leads to other forms of drug addiction.                    | True | False |
| 8. Smoking is especially dangerous for teens.   | True | False |
| 9. People who smoke make great athletes and dancers.  | True | False |
| 10. Smoking makes you look more grown up.   | True | False |

Answers to Survey.

Numbers 1-8 are all true. The fact sheets all agree on these findings. Many statistics are even larger than stated on the survey.

Numbers 9 and 10 are both false. Have the students discuss why they are false. Answers can include something about limited lung capacity needed by dancers and athletes and what characteristics grown-ups have. Is holding a cigarette something that makes you look grown up?

Directions: Counselor will collect information on the cost for each habit per day, week, month, and year. Compare the health costs and the monetary costs during each time period. The counselor will adapt this sheet to meet the needs of their group.

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Students will present possible “I-Statements” for various scenarios.
 Students will participate in groups to identify ways to cope with life changing events and present the results to their peers.

Brief Summary of Unit:

Lesson 1: Students will discuss what makes up an “I-Statement” and then will be presented with scenarios and discuss one or more ways to answer the situation using “I-Statements”. They will also look at passive, aggressive, and assertive behaviors and present “I-Statements” for each situation.

Lesson 2: Students will discuss life-changing events and provide coping and coping out choices and consequences. They will discuss the situations, look at alternative strategies to deal with them and present the results to class.

Unit Goals:

Students will develop language and techniques to cope with stress and handle life-changing events.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Students will have a basic understanding of anatomy and body systems.

Students will need basic knowledge of how to work together in groups.

Students will model specific work habits needed for staying on a daily plan.

Have students discuss their daily schedule.

Ask students why it is important to have time routine on school nights.

Follow up with the next lesson where students plan a classroom party.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

Why is it important to have a daily plan?

What would happen if there weren't a time for breakfast, a time for lunch, and a time for dinner?

What would happen if you play all day?

What do students need to do to stay on the daily plan?

Engagement (Hook):

Counselor plans the following ahead of time with one or two other staff members:

Counselor and other staff enter class at same time, announcing that it's their time to work with the students. Each one looks at the other with wide eyes, or a puzzled look. A short discussion about whose time it is ensues. Counselor remains and begins the discussion using the first essential question.

If other staff members are unavailable, counselor enters the room and announces that recess will be after school and lunch will be at nighttime! Counselor observes the children's reactions and then asks, "Any questions?" Then the counselor calms the children by saying, "Don't worry, that's why we have a plan."

5. Counselor asks several students to “show us” what that skill/behavior looks like, making sure that every student is included in modeling.	5. Selected students model the behaviors/skills, while others watch. (Make sure that all students have a chance to model.)
6. Counselor summarizes: “Now that you’ve practiced all of these great ways to stay on the daily plan, I hope that you will continue to do a great job using these skills to follow the plan. Give me a thumbs up if you will do your best to follow the plan!” (or something to that effect).	6. Students respond.

Students will be able to identify effective work habits.
 Students will choose 2 work habits that they personally want to practice for a week. Each day they will self-assess their level of success. Counselor will collect those sheets for review.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

What kinds of work/study habits are most helpful to the individual person to use in many settings?

Engagement (Hook):

Counselor reads The Not-So Independent Working Classroom. (check for understanding of the word “independent”)

Procedures

Instructor Procedures: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Counselor hands out The Not-So Independent Working Classroom story to each student.</li> <li>2. ---	---

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

The teacher will have students self assess their work habit progress at the end of each day.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)

(NOTE: Counselor should check names ahead of time to make sure that none of his/her current students' names are used in the story.)

The Not-So Independently Working Classroom

There once was a classroom where the teacher wanted the students to complete an assignment independently. "Who will be able to complete this assignment on his or her own?" asked the teacher.

"Not I," said Talkative Timmy.

"Not I," said Bashful Betty.

"Not I," said Wandering Wanda.

"Not I," said Noisy Ned.

"Not I," said Interrupting Ida.

"Not I," said Rude Rhoda.

"Not I," said Angry Al.

"Not I," said Humming Harry.

"Not I," said Mumbling Mary.

"Not I," said Destructive Donnie.

"I will try!" said Independent Irene.

"I will try!" said Listening Larry.

"I will try!" said Focused Fred.

"I will try!" said Prepared Patty.

"I will try!" said Behaving Bonita.

"I will try!" said Hardworking Harriet.

"I will try!" said Conscientious Carla.

"I will try!" said Thinking Thad.

"I will try!" said Responsible Rudy.

"I will try!" said Respectful Ralph.

"I will try!" said Persevering Perry.

The teacher said, "I appreciate all of the students who are willing to try to do the assignment independently. I will help others learn independent work habits so that everyone can be successful at school and at home!"

Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
 Students will be able to identify effective work habits.

Students will review their progress report on the 2 work habits that they practiced during the past week. Counselor will collect the charts and review student's self-reported progress.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

What happens when students don't have good work habits?

Engagement (Hook):

Students write their positive work habit names (Neat Nelly, Working Walter) on the activity sheet. The students can draw a picture of the character on the sheet on how they feel when they have positive work habits or a picture of them performing that positive work habit.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. The counselor asks students to tell about the Positive Work Habit Name they selected for themselves; including reason for selection, how habit is demonstrated and how applying the habit helps him or her to "Do It.")
2. The counselor asks students to get out their completed work habits progress report and discuss their progress since the previous week.
3. In closing the counselor says, "WHO WAS ABLE TO COMPLETE THEIR POSITIVE WORK HABIT SHEET THIS WEEK?" The Work Habit Names will be shared during the next lesson.

Student Involvement:

1. Students share their name sheet and picture and provide an explanation for why they selected the name for themselves (Example: My Positive Work Habit Name is: Organized Annie. I put things where they belong and I keep my desk clean.
2. Students share their self-assessment of how well they felt they practiced the selected skills throughout the week.
3. Students respond, "I DID IT!"

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

The teacher will review the charts of the students' progress. The teacher may chose to refer some students to the counselor for small group on individual work if they are having difficulties with positive work habits.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)

This sheet should be completed the previous week before this lesson.

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's.
 Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Students will work in small groups to develop a weekly self-management schedule based on Frantic Fred case study.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

How are your current study skills/test taking strategies/self management/organizational techniques working for you?
 How can one improve in the use of these skills?

Engagement (Hook):

Counselor posts a large daily/weekly schedule on the board/easel/overhead. Each student is given a copy of Betty's Busy Week. Together, the class and the counselor create a weekly schedule for Betty.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
1. Counselor asks students to give examples of effective study/test taking skills (for review).  2. Counselor introduces the concept of self management: a. Scheduled tasks/activities that we have to do (e.g. get out of bed, eat, go to school). b. Unscheduled tasks/activities that we have to do (play, watch TV, go to the park)	1. Students offer responses.  2. Students listen.

c. Tasks/activities that we want to do “Trying to fit all of those tasks/activities into a week can be a challenge. Today, we are going to work together to come up with a workable plan for Busy Betty.” 3. Each student is given a copy of Betty’s Busy Week. Counselor asks students to: a) Circle the tasks/activities that are scheduled that Betty must do b) Draw a box around the tasks/activities that are unscheduled that Betty must do c) Put an X in front of those tasks/activities that Betty wants to do 4. With students’ help, the counselor fills out the weekly schedule for Betty. 5. As a closing, have student volunteers to tell one thing they learned from this lesson. 6. Counselor can tell the class that, in the next lesson, they will be working in small groups to develop a weekly schedule for a student named Frantic Fred.	3. Students follow directions given, and check their work with a partner. 4. Students offer suggestions for task placement in Busy Betty’s schedule. 5. As individuals respond, the other students can do a thumbs up if that is also something new that they learned from the lesson.

Engagement (Hook):

Counselor and class sing "Testing Skills Rock."

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
1. Counselor comes into the classroom humming the tune of "Jingle Bell Rock". Counselor hands out the "Testing Skills Rock" song sheet. Counselor and students sing "Testing Skills Rock".	1. Students receive the "Testing Skills Rock" song and start singing it.
2. Counselor asks the students to identify test-taking skills mentioned in the song.	2. Students identify and underline the test taking skills mentioned in the song.
3. Counselor hands out "Tips and Pointers for Taking Tests". The counselor pairs students up to discuss why these tips are important (5 minutes).	3. Students discuss with their partner why these tips are important. Students will share their thoughts with the group.

4. Counselor reminds students that in previous lessons they reviewed/learned tips for studying, self-management and organization. Now it's time for them to think about their own skills in these areas, and indicate their ability level. 5. Counselor distributes the "Study/Test Taking Strategies Inventory" and students self-assess their usage of the strategies. Collect the completed inventories and after a "quick check" of each student's self-assessment, file student's Portfolio. (Optional: Counselor tells students that these will be revisited in grade 5 for comparison and assessment of growth)	4. Students listen. 5. Students complete the self-assessment and write a "to do" list on the backside of the inventory sheet for skills to be further developed. Some students will share their "to do" list with the class.

TESTING SKILLS ROCK!

(to the tune of "Jingle Bell Rock")

Written by Shari Sevier

Testing skills, testing skills, testing skills rock
All these great ways to beat the clock.
Listening and following directions to be
As prepared as I should be.

Testing skills, testing skills, testing skills rock
Rested and fed so there's no brain-block
Skim the test first, looking for all the cues
These are ways to cure test blues.

Testing skills, testing skills, testing skills rock
Taking my time...who cares 'bout the clock?
Stay calm and focused, I know it all well
My results will ring the bell!

STUDY/TEST TAKING STRATEGIES INVENTORY

Directions: Answer the questions truthfully by placing a checkmark in the appropriate column.

	Always	Sometimes	Never
1. I am an active listener and class participant.
2. I use clues from other questions to help me answer harder questions.
3. I keep an assignment notebook for homework.
4. I choose a regular time to study.
5. I have the materials I need before I start.
6. I prepare for a test at least a few days before I take it.
7. I review for tests by quizzing myself and asking others to quiz me.
8. I do the easiest questions first.
9. I work steadily without daydreaming.
10. I take necessary breaks.
11. I get a good night's rest before a test.
12. I start my assignments quickly.
13. I complete and hand in my assignments on time.
14. I use memory cues to learn facts for a test.
15. I check over papers or tests for errors.
16. I eat a good breakfast on test day.
17. I skim through a chapter of a book before I read and study it.
18. I carefully read all of the choices before answering a multiple-choice question.
19. I take notes.
20. I read all of the directions before starting the test.
21. I ask the teacher for help if I don't understand.
22. I make sure I answer all parts of every question.
23. I write neatly and accurately.
24. I always make sure to write my name on my paper first!

TIPS AND POINTERS FOR TAKING TESTS

1. Be rested, well fed, and prepared (pencils, pens, materials).
2. Use complete sentences when answering questions.
3. Read the entire question, and all possible answers, carefully.
4. Underline or circle key words.
5. Make your best guess only when you don't know.
6. Eliminate the obvious wrong answers first.
7. Make an outline before starting.
8. Do easiest questions first.
9. Keep your first answer unless you are POSITIVE it's wrong.
10. Look for words like "always," "never," "none," etc. They are often false.
11. Look for words like "sometimes," "usually," "often," etc. They are often true.
12. Check your work before handing it in.
13. Check your grammar, spelling, and punctuation.
14. Keep trying until the test is finished.
15. Make an outline that includes key words/phrases to organize your thoughts.
16. Use memory cues to learn facts.
17. Don't leave any answers blank.

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's.

Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Students will draw pictures that depict the differences between their previous learning experiences and Kindergarten.

Brief Summary of Unit:

In Kindergarten, students must transition from a less structured setting to a structured learning environment. To get the students attention and introduce the lesson, the counselor will use puppets to discuss the home, pre-school, and day-care experience and distinguish school expectations from those of other settings. Students will use the activity sheets to draw pictures of the pre-Kindergarten experience and the Kindergarten experience.

Unit Goals:

Students will learn the difference between their previous learning experiences and kindergarten experiences to establish understanding of different expectations.

What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Vocabulary: Expectations, Day Care, Preschool, Differences

 Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Students will be able to draw two pictures of their learning experiences before Kindergarten.
 Pictures will include: student engaged in an activity and posted rules.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

How is school behavior different from behavior at home, daycare, or preschool? What do students do when they don't understand what to do at school?

Engagement (Hook):

Counselor will dialogue with puppets about puppets' previous learning experiences.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. The counselor will bring students together and sit in a circle. Introduce Counselor will introduce the home puppet, babysitter puppet, daycare puppet, and preschool puppet and interview them about their previous experiences. Four students are selected to be puppeteers. The counselor will point to the puppet to indicate when they are to talk. When the counselor talks for the puppet the students will move the mouth of the specific puppet. Where did you go to preschool/ daycare? What kind of things did you do when you stayed at home all day? What kinds of things did you do at preschool/daycare? Did you have certain rules? What did you learn?
2. Counselor will ask students to respond to the following:
  - a. Stand up if you went to preschool. Then instruct students to sit down.
  - b. Stand up if you went to daycare. Then

Student Involvement:

1. Students will be sitting in a circle watching the counselor with the puppets. Four students will participate as puppeteers.

Engagement (Hook):

Counselor will dialogue with the four puppets from last session about what is expected of them in Kindergarten. Four different students will be selected as puppeteers as they were in the last session.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. Counselor will review the information discussed in the last lesson. The counselor passes out "The Things I've learned I need to do in Kindergarten" Activity Sheet. Students will draw a picture of two things the teacher expects of them in Kindergarten.
2. When the activity sheet is completed the students will make a sharing circle in the middle of the room. Students will share their pictures and compare the difference between their previous learning experience and their Kindergarten experience.
3. The counselor will collect the pictures and discuss them with the classroom teacher.

Student Involvement:

1. The students will complete their pictures about Kindergarten.
2. Students will share their pictures and compare the differences in their prior learning experiences and what is expected.
3. Students will turn their pictures in to the teacher and/or counselor.

Engagement (Hook):

The bulletin board paper with the body profile of a first grader is hung in the front of the room. The counselor asks students to pretend this is one of the classmates. The class gives the body profile a name. (Example: Freddie First Grader)

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. The counselor will review the information on the body profile.
2. The counselor asks students if they think Freddie First Grader would be a good student in their class.
3. Counselor will give each student a cop of the Activity Sheet "I am a First Grader". He or she will instruct the students to write things they do, things they think and things they feel as a 1st Grade student. Students may use information from the big body or generate their own ideas. Students may color in the student profile.
4. Students will sit in the sharing circle and share one idea from their activity sheet and share their picture.

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's.
Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
 Students will write sentences and draw pictures of "things" which are expected of students in second grade.

Brief Summary of Unit:

Second graders must identify and apply numerous skills and behaviors to be successful in school. The counselor will have students do and (Thinking, Feeling, Doing) activity in which the student will stand up if the behavior applies to them. During a discussion, students will identify and develop a list of appropriate school behaviors. These behaviors will be listed on chart paper, the chalkboard or the dry erase board. Students will draw pictures to illustrate one or more of the expected behaviors and write a sentence to support the pictures.

Unit Goals:

Students will be able to identify the expectations for second grade.

What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Identify increased school expectations.

Vocabulary: compare, behavior

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Lesson 1: Students respond to counselor-initiated statements that display fourth grade behavior in an appropriate way. Students practice appropriate behaviors and skills through the remainder of fourth grade.

Lesson 2: In their groups, students will generate lists of appropriate items for their book bag and the reasons for having the items in their book bag.

Brief Summary of Unit:

Fourth grade students need a number of appropriate skills and behaviors in order to be successful.

In Lesson 1, the counselor sets the stage by reading several statements, which represent a range of behaviors, from, inappropriate to appropriate. Students participate in a game of Tic Tac Toe and check their responses in a class discussion when the game is complete.

In Lesson 2, the counselor brings a book bag filled with success related items that will help or hinder a student's success (books, electronic games, ruler). Through small group discussion, students generate a list of items for a fourth grader to have at school in his or her book bag and the reasoning for each item.

Unit Goals:

Students will refine and apply strategies necessary to be successful in the fourth grade.

What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Students need to have learned the skills and behaviors learned in previous grades.

 Counselor asks students questions based upon hook statements (see below). Based on the students' responses counselor would be able to assess whether the 4th Grade students understand the behavior/skills needed in 4th Grade.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:
 What strategies will I need to be successful in fourth grade?
 How will these help me prepare for middle school?

Engagement (Hook):
 Counselor makes the following statements:

- Jackie uses the dictionary to look up words that she doesn't know how to spell.
- Johnny reads a book quietly when he is done with his classwork.
- Louie runs down the hall when no one is looking.
- Mark starts to read his book the night before his book report is due.
- The night before a big test, Carla stays up until midnight studying.
- Taylor uses a planner to keep track of all her assignments and activities.

Then counselor asks: Who is doing the right thing? Who is not?
 Counselor announces the Tic Tac Toe game.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
1. Counselor makes the following statements:	1. Students listen to counselor as the statements are read.

Jackie uses the dictionary to look up words that she doesn't know how to spell. Johnny reads a book quietly when he is done with his classwork. Louie runs down the hall when no one is looking. Mark starts to read his book the night before his book report is due. The night before a big test, Carla stays up until midnight studying. Taylor uses a planner to keep track of all her assignments and activities. Counselor states to the students that some of these behaviors may describe them.
2. Counselor lets the students know that they are going to play a game called TIC TAC TOE to see which behaviors and skills they currently have.	2. Students receive TIC TAC TOE worksheet and complete it with 2 different color crayons.
4. Counselor puts transparency on overhead and discusses each item with the students.	4. Students respond to counselor questions throughout the lesson.
5. Counselor goes back to the statements from the beginning of the lesson (see # 1). Counselor generates questions from these statements and has students respond to these verbal questions regarding behaviors and responsibilities of 4th Grade students.

 Students will be able to open a combination lock. Students will prioritize school activities without missing any activities or being penalized for being late.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:
 What educational strategies do students need in order to make a smooth transition to middle school?

Engagement (Hook): How many of you are worried about having enough time to go to your locker and get to your classes in middle school? How many of you have ever used a combination lock before?
 Counselor will explain to class that they will be divided into small groups (depending on how many locks the counselors has to use during the class). Each group will have a combination lock that they will work together to open. No instructions are given to the group the first time the groups try to open the lock. The counselor tells the groups they have 3 minutes to work together to open the lock.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The counselor sets a timer for 3 minutes and stops the groups after and stops the groups after 3 minutes. The counselor asks the students to raise their hands if they were able to open the lock. Did they have enough time? Why were they not able to open their lock?</li> <li>2. Is it important to be organized and have enough information to finish something in a certain amount of time? Do you think you will need organization and self-management skills in middle school to be successful?</li> </ol>	Student Involvement: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Most groups will not be able to open the lock without further instruction. The students will indicate that they needed more time and more information.</li> <li>2. Students identify reasons to be organized and have good self-management skills.</li> </ol>
---	--

3. Do you need more information in order to open the lock in the 3-minute time frame? If so, the counselor gives the students directions on how to open the lock and gives them the same timeline of 3 minutes to open the lock. Also, the counselor talks with the groups about taking turns and making sure all students get a chance to practice opening the lock (3 minutes for each person in the group). 4. The counselor will monitor students opening the lock and discuss their success in the 3-minute time frame. 5. The counselor explains that there are many activities and events students will have to adjust to when transitioning to middle school. Having the appropriate skills to be successful in middle school is like having the right directions to opening the lock. Many things will open for you when you have the right skills. You will need to take things step by step in learning expectations, just like you have been doing these past 6 years in elementary school. 6. The counselor will work with students as they complete the Activity Sheet -Expectations and Skills Needed to be Successful in Middle School. He or she will highlight the key points as students rate themselves on each expectation/skill. 7. The counselor asks the students to keep their Expectation/Skills Activity Sheets or counselor may want to collect them for use during the next lesson. The counselor closes by letting the students know they will continue to talk about transitioning during the next lesson.	3. The students use the directions given and open the lock. All groups should be able to do this. 4. Once students open the lock, discuss the process and relate the importance of having the correct directions and skills to complete a task. 5. Students participate in this discuss. 6. The students will complete the activity sheet with the counselor's guidance. Students will add their own ideas at the end of the sheet and share their ideas with the classroom group. 7. Students will participate in the closing of the lesson.
---	--

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

The teacher will reinforce the Expectation/Skills list with the students during classroom activities.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)

HOOK ACTIVITY

Prepare the directions that work for the combination locks you are using.

Sample Directions to open the lock:

Pretend Combination – 12 – 25 - 4

Steps to opening the lock:

1. Clear the lock by moving the dial one complete circle in both directions.
2. Start at 0
3. Turn the dial directly to the right to # 12 and stop.
4. Turn the dial left past 25 once and then go directly to 25 and stop.
5. Turn the dial to #4 and stop.
6. The lock should open.
7. If not, re-read the directions on how to open the combination.

TRANSITION TO MIDDLE SCHOOL INSTRUCTION SHEET

Developed by Carolyn Magnuson

As each section is completed prompt students to talk with a partner or larger group. The counselor will use chart paper during the lesson to collect ideas. The chart paper will be saved for the teacher to use in the future or the counselor to use in the next session.

Section 1: Special memories are those that stand out from the rest...they include memories of adults and peers as well as events (e.g. field trips, honors). Share with a partner and then with the larger group (if you feel comfortable doing so). Process continues until all students who want have had an opportunity to share a memory.

Section 2: Thoughts about Transition to middle school... Getting ready for something new brings mixed feelings. We are excited about new opportunities and worried or anxious about the unknown and/or not knowing what to do (e.g. getting lost between classes, larger school). After writing positive thoughts and concerns about transition to middle school share thoughts with your partner. Also, share thoughts with the larger group and develop a list on chart paper of mutual positive thoughts and concerns. Discuss common concerns. Some students may want to write a question or concern in Section 6 to discuss further with middle school counselors.

Section 3: Involvement...Middle School offers many opportunities for involvement in organizations/activities of interest. Have students share their ideas. If students aren't aware of the activities offered, then encourage them to write a question to ask the middle school counselor(s) for more information.

Section 4: Friendship...Friends are treasures! Make sure the friends you choose are GENUINE TREASURES! When the qualities you seek have been written, share your ideas with the larger group. The counselor will write ideas on chart paper..."Qualities I treasure in a friend." Discuss the challenges of making and keeping friends and the importance of choosing your friends wisely.

Section 5: Changes... Use these ideas when developing the Future Plan of Action Activity Sheet.

Section 6: Questions... Have students write questions on index cards to share when the middle school counselor(s) visits the classroom to talk about transition.

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Lesson #1: Performance Task: Students will demonstrate their understanding of Body Basics by successfully performing actions written in visual format on flash cards presented by the counselor. The counselor will observe the class simultaneously responding to the counselor's presentation of the flash cards. The counselor will record the number of students demonstrating correct responses and record number of correct responses on the Scoring Sheet.

Lesson #2: Performance Task: Students will partner by using the symbol bracelets from lesson #1. Students will be seated next to their partners. Counselor will hand each pair of students a mystery envelope with a picture of an object hidden inside. Student number #1 will look at the object keeping it hidden from student #2. Student #2 will then ask questions in order to determine the qualities and characteristics of the object enabling student #2 to guess the object. Counselor will evaluate the student's ability to use the following skills (taking turns, communicating, questioning, and participating) by scoring the student's responses on a scoring rubric.

Brief Summary of Unit:

This unit is designed to teach students the essential skills needed to become successful learners. Lesson one teaches "Body Basic" skills such as eyes on teacher, voices off, hands to self, and criss-cross legs. Lesson two teaches such skills as taking turns, communicating, questioning, and participating.

Unit Goals:

Students will learn the essential skills needed to become successful learners. These skills include eyes on teacher, hands to self, voices off, criss-cross legs as well as communication skills such as questioning, participating, and taking turns.

What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Vocabulary: successful student

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

1. Students may color flash card pages and can be used to repeat the flash card game or can be displayed in the classroom as a reminder of the skills of a successful learner.
2. Students may continue to sing the “Body Basics” song for morning openings with their teacher.
3. Students might choose to take the flash cards home in order to practice “Body Basics” at the supper table.
4. The teacher may also want to teach the “Line Basics” song to help students walk in the hallways appropriately. Use the same tune and write words that would instruct the students the appropriate skills for walking in the hall; lining up for lunch; etc.

Student number #1 will look at the object keeping it hidden from student #2. Student number two will then ask questions in order to determine the qualities and characteristics of the object enabling student #2 to guess the object. Counselor will evaluate each student's ability to use the following skills (taking turns, communicating, questioning, and participating) by scoring the student's responses on a scoring rubric Targeted Skills.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

What happens when a student doesn't do what is expected of them at school?

Engagement (Hook):

Today we are going to play the Mystery Envelope Game.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. Counselor will instruct the students to sit next to partners. Partnering will be accomplished as in lesson #1, using partnering bracelets.
2. Counselor will instruct students on how to play "Mystery Envelope Game." by demonstrating the game with a sample pair of students. (The Mystery Envelope Game is similar to the familiar game, 20 Questions). The counselor can determine what pictures to use during the game or select his or her own pictures. Some pictures provided may be too advanced for some groups.
3. Counselor will say, "Students, we are going to play the Mystery Envelope Game. I have given Jill (student #1) an envelope. It has a picture of something inside. Jack's job (student #2) is to guess what that something

Student Involvement:

1. Students will sit next to their partners forming a circle arrangement.
2. A selected student pair will model teacher directions for the rest of the pairs to observe.
3. Students will offer some ideas about what questions might help Jack guess what is in the envelope.

is. Jack can ask questions to help him guess. Students, what kinds of questions do you think would help Jack?" (Students will offer questions that are helpful and will also offer questions that are less helpful in ascertaining the answer. The counselor can use these responses to further teach the students which questions are more helpful than others.) Some students may also need to be taught the difference between a question and a statement. 4. The counselor will teach the students some possible questions that will help while playing the game. Is it alive? Is it an animal? What color is it? Can you eat it? Is it big or small? 5. In order to keep the rest of the class engaged during the demonstration, the counselor will often ask the class for suggested questions. "Students, can you think of a good question to ask?" 6. The counselor will continue this process with subsequent pairs one at a time in order to demonstrate how the game is played. The counselor will continue practicing (for the entire class's benefit) with student pairs until it is obvious that the class understands how to play the game. 7. At the point in which the students are able to work independently in pairs, the counselor will instruct the students to play the game independently. The counselor will monitor pairs and watch for students who have finished an envelope. As students raise their hands to tell the counselor they have finished with an envelope, the counselor will give them another envelope that contains a different	4. The student pair that the counselor is using to model the game will demonstrate the questioning by using the teacher's suggested questions. 5. Students use the counselor's questions as well as the class's suggested questions to continue playing the guessing game until the picture or object has been guessed correctly. 6. Students continue to play the game a pair at a time with the counselor's help and the class's help until it is clear that pairs will be able to play the game independent of the counselor's help. 7. Student pairs play the game independently. mystery object.
8. At any point after the students have started playing the game in pairs, the counselor may assess each student using the scoring rubric.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

1. Students may take home an activity sheet with objects on it that they can cut and place in mystery envelope at home in order to continue practicing questioning and communication skills. (The activity sheet can be one of the pages in this lesson that has the object pictures. Photocopy one of the pages to send home with the students. Also tell the students they can play this game with real objects from home.
2. Teacher may continue to play Mystery Envelope game with students throughout the year. The teacher may choose to use found objects in the room possibly to help the students with orientation of where certain materials are found in the room, since it is the beginning of the year and students are becoming familiar with the contents of the room.

Targeted Skills Scoring Sheet

Turn Taking Skills
Questioning Skills
Participation Skills

Directions for Scoring Rubric

Turn Taking Skills – A (+) response would be students demonstrating the ability to pass materials in a turn-taking manner and share conversation in a turn-taking manner as well as being able to play the role of questioner and the listener appropriately. (This also re-teaches the concepts from lesson one of hands to self, voices off while listening to partner, eyes on partner when partner speaks, and criss-cross legs.)

Questioning Skills – A (+) response would be the ability to ask effective, relevant questions that are successful in identifying the object.

Participation Skills – A (+) response would be demonstrating all the above as well as on-task behaviors.

Objects to be used in Envelopes for Mystery Envelope Game (Use one of these pages to send home with student as activity sheet—so that student can play the game at home.)

The students will create their own "Learning Book" about important skills needed to be a learner. Students will be able to state the skills in a song.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

What does a successful learner do?

Engagement (Hook):

Today you're going to pretend you are illustrators and make your own Learning Book. What do you think it is going to take to be an illustrator? Students will respond with follow directions, draw pictures, neat work and listen to the teacher. Ask the students to state what they think would be important skills to include in a Learning Book. The counselor will share the six picture cards (attached) and ask students if these would be important skills. Students will state why each skill is important.

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's.
 Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

The students will make a book about important skills needed to be a learner. Students will be able to state the skills in a song.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

What does a successful learner do?

Engagement (Hook):

The counselor enters the room singing the “Learning Song” to the tune of London Bridge’s Falling Down.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. The counselor gives each student a copy of the song and teaches the words to the students.
2. The counselor hands out the students’ Learning Book Activity Sheet from the last lesson. The students are instructed to illustrate the cover of their Learning Books upper left- hand square on the sheet and then to get out their crayons to color their pictures.
3. The counselor instructs students to follow the steps below.
  - a. Review the pictures they drew last session.
  - b. Color the pictures.
  - c. Cut the squares apart.
  - d. Put the book together in order.
4. The counselor staples the book together when students raise their hands indicating they

Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Lesson #1: Students will complete an activity page that will demonstrate their ability to identify strategies for goal setting and planning to meet goals that lead to learner success.

Brief Summary of Unit:

This unit is designed to teach students basic goal-setting skills needed to become successful learners. Lesson one teaches the student to identify strategies for goal-setting and planning for accomplishing goals in terms of five strategies: 1) Set a goal and make a plan on paper; 2) Tell someone about your plan and get that person's help to monitor your progress; 3) Put the plan into action-practice; 4) Reward small steps; 5) Revise your plan if it is not working; 6) Keep working until you've accomplished the goal.

Unit Goals:

Students will learn to identify strategies for goal setting and planning in order to become successful learners.

What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Demonstrate the skills needed to be a successful learner.

But Setting a Goal and Following a Plan will be Richly Rewarded

DIRECTIONS: Color the square green (Tortoise Color) if it describes a good strategy for Setting a Goal or Following a Plan to accomplish a goal. Color the square brown (Hare/Rabbit Color) if it describes a behavior that does not involve goal setting or following a plan to accomplish a goal.

Set a goal and make a plan on paper.	1. This animal wrote down what time everyday he would stretch and exercise.	7. This animal wrote down the healthy food he would eat everyday.	13. This animal did not set any goal or write down any plan.
Tell someone about your plan and get that person's help.	2. This animal asked his friend squirrel to run the racetrack to look for problems.	8. This animal did not ask anyone to help him plan.	14. This animal asked duck to reward him every time he got one second faster.
Put the plan into action-practice	3. This animal got to bed every night at 8:00 just as he had planned.	9. This animal talked about lifting weights for the race but never did.	15. This animal ate a healthy, balanced diet that he had planned with his mother.
Reward small steps	4. This animal met his short-term goal of getting one second faster each day and rewarded himself with a cookie.	10. This animal didn't prepare in small steps, he didn't think he needed to improve in any way.	16. This animal met his short-term goal of getting to bed on time each night and bought himself two new pairs of socks.
Revise your plan if it is not working	5. This animal found out that running too fast, tired him out to soon, and he decided slow and steady wins the race.	11. This animal found out that eating chocolate before bedtime kept him awake, so he stopped.	17. This animal kept making the same mistakes every time and didn't learn from them.
Don't quit until you've accomplished the goal.	6. This animal went to sleep before the job was done.	12. This animal never stopped following his plan until the goal was accomplished.	18. This animal didn't think he needed to make a plan to meet his goal.

Essential Questions:
 What are the essential features of goal-setting behaviors that lead to learner success?

Engagement (Hook):
 John F. Kennedy once challenged our nation to be the first to put a man on the moon. Martin Luther King challenged our country to pass laws that would enable people of all races to have equal opportunity. What challenges do you ask of yourself? And what goals will you set to help you accomplish those challenges?

Instructor Procedures: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The counselor will say, “Students, I challenge you to be goal-setters, and problem-solvers. Today, I want you to think about something that you thought you would never be able to do. Not too long ago, when I was a child, to see a man walk on the moon was something that didn’t seem possible. But, it was a goal that was accomplished with two important tools. Those tools were goal-setting, and problem-solving. Let’s pretend that this piece of paper is an astronaut and the goal that we have set today is to get this astronaut on the moon. Well perhaps not on the moon, but into this jar that I will put over there in the corner of the room.”</li> <li>The counselor will hand out the instruction page for the activity. Teacher Follow-Up Activities

1. Teacher may continue to use the goal-setting and problem-solving vocabulary introduced by the counselor in cross-curriculum settings such as in a spelling list, or in a writing assignment. An example of a writing assignment might be to ask the student to write a story about a goal that they were able to accomplish or a goal that they were still working on accomplishing.
2. The teacher may allow the students the time and resources to create a list of famous people and the goals that they accomplished.

GOAL: What do I want to accomplish?

I want to get the astronaut into the jar.

TIMELINE: When do I want to accomplish my goal?

I have 15 minutes from now.

RESOURCES: What do I have that I can use to accomplish my goal?

I can ask anyone in the room for help and I can use any materials that are in the room.

LIMITATIONS: What might keep me from accomplishing my goal?

- ❖ I can not move from the place that I am standing now and no one else in the room can leave their seats.
- ❖ The paper that the astronaut is on is too big to fit in the jar.
- ❖ The jar can not be exchanged for another jar.

REWARD: What will I gain if I accomplish my goal?

I will be able to share the reward in the jar with the class.

PLAN: What steps will I take to accomplish my goal?

Identify the Problem	Brainstorm Possible Solutions	Choose a Possible Solution to Try	Did it Work? If first solution didn't work, try another.
The goal is too big. It seems impossible.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Quit, give up.</li> <li>2. Cut the project up into smaller more manageable pieces.</li> <li>3. Get a bigger jar.</li> </ol>	Tear the picture of the astronaut off of the poster board.

Student acquired knowledge: During a post-activity discussion session, students will demonstrate knowledge and understanding of strategies related to setting short term goals, which may include time, location, and conditions to best learn, read, and do homework.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

- Can you get to the cafeteria with a single giant step? Discuss why.
- What are the essential work/study behaviors that allow students to take small steps towards educational goals?
- Why is it necessary to know what are the small steps needed towards accomplishing bigger goals?
- Why are these small steps important?

Objectives:

- Students will explore ways to plan their studying towards fulfilling their educational goals
- Students will become aware, and hopefully, learn from one another, the value of persistence and self-discipline.

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Completion of “Why Do I Need A Plan?” Activity Sheet. Completion and discussion of the “GOALS” Worksheet. Discussion of educational and career goals.

Brief Summary of Unit:

Students are encouraged to brainstorm and record preparations that need to be made for a vacation or long trip. A parallel is drawn between preparing for a long trip and preparing for Middle School and Secondary Education classes; then to post High School life choices. Goal setting in sports’ games are used as examples to help students comprehend the goal setting process in education and careers.

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
 Each student will complete a “These Are a Few of My Favorite and Not So Favorite Things” Activity Sheet -- drawing a minimum of one of their favorite things and least favorite things at school and home.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: How do you know what your favorite and not so favorite things are?

Engagement (Hook):
 Puppet will perform a dialogue involving these questions. Is it important to have things you like to do? Why? Is it okay not to like every thing you do? Do you have favorite things you like to do at school and home? Do you have least favorite things you like to do at school and home?

Procedures

Instructor Procedures: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Puppets will ask the students the questions listed in the hook. The puppets will follow with an energetic discussion of their favorite and least favorite things at school and at home.</li> <li>2. Puppets will continue the discussion by asking what activities the students like and dislike doing when they are at home. The puppets will ask three or four additional students to share their least favorite things at home (encourage contributions from all students).</li> <li>4. Activity Sheet. In the first column, students will draw one thing they like to do at school and one thing they like to do at home. In the second column the students will draw a least favorite activity or thing for school and another for home. 5. Upon completion of the activity sheet, the puppets will instruct students to bring their activity sheet and join the Sharing Circle. Each student will share what they like best/least at school and home. The puppets will pass the “Sharing Circle Ball” to the student who starts the Sharing Circle process. 6. The counselor asks: How did you decide what you like or don’t like? 7. Puppets will facilitate students’ summarization of the discussion, emphasizing: a.) that each child had great ideas; b.) that there were so many different ideas; c.) that it is important to remember that everyone has different and similar “favorite and not so favorite” things he or she does....and that’s okay! d) our favorite or not so favorites will change as life goes on and people grow and change. 8. Puppets thank the students for allowing them to visit their classroom, and promise to return. NOTE: Counselor may also choose to put the favorite things on the “front” side of the worksheet, and the least favorite things on the “back” side of the worksheet.	home. 5. Students will bring their papers to a Sharing Circle in the room and sit down in the circle quietly. Each student will respond in turn as they receive the “Sharing Circle Ball” the other students will listen. If class is large, the counselor may want to have half the students share one thing they like best, and other half share what they like least. 6. Students’ responses will indicate a beginning awareness of “influences” in their lives e.g. “I don’t like to get my hands dirty.” “My friend, Lucy, doesn’t like to sweep and neither do I.” 7. Students will actively respond to the puppets’ prompts, bringing out: the concepts of              a. Each person has “favorite and not so favorite” things he or she does.              b. We make choices based on our likes and dislikes (using age- appropriate language/vocabulary). 8. Students close with saying, “You’re Welcome” or “Good-Bye” to the puppets.

 Performance Task: Students (as a class) will match job with the most appropriate career paths using job list on board or career cards as “starters”. Students will be encouraged to add other jobs to the career paths.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:
 Is it important for us to know where we are going when we get up in the morning? If we don't what might happen?
Engagement (Hook): Put on some music. Have students form a train or line in the classroom behind the counselor. Start walking around the room in a train form. Say we are making a path in our classroom. Indicate different locations in the room and then take the train of students in that direction (Example: We are making a path to the bookshelf). When the song finishes explain to the students that you just made a path to different places in the room. Just like when people decide what job they want and then they have follow different paths to get there.

Procedures

1. The counselor will distribute the mini career path poster from the last class. Same as the last class, the counselor will draw a circle on the board with career paths written in the middle of the circle. The counselor will draw six lines from it (see illustration under #1 on student	1. Students will review the career path poster, and listen to the examples.

involvement). Write one of the six career paths at the end of each line and explain the meaning of each Example: Start with Business Path (People who like to work with numbers and be organized.) Continue to introduce the career paths and pictures on the poster (in order).... Creative Path, Nature Path, Fixing/Building and Technology Path, Helping Path and Health Path.

2. Discuss the Icon symbols on the Career Path Mini Poster and share what the symbol represents for that career path. The counselor will return each student's copy of the mini-poster from Lesson 2. Say, "Hold up you hand if you remember how many Career Paths there are. Distribute the poster to students. Hint: If you don't remember, look at the pictures on the Left side of the mini-poster.
3. Puppets will ask, "Which career path is the most important?" If students do not respond with "all," puppets will tell the class that EVERY Career Path is important and discuss why all jobs are important. Give an example: "If we didn't have doctors what would happen?" If we didn't have farmers what would happen?"
4. Counselor will review the job titles listed during Lesson 2 and ask students to name jobs they observed people doing since that lesson. New cards will be made and added to the set of career cards. The puppets tell students they are going to play the Career Path Game. Several students will be selected to draw Career Cards. The counselor will read the job title and the student will identify a possible Career Path for that job.

2. The students will review the symbols as the counselor/puppets are talking about each career path.
3. Students will offer suggestions.
4. Students will contribute new job titles.

5. Write the name of one Career Path on each of the 6 poster boards or on the “black board” (Career Cards will be placed in columns under the appropriate Career Path.). 6. The puppets tell the students to take their Career Path Mini Posters home to discuss it with their parents or an adult at home. Suggest that the students ask their parents to help determine the career paths their parents’ jobs fit into.	5. Students will play the game and respond with the appropriate career path. Classmates will assist in matching the jobs and career paths if needed. 6. The students will take the their mini-poster, home and discuss the Career Paths with their parents or other adults at home.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
 Students will be able to name a personal strength, indicate interests, and explain the importance of jobs to home and school.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

1. Why are children expected to do jobs at home? Why are students expected to do jobs at school?
2. Why do people need to have jobs at home or school?
3. What are some important jobs that people do at home and in your classroom?
4. What would happen if people didn't have jobs?

Engagement (Hook):
 Look at the classroom job chart. Name each job, and ask the students to give a "thumbs-up" if they would like to do the job. Ask the students, "Which jobs would you do well in the classroom? Are there some classroom jobs that interest you more than others?"

Procedures

Instructor Procedures: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. After the hook, summarize what the students have said; noting jobs that individuals mentioned as being jobs they would do best (e.g. Mario and Sarah said they would be able to do the job of librarian really well since they like to visit the library. I noticed that they gave the librarian a "thumbs-up" when I asked what jobs you would like.). Tell the students that things we can do really well are called "strengths."</li> </ol>	Student Involvement: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Students will listen.</li> </ol>
---	---

2. Ask, “What is an interest?” Does an interest have to be strength of person? Is there a difference between strength and an interest? The classroom jobs you gave a “thumbs up” rating are interests you indicated you’d like to do the job. 3. Ask the students to form a circle. The counselor says, “This is our Strength/Interest Circle.” To reinforce the concept of “strength and/or interests,” ask each student to tell one strength and one interest at school or at home. Give some examples, if necessary (examples: My strength is helping others in my family. I’m interested in reading books at school. I’m interested in finding out new things). 4. On the flip chat write Our Jobs At Home. Create a home job chart using suggestions from the students. The counselor will write the suggestions on the chart. 5. Name each job and ask students to give a “thumbs-up” if they like the job. Ask 3 or 4 students to tell what they like about those jobs. After reviewing the list, make the connection between what they like to do/ are interested in doing and what they are good at doing. 6. Looking at the 2 job charts (classroom and home), ask the students which jobs are important. What would happen in the classroom if we didn’t have people to do the Jobs? Example: Paper Passer: If we didn’t have the paper passer everyone would get up at once and to get paper, or the teacher would have to take time out of the lesson to pass out all of the papers and lose learning time. What would we see if the job of paper passer was done well?	2. Students’ possible response: An interest is something I like to do or want to know more about. A person doesn’t have to be good at something for it to be an interest. You may have an interest in baseball, but it may not be a sport that is a strength for you to perform. Your interest may be working at the computer and strength maybe computer games. 3. Students will form a circle in the classroom and sit on the floor. Students will pass a Sharing Circle Ball around and take turns telling what a personal strength/interest is of theirs when the ball comes to them. 4. Students will offer suggestions of jobs at home. 5. Students will give a “thumbs-up” to indicate if they like a job and identify one or two “things” they like about the job. 6. Students will generate responses indicating: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Consequences of no one doing a specific job.</li><li>• Using strengths to do a job well.</li><li>• Consequences of no one doing jobs at home.</li></ul>
---	---

Follow this up by explaining that we would recognize this as being a person’s strength.  What would happen at home if people didn’t do their jobs? Example: If someone didn’t do the job of washing the dishes then there would be dirty dishes stacked all over the cabinets. 7. Summarize the lesson by stating that people have different strengths and interests which help them do their jobs well. Reinforce that all jobs are important to help our homes and schools “run smoothly.” 8. Close lesson with a “Sharing Circle”: Using the Sharing Circle Ball, ask students to tell the class one idea they will remember about interests or strengths or job (Remember: 1st graders need help staying focused on topic.	7. Students give final thoughts if asked. 8. Students will share ideas.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

When the teacher assigns classroom jobs, she/he might reinforce the strengths and interests that students are bringing to those tasks.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:                  1. Why do we need workers in our community? Engagement (Hook):                  Counselor begins by giving clues of an easily identifiable community job, making sure that each clue relates back to the descriptors within a career path (i.e. I am a helping person. I like to work with people. I give medicine to people when they are sick. Who am I?) A job from each career path should be included.
---

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. After the hook activity, counselor/puppets explain that the jobs they just identified are all in separate career paths. The counselor will post the Career Paths Mini Poster at the front of the room.</li> <li>2. The counselor asks students to put on “memory caps” and recall what they remember /know about the Career Path there are 6 different career paths; there are many jobs in each Career Path. Counselor/puppets will introduce the six Career Paths using the descriptions on the posters.</li> <li>3. The counselor asks students, “What skills have you learned since starting school?” The counselor will write the students’ ideas on the board. “Did you know you started on your career path the first day you started preschool or Kindergarten?” Counselor explains the connection between what they are learning/have learned at school and the world of work. When you were in Kindergarten you learned about strengths and interests. Think about the things on our list you like or do well.... What workers are required to use the skills you like or do well in their work every day? Ask volunteers to answer. Did you know you can turn your interests into skill strengths if you want to! Students will state the job title and one skill strength (e.g. A Veterinarian has to have lots of skill strength in measuring so he or she will give the right amount of medicine to my horse.)

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

The teacher may want to keep the Career Path posters posted in the classroom. As jobs are mentioned in the course of instruction, the teacher can ask what career path each job matches.

Work Sample and Performance Task: Students will complete the first and second sections of the Activity Sheet "New Things To Learn and Explore." Students will then identify the Career Path(s) that will link them to careers using the link between those activities and interests.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

Why is it important to know one's own strengths and interests in regard to a future career? Hold up your hand if you have done a "connect the dots" activity. When connecting the dots what did you discover?

Engagement (Hook):

Let's think about Christopher Columbus, the famous explorer. What kinds of interests/activities do you think he had/liked to do? What career path do you think Christopher Columbus followed? His interests/activities led him to be an explorer. Today, each of you is going to be an explorer.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. Begin by using the "hook." Ask: What is an explorer? What will you do as an explorer?
2. Ask students to reflect on last year's discussion on their strengths and interests.
3. Counselor will ask for a volunteer to explain what an "interest" is, and what an "activity" is. Counselor will ask, "How is an activity different from an interest?"
Counselor will instruct students that an interest is something you like to do or you want to learn more about ("I'm interested in reading." "I'm interested in building things."). An activity is something that you participate in at school, home or in the

Student Involvement:

1. Students will offer suggestions about what interests/activities they think Christopher Columbus might have had (e.g. Reading maps, boats, traveling to new places).
  - Volunteer definitions of "Explorer"
  - Volunteer descriptions of activities they will do as an explorer.
2. Students volunteer meaning/examples of strengths/interests.
3. Students volunteer to answers and invite others to volunteer.

community. You can do this on your own or in a group (“I am reading all of the Harry Potter books.” “I am building a log cabin with my Lego’s.”). As appropriate... Say, “We can connect our interests and strengths to our choices of activities. For example, I am reading all the Harry Potter books (activity) because I’m a good reader (skill strength) and am curious about wizardry (interest) OR “I’m listening “ to all the Harry Potter books on tape because I’m a slow reader (lack of skill strength) and a good listener (skill strength) and am curious about wizardry (interest).” 4. Counselor will give each student the Activity Sheet “New Things to Learn and Explore.” Counselor will instruct students to put their thinking caps on and think about what kinds of activities they might like to learn. Counselor will remind students that a person doesn’t necessarily have to be good at an activity to learn it. But, it’s important to be interested in learning. Counselor will instruct students that some examples of activities to learn might include swimming, dancing, riding a bike or baseball. 5. Counselor will instruct students to complete the first two section of Activity Sheet by writing two activities and two interests that they will explore. 6. Counselor will distribute copies of the Career Path Mini-Poster to students. Instruct students to turn the Activity Sheet over while they review the six career paths. (Students will match each activity and interest with the appropriate career path.) 7. Counselor will review the lesson by stating, “Being an explorer means trying new things. As you grow older, you will be learning and trying lots of new things that will lead you to future jobs and careers: What did you learn today about exploring new things. During	4. Students will listen to the instructions. 5. Students will write their responses to the first two on the worksheet. 6. Students will write their responses on the worksheet. If time allows, students can work in pairs/groups on matching activities/interests to career paths. 7. Students will listen and volunteer to tell one “thing” they learned. our next lesson, we will be connecting the dots between Academic (School) Skills and Career Paths. Observe workers: look for the School Skills they use.

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Summative assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
 CD.7.A.03.a.i: Students will demonstrate knowledge of goal-setting process by listing and explaining in writing.
 CD.7.A.03.a.i: Students will write a personal school goal by developing a written plan to reach the goal and will evaluate the success of their actions to accomplish that goal.
 CD.7.B.03.a.i: Students will be able to identify academic skills needed for success in careers.
 CD.7.C.03.a.i: Students will explain (orally and in writing) contributions specific workers make to the community/school.

Brief Summary of Unit:

In this unit, students will learn the steps of goal setting. They will engage in practical application of these steps by setting and evaluating their own personal school goals. Students will learn to identify those academic subjects that assisted workers as they worked to achieve their career goals. They will also identify their academic subjects/skills they continue to use in their work contributions to their communities.

Unit Goals:

CD.7.A.03.a.i: Students will identify and apply the steps to setting short-term and long term, personal and educational goals.

CD.7.B.03.a.i: Students will compare and contrast the academic skills required of workers in the different career paths.

CD.7.C.03.a.i: Students will recognize the contributions made by all workers to the school and community.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Students will have knowledge of personal strengths and weaknesses related to academics and behavior.

Students will have knowledge of the career paths and the work represented within each career path.

Students will be familiar with different types of workers within the school and the community.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
Students will explain, orally and in writing the step-by-step process for goal setting.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

What are some of your accomplishments? What is your greatest accomplishment at home or at school? How did accomplishing this goal affect you and the people around you?

Engagement (Hook):

“Think about something they want to accomplish and imagine it 5 ft. in front of you.”
Take one step to get to the accomplishment. (They will find they can't do it. Some students will fall down when they try to take a really large step.) What happened? Did you reach what you wanted to accomplish in one step? How would additional and specific directions from me have helped you get to your accomplishment? “We're going to talk about how it sometimes takes many steps to accomplish something in a short or long period of time.”

Procedures

Instructor Procedure:

1. If you want to accomplish “something, you have to know where you want to GO (Goal) and how you will get there (steps to your Goal). Divides students into groups of four by counting off. The instructor explains that the students are going to brainstorm ideas together. Who will explain what brainstorming means? Brainstorming is when students come up with a variety of ideas to answer a question.
  - a. The instructor asks students to brainstorm words to complete the sentence: What is a goal?
  - b. Students brainstorm the following: What are ideas for personal goals? What are ideas for educational goals?

Personal Goal: A personal goal is something you want to learn or improve on in your life.
Example: I want to improve my basketball

Student Involvement:

1. Students number off. 2 or 3 students will explain the process of brainstorming to the class and get into their groups.
  - a. Students brainstorm what they think a goal is. Possible responses:
    - A goal is something a person wants to accomplish or improve.
    - Something I want to improve.
  - b. Students brainstorm ideas on what a personal goal is and what an educational goal is:

skills: free throw shooting and vertical jump. Educational Goal: An educational goal is a goal you set to accomplish or improve on in school. Example: “I learn to say my multiplication facts really fast.” 2. There are two types of Educational and Personal Goals: Short-Term and Long Term Goals. Brainstorm in small groups what short and long term goals mean. a. Short-term goal is a goal that can be Accomplished in a short period of time. Example: I will finish this before recess. Discuss other examples. b. Long-term goal is a goal that is worked on over an extended period of time. Example: This science project is due in three weeks. I will start on it by Friday. Discuss other examples. 3. Introduce the steps in setting goals. a. Goal - Choose goal b. Discuss - Discuss the goal with the teacher or friend, if necessary. c. Plan - The student makes a step-by-step plan and writes it down. 1) How do I start my goal? 2) What will help me complete it? 3) What actions will I take to reach my goal? d. Timeline - Set a timeline (beginning and ending date and time). e. Self-Assess – How will you check your goal. f. Evaluate- the students will evaluate their success at the end of the timeline. 4. Students are given an Activity Sheet “The Steps For Setting a Goal” to write the step-by step process for goal setting. 5. Tell students to discuss in small groups what would happen if one of the steps in the process were left out.	2. Discuss possible responses and write their responses on a piece of paper to share with the class. Groups share their ideas. 3. Review steps in setting a goal: 4. Students will complete the sheet and review the steps with the class to self-assess their ability to recall the steps. 5. Students brainstorm and share ideas.

6. The instructor reviews the Activity Sheet “The Steps For Setting a Goal” and lets students know they will be completing a Goal Activity Sheet next week. The instructor asks students to think about a short-term educational goal over the next week that they would like to accomplish for their next session.	6. Students spend the next week thinking about a short-term goal they might like to accomplish and the steps they would implement to accomplish that goal.

THE STEPS FOR SETTING A GOAL

Steps:

1. Set Goal

Think about a goal and set a personal or educational goal.

2. Discuss

Discuss the goal with the instructor or a friend.

3. Plan

Make a step-by-step plan to accomplish the goal.

4. Set Timeline

Set a timeline for beginning and finishing each step toward the goal.

5. Self – Assess (Rethink-Revise/Refine-Reflect)

How will I check (evaluate) the effectiveness of my actions at each step toward accomplishing my goal?

6. Evaluate

How did I do at accomplishing my goal?

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's.
Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
 Students will complete a written plan of a short-term educational goal.

Lesson Preparation

1. Essential Questions:
 How do people use short-term goals?
 How do people use long-term goals?

2. Engagement: Put a trashcan in the middle of the floor and wad up a piece of paper. Throw the paper toward the trashcan and miss the can. The instructor asks students what s/he should do. Should I give up? The students will say no, try again. The instructor tries again, but misses. The instructor asks what s/he should do? The students will hopefully tell the instructor to make another plan and move to a new spot. The instructor shoots a third time and makes the goal. Is this a short or long term goal? (short-term goal)

Procedures

Instructor Procedure: 1. The instructor reviews the definitions of goal: short-term and long-term goals.  A goal is something a person wants to accomplish or improve. Short and long term goals: a. Short-term goal is a goal that can be accomplished in a short period of time.  b. Long-term goal is a goal that is worked on over an extended period of time. 2. The instructor reviews the steps to setting a goal with the students. Refer to Activity Sheet "Steps for Setting Goals" in lesson 1.	Student Involvement: 1. Students share their ideas. 2. Review the steps in setting goals. a. Goal - Choose goal  b. Discuss - Discuss the goal with the teacher or friend, if necessary.  c. Plan - The student makes a step-by-step plan and writes it down.  1) How do I start my goal?  2) What will help me complete it?  3) What actions will I take to reach my goal?  d. Timeline - Set a timeline (beginning and ending date and time).
--	--

3. The instructor assists each student in developing a short-term educational goal sheet to complete by the next class session. Use the Weekly Goal Sheet. Remind the students that an educational goal is related to school. 4. Once the plans are complete the instructor asks a few of the students to review their goal and plan with the class. 5. The counselor gives each student a “Student Mini Goal Activity Sheet My Goal Sheet”. Students are instructed to complete the top part of the mini goal sheet and tape it to his or her desk. This will help students keep track of their short-term goal success throughout the week. Students will work to accomplish their short-term Educational Goals by the next class session. They will evaluate their success at that time.	e. Self-Assess – How will you check your goal. f. Evaluate- the students will evaluate their success at the end of the timeline. 3. The students complete the goal sheet, and discuss their educational goal and plan with another student or the instructor. 4. Volunteer share short-term goals and plans. 5. Students agree to work on accomplishing their goal over the next week. The students will write their names, the date, and their short-term educational goals on their “Student Mini Goal Activity Sheet My Goal Sheet”. The students will tape to the Activity Sheet to the top of their desk as a reminder of their goal and mark their progress daily.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Students will review their weekly goal sheet and evaluate the success of their actions toward and accomplish of their goal (self-assessment- Rethink- Revise/Refine-Reflect).

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

What does evaluation mean? Why are you evaluated at school?

Engagement: Evaluate how your day has gone so far today. Students will raise their hands as the counselor shares the words underlined words below.

Feedback: Great...why? Okay...Why? Not good...Why? One or two students will explain why they evaluated their days as they did.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. The instructor asks students to brainstorm in small groups of 4 or 5 and share their meaning of "evaluation." Evaluation is like feedback...how did you do?
2. Students are given the weekly goal setting plan they completed during the last session to review and evaluate the success of their actions.
3. Students are asked to write their self-evaluation feedback on the plan they developed in lesson 2.
4. Instructor asks students to share their self-evaluation feedback in small groups and then asks a few students to share "learning" with the larger group.
5. At the end of class the instructor asks students to continue to set short term goals for their schoolwork.

Student Involvement:

1. Students brainstorm their ideas in small group and share their ideas with the larger group.
2. Students self assess how they did with accomplishing their short-term goal after reviewing their Student Mini Goal Sheet that is taped to their desk.
3. Students evaluate their success using the following scale:
  - a. I completed my goal.
  - b. I improved my goal.
  - c. I am still working on my goal.
  - d. I didn't do anything to accomplish my goal.
4. Students share their self-evaluation feedback and/or a "Big Idea" they learned.
5. Students take a supply of mini goal sheets to continue to use in their goal setting.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

The instructor encourages the teacher to have students set weekly short-term goals using the mini goal sheet.

 Students will be able to identify, compare and contrast the academic skills that relate to different jobs/workers, and contributions of community/school workers as demonstrated by collaborative completion of: "The Career of A Community Hero."

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

1. What contributions do workers make to our school and community, and why are these contributions important?
2. What are the academic skills required of workers in the various career paths? How do these skills help workers to be successful?

Engagement (Hook):
 Show a picture of a super hero. Why is this person a super hero in the cartoons? Today we are going to talk about heroes in our community, what makes each one great, and how they contribute to our school or community.

 Work Sample: Students will complete an inventory indicating individual work preferences. Complete an inventory indicating individual work preferences to the work requirements and environments of workers in each of the six Career Paths. They will identify at least five occupations that match their preferences AND two occupations that appear to not match their preferences. Students will conduct an exploration of one occupation that matches their work preferences and one occupation that does not.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:
 How does knowing oneself better prepare a person for choosing rewarding career? How are people who have the jobs with the same job title, similar and different?
Engagement (Hook):
 Counselor asks: "Who thinks that they know themselves very well?" Students will raise their hands if they agree. Counselor explains that students will be doing a self-assessment, an exercise that will help them discover more information about themselves and their own strengths and interests. "On this exercise, there are no wrong answers...only right ones because they are personal to you."

NAME _____ GRADE _____

WHERE DO I FIT???

Fourth Grade Self-Assessment

Ever wonder what you'll do best when you grow up? Do you think about your skills and talents and which ones will lead you to a career? Learning about ourselves is very important as we make decisions about the future. On this Activity Sheet, mark a "Y" for yes, "N" for no, or "M" for maybe for each item. Make sure your answers are honest and meaningful.

1. Do you like to work with:

- a. _____ tools
- b. _____ animals
- c. _____ science
- d. _____ people
- e. _____ numbers
- f. _____ words
- g. _____ machines
- h. _____ musical instruments
- i. _____ computers
- j. _____ plants

2. Do you like to:

- a. _____ be outdoors
- b. _____ be inside
- c. _____ move around a lot
- d. _____ stay in one place
- e. _____ be with other people
- f. _____ spend time alone
- g. _____ make/fix things
- h. _____ talk to people

3. Do you think you would be willing to:
- _____work 10 to 12 hours each day
  - _____work very early in the morning
  - _____work in the evening or during the night
  - _____work on weekends, if necessary
  - _____travel and be away from home a lot
  - _____get a college education or more career training
  - _____continue to learn new things throughout your career

4. Are you physically able to:

- _____climb a ladder
- _____stand on your feet for hours at a time
- _____walk a lot
- _____hear what others are saying
- _____see clearly
- _____use your eyes for close work for hours at a time

5. Could you:

- _____sit in one place for hours at a time
- _____work alone if you had to
- _____work with other people
- _____speak pleasantly regardless of how you feel
- _____be pleasant to someone who is not pleasant to you
- _____do the same thing repeatedly and still be accurate and quick
- _____do many different things in the same day
- _____tell other people what to do and be responsible for making sure that they do it

6. Are you able to:

- _____persuade other people to do what you want them to do
- _____keep accurate records
- _____follow written directions
- _____follow oral directions
- _____do a job as instructed
- _____get your work done even if the boss is away
- _____leave your personal problems at home

7. Are you willing to:

- a. _____be neat, clean, and dressed nicely while you are working
- b. _____be on time for work and have regular attendance on the job
- c. _____get your hands and clothing dirty
- d. _____wear a uniform
- e. _____work without pay while you are learning how to do your job
- f. _____work at a job that might be dangerous

8. Are you the kind of person who could:

- a. _____keep doing the same tasks over and over, and still do them well
- b. _____work with people who are in trouble and need your help
- c. _____work with people who are sick or injured
- d. _____make decisions and accept blame if they are wrong decisions
- e. _____give orders in such a way that others will follow them
- f. _____think up ideas and new ways of doing things
- g. _____remain calm in an emergency
- h. _____meet deadlines and have work ready when it is due

9. Could you work accurately and quickly if:

- a. _____you were in an open place high above the ground
- b. _____you were in a small closed-in space
- c. _____there was a lot of noise around you
- d. _____you were in a place that was smelly
- e. _____it was very hot
- f. _____it was very cold
- g. _____you had to work outside in the rain and snow
- h. _____you had to work under pressure

Number of "yes" answers:_____

Number of "no" answers:_____

Number of "maybe" answers:_____

If you have a lot of "yes" and "maybe" answers, you probably are open to many different types of careers. If you have many "no" answers, you are less flexible about what types of jobs you might like.

Now that you have this information, look at the Career Path poster and figure out careers and career paths that fit you best!

 Teacher Observation: The counselor will evaluate students on their use of the software and/or career resources. Their usage will demonstrate: ability to access software programs, access online age-appropriate resources, conduct a Webquest; find and use print resources.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:
 Why is it important to research careers? When will you know that you have enough information to make a decision about your career?
Engagement (Hook): Counselor stands in front of class holding a map or a travel guide. Counselor says: "If I were going to take a trip, what kinds of things would I need to get from here to there?" Counselor says: "A career path is a journey, as well. It leads us from here to there, in terms of a future career. Along our career journey, we will need lots of information to help us make the best decision for ourselves. Today, we are going to talk about some of the ways/places we can uncover career information."

Procedures

Instructors Procedures:	Students Involvement:
1. After the hook is shared and essential questions are asked, the counselor shares with students that there are many different resources to use for career exploration. Note: This lesson plan is formatted using three difference options for accessing career resources. a. The first option is using computer	1. Students listen to the examples of different resources and share ideas about resources during essential questions.

software (Example: Career exploration software, such as Paws In Jobland (Bridges.com), Coin Climb (www.coin3.com)). b. The second option is using a resource book for career exploration (Example: Children’s Dictionary of Occupational Titles). c. The third option is using guest speakers (community workers) as a resource (Example: A banker would speak to the class or a panel of speakers would share information about their jobs.). 2. Option 1: The counselor boots up the Jobland Program. The counselor familiarizes the class with the icons used in the Jobland program. NOTE: Counselor will strive to have computers available for each student. Counselor will determine best way to ensure greatest hands on experience. 3. The counselor selects a student to assist with the demonstration, clicking on the icon to begin the program. NOTE: This is an opportunity for those who may not have access to computers at home to gain experience. 4. The counselor instructs the student to click on Jobland. Counselor tells students some general information about Jobland. 5. The counselor selects another student to click on one of the buildings in Jobland (this can be counselor choice or student choice). 6. From the pop up menu for that building, the student or counselor will read aloud the list of options. One option is selected. 7. Steps 5 and 6 are repeated, as time allows. 8. Counselor tells the class that there are 100	2. The students observe the method of booting up a computer. 3. Students listen to the opening statements from Paws. 4. Students watch the software and listens to the explanation of Jobland. 5. Students watch the demonstration. Students may encourage buildings to choose. 6. Students watch and listen to the description of the selected career. 7. Additional students will be chosen to assist the exploration. 8. Students listen to the explanation and

careers in the Jobland program, showing them the alphabetical list. 9. Counselor leads class in the Jobland Job Finder assessment. When the Job Finder is complete, it indicates which area of Jobland might be of most interest, based on the students' responses. 10. Counselor reminds class that they may use this software on their classroom computer or in the library. Counselor also presents the other career exploration resources brought to the class, encouraging students to explore on their own (e.g. books, videos, C.D.'s, DVD's) 11. Option 2: Counselor divides students into groups of 3-4 students. A career resource book (Example Resource: Children's Dictionary of Occupations) is given to share in each group. Each student will also be given a job picture from the Job Activity Picture Sheet or select career to research based on what they discovered about themselves when they completed "Where Do I Fit" (Lesson 1). The students are also given a job research sheet "A Job I'm Interested in Finding Out More About..." to use with the resource book to research about a certain job. 12. The counselor asks the students to use career information resources to complete the Activity Sheets and share their work. 13. Option 3: This option uses community workers as a resource (Example: A banker would speak to the class or a panel of speakers would share information about their jobs.). The following format would be used: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Introduction of Self</li><li>• Job Title</li><li>• Description of Job</li></ul>	name jobs they hope are on the list. 9. Students help complete the assessment by responding to the questions. Students continue to share responses. 10. Students review where computers are located. 11. Students divide into groups. Each student selects a job picture or selects a job to research. Each student completes a job Research Sheet. 12. Students share their research with the class. 13. Students will listen to the classroom speaker(s) and ask appropriate questions.
---	---

<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Job Training Needed</li><li>• School Skills They Use on the Job (i.e. math, science, reading, writing)</li><li>• Demonstration of Equipment (if needed)</li></ul> 14. The students are given a Job Research Activity Sheet “A Job I’m Interested in Finding Out More About...” to complete while listening to the speaker. 15. After using one of the above resources in the classroom the counselor will review the other resources available for future career exploration. Students will be encouraged to use the Job Research Activity Sheet to interview workers outside the class.	14. Students will complete worksheet. 15. Students will participate in the review of resources and what they have learned.

CD.7.B.05.a.i: Describe occupational changes that have occurred over time within the six career paths.

CD.7.C.05.a.i: Describe the self-satisfaction that comes from completing a work responsibility.

American School Counselor Association National Standard (ASCA):

Career Development:

A: Students will acquire the skills to investigate the world of work in relation to knowledge of self and to make informed career decisions.

C: Students will understand the relationship between training and the world of work.

Show Me Standards: Performance Goals (check one or more that apply)

X	Goal 1: Gather, analyze and apply information and ideas
X	Goal 2: Communicate effectively within and beyond the classroom
X	Goal 3: Recognize and solve problems
X	Goal 4: Make decisions and act as responsible members of society

This lesson supports the development of skills in the following academic content areas.

Academic Content Area(s)	Specific Skill(s)
X Communication Arts	3. Reading and evaluating nonfiction works and material 4. Writing formally and informally
Mathematics
X Social Studies	6. Relationships of the individual and groups to institutions and cultural traditions
Science
Health/Physical Education
Fine Arts

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Summative assessment relates to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
 Students will compare/contrast "Where Do I Fit" Activity Sheets of working conditions completed in grade 4 with grade 5 "Where Do I Fit" Activity Sheet. Students will interview a worker and complete "How Times Have Changed" Activity Sheet regarding how his/her job has changed over the past 10 years, and how those changes have benefited him/her and the job outcome.

Brief Summary of Unit:
 Students will complete a second "Where Do I Fit" Activity Sheet and compare the 5th grade results with grade 4 (see CD7-Gr4-Unit1-Lesson1). This will create an awareness of areas/personal preferences that have changed in the past year, and how those changes may affect his or her career choices.

Students will interview a parent or school staff member to learn how jobs have changed over the past 10 years. Results will be presented to the class.

Unit Goals:
 CD.7.A.05.a.i: Students will compare personal and educational interests and strengths with those of workers in the global community.
 CD.7.B.05.a.i: Students will describe occupational changes that have occurred over time within the six career paths.
 CD.7.C.05.a.i: Students will know the self-satisfaction that comes from completing a work responsibility.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Students will have knowledge of their own personal and educational interests and strengths.

Students will have knowledge of the six career paths.

Students will have basic knowledge of various jobs.

Students will know how to conduct an information-gathering interview and record responses in writing.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Students will complete a new Activity Sheet indicating individual preferences. They will compare these preferences with their in grade 4, preferences contrasting the two sets of responses. Using the Career Paths Mini Poster, students will select a career that matches their preferences.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

1. Why is it important for things to change in the world?
2. How have you changed over the years? How were those changes important to you?
3. What are your personal and educational interests and strengths now?

Engagement (Hook):

Counselor asks: "Have you changed your interests since you were in Kindergarten? How have they changed?" Students will give their ideas of how they have changed. "Thumbs up if you have changed since last year?" Students will give thumbs up if they agree. Counselor explains that students will be doing a self-assessment (Where Do I Fit) that they may have done last year which help students discover more information about their own strengths and interests. Students will be able to compare last year's responses with this year's responses, and decide areas in which they have changed. "Remember: there are no wrong answers...only right ones because they are personal to you."

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. Counselor will use responses in the "Hook" to transition into decision-making and self-knowledge. Explain that it is important to know that as we grow, our interests and strengths may change. Having this knowledge helps each person make better decisions for his/her own life and/or work satisfaction. Ask 3 or 4 students to explain one change in their interests since Kindergarten.
2. Counselor will distribute the new copy of the Where Do I Fit? Activity Sheet. Students will be given time to "read-through" the

Student Involvement:

1. Students listen and contribute personal change.
2. Students will complete the worksheet.

Activity Sheet and to ask questions. They will be instructed to follow the directions by using “Y” “N” “M” to rate each preference when finished. They will be instructed to mark those items that most reflect what they like and can do well with an asterisk (*). 3. When finished, students will be given their Activity Sheets from grade 4. They will be instructed to compare the two sets of answers and to highlight changes on the 5th grade version. If a student did not complete the “Where Do I Fit” last year, have them contribute from their memory of last year’s preferences. 4. When students are finished, counselor will then ask the students to look at the list of workers on the Mini Poster – Jobs in the World of Work, which has a list of workers. Students will review attributes they marked on the “Where Do I Fit?” Activity Sheets and will compare them to the attributes that they think specific workers might have, using their knowledge of the career paths as a reference. The Career Path Mini Poster will be reviewed with the students. 5. Each student will choose a minimum of 5 workers from the list that they identify most. From the list of 5 they will pick one worker and will briefly discuss this worker’s contributions to society through his or her work. Students may do this individually or in small groups (Example: Law Enforcement Officer– keep people safe, save lives, help people follow the laws, rescue people.). 6. Ask students to tell one new “thing” learned about him or her and at least one new career that may match their personal attributes and preferences.	3. Students will compare their answers on the worksheet to the 4th grade results. 4. Students will compare their 5th grade responses to the preferences of workers in the Career Paths. 5. Students will identify 5 workers who match their preferences and from the list of 5 choose one worker, and will identify this worker’s contributions to society through his or her work. 6. Students will reflect and give their responses.

WHERE DO I FIT???

(Fifth Grade Self Assessment)

Ever wonder what you'll do best at when you grow up? Do you think about your skills and talents and that which ones will lead you to a career? Learning about ourselves is very important as we make decisions about the future. On this Activity Sheet, mark a "Y" for yes, "N" for no, or "M" for maybe for each item. Make sure your answers are meaningful for you. In all honesty, you should not answer yes or no to all questions.

1. Do you like to work with:

- a. _____ tools
- b. _____ animals
- c. _____ science
- d. _____ people
- e. _____ numbers
- f. _____ words
- g. _____ machines
- h. _____ musical instruments
- i. _____ computers
- j. _____ plants

2. Do you like to:

- a. _____ be outdoors
- b. _____ be inside
- c. _____ move around a lot
- d. _____ stay in one place
- e. _____ be with other people
- f. _____ spend time alone
- g. _____ make/fix things
- h. _____ talk to people

3. Do you think you would be willing to:
- _____work 10 to 12 hours each day
  - _____work very early in the morning
  - _____work in the evening or during the night
  - _____work on weekends, if necessary
  - _____travel and be away from home a lot
  - _____get a college education or more career training
  - _____continue to learn new things throughout your career

4. Are you physically able to:

- _____climb a ladder
- _____stand on your feet for hours at a time
- _____walk a lot
- _____hear what others are saying
- _____see clearly
- _____use your eyes for close work for hours at a time

5. Could you:

- _____sit in one place for hours at a time
- _____work alone if you had to
- _____work with other people
- _____speak pleasantly regardless of how you feel
- _____be pleasant to someone who is not pleasant to you
- _____do the same thing repeatedly and still be accurate and quick
- _____do many different things in the same day
- _____tell other people what to do and be responsible for making sure that they do it

6. Are you able to:

- _____persuade other people to do what you want them to do
- _____keep accurate records
- _____follow written directions
- _____follow oral directions
- _____do a job as instructed
- _____get your work done even if the boss is away
- _____leave your personal problems at home

7. Are you willing to:

- a. _____be neat, clean, and dressed nicely while you are working
- b. _____be on time for work and regular in your attendance on the job
- c. _____get your hands and clothing dirty
- d. _____wear a uniform
- e. _____work without pay while you are learning how to do your job
- f. _____work at a job that might be dangerous

8. Are you the kind of person who could:

- a. _____keep doing the same tasks over and over, and still do them well
- b. _____work with people who are in trouble and need your help
- c. _____work with people who are sick or injured
- d. _____make decisions and accept blame if they are wrong decisions
- e. _____give orders in such a way that others will follow them
- f. _____think up ideas and new ways of doing things
- g. _____remain calm in an emergency
- h. _____meet deadlines and have work ready when it is due

9. Could you work accurately and quickly if:

- a. _____you were in an open place high above the ground
- b. _____you were in a small closed-in space
- c. _____there was a lot of noise around you
- d. _____you were in a place that was smelly
- e. _____it was very hot
- f. _____it was very cold
- g. _____you had to work outside in the rain and snow
- h. _____you had to work under pressure

Number of "yes" answers: _____

Number of "no" answers: _____

Number of "maybe" answers: _____

If you have a lot of "yes" and "maybe" answers, you probably are open to many different types of careers. If you have many "no" answers, you are less flexible about what types of jobs you might like.

Now that you have this information, look at the Career Path poster and figure out some careers and career paths that fit you best!

Using the data collected during their worker interviews, students will work in groups to compile job changes. Using data from the list of changes the group generates, students will analyze the data to determine: categories of changes (e.g. changes in tools/equipment), patterns/trends of change (e.g. more/fewer changes in service related jobs than manufacturing jobs), future projections. Students will develop a graph to represent changes over time (group members will decide the kind of graph to be used). At conclusion of all group presentations, students will write a paragraph interpreting their findings in relation to their future.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

1. How have jobs changed in your lifetime? (e.g. medical changes, technology, teaching)
2. What are some ways that change in jobs impacts our lives?

Engagement (Hook):

Counselor tells the class that s/he wants to show them a picture of a really hot car. Counselor holds up the picture of a family sedan from 10 years ago. Counselor asks how many students agree that this is a hot car. (Hopefully, students will not agree.) Counselor explains that this car is from the year they were born. "Do you think this car ran well? Do you think it got people from one place to another? Do you think this car did its job?" Counselor then shows the picture of the new hot car, and repeats the process.

Length of Lesson: 30 minutes

Missouri Comprehensive Guidance Standard:
 CD.8: Knowing Where And How To Obtain Information About The World of Work and Post-Secondary Training/Education

Grade Level Expectation (GLE):
 CD.8.A.0K.a.i: Identify role and responsibilities of family members in the world of work.

American School Counselor Association National Standard (ASCA):
 Career Development
 C: Students will understand the relationship between personal qualities, education, training and the world of work.

Materials (include activity sheets and/ or supporting resources)

Counselor Materials: a BIG magnifying glass (paper or real)
 “Tool Box”: a collection of tools that workers use. (See Counselor’s Resource: “Tool Box”)

Show Me Standards: Performance Goals (check one or more that apply)

X	Goal 1: Gather, analyze and apply information and ideas
X	Goal 2: Communicate effectively within and beyond the classroom
	Goal 3: Recognize and solve problems
X	Goal 4: Make decisions and act as responsible members of society

This lesson supports the development of skills in the following academic content areas.

X	Respect		Goal Setting

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
 Students will demonstrate knowledge of specific roles and responsibilities for various jobs.
 Assessment will be through the activities that accompany the "Tool Box" discussion.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: (addressed during lesson)
 What is work?
 What is a role?
 What is a responsibility?

Engagement (Hook): Have or make an oversized magnifying glass. Tell the students that you are investigating the work people do. Ask the students to help you in the investigation.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Walk around classroom using BIG magnifying glass to get a closer look at various people and things in the room – act like a detective ... without talking directly to students – Make comments like “hmmmm,” “this is interesting,” “I can use this as evidence.” As you’re walking around, gather “evidence” of a teacher’s work role and responsibilities.</li> <li>2. Explain to students that they will help you investigate what people do while they are working. Ask 3-4 students to tell the class their definition of “investigate,” “work” and “workers.”</li> <li>3. Reveal the “Tool Box.” Pull out one or two tools; ask individual students to help you by holding the tools. As you take the tools out of the box, continue your investigator role with comments such as “Hmmm...I wonder who would use this tool at work?” or “Who</li> </ol>	Student Involvement: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Follow the same procedure with 3 or 4 more tools (depending upon students' attention span). 4. As you close the lesson for this day, ask students to tell one thing they have discovered about workers. Ask students to help you learn more about what people do at work by observing workers wherever they go. "During our next lesson together, we will talk about your observations and you will get to see more of the tools in the "Tool Box."	4. Students will volunteer to respond.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Encourage teachers to use vocabulary of work and roles and responsibility throughout the day and in other lessons.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)

TOOL BOX: A Collection of Tools Workers Use
Examples of Tools to Include in “Tool Box” (Counselor Resource)

Please note that this list is not all-inclusive and one tool may work with a variety of jobs. Use toy tools and/or pictures as well as real tools in order to get broad representation of workers.

A reminder: The terms “tool” “job title” “role” “responsibility” may be unfamiliar to kindergarten students, e.g., their prior knowledge may associate the word “role” with something they eat (roll) or do (roll around on the floor); they may not have prior experience with the word “role” in relationship to what adults do on their job.

Tool	Job Title	Role	Responsibility
Hammer	Carpenter	Builds/Repair Houses	Follow plans/directions from homeowner.
Wrench	Mechanic	Repair Vehicles	Repair what the owner asks.
Paintbrush	Painter (Could also be an artist.)	Paint Rooms/Houses	Change color to satisfy the owner.
Pencil	Writer	Write Books	Meet deadlines
Hair Dryer	Beautician	Fix People’s Hair	Talk with people about what they want done with their hair.
Bowl and Spoon	Chef	Cook Meals	Follow recipe
Stethoscope	Doctor	Help people who are sick	Listen to patient.
Ruler	Architect	Design buildings	Make sure the building is safe.
Books	Librarian	Provide information and resources.	Help people find books.
Telephone	Receptionist	Answer questions	Provide accurate information.
Calculator	Banker/Teller	Manage accounts	Accurately count money
Needle and Thread	Seamstress	Construct/Repair garments	Create or repair clothing to meet the interests of people.
Tractor	Farmer	Plant/Grow Crops	Take care of the crops/soil.

PARENT LETTER/FAMILY MEMBER JOB ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES: Activity Sheet

Dear Parent of Kindergartener:

Today we began discussion of the roles and responsibilities of various jobs. During our next session, students will begin the creation of a classroom book to illustrate the jobs that family members have and the roles and responsibilities of those jobs. In order for your child to complete his/her page in the classroom book, please complete the following information and return to the school by _____.

Thank you in advance for your help in this project.

My _____ (insert family member: mother, father, grandparent, brother, sister, etc.) has a job as a _____ (insert job name). At this job, he/she

---

(Insert brief description of role and responsibility family member has in his or her job).

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Students will describe the skills that their family members use on the job, using the Activity Sheets completed with their parents as a guide.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: (Review from lessons 1 & 2)

- What is work?
- What is a role?
- What is a responsibility?
- What is a skill?

Engagement (Hook):

Once again, bring in the big magnifying glass. This time, look through it at each child.

Brief Summary of Unit:
 This Unit continues the investigation of what adults do when they go to work. The focus in first grade is on gathering information about school workers. Students will be investigating to discover information about the world of work and workers within the school.

Unit Goals:

1. Student will learn the roles of school workers.
2. Student will learn the responsibilities of school workers.
3. Student will learn the job skills needed for school workers.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?
 Students will have some knowledge of what the adults in their school do when they go to work.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Through group discussion, students will identify the roles and responsibilities of various school workers. Students will identify implications of what would happen in the school community if we did not have a school worker to complete that role or responsibility.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

- What is a job? (Something that a person does. Examples: the custodian keeps the school clean, the teacher teaches children, the cook cooks the food.)
- What is a responsibility? (Things that are expected of the person in a work role. Examples: The custodian sweeps the floors, empties trash, cleans classrooms, vacuums, replaces toilet paper, orders cleaning supplies, etc. The teacher develops lesson plans, supervises children, grades papers, instructs classes, attend meetings, helps children manage their own behavior.)

(Review the above concepts at the beginning of the lesson and the following concept after the activities relating to roles and responsibilities of workers.)

- Why are school and learning important to workers? (Summarize by telling students that they are describing the skills people need to be able to do their work.)

Engagement (Hook):

Arrive in classroom with magnifying glass; search classroom as if looking for clues.

On poster board or chart paper (use a media that you will be able to keep and bring back for additional lessons) have students brainstorm all of the people that work in the school setting. Examples may include: Principal, Counselor, Teacher, Librarian, Custodian, Cooks, Secretary, Bus Driver, School Nurse (add other roles as applicable to your school setting).

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. Re-introduce yourself. If you remember what we investigated in Kindergarten, hold up your right hand. (Review Kindergarten lessons during which students interviewed parents and/or other adults about what they do in the world of work). I'm going to need your help again this year – You'll learn more about that in our next lessons together."

Student Involvement:

1. Students will demonstrate engagement by holding up their hands and contributing their ideas.

<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>2. Post a piece of poster board or chart paper with a circle or outline of a school building on it. Ask students to brainstorm jobs of the people who work within the school. As students brainstorm the possible jobs, counselor records the suggestions (be sure to leave plenty of space between each of the jobs so you will be able to write more about each job later in the lesson).</li><li>3. After students brainstorm the list of school workers, select one of the workers and ask students to identify what that worker does and the responsibilities of the person who does that job. For example, you might say, "Let's begin with the cooks. What is the role of the people who cook breakfast and lunch in our school? Record responses under the job title "cook."</li><li>4. As the students brainstorm, explain that they are describing the "role" of the cook and the counselor will record the role of the cook onto the poster.</li><li>5. Ask the students to brainstorm the responsibilities of the school cooks. Say something like: "Now, let's make a list of all of the responsibilities that our school cooks have." As students brainstorm the responsibilities, counselor again records the responses.</li><li>6. Follow the same procedure with the remaining school jobs listed in # 2.</li><li>7. Ask students "How can we be sure that these lists are correct?" Guide students to include "observation" as a way to verify the accuracy of the lists.</li><li>8. In closing, ask students to draw a picture of one school worker jobs they would like to</li></ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>2. Students will verbally brainstorm a list of jobs within the school building.</li><li>3. Students respond that the role of the cooks is to prepare breakfast (if applicable) and lunch for others in the school.</li><li>4. Students come to a consensus on the role of the cook.</li><li>5. Students brainstorm the responsibilities of the school cooks. Possible responses include: order food, cook food, serve food, get tables ready for students to eat on, wash trays and utensils, put away leftover food.</li><li>6. Students respond as in the previous example.</li><li>7. Students offer suggestions, including "observation". Counselor tells them that they are good "investigators," and asks them to continue investigating until the next lesson by observing people doing their work.</li><li>8. Students will draw a picture of one worker and volunteer to tell everyone</li></ol>

What is a role? (Something that a person does. Examples: the custodian keeps the school clean, the teacher teaches children, the cook cooks the food.)

What is a responsibility? Why is it important for workers to have responsibilities? (Things that are expected of the person in that role. Examples: The custodian sweeps the floors, empties trash, cleans classrooms, vacuums, replaces toilet paper, orders cleaning supplies, etc. The teacher develops lesson plans, supervises children, grades papers, instructs classes, attends meetings, etc.)

What is a skill? Why is it important for people to have different skills? (Skills are specific abilities a person possesses. Skills help the person fulfill his or her responsibilities.) Example: A cook must use math skills to calculate the amounts of ingredients needed for specific recipes, reading skills to read recipes, listening skills to understand the likes and dislikes of the people for whom you are cooking.. A custodian must use reading skills to read order forms, math skills to calculate how many supplies to order.)

Counselor Clue: The definition of "community" will depend upon your local area and the mobility of families, e.g., a suburban "community" may require families to travel to businesses and shopping areas in different parts of the county while families in a rural area may be able to do business and shop in their town and urban families may rely on public transportation for mobility.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. Post the map where all students can see it. Tell the students that they will be investigating what the people do when they go to work in the community. "Today, we are going to start by thinking of all the workers we can in our local community." As the students brainstorm the list of possible workers, record them on the map.
2. Guide the students to think about the roles of community workers. (Review what a

Students will illustrate the roles, responsibilities, and skills of community members on a silhouette of a worker and write a paragraph that summarizes the importance of those roles, responsibilities, and skills. The completed silhouettes and paragraphs will be bound in a classroom book.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

- What is a role? (Something a person does. For example, the law enforcement officer's role is to maintain order and safety.)
- What is a responsibility? (Things that are expected of the person in that role. The law enforcement officer's responsibilities are to enforce laws, help people in need, etc.)

Arrive in classroom with magnifying glass; search classroom as if looking for clues. Make comments that suggest you are looking for information about Community Workers. Fumble around a bit and ask students if they can help –guiding them to share the notes they have taken about the world of community workers.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. Motivate students' memories by asking what they remember from the last session you had together. Guide them to remember talking about workers in the community. Continue by saying: "Let's review what we talked about regarding the police officer. What is the role of the police officer? What is the responsibility of the police officer? What would happen if the police officer was not there to do law enforcement work in our community?"
2. Guide the students to begin thinking of the skills of the community workers. (Review with the students what a skill is – see above in the Essential Questions.) "Let's continue to talk about the police officer. What are the skills that a police officer needs to do

Student Involvement:

1. All students will respond in some way – either by sharing with a partner or by volunteering in the large group.

Assign the worker so that a broad range of workers is represented.) Continue by saying “Each of you will be illustrating this worker with the appropriate clothing or uniforms. You will include the roles, responsibilities, and skills that this worker possesses on or around the silhouette. You may use pictures and/or words to represent the roles, responsibilities, and skills of your worker.” Counselor Clue: You may want to have a sample silhouette completed so students will have a visual representation of what they are to do. 4. Continue by saying “Once again you have done a great job of investigating people and their work. The next time I come back, we will write a description of your worker.” Collect the silhouettes for use during the next session.	3. Students will identify “their” community workers and complete the silhouettes. 4. Students return completed silhouettes to the counselor.

Students will investigate (gather information about) the kinds of work adults do, the responsibilities they have, and the skills and tools they use to complete their work. Students will collect information and record what they learn on their Activity Sheets. After interviewing adults about what they do and need to know to do their jobs, students will analyze the information they collect and synthesize the worker information. The results will become a part of an "Evidence File" compiled as a classroom book.

Brief Summary of Unit:

In third grade, students will be gaining additional information about the world of work and workers through actual interviews with adult workers. Students will assume the roles of Investigative Reporters and will contribute information on people at work.

Process: Students will gather information through classroom activities and interviews with workers. The lessons focus on gathering information about the roles, responsibilities, and skills of workers. The concept of the relationship between work skills and academic skills is introduced. The importance of all workers and their responsibilities continues to be an emphasis.

Throughout the unit, brainstorming is utilized as a means of generating ideas. Students will observe workers and participate in discussions.

Unit Goals:

1. Student will learn what workers do and need to know in various careers.
2. Student will gather information describing the training and education needed for various careers.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

An excellent follow-up would be for the classroom teacher to invite a reporter to come to class to be interviewed. Ask teachers to provide opportunities for students to practice their interview skills by interviewing each other and/or finding out more information about the role and responsibilities of teachers.

It will be helpful if teachers would announce the due date of the completed Interview Questions Activity Sheets.

 After interviewing an adult about what they do and need to know to do their job, students will analyze the information they collect and synthesize the worker information.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: Why is it important that we find information on training and education requirements for jobs or careers?
Engagement (Hook): Magnifying glass from the previous lesson. Call students’ attention to this.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Review the previous lesson. If possible, use the magnifying glass saved from the previous lesson (this included a listing of career information resources).</li> <li>2. Formative Assessment: Each lesson includes formative assessment procedures, which will provide opportunities for students will demonstrate an understanding of careers, post-secondary training and education via charts, student-made posters and student-written letters.

Summative Assessment: Students will assume the role of Career Information columnists for the Careerville News. Careerville is a “boomtown”; many people want to live and work there. The newspaper editor has received so many inquiries about the best work in Careerville that Inspector CareerSo has been hired to investigate the work available and to reply to the letters. The students, who have experience as “Investigative Reporters” (see Grade 3 Unit), have been hired by Inspector CareerSo (see “Hook”) to help investigate the World of Work and Workers. The Career Information Columnists write a weekly column (published on Sundays), titled “Career Information for Those on the Road to Careerville”. The column provides career information and advice for those wanting to be a part of the Careerville community. Each student will write a friendly letter in response to readers’ inquiries. The letters will include descriptions of and/or explanations about the roles, responsibilities, and the training/education requirements for specific careers. Student letters of response will be bound together into a career information book, titled “The Road to Careerville: Any Career Path will Take You There!”

Brief Summary of Unit:

The lessons in the Grade 4 Unit, will help students develop the knowledge, skill and understanding that will enable them to understand the relationship between their current studies and the roles and responsibilities of workers in each of the Career Paths. In addition, the Unit lessons create awareness that (most) workers are required to have post-secondary education and/or training. Students are introduced to the variety of post-secondary training and education programs that are available.

Unit Goals:

1. Student will define and explain the meaning of career paths.
2. Students will review the six career paths and relate current learning to each career path.
3. Students will identify training and education required for selected careers.

What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in the unit?

Students will need prior knowledge of roles, responsibilities, and skills of family members, school workers, and community workers. In addition, students are expected to have prior knowledge of the Career Paths (see Resources “Career Paths and Example Careers” “Career Path Mini-Poster”).

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: How does what we learn prepare us for future jobs and careers? Engagement (Hook): Come to class dressed as Inspector “CareerSo” with an oversized magnifying glass and pretend to search classroom as if looking for clues. The counselor will say, “I am a detective who has been hired by the editor of the Careerville News. The editor’s in-box is overflowing with letters from people who want to live and work in Careerville. I have been hired to help by investigating the work people do in Careerville. There are too many inquiries for me to be able to answer—so I have hired you (students) to help with the investigation and to become Career Information Columnists for the Careerville News. Draw a road on the chalkboard and write “Careerville” at the end of the road, add the names of several careers that students explored in prior grades. Along the road, Inspector CareerSo (the counselor) will write the types of post-secondary training and/or education people need for each of the careers (e.g., 2-year college education in computer science, 4-year college degree in teacher education, 9 month Licensed Practical Nurse program at a local Career Center). Inspector CareerSo (the counselor) will say, “We are on a journey to “Careerville.” All of us will have the same destination: working to meet the needs of a community. There are different ways to get to Careerville. How can we prepare ourselves to arrive in Careerville ready to be the “best workers we can be?”

Procedures

Instructor Procedures: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. After the “hook,” allow students to respond; write student responses on the path drawn on the board.</li> <li>2. On the “Careerville” road, the counselor</li> </ol>	Student Involvement: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Students will respond to questions. will write newspaper editor at the end. The counselor will say, “How might we prepare ourselves to become the editor of the Careerville newspaper? What skills does a newspaper editor need? What are you learning currently at school that would help you in your job as an editor?” 3. Using the set of six Career Path Posters, review the concept of Career Paths, presenting the career paths as a way to organize the World of Work and Workers in our minds. The counselor will say, “What jobs or occupations do you recall from your memory when I say “Helping Career Path?” The counselor will continue this process with the other Career Paths. Helping Path (teacher, custodian, waitress); Health Path (doctor, paramedic), Business Path accountant, administrative assistant; Creative Path (actors, radio and TV broadcasters, journalism); Fixing, Building, and Technology Path (construction worker, architect, auto mechanic), Nature Path (zookeepers, horticulture, farming) 4. Divide the class into six groups and distribute Activity Sheets: “Career Paths and Example Careers” and “The Relationship of My Current Learning, Worker Responsibilities, Post-Secondary Training &amp; Education” to each student. Say, “The Activity Sheet ‘Relationship of my Current Learning, Worker Responsibilities, Post-secondary Training and Education’, is an advanced organizer for the work you will be doing together. Think about your math lessons this week... what are you learning to do? Think about your science lessons? What have you discovered? Now write this information in the first of the three columns on the Activity Sheet. Think about your other subjects— what are you learning? On a blank piece of	to read, write, do math problems). 3. Students will respond to counselor questions, naming the career paths and occupations in each path. 4. Students will write current learning in the first column of their Activity Sheet – being specific about the learning, e.g., “long division” instead of “math” and then share their answers with the class.
--	--

paper, write all the learning (in any subject) you can think of in the next 2 minutes.” Call time after two minutes and ask several students to state a “current learning” he or she wrote. 5. Facilitate Student Self Evaluation by saying “Reflect on the ‘learning’ you wrote on the blank piece of paper. Re-think your list by considering the difference between Subject Areas (e.g. History) and specific knowledge or skills (e.g. using the internet to research what it was like to live in Missouri 100 years ago). Focus on the knowledge and/or skill you are gaining and revise your lists by adding knowledge and skills to your lists. Revise and refine your lists by categorizing specific skills into subject areas (you may find that skills will fit into more than one subject area). For example: <table data-bbox="250 926 813 1108"><tr><td>Mathematics</td><td>Communication</td></tr><tr><td>Arts</td><td></td></tr><tr><td>Long division</td><td>Letter-writing</td></tr><tr><td>Problem-Solving</td><td>Problem-Solving</td></tr></table> 6. Transfer the revised/refined lists to the first column of Activity Sheet. Add new skills as needed.” Counselor Clue: Remember—Lists are to be representative of the process – rather than exhaustive. 7. Say, “In the middle column, you will be asked to write the names of careers. Look at the careers listed on the Activity Sheet “Career Paths and Example Careers”. In the middle column, of the chart, write down the names of 3 or 4 careers you think you would like AND 3 or 4 you think you would not like.” Suggest that students relate the academic skills needed for the careers they have chosen to the knowledge and skill they wrote in the first column. Continue by saying, “Think about the responsibilities of	Mathematics	Communication	Arts		Long division	Letter-writing	Problem-Solving	Problem-Solving	5. Students will work with peers in small groups to reflect/ rethink/ revise/refine their lists. 6. Students will transfer lists to the first column of their Activity Sheet: “The Relationship of My Current Learning ...” 7. Students will write the names of three careers they think they would like and three careers they think they would not like in the middle column. Students will then share what they have written.
Mathematics	Communication
Arts
Long division	Letter-writing
Problem-Solving	Problem-Solving

a _____ and then think about the knowledge and skills you are learning today in school and how what you are learning now relates to the responsibilities of that career. Draw a line from the skill to a worker who uses the skill.” After a few minutes, ask the students to share their ideas about how current learning connects with the responsibilities of workers in specific careers. 8. Supply each group with a “career strip” (Resource: Career Path Strips [Master Copy]) and a large piece of construction paper or poster board folded in thirds. The counselor will instruct the students to sign their names on the back of the poster board. (Groups will use only 2/3 of the poster at this time. The other third will be used later.) 9. Explain that the first column on the poster board is where students will graphically represent six important skills they are currently learning. 10. Explain that the Second Column is where students will write or graphically represent careers/jobs. 11. Next, instruct students to connect the current learning/skills to the careers/jobs with string or with lines drawn with markers. Remind students that each skill will be connected to more than one worker and each worker will be connected to more than one skill. While students are working, ask, “What are you discovering about the relationship between your current learning and future jobs?” 12. Close this part of the lesson by saying, “During our next session, we will match the careers you included on your poster with the post-secondary training/education required. Be sure to remember your group.	8. Students will write their names on the back of their poster board. 9. Working in teams, students will determine the six important skills to be illustrated and will complete the first column on the poster board. 10. Students will complete the Second Column. 11. Students will connect current learning/skills to future jobs with string or lines. Students (one group at a time) will engage in answering the discussion question stated in counselor direction number eleven (11) by sharing their posters with the class.

Collect the groups' charts/posters, students' Activity Sheet, "Career Paths and Example Careers", and Activity Sheet/chart "Relationship of My Current Learning...". Bundle together for ease of retrieval by classroom. They will be completed in Lesson 2.
---	--

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Arrange with classroom teacher to keep the Career Path Posters displayed. Provide the classroom teacher with a listing of the Career Paths and several occupations within each Career Path. (See Resource: "Career Paths and Example Careers". Space has been left for additional careers to be added to each Career Path). Encourage relating the careers that apply to current learning during instruction and adding careers to the "poster."

COUNSELOR/TEACHER RESOURCE: CAREER PATHS AND EXAMPLE CAREERS

This Resource is provided as a “memory refresher” for the Career Paths. Remember, the careers listed here represent a tiny percentage of all the careers in each Career Path. As with any system of categorizing, there will be an overlap of Career Paths for many careers. Teachers are urged to post this in their classrooms and encourage students to add careers to the lists in the Career Paths as they learn about and/or discover new careers.

COUNSELOR RESOURCE: CAREER PATH STRIPS (MASTER COPY)

Cut apart the Career Paths. Give one "career strip" to each small group. Group members will generate the names of more occupations than are suggested on the "career strip." They will write or represent occupations through pictures on the poster board chart and then write skills, knowledge or concepts they are currently learning (or have learned in the past) with each occupation. Encourage students to think beyond "arithmetic" or "reading" to the application of their current learning. For example, a newspaper editor has to be able to read for detail to determine if a story will make sense to the reader.

Creative Path

(Arts and Communications)

museum curator, investigative reporter actor, radio and TV broadcast journalist, newspaper journalist, set designer, cartoonist, greeting card designer

Can you think of other workers who create as a part of their work?

Nature

(Natural Resources)

Zoo keeper, horticulturist, park ranger, dairy farmer, conservation agent, cattle farmer, geologist, florist, landscape designer; environmental researcher, forester

Now you name some workers who like to work with our natural resources.

Fixing, Building and Technology

(Industrial and Engineering Technology)

construction worker, auto mechanic, architect, brick layer, software designer, electrical contractor, entrepreneur, industrial engineer.

Name at least one other worker who likes to make things?

Business Path

(Business Management and Technology)

administrative assistant, entrepreneur, certified public accountant, restaurant manager, Chief Executive Officer (CEO), instructional technology specialist

What business management and technology workers have to be organized in their work?

Health Path

(Health Services)

physician, nutritionist, veterinarian, radiologist, pharmacist, dentist, emergency room technician, school nurse.

There are many other health-related workers. Can you name 3 others?

Helping Path

Human Services

teacher, custodian, restaurant server, law enforcement officer, social worker, tour guide, school counselors, ministers

What human services workers have helped you recently?

(Inspector CareerSo has been hired by the editor to help investigate the world of work in Careerville; the Inspector has, in turn, hired the 4th grade students to work as Career Information Columnists to help with the investigation and reporting of the results. The friendly letter will focus on a specific career and will include the correlation of student's current learning with worker roles and responsibilities and the necessary post-secondary training and education requirements for that career (see Counselor Resources and Student Activity Sheets).

Option: If students have access to computers, letters could be compiled and published as a Special Section of the Careerville newspaper: "The Many Roads to Careerville: Advice for Students on The Way to Careerville."

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: How do people prepare for careers?

Engagement (Hook): Again, come to class dressed as Inspector "CareerSo." Draw a road on the chalkboard. Write "Careerville" at the end of the road and remind students that we are on a journey to "Careerville." Using an oversized magnifying glass and a crumpled road map as props, pretend to search the classroom as if looking for clues and say, "I see that the Career Paths lead to Careerville! WOW! And there are So many people on the road to Careerville—I hope we can help them find their way! You already know that people can get to Careerville in many different ways! All of us have the same destination: working to meet the needs of a community. Let's get started on OUR investigations and reporting about the world of work so we can help the people heading toward Careerville!

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
1. Ask: What do you remember from our last guidance lesson about where people learn how to do their work? Review the concept of post-secondary training and/or education by writing information on the board regarding options available to students in the area (e.g., vocational schools, technical training programs, the military, colleges). Inspector CareerSo (Counselor) will use prompts such as: “What kinds of jobs are available for individuals who want to enter a full-time job right after they graduate from high school? What training and educational facilities are located in our area for a person who would want to go to more school after high school?” (Provide time for students to respond and comment.) 2. Continue: Every job has responsibilities that require training—whether the training occurs on-the-job or in a training or educational setting. For example, what job responsibilities does a Newspaper Columnist have? 3. Say, “Remember, I have hired you to help me investigate and report on the world of work. You will be working as columnists for the Careerville News’ award-winning column “Career Information for those on the Road to Careerville.” You will be working in the same groups as in Lessons 1 and 2 – each group represents one of the Six Career Paths and each student in the group will represent a career within that Career Path. Explain that the responsibility of each student is to publish accurate information about a career in his or her assigned Career Path.	1. Students will respond to the counselor’s questions regarding post-high school job or training opportunities in the area. 2. Students will respond to question regarding the responsibilities of a Columnist, for example: Seek information Write Columns Reflect/ Rethink; Revise/Refine content of columns. 3. Students will listen to the instructions and then gather in their previously assigned groups. Each student will choose a career/job of interest from the assigned career path.

4. Inspector CareerSo will read a letter from a reader asking for career information (Activity sheet: “A Letter from a Reader”). The Inspector will review the elements of a friendly letter and then ask the students to examine the sample of the letter (Resource: “Columnist’s Response to a Reader”). Each student will write a similar letter to the readers. (See, also, the Activity Sheet: “Template for Friendly Letter”) If students do not have access to computers to write letters, they may write their letters on the template. 5. The letters will be self and peer critiqued. When the letters are completed, the counselor will ask each student to share his/her letter with a small group. (Suggestion: Use the “jigsaw” process for sharing – students have been working in expert groups addressing a single Career Path. In order to help peers learn about other Career Paths, arrange students in six-member groups so that there is at least one representative of each career path in each group). Before binding the letters into a booklet, you may want to post the letters outside your office for a broader audience. 6. The counselor or student volunteers will bind the letters into a classroom Career Information book.	4. Students will examine the three handouts and will ask clarifying questions as the Inspector (counselor’s) provides instructions. 5. Students will engage in the writing of the letters and will share their letters with the class. 6. Students interested in a career in publishing, will volunteer to bind the letters into the classroom book.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

The letter writing process might serve as a Communication Arts lesson on writing friendly letters. The process could be adapted to include writing a business letter to the readers. Provide the classroom teacher with a listing of the Career Paths and several occupations within each Career Path. Encourage classroom teachers to relate the careers that apply to current learning during instruction (See Resources).

RESOURCE: LETTER FROM CAREERVILLE NEWS READER

1234 Rooftop Lane
Larae, MO, 65000

September 5, 2006

Dear CI Columnist,

I hope you can help me! I am seeking more information about the World of Work and Workers. I am trying to decide where I want to live and work when I graduate from high school. Inspector CareerSo told me that Careerville is the best community in the world because all workers are valued and all work is important there. I want to move to Careerville and help make the community even better. The problem is that I have many, many skills and like to do many, many kinds of things. I study hard and enjoy all (well, most) of my learning. I just can't decide what career to choose. Since you have the reputation of being the most accurate source of information about careers in Careerville, I decided to write to you.

Can you help me find answers to the following questions?

1. I know all Career Paths lead to Careerville. Which is the best path to take?
2. If a person follows that path, what is one job that he or she might like?
3. What "school skills" are needed in that job?
4. Can someone get this job when he or she graduates from high school? If not what kind of post-secondary training and education is needed?
5. If you were thinking about doing this job, what are some things you would like about it?
6. If you were thinking about doing this job, what are some things you would NOT like about it?
7. Do you know of anything else I should know about Careerville or the job you are suggesting?

That's all the questions I have. Thank you very much for your time. I am looking forward to your reply.

Sincerely yours,

A Career Adventurer

Today

Dear Career Adventurer (C. A.),

I am glad you wrote to the CI Columnist. I have some ideas; however, C. A., you are the only ones who can decide what is best for you! Since you didn't tell me very much about you, I will tell you about what I think is the best Career Path—the Helping Path! Remember, though, YOUR favorite or best Career Path will depend on YOU knowing what you like to do and/or would like to do in the future.

If you like to help other people and like to talk with people and the Communication Arts subject area is one of your strengths, then there are several careers for you in this career path. The one I will tell you about is "Teacher." This might be a good career for you because you said you like to learn and that you have a lot of skills – so do teachers. My teacher has to know all the school skills because he has to teach them to all of us. I know my teacher had to graduate from college after he graduated from high school because his college diploma is hanging in our classroom. He tells us almost every day that he worked hard to get that diploma and he is proud to display it.

As for ME and a teacher's job—here are some things I would like about it:

- I would get to help great kids (like me) learn.
- I would get to eat lunch in the Teachers' Lounge.
- I would be able to decide what projects the kids would do.
- I would be able to help people solve problems.

And here are some things I would NOT like:

- Grading all those papers.
- Staying after school EVERY day.
- Parents getting mad at me in front of the kids.
- Going to school in the summer.

Well, what do you think, C. A.? Would you like to be a teacher? What other jobs have you considered? We have them all in Careerville – and you would love living here!

Sincerely yours,

The CI Columnist

QUESTIONS FOR THE CAREER INFORMATION COLUMNISTS

Readers of your column in the Careerville News are seeking your help answering the following questions. Your letters will help guide the readers to the answers to the questions.

1. All Career Paths lead to Careerville. Which is the best path to take?
2. If a person follows that path, what is one job that he or she might like?
3. What “school skills” are needed in that job?
4. Can someone get this job when he or she graduates from high school? If not what kind of post-secondary training and education is needed?
5. If you were thinking about doing this job, what are some things you would like about it?
6. If you were thinking about doing this job, what are some things you would NOT like about it?
7. Is there anything else the readers should know about Careerville or the job you are suggesting?
8. If you were thinking about doing this job, what are some things you would like about it?
9. If you were thinking about doing this job, what are some things you would NOT like about it?
10. Do you know of anything else we should know about Careerville or the job you are suggesting?

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and Glee's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc. Summative Assessment: Students will gather information about the roles, responsibilities, skills and training/education requirements of workers. The information gathered will be placed in a graphic organizer chart and then analyzed (lesson 2) to identify the similarities and differences in the careers. Within each team, individual members will gather data, which will then be grouped with the data gathered by the other team members. The grouped data will be analyzed to identify patterns, similarities and differences among the roles, responsibilities, skills and post-secondary education/training requirements. Results will be presented in a visual form of the team members' choice (e.g., a bar graph or a T-Chart). The graphic organizer Activity Sheet is an example of a visual form that may be used.

Brief Summary of Unit: In Grade 5, students' will learn about the similarities and differences in the roles, responsibilities, skills, and requirements (post-secondary training and education) of workers in different career paths. Students will demonstrate this understanding via charts, and Activity Sheets.

The 5th grade Unit builds on the knowledge, skill and understanding developed in the K-4 Career Development Units. In this Unit, students have an opportunity to become a social researcher and gather data about work and workers and to collaborate with other team member to analyze the data.

Students' prior knowledge includes:

Kindergarten: Work roles and responsibilities of family members;

First Grade: Work roles, responsibilities and skills of school workers,

Second Grade: Work roles, responsibilities, skills of community workers,

Third Grade: Work roles, responsibilities, skills and academic knowledge of workers whom students selected to interview.

Fourth Grade: Work roles, responsibilities, skills, and post-secondary training/education required.

In addition, students are expected to have prior knowledge of the Career Path concept and the names, elements of careers in each Career Path (see Resources for fourth grade units, especially the Career Path Mini-Poster 4th)

Process

Throughout the unit, brainstorming and small group work are utilized to generate ideas and to help students develop the skills of working together to solve problems.

The counselor will help students build upon their prior knowledge about the World of Work and Workers by guiding them in a recurring review of the terminology/vocabulary used when talking about “career paths.” Write the names of the six career paths on the board. Discuss the roles and responsibilities of several careers. Identify training and educational requirements needed for each. Students choose several careers, and the roles, responsibilities, skills and educational requirements of each.

Unit Goals:

1. Student will compare and contrast the roles and responsibilities of various careers.
2. Students will compare and contrast the training and educational requirements for various careers.

The information gathered will be placed in a graphic organizer chart and then analyzed (lesson 2) to identify the similarities and differences in the careers. Within each team, members will analyze the information each member gathered to identify similarities and differences of the roles, responsibilities, skills and post-secondary education and present it on a T chart (Activity Sheet 2).

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: Why do workers in different career paths have different roles and responsibilities?

Engagement (Hook): Engagement (Hook):
 Copy the Resource: "Career Path Strips" cut apart the "strips" and put the strips into the "Magic Hat" or box, OR write the names of the Career Paths along with examples of careers in each path on slips of paper and place in hat or box. Tell students that magic can happen when people find the work they enjoy. Then, wave your magic wand with great enthusiasm and say: Hocus Pocus, what career am I today? Pull one career path slip out of the hat or box. Example: Hi my name is Carlos Carpenter. I work for Carpentry, Inc. I make cabinets, install them, and fix wooden furniture. I follow plans and blue prints. I build safe and durable products. (Pull another career path slip out of the hat/box) How are Terrie Teacher's roles and responsibilities different?

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:                  For this strategy, you will need an overhead transparency of the Resource: "Career Graphic Organizer". Tell students that our task in this Unit is to compare and contrast roles, responsibilities, skills and training/education of different careers. What does “compare” mean? What does “contrast” mean? What does “compare and contrast” mean? Today we will be comparing and contrasting the roles and responsibilities of two careers. 3. Remind students that roles and responsibilities may be similar or different depending upon the careers. Are there similarities that ALL occupations have in common? Are differences always differences or could differences become similarities? Are there ways specific occupations are different from all other occupations? Give students time to ponder these questions. 4. Divide the class into six groups. Distribute the names of 2 Career Paths and the Activity Sheet: “Career Graphic Organizer” to each group. As you are distributing the materials to each group, ask students to think for a minute about the many careers in each path. If they were counting, which Career Path would have the most occupations? What causes the difference in numbers of occupations in each Career Path?	2. Students actively engage in the conversation about the meanings of “compare” “contrast” and “compare and contrast”. 3. Students will ponder the questions and respond as appropriate. 4. When groups receive their assigned Career Paths (of which there will be 2) group members will identify one career to explore in each career path. The Career Paths are:  Human Services (teacher, custodian, waitress)  Health Services (doctor, paramedic),  Business Management and Technology, (manager, Accountant, Media Specialist)  Arts and Communications (actors, radio and TV broadcasters, journalism),  Industrial and Engineering (construction, mechanic, etc.),
---	--

5. Tell students to write the names of the two careers their group identified in the “header” row (row one) of columns 2 and 3 of the Activity Sheet: “Career Graphic Organizer”. Each group will complete the 2nd and 3rd columns of the graphic organizer for roles, responsibilities, skills of the two careers (Training/Education will be discussed in Lesson 6. After identifying and listing the roles, responsibilities and skills in the appropriate rows on the activity sheet, students will study the data and identify similarities and differences between the two careers in re: roles, responsibilities, and skills. 7. Collect the Graphic Organizers and save for next lesson. Close this lesson by reminding students that during the second lesson, they will be completing their Career Graphic Organizers.	Natural Resources (zookeepers, horticulture, farming 5. Students will add information to complete the Roles, Responsibilities, Skills rows for the 2nd and 3rd columns of the Activity Sheet. 6. In the 4th and 5th columns, students will identify and list the similarities and differences between the 2 careers.

Lesson Title: Career Magic (Part 2) Lesson: 2 of 2

Grade Level: 5

Length of Lesson: 30 minutes

Missouri Comprehensive Guidance Standard:
 CD.8: Knowing Where And How To Obtain Information About The World Of Work And Post Secondary Training/Education

Grade Level Expectation (GLE):
 CD.8.B.05.a.i: Compare and contrast the training and educational requirements for a variety of careers.

American School Counselor Association National Standard (ASCA):
 Career Development
 A. Students will investigate the world of work in relation to knowledge of self and to make informed career decisions.

Materials (include activity sheets and/ or supporting resources)

Material/Special Preparation Needed
 Magic Wand; Magic Hat or Box;
 Resource: Activity Sheet: "Career Graphic Organizer" (from Lesson 1); Activity Sheet: "A Comparison of the Similarities and Differences Among Careers"; Activity Sheet: "I Can Perform Magic in MY Life!"
 Chalkboard, chalk, poster board or construction paper, pencils, markers

Show Me Standards: Performance Goals (check one or more that apply)

X	Perseverance	X	Integrity	X	Problem Solving
X	Courage		Compassion		Tolerance
X	Respect	X	Goal Setting

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE’s. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Students will gather information about the roles, responsibilities, skills and training and education requirements of workers. The information gathered will be placed in a graphic organizer chart and then analyzed to identify the similarities and differences in the careers. Within each team, members will analyze the information each member gathered to identify similarities and differences of the roles, responsibilities, skills and post-secondary education and present it on a T chart (Activity Sheet: “A Comparison of the Similarities and Differences Among Careers”).

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: Does “Six Career Paths” mean that the training and education of workers is different for each of the 6 career paths?

Engagement (Hook): Return with the “Magic Hat” or box, and place slips of paper with a career path written on each. Use your magic wand and say: Hocus Pocus, what career am I today? (Since Magic is an illusion, be sure to pull Carlos Carpenter from the hat again) Pull one slip of paper out of the hat or box. Example: “Hi! Remember me??? I’m Carlos Carpenter. I took Industrial Arts in high school and attended ABC Trade School after graduating from high school for some additional training. I apprenticed with Carpentry, Inc. for eighteen months and I work for them full-time now. (Pull another career path slip out of the hat/box) How are Terrie Teacher’s training and education different?”

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:                  You will use the Career Graphic Organizers begun in Lesson 1 for this lesson. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>After the “hook,” provide opportunity for students to respond. Write their responses in the “Education/Training” row of the “Career Graphic Organizer” overhead transparency you began during the last guidance lesson (Resource: “Career Graphic Organizer”). Discuss with the class the meaning of similarities and differences. Review the concepts of “compare and contrast.”</li> </ol>	Student Involvement: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Possible responses: Teachers graduate from high school and a four-year college or university with an educational focus. Students will describe and explain the meaning of “similarities” and “differences” – encourage students to expand their thinking beyond explanation and description ... (e.g., something that’s different, isn’t always different.)</li> </ol>
---	--

2. Our task today is to compare and contrast training and education of the careers that you worked on during the previous lesson. Reinforce that training and education may be similar or different with different careers. 3. Divide the class into the previous lesson's six groups. Return each group's "Career Graphic Organizer" and instruct the group members to complete the training and education row for the 2 careers they chose during the last lesson. 4. When each group completes the "Career Graphic Organizer" students will analyze the data and complete the Activity Sheet: "A Comparison of the Similarities and Differences Among Careers" summarizing the results of their study. 5. Each group will report one finding of the second part of their study ("T-Chart summation) to the whole class. 6. Unit Closure: Students will write a letter to themselves. The letter will summarize the competence they have gained as a result of participation in the K-5 CG 8 classroom guidance experiences. (See Activity Sheet: "I Can Perform Magic in MY Life!")	2. Students will contribute ideas about what they have observed workers doing that make them similar to and different from each other. 3. Each group will complete the "Career Graphic Organizer for the two careers they chose during the previous lesson: The six Career Paths are: Human Services (teacher, custodian, waitress, etc.) Health Services (doctor, paramedic, etc.), Business Management and Technology, Arts and Communications (actors, radio and TV broadcasters, journalism), Industrial and Engineering (construction, mechanic, etc.), Natural Resources (zookeepers, horticulture, farming, etc). 4. Students complete graphic organizers and present findings to the class. 5. Students will report their findings to the class by using a graphic representation of their choice. 6. Students will write a letter to themselves highlighting what they have learned -- about themselves as well about finding and using information about the world of work and post-secondary training/education. Letters will be placed in their "portfolios" for safekeeping and will be reviewed/rethought/revised/refined next year.

ACTIVITY SHEET: I Can Perform Magic in MY Life!

I. M. Magic
1 My Life Lane
Itsmylife, MO, 56789
5th Grade Year

Dear Self,

**WoW** Here we are – fifth grade this year ... and on to sixth grade and Middle School next year – and then --like magic – High School Graduation! The time has flown and I have learned about many people, places and things. One magical place I have learned about is the **WoW** of people’s lives! The World of Work is that magical place! A magical place where everyone is important! **WoW**! A magical place where everyone can be happy!! **WoW** The secret (a lot of people don’t know this) is that EVERY person can perform magic in his or her own life—even I! All it takes, (according to a man named Frank Parsons [he wrote about **WoW** in the late 19th and early 20th centuries]) is to have knowledge about myself, knowledge about the world of work AND workers and, as a result of the first two, the understanding and skills to make decisions about my special place in the **WoW**—just like that—Magic!

I want **WoW** in my life! It’s important, Self, to remember what I have learned about performing magic in MY life! I want to remember:

I. About Me

II. About finding and using Career Information:

III. About education and training for careers:

IV. About Planning:

The most important “thing” for me to remember is:

In order to perform magic in my life...I have to take action!!!

Let’s DO IT!!

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

By the end of this unit, students will have completed Activity Sheets indicating their career goals and plans for achieving those goals, then developed and presented a project based on those goals.

Brief Summary of Unit:

Students will consider the career of their dreams and what they will have to do to accomplish that dream. As a result of this process, each student will have a project that describes their career goals and the plan to reach those goals.

Unit Goals:

The goals of this unit are to make students aware that they must be willing to do certain things in order to achieve the career goals they are setting for themselves. They will look at what they are willing to do, as well as what is required for career success in that field. They will also use good work habits and other important job skills to develop a presentation project based on their career goals.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Prior to this unit, students need to know the career pathways and have a basic knowledge of research skills.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Counselor will assess students by observation while students are engaged in the cooperative task.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:
 Why do you need to learn how to play and work with other people?
 What does it look like when a group is working cooperatively?

Engagement (Hook):
 The counselor enters the classroom with puzzles in bags, and asks, “Who likes puzzles?” The counselor hands 3 of the puzzle bags to 3 students. Stops and says, “Oops! I don’t have enough puzzles for everyone to have his or her own puzzle. I want everyone to work on a puzzle during our Lesson. What shall I do?” The counselor says, “Hold up your hand if you have a solution for me.” (Encourage and accept several responses and guide to share.)

Procedures

Instructor Procedures: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. When students agree on solution (sharing, working in small groups), assign students to cooperative work groups.</li> <li>2. Counselor gives each group one of the puzzles, and instructs the group by role play how to work cooperatively such as turn-taking; sharing; listening; patience; and using kind words.</li> <li>3. Counselor circulates around the room observing group interactions for examples of cooperative skills. Counselor makes positive comments to reinforce desired behavior. If conflicts or inappropriate interactions occur, counselor encourages students to solve the problem independently, intervening only if conflict seems to escalate.</li> </ol>	Student Response: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. ---	--

4. When group puzzles are completed, say/ask: “You helped your group be successful. “Thumbs up” if you are proud of your work. “What cooperative skills did your group find important in this activity?”	4. Students contribute ideas (such as sharing, turn-taking, patience, using kind words).
5. Summarize the lesson and close.	5. Students share closing thoughts.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Teacher can relate the cooperative skills discussed (turn-taking; sharing; caring; using kind words; listening; patience) to other class activities that utilize teamwork such as helping others and cleaning up after activities. Keep the classroom a place everyone can learn safely.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Students will orally communicate one way that he or she is a helper at home and school.
Students will orally communicate the names of the classroom helper jobs.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

- How does being a helping person help make our home and our school better?
- What does it look, sound and feel like to be a helping person at home and at school?

Engagement (Hook):

Counselor introduces a puppet friend who has helped picked out a book to read to the class. The counselor will then ask the class for a student helper to turn the pages of the book while the puppet “reads” the book.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. Counselor reads the book (via the puppet) to the children asking periodic questions to check for comprehension.
2. After reading the book, counselor will say to the students, “I would like each of you to describe you one time you were a helper at school and at home. (e.g., in the line, on the bus, on the playground, in the cafeterias, home chores). I would like for each of you to describe one time someone else was helpful to you.
3. The counselor will ask, “How did it feel in your heart when you helped? How did it feel to be helped?
4. Our class depends on each of us being helpers. In your classroom here are jobs every student takes turns doing. What are those jobs? Why are they important?
5. The counselor will summarize by encouraging students to be helpers at home and at school.

Student Involvement:

1. Students respond to questions.
2. Students will describe a time they were helpful and/or someone was helpful to them.
3. Students will share how they felt helping and being helped.
4. Students name classroom jobs and tell why each is important.
5. Students will share closing comments.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

The teacher will continue by reading other books associated with helping.
The teacher might emphasize the importance of helpers at school.

Silly School Story

By Annie Moffatt

Once upon a time, there was this silly school called “Oopsacalifragilisticxpealladocious”. It was named that because everyone was always doing everything wrong! They called the school “Oops” for short.

Everyone at Oops told lies. The students wrote on each other’s papers, so the teachers could never tell who needed help. Everyone at Oops School was mean. All of the students did sloppy work. They never finished their schoolwork and always got bad grades. Oops!

The students took books, pencils, backpacks, coats and lunch money from each other. Everybody fought all the time to try to get their stuff back and since everybody told lies, nobody could tell what belonged to whom! Oops!

The students made promises but they never kept them so nobody could trust anybody. The teachers could not trust the students because they cheated on tests. The students ran in the halls and played in the water in the bathrooms. Sometimes the students would even yell in the school building! Oops!

Teachers, secretaries, custodians, cooks and principals would tell students to do things and the kids would say, “NO!” Oops!

Finally, the students quit coming to school at Oops because they couldn’t learn ANYTHING! Would you be able to learn anything at Oopsacalifragilisticxpealladocious?

Super School Story

By Annie Moffatt

Once upon a time, there was this super school called “Supercalifragilisticexpealladocious”. It was named that because everyone was always doing everything right! They called the school “Super” for short.

Everyone at Super told the truth. The students did their own work, so the teachers told them good job. The students did neat work. They always finished their work on time and always got good grades. Everyone at Super School was respectful. Super!

The students at Super School kept track of their own books, pencils, backpacks, coats and lunch money. Everybody was nice to each other. Everyone got all of their work done and turned it in on time. Super!

The students made promises and kept them so everybody trusted each other. The teachers trusted the students also. The students would never yell in the school building! Super!

Teachers, secretaries, custodians, cooks and principals would tell students to do things and the kids would say, “Yes” very respectfully! Super!

All of the students had perfect attendance at Super School and they loved to learn! Would you be able to learn anything at Supercalifragilisticexpealladocious?

Missouri Mule Poem

There once was a mule in a field,
His stubbornness was his shield.
He kicked and he fussed,
He rolled in the dust.
So his unhappy fate was sealed.

Unit #2 Title: Worker in our School Community

Grade Level: 3

Number of Lessons in Unit: 3

Time Required for each lesson: 30 – 45 minutes. NOTE: This Unit includes a job shadowing experience with a worker in the school. The time required for the shadowing experience is not included in the time estimates.

Best time of year to implement this Unit: Anytime

Lesson Titles:

Lesson 1: Me and My Job Shadow, Part 1

Materials/Special Preparations Required:

Schedule several school personnel (custodian, bus driver, nurse, secretary, kitchen staff, principal) to talk for five minutes each regarding the specific skills needed to be a helper for their specific job

Paper and writing materials for students to take notes

School Job Ranking Activity Sheet

Lesson 2: Me and My Job Shadow, Part 2

Materials/Special Preparations Required:

Student rankings of helper roles and paragraph summary from Lesson 1

Paper, highlighters, colored pencils, or crayons.

Job Skills Activity Sheet

School Job Ranking Activity Sheet (completed during Lesson 1)

Lesson 3: Me and My Job Shadow, Part 3

Materials/Special Preparations Required:

Prior to this lesson, students will have had an opportunity to job shadow a school employee

Paper for thank you notes, pencils, crayons, and markers

Thank you Activity Sheet

Missouri Comprehensive Guidance Standard:

CD.9: Applying Employment Readiness Skills and the Skills for On-The-Job Success.

Grade Level Expectation (GLE):

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Students will identify the skills that are important in performing helper jobs in the school and the skills that are possessed personally by the student. Students will write a short paragraph to summarize the reasons for their choices.

Upon completion of the job shadowing experience, students will write a three-paragraph summary of the experience. The summary will include a description of the overall experience, a description of the skills utilized during the experience, and an explanation of the positive and negative aspects of the job they experienced. After the students complete the reflection piece, they will compose a thank you note to the person they shadowed.

Brief Summary of Unit:
 Students will identify the skills necessary for a school helper job and complete the steps to obtain a helper job within the school community. Students will job shadow a person of their choice within the school setting and write a reflection of the experience.

Unit Goals and Objectives:
 Students will identify the skills needed to perform helper jobs within the school system.
 Students will identify personal skills that they possess to aid them in performing helper jobs within the school system.
 Students will write a rationale describing why they selected the job they shadowed
 Students will complete a job shadow experience with specific school personnel and reflect on the experience.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Every job is important and requires basic skills. Students need to know basic work skills to be successful in school and work.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

- Are certain skills necessary for students for a helper jobs within the classroom or school?
- Why are those skills important?
- What steps need to be taken to obtain a helper job within the classroom or school?

Engagement: (Hook)

Turn off the lights and turn on a flashlight. Ask a student to hold the flashlight and shine it on the wall. Use your hands to make shadows in front of the flashlight to reflect on the wall. Ask the students: What is this? What is a shadow? What does a shadow do? Let some of the students make shadow in front of the flashlight.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures	Student Response:
1. Tell the students that in the coming days, they will possibly have the opportunity to “job shadow” with school personnel of their choice in the near future. Ask students if they know what job shadowing means. Why would it be important for students to job shadow people in the working world? If it’s not possible to job shadow individually then the counselor can arrange for small groups or classes to visit different workers in the building (school cook, secretary, custodian, principal, counselor). Explain to the students that today (or this week) they will be listening to several speakers who are members of the school community. These speakers will be discussing the skills necessary for their jobs as well as the tasks they perform on a daily basis. 2. Introduce each speaker to the class and the speaker will talk for the allotted amount of time. (3-5 minutes each). Each speaker will follow this format. Speakers will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Introduce themselves and share their job title.</li><li>• Tell some important responsibilities they have with their job.</li><li>• Tell what school skills they use on the job (reading, writing, math...)</li></ul> 3. After the last speaker, tell the students that between now and the next class session, students need to rank their top three choices and write a paragraph describing their reasons for the choices they made. Develop your own ranking sheet or use the one provided with the lesson School Job Ranking Activity Sheet. The students can write their paragraph on the back of the ranking sheet.	1. Students will listen to the speakers and take notes on the information. 2. Students will listen to the speakers and take notes on the information. 3. During the remaining time, students begin ranking their choices and writing about their reasons for making those choices.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Ask the classroom teacher to allow students time to finish ranking job shadowing preferences and their rationale for their choices.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Students' communication and collective problem solving will be monitored throughout the lessons.

Brief Summary of Unit:

Students will show that they can work together with others to reach a common goal through their actions and in a written essay. Students will brainstorm the personal and ethical skills necessary to work with diverse groups of people; they will work together in a diverse group to accomplish a goal and, individually, will reflect on their experiences through a written essay. Students will draw upon the knowledge they gained in the third grade when they compared the skills needed at school with those needed by workers. Fourth grade learning in this Unit will prepare students for the fifth grade experience: applying personal, ethical and work habit skills.

Unit Goals:

Students will show, through actions and writing, that they possess the personal and ethical skills needed to work with diverse groups of people.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Students need to know how to work in small groups cooperatively and skills needed for success in school and groups.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
NOTE: This is the first of two lessons. In this lesson students will be working individually; in the second lesson students are assigned a group goal requiring them to work in a group. 1. What does "diverse" mean to you? Write student responses on chart paper. Tell students, "When we work in groups – we work with people who are similar to and different from us in many ways. Ask students to volunteer to share items they have listed on their paper and write the responses on the chart or chalkboard. Determine which ideas may not work and which ones are most important when working with others.</li><li>5. Review the definition of Personal and Ethical Skills. Does anyone know what these words mean? Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Students will participate in a discussion afterwards about their successes and failures. They will also be expected to write a short essay on what they learned about the personal and ethical skills needed to work with this diverse group of people.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:
 What does it look like when someone uses the appropriate communication skills and respect for each other to achieve a common goal?

Engagement (Hook): Prepare large blankets (enough for 1 blanket per 5-7 students) Tape or pin a ‘gold medal’ to one side of each of the blankets.
 Say, “Raise your hand if you have ever been on an island. What surrounded that island?”
 Today YOU are going on an island adventure with a group of your friends.
 Have groups turn blankets over so the gold medal is on the side to the floor. Have students sit on their blankets. Explain that this is their island, but their gold is on the other side of their island (blanket). They must work together, using helpful personal and ethical skills (e.g. acceptance, taking turns, sharing responsibility), to turn the entire blanket over to get to the gold without sacrificing anyone to the “shark infested water” (falling off the blanket). If anyone falls off, they must start over.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Students will become managers of a new company that needs to hire employees. Students must decide what they would want to know about the prospective employees. They will present this information to the class in groups. Students will develop a Personal Portfolio Folder; complete a Personal Portfolio Profile and Interview Questions Activity Sheets.

Brief Summary of Unit:
 Students will brainstorm and present in groups what they think an employer needs to know about an employee before hiring. They will then learn what a real employer wants to know and where this information can be found. Groups of four students will be managers of a new company that need to hire employees. They must decide what they would want to know about the prospective employees. They will present this information to the class in groups. Finally, they will have a speaker to show them where this information may be found in a portfolio. Students' prior learning will include the third grade unit in which they learned the steps to obtaining helper jobs within the school. This previous knowledge introduced them to the study of the skills of workers. Learning how to identify the components of a portfolio will help students be successful in the fifth grade when the learning task is to identify the skills needed to develop a portfolio.

Unit Goals:
 Students will work together and decide what is important for a worker to be hired, and then learn how this information might be obtained.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?
 Students need to be able to work in cooperative learning groups.
 Students need to know the steps in obtaining helper jobs in school.
 Students need to know the skills necessary for success in school.

 Students will design their own Personal Portfolio Folder and complete a Personal Portfolio Profile

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: What types of information would an employee need about a job applicant?

- Engagement (Hook): Ask to two or three volunteers. Tell the volunteers they are going to magic move 20 years into the future with the wave of your hand. Tell them they are going to be managers of a business or company in the world (let them select their company name). Students will pretend they are managers using adult professional behavior. They will contribute ideas respectfully with the class. Tell the managers every person they interview is going to have a Portfolio. Does anyone know what a portfolio is? (e.g. a folder, file or case with information about that interviewee’s personal qualities, education, training and work history. The interviewee should provide sample documents of their work or studies). What qualities would you look for in your perspective employee’s portfolio? What would you want to know about someone you were going to hire?” Have the managers respond and then have students to share additional ideas in small groups. Ask three or four groups to share their ideas. Re-direct students who are off-track or asking questions that are illegal (e.g., How old are you? What church do you attend?).

Students are able to ask appropriate questions (using the Interview Questions Activity Sheet) about what an employer looks for in an employee and how he or she verifies information. Following the interview with the employer, students will compare their criteria for employees with what they learned from businessperson.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: Why would an employer need to know about a possible workers skills and experience? How can you prepare yourself for being hired?

Engagement (Hook): Prior to the guest speaker’s arrival, the counselor will show students a copy of the Guest Speaker’s Resume’ (in brief form...personal qualities, education, training, work experience). The counselor will work with students to develop interview questions to be asked by the employer using the Interview Questions Activity Sheet. Guide students to consider questions that will help them learn what is in a portfolio (e.g., What personal strengths do you bring to this job? What is your past work experience? Where did you get your training? How do you know a person gets along with other people?) Review what a portfolio is and should have in it? Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Summative assessment relates to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Once students have completed lessons from the unit, the counselor may check for student understanding by reviewing concepts with the students throughout the year to check assess progress toward goals or change in behavior. The counselor may also check with teachers to discover which students are experiencing difficulties with the unit concepts. The counselor may consider offering individual or small group sessions for students not able to apply concepts..

Brief Summary of Unit:

Lesson 1: Students will participate in a web activity to understand the importance of relationships and how one's actions determine the strength of relationships.

Lesson 2: Students will brainstorm methods they use to keep up with individual, family, school and community responsibilities.

Lesson 3: Students will present information to partners and to the group about those things that they most value, using examples from the activity sheet.

Unit Goals:

- 1) Students will understand the skills needed to participate as a member of a team, family, school and community.
- 2) Students identify and develop personal planning strategies to cope with the various responsibilities to themselves, their families, and school.
- 3) Students will identify personal values that are important to them, while recognizing the perspectives of others.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need to be successful in this unit (e.g. the steps to solving a problem)?

The counselor may need to review group discussion skills (such as respecting the rights of individuals to express ideas, disagreeing in an appropriate manner, etc). The third lesson incorporates the Think-Pair-Share technique, so the students may need to be coached on the purpose and desired outcome if they are not familiar with the concept.

Activity Reflection

NAME: _____

Take a moment to think back on the activity we just completed. Mention feelings, thoughts and concerns you may have had while doing the activity.

1. How did you feel when either you or someone else had to let go of their string?

---

---

---

2. If you were one who was asked to let go of the string, how did it feel to be removed from the “community” of students who were still participating?

---

---

3. What did you learn about yourself by doing the activity? What did you learn about other students? Did the group work well together? Did members respect each other’s ideas and allow everyone to suggest ideas? Were there members who dominated the group?

Human Knot

Description of Icebreaker, Name Game, & Teambuilding Activity

James Neill
Last updated:

Human Knot

- a get-to-know-you icebreaker
- involves close physical proximity
- can be used as a name game
- helps a group learn about how to work together
- can also focus on group understanding of communication, leadership, problem solving, teamwork, trust, persistence, etc.

Equipment: None.

Time: ~15-20 minutes

Brief Description: Standing in a circle, group members reach across and shake hands - use hand connecting to a different person.

The group then tries to unravel the "human knot" by unthreading their bodies without letting go of each other people's hands.

How to Run a Human Knot Session

Set up & instructions \(1st round\)

Facilitator notes

Links to other descriptions

Set up & instructions

- Be aware that the activity involves close physical proximity and touch potentially in sensitive places! It can be used as a first activity in an adventurous program with volunteers (e.g., the start of an Outward Bound program). However, if the program is less adventurous, or group members potentially will have significant problems with such proximity, e.g., due to culture, or social or psychological problems, then Human Knot could be introduced later in a program.
- Ideal group size is approximately 10, but it can be done with anywhere from about 7 to 16. Much higher or lower and the task doesn't really work. The more in a group, the more difficult the task, partly because of the complexity, and partly because there is physically less room to move.
- Ask participants to form a circle, shoulder-to-shoulder. Encouraging/urging participants to all stand closer can be a subtle way of helping to prepare them for what is about to come.
- Ask participants to each place a hand in the middle of the circle and to grasp another hand.
- Then ask participants to put their other hand in the middle, grasp a different person's hand, and introduce themselves.
- Don't let participants let go of hands - some will be tempted to think the activity might then be over - but it is only just starting.
- Explain to participants that what you'd like them to do is untangle themselves, without letting go of hands, into a circle.
- There will be a mixture of reactions, often including nervous laughter, fun amusement, excitement, trepidation, strong suspicion that it can't be done, and others who may view the task as a somewhat sadistic or inappropriate joke. Often some group members will have done the task before, but this doesn't really matter, each time the task is unique.
- Participants may change their grip so as to more comfortable, but they are not to unclasp and re-clasp so as to undo the knot.
- If you want name-learning emphasized, then explain that whenever the group is talking to someone, or about someone, that the person's first name must be used. This usually requires supervision and reinforcement by the instructor, but once enforced, is excellent for learning names. It also usually helps the group to work together and find solution, because their communications are more accurate with names involved.
- Stand back and see what happens.
- Be prepared to see little progress for quite some time (up to 10 minutes). However, once the initial unfolding happens, the pace towards the final solution usually seems to quicken.
- However, because each occasion is unique, there are also odd times when a very fast solution falls out - too easy. In such cases, you ask a group to try the task again - it's usually a bit harder second time around. Occasionally, the task seems too hard and participants seem to make almost no progress. Let them struggle for about 10 minutes, then you can offer the group one unclasp and re-clasp - they need to discuss and decide what unclasp-reclasp would be most useful.

- Most of the time a full circle falls out, but occasionally there are two or even three interlocking circles. So, really the task is to sort the knot out into its simplest structure.

Facilitator notes

- A switched-on facilitator can get a lot of information about participants in a short space of time with this activity. For this reason, the activity is commonly used in group-based selection processes for jobs which involve closely working with others.
- Stay at a moderate distance, allowing the group to handle the activity with feeling like they're being too closely observed; but maintain good hearing contact and be ready to step in to help answer questions or change the direction of the activity quickly when appropriate.
- Slowly wander around the circle, moving in and out as appropriate, e.g., if you want people to use names in every communication, then this needs to be reinforced in a friendly, but firm way, several times.
- It is relatively easy to notice who's talking, who's not, who seems comfortable, who doesn't. Also note that sometimes the natural leaders are not in a good position to lead - do they try to dominate inappropriately or do they sit back appropriately and just do what they can. Sometimes, a new leader emerges from being in an opportune position in the knot. This can offer this person a significant boost. Also, almost everyone gets a positive sense of having played his or her part. Some people have difficulty enjoying the activity due to their uncomfotableness physically (e.g., obese, very tall, or inflexible people may find the activity particularly awkward).
- It is important to provide appropriate help if the activity proves too difficult. This might be encouragement that it can be done (some groups lack confidence and would give up too early), helping a couple of people communicate to find a solution to part of the knot, etc. Or this might be allowing an unclasp-reclasp. How much to give is a fine balancing act. The task should be challenging, but especially as an initial activity, it should give the group some initial confidence and momentum in being able to work together to solve problems.

Essential questions:

1. You knew that if you let go of your partner's hands, the circle would be broken. What did you do to avoid this from happening?
2. How did your role contribute to keep the circle together?
3. How well did you think the group worked together?
4. What do you think you've learned from this activity which can be applied in future activities?"

In other words, how do we manage individual, family, school, and community responsibilities?”</li><li>3. Hand out “How Do I Tie It All Together” activity sheets. Class discussion might be as follows:<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• If we plan things that we must do, then we have more time for the things we want to do. This activity can help you with keeping your commitments”</li><li>• First of all, block out time for sleep. You may wish to share that you, too, have to plan your day and week in order to meet your commitments to your family, your students, and your community. In other words, planners aren't just for students. Ask, "How do adults in your lives keep track of their commitments? How many of you have planners that you use regularly? Do you keep track of classroom assignments, or do you use it to keep track of other commitments as well?" 5. Offer this suggestion to the students: "Your challenge is to follow your plans on the activity sheet and to determine whether planning and scheduling your time can help you get the most out of your time. Once you have completed the week, review how you might want to change the schedule in order to best suit your "have-to" activities with your "want-to" activities.	4. Students participate in discussion by talking with peers and asking peer questions. 5. Students will follow their plans and review how and why the plan worked or didn't work. Discuss what changes must be made for the plan to work?

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Teacher will work with students to maintain planners. The teacher may want to refer students who have difficulty with planning their time to the counselor for remediation of the skill.

Assessing My Time Management Skills

NAME: _____

Take a moment to think back on today's lesson. Share what you have learned about yourself.

1. How do you plan out your day?

---

---

2. How do you feel when you plan out your day and do not accomplish your plan? What do you do when your plans are changed by others? What positive changes, if any, could you make in how you react to failed goals?

---

---

3. What did you learn about yourself by doing the activity? Will this activity affect the way you plan your day and how you manage your time?

---

---

4. Write a sentence using words that tie together "My time" and "My responsibilities."

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Formative assessment relates to the summative assessment for unit (performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLEs). Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Instructor will review activity sheet responses from “What Is Important to Me?” sheet to identify and assess indicators or personal awareness. Students participate in question/answer/discussion during classroom activity.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: How do people feel and act if they have a positive self-concept?

Engagement (Hook): If there were a fire in your house, what three things would you pick up in 15 seconds to take with you?

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. Counselor brings in items of value to him or her, such as pictures of children, wedding ring, $100 bill. Then the counselor asks, “Why do you suppose these items are important to me?”
2. How do you measure value or worth?
3. Counselor continues with the following information: “Everything has some sort of value. In our country, we often think of money as a way of measuring worth. Something may be worth fifty cents, one hundred dollars, or one hundred thousand dollars. If we lived in India, something may be determined by cattle’s worth.

We also place importance on things because they fill a need. For example, we place a priority on food, clothing, and a roof over our heads. These things are essential. A friend who comes to see us in the hospital is important to us because of the concern shown by that friend.

Many of the things of value cannot be seen or measured. Honesty is one of those. If

Student Involvement:

1. Students respond to prompt with awareness of personal value of possessions..
2. Individually students will list the criteria used to determine worth.
3. Students will actively listen and ask questions or add comments. They will check their own measures of value with those the counselor identifies.

you are honest, if you want others around you to be honest, and you “choose” to be honest over and over then honesty is something you value. Things of value may change as we grow and learn more about ourselves. Most things of value are learned from family, friends, and school. Things of value to us are often different from what our friends value. This difference may cause conflict, and you may have to make choices about your friendship or what you value.
4. Counselor provides students with “What Is Important to Me?” activity sheet. Review the directions with students. (Before continuing, the counselor may wish to read each item to the students, explaining the terminology.)	4. Students complete the “What Is Important to Me?” activity sheet, making sure to following the directions carefully.
5. The counselor pairs the students, instructs them to discuss their responses, then invites the student-pairs to share the results of the discussion with the class.	5. Students explain the results of their paired discussions.
6. As a follow-up activity with the parents/guardians, the counselor may wish to attach a note explaining the activity and inviting parents/guardians to discuss the worksheet with their child.	6. Students will take the activity home for discussion with family.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Discuss the counselor activity with the social studies teacher, so that whenever discussion of cultures occurs, the class can discuss the values that different cultures hold. It is important to emphasize that there are cultural “differences,” but that no one culture should be held in higher esteem than any another.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)

What Is Important to Me?

Name: _____ Date: _____

What is most important to you? There is no right or wrong answer. Knowing more about what is important to you will help you know yourself better.

Directions: With a partner, reading the following list of words. Be sure that each of you understands each word. Look up the words with which you are unfamiliar. It is not necessary to write the definitions, just understand them.

Select the five important items that you think would make the world a better place if everyone on earth had these five important items. Mark them with an "M" for "me," then tell your partner why you chose these. Listen very closely as your partner tells you his/her choices. Mark his/her choices with a "P" for "partner." When you have both discussed your choices, introduce your partner to the class and explain his/her choices and why they are important to him/her.

Summative assessment relates to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Once students have completed lessons from the unit, the counselor may check for student understanding by reviewing concepts with the students throughout the year to check for progress toward goals or change in behavior. The counselor may also check with teachers to discover which students are experiencing difficulties learning and demonstrating. The counselor may consider offering individual or group sessions for those students.

Brief Summary of Unit:

Lesson 1: Students will have a thorough understanding of their personal strengths and be able to use them to solve a problem within a group.

Lesson 2: Students will work in small groups to develop a commercial to promote a time saver.

Unit Goals:

Students will recognize the importance of including people with a diversity of strengths within a group in order to better achieve a goal. Students generate and utilize timesaving tips to achieve balance between individual, family, and school responsibilities.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need to be successful in this unit (e.g. the steps to solving a problem)?

Strategies that lead to success in a cooperative learning activity.

Completion of Personal Strength worksheet and successful completion of Team on a Tarp activity.

Ask the class for responses to the following questions:

1. What is the usefulness of having personal strengths but being the only person who benefits from them?
2. What might be ways that others can benefit from your personal strengths?

Write responses to these questions on the board for review and further discussion.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: Why do people need to learn to work together?

Engagement (Hook): Discuss the statement: “Too much of anything is not a good thing.” Have you ever been in a group with all leaders? All followers? All fun people? How can teams increase productivity? We need a variety of individual strengths when working as a team.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Teacher keeps a copy of each student’s personal strength sheets on file to determine future heterogeneously grouped teams. When doing group work, teacher reminds students to utilize everyone’s personal strengths and review individual student strengths.

Personal Strength Statements Teacher Worksheet

Prior to starting the lesson, place a 20 ft. piece of masking tape onto the floor in an open area (be sure flooring is acceptable for tape). Label one end “Most Like Me” and the opposite end “Least Like Me”. Explain that the line on the floor represents a scale from most like you to least like you. Read a statement from this worksheet and have students decide where they will stand on the continuum (tape line). At a predetermined signal, students move (see lesson for further instructions).

I look at everything before I make a decision.

I believe there is a right way to do everything.

I can never know enough.

I encourage others in my group.

I love to plan.

I am an expert at making deals.

I ask a lot of questions.

I can do many things at once.

I am responsible and organized.

I am not afraid to try something new.

I have patience when working with others.

I love a tough challenge and will ALWAYS find a way to do it.

I am logical when I solve problems.

I have a lot of energy and can do many things at once.

I prefer working in small groups.

I prefer working independently.

I like knowing rules and expectations.

I am a good listener when my friends need to talk.

I am cool, calm and collected under pressure.

I am always prepared for class.

The teacher will put a transparency of strength statements up while students are seated. Instruct students to fill out the graphic organizer worksheet at their seat with their personal strengths. Each student completes a graphic organizer by writing at least four of his or her own personal strengths.

Date: _____

My Personal Strengths

The graphic organizer consists of a central oval shape. Inside the oval, the word "Name:" is written. Four lines extend from the corners of the oval: one upwards, one downwards, one to the left, and one to the right. These lines are intended for students to write their personal strengths.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

The counselor may want to record all the students’ ideas to create an ongoing list for the class and the teacher to consult throughout the school year. The teacher may also check with students to see how their “magic minutes” strategies are working. These tips may be incorporated in school planners the next school year.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)

Time Waster or Time Saver

Time waster	Time Saver
Do I talk on the phone during study/homework time?	Have Mom or Dad take messages or use the answering machine.
Do I engage in Instant Messaging during study/homework time?	Enable the “block message” feature on your internet.
Do I put off study/homework? Do I get anxious because it gets later and later?	Plan each day when I will set time aside to study. If I plan ahead, it is easier to get started.
Do my parents spend time reminding me to study? Does it lead to real hassles with my parents?	Fill out a time sheet and put it on the refrigerator so everyone knows when study time is and when other activities are planned.
Do I use an assignment notebook?	Use of an assignment notebook will save me time trying to figure out what to do.
Do I daydream or talk to myself about things other than my studies?	Stand up and change my physical position. But remember, don't leave my desk.
Do I rarely have a plan?	Set small goals. The faster I read, the better I am able to concentrate. Use a time budgeting activity sheet. Divide assignments into small units. Set time limits for each one. Write the amount of time you think it will take to complete an assignment up in the corner and see if you can beat it.
Do I think of something to do and do it right now because I am afraid I will forget it?	Keep a reminder notepad handy or a post it in your assignment notebook.
Do I get caught with an assignment that was assigned a long time ago?	Use the calendar pages in the assignment notebook. Consult it every Sunday and then plan out your week accordingly.

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Summative assessment relates to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE’s. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Once students have completed lessons from the unit, the counselor may check for student understanding by reviewing concepts with the students throughout the year to check for progress toward goals or change in behavior. The counselor may also check with teachers to discover which students are experiencing difficulties with the concepts that have been covered. The counselor may consider offering individual or group sessions for those students.

Brief Summary of Unit:

Lesson 1: The old adage “sticks and stones may break my bones, but words will never hurt me” can be so untrue. Many students are wounded daily by words and eventually those words can become part of their self-concept. This lesson explores the way in which words can shape self-perception.

Lesson 2: A group of students and the counselor will research a community project to which the students can contribute in some way. Following the lesson, the students will process how the various groups contributed to the success of the project.

Unit Goals:

- 1) Students will reflect on their self-concepts and how those fit with who they are.
- 2) Students will work together to accomplish a goal that will help their school or community.
- 3) Students will reflect on how important individual efforts are to group success.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need to be successful in this unit (e.g. the steps to solving a problem)?

The counselor may need to review group discussion skills, such as respecting the rights of individuals to express ideas, disagreeing in an agreeable manner, etc. Students will have had some experience with cooperative group activities.

On a blank transparency, draw stripes. Ask a student to come to the overhead and spread toothpaste along the stripes. Then ask the student to return the toothpaste to the tube. The student will find the task impossible. Ask the class to respond to the following questions in writing.

1. As you see, once you spread the toothpaste, it is impossible to put it back. Likewise, once you spread gossip or speak poorly of a person, it cannot be taken back. Even if you say you are sorry, can you truly mend the damage that has been done?

Essential Questions: How do people manage all the responsibilities of their roles? How can a person’s contributions to their community effect change (both positive and negative)?

Engagement (Hook): Take little cubes (plastic or wood) and label them with typical children’s responsibilities. Using a scale from the science lab, label the 2 scales as “priority” or “secondary”. Have the students balance responsibilities by telling you how to shift the cubes around to make the best possible scenario.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
1. Recruit students from the eighth grade to discuss possible service projects in which the class might want to become involved. Make sure that you have a wide range of student groups involved in the decision-making process. - How did your perceptions of yourself, your school and/or community change as a result of this project?

(If the project does not go as well as planned, students still need to process and consider ways in which they could have improved the situation. The counselor might want the focus group then to write a suggestion letter to the next year's eighth grade to help to better.)

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Summative assessment relates to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE’s. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
 Students will complete the Relationship Quality Control Checklist. The summative assessment will take place during the 8th grade lesson.

Brief Summary of Unit: Students will be learning how to maintain quality relationships using interpersonal skills in a variety of social situations.

An emphasis on identifying the interpersonal skills needed to maintain quality relationships will be conducted in 6th grade likening interpersonal skills to essential ingredients in a recipe.

The 7th grade lesson will be a reflection and projection opportunity. Students will reflect on the past and present: what they know, what they still need to know and project future action and outcomes and how they will acquire the skills they have identified.

In the 8th grade, the students will be completing activities to help them describe the qualities and interpersonal skills they look for in a relationship and evaluate their own interpersonal skills as they relate to quality relationships.

Unit Goals:

Students will be able to identify interpersonal skills needed to maintain quality relationships.

Students will be able to practice effective interpersonal skills in a variety of social situations.

Students will be able to self-assess interpersonal skills that will help maintain quality relationships.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Students will need prior knowledge of how to be a friend and to be able to describe “interpersonal skills”.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Formative assessment relates to the summative assessment for unit (performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLEs). Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc. Students will create a recipe card identifying the interpersonal skills needed to maintain quality relationships based on a given rubric.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: What does a quality relationship look like and how is it maintained?

Engagement (Hook): Tell the students you are going to make i.e. a peanut butter and jelly sandwich (or your chosen basic recipe). Purposely forget the bread (or an essential ingredient for your chosen basic recipe). Begin to get the ingredients out naming them and telling the amount of each one needed. Make the sandwich without the bread, smearing the peanut butter on the plate with the jelly on top of it (or make your recipe without an essential ingredient). Ask the students what is wrong? What essential ingredient is missing? What happens when you make something without using essential ingredients?

Procedures

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

The teacher will be asked to collect the completed cards if time does not allow completion during the allotted lesson time. Recipe cards would be given to counselor(s) for use in office or they may be placed in the cafeteria, study halls, classrooms, given to 5th grade students, etc. If the teacher completes the activity, the teacher may need to write a referral for students who do not seem to understand the skills needed for maintaining quality relationships based on the content of the recipe card.

1. Card must be completed on paper given (should only be on one side) and with your name on the back.
2. Card must identify 5 interpersonal skills needed to maintain quality relationships (check your spelling).
3. Card should be decorated so that it is attractive. Use crayons, markers, color pencils, construction paper, or drawings to decorate the card.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Formative assessment relates to the summative assessment for unit (performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLEs). Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Formative Assessment: In teams of 3, students will plan scenarios in which they demonstrate inappropriate and appropriate interpersonal skills in a variety of social situations. They will assume the roles of the individuals in their scenario and will plan demonstration of inappropriate interpersonal skills. After the scenario, students in the scenario will lead a whole class discussion re: Respectful of SELF?? Appropriate? Inappropriate? Identify skills used/misused/not used. Replay the scenario with the class members coaching the players in the appropriate use of interpersonal skills. When the scenario ends, all students will do a 1-minute writing using “During this lesson, I learned I .....” Working with the same team of 3, they will talk together about their learning and new questions they have after reflecting on the experience. Instructor will invite 5 volunteers to share their “I learned...” with whole class. Be a careful observer of interactions of students throughout the lesson as another form of formative assessment. Through your observations you will be able to identify individuals who would benefit from more practice and skill development.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

Some folks your age find it easy to interact with others; while, some folks find it difficult. What makes the difference, i.e. why are relationships easy for some and a struggle for others? Is it possible to change how we interact with others? In what ways does “respect for self and others” influence interpersonal relationships?

Engagement (Hook): Pre-arrange for two students to become involved in a scene in which one student grabs another’s notebook and begins going through it making disparaging remarks. The owner of the notebook tries to grab it back. At this point, say something like “Hmmm...seems you have lost some of your learning from last year.”

Procedures

Instructor Procedures: <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Review the 6th grade learning about interpersonal skills. Show the “Recipe for Relationships” and ask students to recall the ingredients. Ask what else they remember about the lesson? Strive for remembering of the “missing ingredient” demonstration.</li><li>2. Tell students that in this lesson, they will be expanding their knowledge and use of effective interpersonal skills. Group students in teams of 3 and tell them that they will be working together to design a 2-minute scenario in which an individual behaves inappropriately in a social situation. You will assign the settings for the scenario—they will do the rest.</li><li>3. Explain that after presenting the scenarios to the class, the student groups will lead a class discussion for the purpose of assessing the inappropriate/appropriate interpersonal skills displayed in the skit. Each group should plan for, at least, 3 discussion questions. Allow 10-15 minutes for planning depending on the group and the time remaining, talk about how to lead a discussion (encourage note taking), and encourage open-ended questions. Teams work together to plan their discussion.</li></ol> DAY 2 OF LESSON This will be the day for the formative assessment i.e. the dramatizing of the scenarios. See the Formative Assessment for directions.	Student Involvement: <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Students will participate enthusiastically in the discussion. Every student will contribute something to the conversation.</li><li>2. Students will get into their teams and identify the social setting they will be dramatizing. Before they do anything else, the team, together, will specify the exact setting and context of the scenario. They will then decide the theme of their scenario (e.g. acting out behavior, sullen or “pouty” behavior). The script/design of the scenario is the next step. The final step regarding the planning phase is to rehearse (and time) the scenario.</li><li>3. Students will take notes about the key points of leading discussions and teams will decide on the starter questions to be asked.</li></ol> DAY 2 OF LESSON Students will use appropriate interpersonal skills as they perform and participate in discussions.

Total score _____

What your score means:

70 – 56 You have excellent interpersonal skills. You probably have many valuable relationships. You are well-liked by your peers and your family. You are a very mature young person.

55 – 40 You are well on your way to learning excellent interpersonal skills. The fact that you recognize your weaker areas is a great stepping stone to realizing your potential. You probably have a lot of friends, but there are probably people out there who would like to be your friend—reach out to them using some new skills.

39 – 26 You appear to be lacking some skills that you should have acquired by this age. You need to take an honest look at yourself and where you need to make some changes in order to fit into society. If you are struggling in a particular area, please ask your friends, a counselor or another trusted adult for help.

25 -14 If your score falls here, don't panic! If you want to improve your interpersonal skills, first look at the areas that you scored yourself low. Next, think for a minute about the friends that you have now. Do your actions sometimes upset others? Are you the best friend you can be? Would you be your own friend? Be honest with yourself. That is the only way to improve.

I Heard What You Did This Summer.....

Jack and Julie have been dating for six months. Jack heard from his best friend, Stan, that Julie was seen at the mall this past Saturday by Ken going into the movies with Michael. They were holding hands.

You are Stan.

1. Is it appropriate for you to share your information with Jack? _____

2. Why or why not?

---

3. How will your decision help your relationship with Jack?

---

4. What interpersonal skills will you be using?

---

You are Jack.

1. If Stan shares his information with you, what interpersonal skills will you need to use?

---

2. Which skills might you find difficult to use?

---

3. How do you handle the situation with Julie?

---

4. How much do you really know about the situation?

---

---

You are Julie.

1. If Jack questions you, what interpersonal skills will you need to use?

---

2. If Jack does not believe your answer, how can you handle that?

---

5. Complete the same information for three family members. 6. Ask the students to self-reflect on 8 skills that they have that they think are important for others to have also. Many of these skills should be repeating from the other lists. 7. Ask students to identify which skills they feel are important for others to have but that they do not have on the list for themselves (skills they may be weak in) and then identify what plans or actions they can take to improve the weak skills. 8. Initiate discussion about finding differences in the lists. Sample questions/comments: How can we expect things from others in a relationship and not from ourselves? Why would someone want to be your friend if you did not have traits that were important to them? Is it easier to change yourself or to try and change someone else? It is important to note that when you change yourself for the better, you are “growing”, but when you try to change someone else, you are “controlling”. You benefit yourself by focusing on yourself, because you are the one that you will always have to live with.	5. Students will identify three family members and those qualities that make each person important to them and valuable as a family member. 6. Students will complete self-reflection area. 7. Students will compare lists and identify skills / traits that they find that they may be weak in. They will identify how they can strengthen those skills / traits. 8. Participate in discussion.

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Summative assessment relates to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

This Unit's Summative Assessment is an example of school-wide involvement. If your time/resources make the full implementation of the summative assessment as written here unfeasible, it may be simplified by conducting all aspects of the summative assessment within the classroom and limiting involvement to the students within the class (i.e., the scenario will be enacted as a role-play in the classroom using class members as actors). While this is a suitable alternative, you are urged to seek ways to allow students to become involved in a "live-action" experience of advocating for a school-wide commitment to R-E-S-P-E-C-T as a way of life. Social responsibility practiced in school increases the likelihood that social responsibility will be enacted in the community.

Performance Scenario: (The Performance Scenario begins in Grade 7 and continue/culminate in Grade 8)

Goal (of scenario): Develop a school-wide design and implementation plan to promote R-E-S-P-E-C-T as a way of life for EVERY member of the school community (including adults).

Role: You are a member of the change management team within a public relations firm. Your team includes eight (8) members, each with a specific area of expertise and creative talent. At the first team meeting for a new project, members identify the specialty areas of each team member as they relate to the new project.

Audience: All members of the school community: Staff, Faculty, Parents, Volunteers, Administrators and Students.

Situation: Increased tension within the school community has resulted in physical as well as verbal aggression. Students say the teachers and administrators do not respect students' suggestions and needs. Teachers, staff, and administrators point to the lack of respect students have for authority and inadequate home support for the school as the cause. Parents think school disciplinary policies are arbitrarily applied so as to benefit certain groups of students.

Your client is a joint committee of the District Board of Education and Middle School Advisory Council. The committee has charged your company with designing an action plan that will promote R-E-S-P-E-C-T among all members of the school community. The design must challenge each member of the school community to take personal responsibility for R-E-S-P-E-C-T as a way of life within the middle school. Community.

Product, Performance and Purpose: You will design an action plan which will involve all members of the school community in the planning as well as implementation of Operation R-E-S-P-E-C-T. The plan will be endorsed by all groups. Examples of strategies and materials will be available (e.g., poster samples, theme song, motto). You will present the plan to the Board of Education and the Advisory Council and convince the members to make the plan a part of the district's operation from year to year.

Standards and Criteria for Success:

Your plan will include:

- An introduction and overview of the process and intended outcomes (an executive summary)
- Input from members of the school community: Utilize interviews/surveys that sample the opinions and suggested solutions of each group in the school community (e.g., students, staff). Provide a summary of and conclusions from the results – by individual groups (disaggregated data) and as a whole (aggregated data).
- Proposed activities and participants in each activity, e.g., Activity: Produce eye and thought-catching R-E-S-P-E-C-T posters Participants: All students will work with a partner to design and produce a poster.
- Anticipated effects in students' lives and learning (i.e. what will students know and be able to do as a result of the activity?) Short term/medium term/long term effects.
- Anticipated support/deterrents of plan (people/policy/resources) and how support as well as deterrents, be used to make project successful.
- Assessment of results: Measurement of Success
- Time Line, budget, persons accountable for each phase or task.
- References/Resources used during plan-development process.

Brief Summary of Unit: Students will be learning how to advocate peacefully, knowledgeably, and with an identifiable purpose and plan.

6th Grade: The focus of the 6th Grade Lesson, Respect: Looks Like, Sounds Like, Feels Like, is an in-depth study of respect – what it is and the ways in which respect for self and others is basic to communication and interpersonal relationships. The 6th grade lesson emphasizes respectful relationships with people students know – family and friends.

7th Grade: The 7th grade lesson, R-E-S-P-E-C-T – A Basic Skill, provides an opportunity for students to become engaged in a project-based learning experience that will lead to a plan of action and advocacy strategies. Students will work in teams to create a school-wide or classroom [depending on time and resources] Action Plan for implementing Operation: R-E-S-P-E-C-T.

8th Grade:

There are two (2) lessons at the 8th grade level. The first, A Stranger Among Us, stresses respectful empathy and understanding of the “inner-experience” of being visibly different from the others in the class and/or school. The second 8th grade lesson, Who is Most Valuable Among Us, features an experiential decision-making exercise during which teams decide who should or should not be saved from an impending disaster.

Unit Goals:

- Students will be able to explain the meaning of respect in one’s life.
- Students will know and understand respect for self and others as a skill to be developed.
- Students will understand the role of advocacy and will be able to develop a plan for a specific course of action.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Communication Arts: Fundamentals of standard English, reading and writing formally and informally, participating in group discussions and presentations

Mathematics: data analysis

Social Studies: using the tools of social science inquiry (e.g. surveys and interviews)

Comprehensive Guidance: the elements of being a friend; the ability to describe “interpersonal skills,” the ability to use basic self-assessment processes, understanding “respect” as a way of life and an element of friendship.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: Why is respect for others important? How do we know we are using respect?

Engagement (Hook): The counselor will display a stuffed animal that talks/sings/plays music. Ask a student to come forward and use their senses to describe the item to the rest of the class. The student may say things like it is soft, talks/sings/plays music, looks cute/cuddly, etc. Ask the students if the student describing the item has described it accurately. A: Students will acquire the knowledge, attitudes and interpersonal skills to help them understand and respect self and others.

Materials (include activity sheets and/ or supporting resources)

- Five (5) or six (6) advertisements for products with high recognition value for seventh graders e.g., multi-media advertising for a new movie, a new videogame or a clothing line. Before the lesson, block out the names of the products and label each product with a number. The product numbers will match a line in Column B of Activity Sheet 1 (see attached).
- Examples of multi-media advertising campaign(s); slogans, “theme songs,” logos (to be gathered by students outside of class).
- Resources: Print and world-wide-web information and resources regarding public relations, planning, and advocacy
- Collaboration with Fine Arts, Communication Arts and Social Studies faculty to work with students in such things as design of materials, writing promotion materials, survey methods and analyzing data.
- Resource Person(s) to talk with students about design elements to consider when developing their advocacy plan—Survey parents as potential resources.
- Production Resources (e.g., paper, markers, AND recording equipment – video and audio)

Show Me Standards: Performance Goals (check one or more that apply)

X	Goal 1: gather, analyze and apply information and ideas 5. Comprehend and evaluate written, visual and oral presentations and works
X	Goal 2: communicate effectively within and beyond the classroom 3. Exchange information, questions and ideas while recognizing the perspectives of others
	Goal 3: recognize and solve problems
	Goal 4: make decisions and act as responsible members of society

This lesson supports the development of skills in the following academic content areas.

Academic Content Area(s)	Specific Skill(s)
X Communication Arts	1. Speaking and writing standard English 4. Writing formally (e.g., reports, narratives, essays) and informally (e.g., outlines, notes) 6. Participating in formal and informal presentations and discussions of issues and ideas
X Mathematics	3. Data analysis, probability, and statistics
X Social Studies	7. Use the tools of social science inquiry
Science
Health/Physical Education
X Fine Arts	1. Process and techniques for the production, exhibition or performance of one or more of the visual or performed arts. 4. Interrelationship of the visual and performing arts and the relationships of the arts to other disciplines.

Enduring Life Skill(s)

	Perseverance		Integrity	X	Problem Solving
	Courage	X	Compassion		Tolerance
X	Respect		Goal Setting

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Formative assessment relates to the summative assessment for unit (performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLEs). Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

The assessment “instrument” for this lesson is in the form of a scenario which will be enacted in the classroom by class members. Via this assessment process, students will become involved in a simulation as an advocate for a school-wide commitment to R-E-S-P-E-C-T as a way of life. Social responsibility practiced in school increases the likelihood that social responsibility will be enacted in the community. The Performance Scenario and Guidelines are provided at the end of this lesson.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: What does “Respect – A Basic Skill” mean? How would “Respect” as a basic skill make a difference in our school?

Engagement (Hook): Gather print and non-print examples of advertising campaigns for a familiar product (e.g., brochures and multi-media presentations for the DVD of a box-office hit movie). To the extent possible, override or block out product/event names on the packaging. Play and/or show advertising “mechanisms.”

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. The counselor will introduce the lesson using the “Hook” (above). After showing/playing the first of the advertisements/commercials, explain Activity Sheet 1: its purpose and student tasks. (Be sure products are numbered and that the numerals match the numerals on the data entry form.) After each advertising example, students will record what they believe to be the product name in Column A of Table 1 (Activity Sheet RESPECT by the Numbers).</li><li>2. After each of the media examples has been viewed/heard and students have entered their responses in Column A of Table 1, show the actual or a facsimile of the product being promoted by each advertisement. As products are displayed, students write correct product name in Column B of Table 1. In Column C, students will indicate whether or not they responded with the correct product name.)</li><li>3. The PSC (or classroom teacher) will facilitate data collection and data entry by providing leadership for the completion of /columns D (current ownership and use) and Column E (potential ownership/use).</li><li>4. When data have been entered, students will gather/analyze data to determine the percentage of students who correctly identified the products advertised (Column C); the number who already own or use the product (Column D); and who, if they could, would buy the product after seeing the commercial/ advertisement for the product (Column E). Enter the results in Table 1 (Activity Sheet 1: R-E-S-P-E-C-T: A Basic Skill by the Numbers).</li></ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Students will enter what they believe to be the name of the products in Column A of Activity Sheet 1: Respect by the Numbers.</li><li>2. When all advertising has been viewed or heard and the product names have been listed in Column A, students will re-view/listen to advertising message for each product, participate in a discussion about the products and their names and enter the correct product names in Column B. They will “self-score” their responses and indicate in Column C whether or not they responded with the correct product name.)</li><li>3. Working with the guidance of the counselor or classroom teacher, the data collection and data entry process will be continued. Columns D (current ownership and use) and Column E (potential ownership/use).</li><li>4. Students will assist with counting and recording responses in Columns C, D, and E.</li></ol>

5. To accomplish the aggregation of the data, assign students to a 3 or 4 member group to compile individual results into group results. Assuming the class will be divided into at least 6 teams, we suggest that 2 teams work (independently) on compiling the data for one column (C, D, or E). In that way, a system of checks and balances occurs. 6. Ask students who compiled data for the separate columns (C, D, or E) to present the results for that column to the rest of the class. Class members who are not presenting, may use Activity Sheet 1 to record the results. 7. As results are shared, bring out the following themes and ideas (if members of the groups or class don't mention the themes.) <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Planned use of media sells products.</li><li>• The most successful advertising is that which embeds a concept or opinion of the product in other's thinking.</li><li>• If respect is to be considered a basic skill, we must sell it via a planned media campaign, a-la- "Operation R-E-S-P-E-C-T.</li><li>• Seventh graders can be a catalyst for communicating "respect" as a way of life within their schools.</li><li>• We all have a social responsibility to advocate for the respect of all people, especially those who are too young to advocate for themselves</li></ul> 8. Review the conceptual essence of the 6th grade lesson: using more than one sensory modality enables us to gather data (information) that might be overlooked if only one sensory mode were used. Solicit and/or remind students that in the sixth grade lesson, they were taking responsibility for communicating their respect and honoring of others.	5. Students will ask questions to clarify their tasks and work with others to compile group data for one Column: C, D, or E. 6. Students will participate in the planning and delivery of an informal presentation regarding the results of the survey process. 7. Students who are not presenting, will practice team skills by asking questions, making suggestions and being supportive of those presenting. 8. Students will volunteer to share their successes and challenges in implementing their sixth grade plans to show respect.

Distribute copies of the sixth grade Activity Sheet Planning to Use Respect (it would approach ideal if you, or they, have their completed plans from Grade 6). Ask for volunteers to talk about the parts of their plans they have been able to continue beyond the 6th grade lesson.

Closure for Steps 1-8 of this lesson: Ask: How does communicating respect for another relate to our purchase of products? How might the use of multi-sensory modalities be used to increase sales? Encourage: looking and listening for ads that incorporate multi-sensory modalities.

NOTE: This is a good place to end the first day of the Operation R-E-S-P-E-C-T planning process.

9. Getting Ready for Steps 9-13: Ask students tell about their observations about the use of multi-sensory modalities in advertising. If you are met with blank stares, back-up to the Hook for this lesson and relate multi-sensory concept of “Sounds like ..., Looks like ..., Feels like ...” to the advertisements that were used as the “Hook”. (You are seeking examples of advertisers using multi-sensory approaches to influence consumers to buy their products.)

10. Write “Auditory Visual ‘Heart Feeling’” as column headers on board.

Introduce the Performance Scenario and “Operation R-E-S-P-E-C-T” campaign by asking: “What makes you buy a product?” As they brainstorm, write their words in the column where the words fit best—add additional sensory modes (taste, smell, touch) if needed.

11. Ask: How do companies know the best

9. In groups, students will identify the sensory modes that were used in the advertisements presented as the “Hook” for this lesson.

10. Students, as a whole group, will identify what influences them when deciding whether or not to buy a product.

11. Students will contribute to information

way to influence consumers? Work toward concept of gathering information via focus groups, surveys, interviews from the people who are likely to buy product. 12. Tell the students that they are going to become advertising executives for an ad firm that has been hired by your school to sell the concept of “R-E-S-P-E-C-T: A Basic Skill and A Way of Life” to the school community. Ask students what “selling a concept” means to them. Remind students that the purpose of the plan for communicating respect to family members was a plan to sell a concept—I respect and honor you, my mother. Distribute the Performance Scenario and rubric. Provide students time to read the scenario and the rubric guidelines. When students have had time to read the scenario and guidelines, open the discussion to questions about the assignment. When individual questions have been answered, assign students to their advertising teams. Guide students in introducing themselves by telling about the skills they each will bring to the work of the team (e.g. art poetry writing, rap singing, organization). 13. Assignment: Tell students they are to begin thinking like an ad executive—each student will look for comprehensive product-advertising campaigns and bring examples to the next guidance class meeting. Examples may be from any type (legal) business. Before the next meeting time, students will write a one-two page informal writing	with personal examples regarding companies’ use of multi sensory modalities to determine best way to influence consumers to buy products (e.g. taste tests in the grocery store, interview in department store about clothing preferences). 12. Students will contribute to discussion re: selling a concept – what does it mean? Students will read the Performance Scenario and rubric and ask clarifying questions. Students will meet with their advertising teams to get acquainted with each other as members of the same team. Each will complete A self-assessment and asset search –What strengths do I bring to this team as a “knowledgeable worker”? What personal strengths do I possess that will facilitate the use of every team member’s positive energy? 13. Students will ask questions to clarify the kinds of examples and the resources that are available for finding examples. Students will ask clarifying questions about the informal writing assignment. describing of the large-scale ad campaign, hypothesizing about target audience and how the company’s campaign appeals to that audience. The last paragraph of the student’s writing will demonstrate the transfer of knowledge and understanding gained through observing/analyzing large scale advertising campaigns to the development of the “Operation R-E-S-P-E-C-T campaign.

(Note: this is the suggested breaking point between day 2 and day 3 of lesson implementation).

14. Steps 14 onward: Demonstrating GLE 2.2 7th grade Advocacy Competence. Students will join with team members to discuss observations from the real world of advertising.

15. The Performance Scenario Begins: The teams will begin with a team conversation about each individual’s vision for “Operation R-E-S-P-E-C-T –Making Respect a Basic Skill and a Way of Life in the Middle School. The creativity of the team is encouraged—Each one of the members brings a unique creativity to the team—team members are responsible for helping everyone’s talent and creativity come alive during the planning for the Performance Scenario. When individual visions have been shared , the collaboration and division of labor begin with the team outlining each aspect of the plan and assigning people who will carry out responsibility and the accountable person in each team.

16. You-Guide on the Side: Teams will follow the guidelines presented in “Summative Assessment“. The counselor and/or classroom teacher is/are urged to use

14. Each student will contribute to discussion by promoting the linkage between and among the comments/observations of team members

15. Students will imagine and explore with other team members ways to make respect for self and others a basic skill and a way of life.

A multi-media station (computer/projection equipment/printers) will facilitate the mechanics of writing the plan.

16. Team members will develop an Action Plan for the Operation R-E-S-P-E-C-T making respect for others a way of living. In their plans, students will include

restraint and curb the desire to save students from “mistakes” or embarrassment—students will learn more and gain more self-confidence if they are allowed to work their way out of a mess”. Be available for support and a helping hand when a team needs it. Spend time with each team—listen to their conversations to determine what, if any, re-direction is needed. Midway through time allotment, remind students of time remaining and answer any “good of the cause” questions—i.e. questions that pertain to everyone. Remind teams of product you are expecting to see at the end of this period. This is a place for real collaboration between classroom teacher and PSC – Work with CRT to incorporate time for teams to work together in classroom. The last Step: Performing and Reflection /Projection: 17. Teams will each make a 7-minute presentation of their Operation R-E-S-P-E-C-T plan. Class members who are not presenting will serve as the school board/Advisory Council and will use the rubric as a checklist. At the end of each presentation 3 minutes will be set aside for writing, Students utilize Checklist and Reflection/projection statements to identify their next steps—as individuals/as a class in order to follow-through with “Operation R-E-S-P-E-C-T.	“accountability checks” with their partners. 17. Students will write thoughtful “I learned ...” statements; four students will volunteer to share their statements. Students will make arrangements (i.e., get permission) to post the materials they developed as a part of their proposal in high visibility, community places around the school.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

The counselor and the classroom teacher will collaborate in order to make Operation R-E-S-P-E-C-T “work” successfully. The classroom teacher will be asked to provide a time each day for students to talk together about their observations of R-E-S-P-E-C-T becoming known as a basic skill and a way of life in the middle school.

Summative Assessment for PS 2.B Grade 7 Unit 2 Lesson 2)

PERFORMANCE SCENARIO

Goal: (of scenario): Develop a school-wide design and implementation plan to promote R-E-S-P-E-C-T as a way of life for EVERY member of the school community (including adults).

Role: You are a member of the change management team within a public relations firm. Your team includes eight (8) members, each with a specific area of expertise and creative talent. At the first team-meeting for a new project, members identify the specialty areas of each team member as they relate to the new project.

Supporting Characters: (note: the number and titles of supporting characters will vary depending upon your specific situation). Your co-workers and members of the advertising company’s team (7); school board and advisory council representatives (2); School Administrator (1) and any others deemed necessary.

Audience: All members of the school community: Staff, Faculty, Parents, Volunteers, Administrators and Students.

Situation: Increased tension within the school community has resulted in physical as well as verbal aggression. Students say the teachers and administrators do not respect students’ suggestions and needs. Teachers, staff, and administrators point to the lack of respect students have for authority and inadequate home support for the school as the cause. Parents think school disciplinary policies are arbitrarily applied so as to benefit certain groups of students and punish others.

Your client is a joint committee of the District Board of Education and Middle School Advisory Council. The committee has charged your company with designing an action plan that will promote R-E-S-P-E-C-T among all members of the school community. The design must challenge each member of the school community to take personal responsibility for R-E-S-P-E-C-T as a way of life within the middle school community.

Product, Performance and Purpose: You will design an action plan which will involve all members of the school community in the planning as well as implementation of Operation R-E-S-P-E-C-T. The plan will be reviewed and endorsed by all groups holding a vested interest in making R-E-S-P-E-C-T a way of life in the middle school. Examples of strategies and materials will be available for all to review (e.g., poster samples, theme song, motto). The plan will be presented to the Board of Education and the Advisory Council with the goal of making the Operation R-E-S-P-E-C-T plan a part of the district’s strategic planning process from year to year.

An introduction and overview of the process and intended outcomes (an executive summary)
Input from members of the school community as evidenced by: •interviews/surveys which sample the opinions and suggested solutions of each group in the school community (e.g., students, staff). •a summary of and conclusions from the results – by individual groups (disaggregated data) and as a whole (aggregated data).
Proposed activities and people involved in each activity are identified, e.g., Activity 1 = Production of eye- and thought-catching R-E-S-P-E-C-T posters People involved = All students will work with a partner to design and produce a poster. Time Line = Begin September 1; Posters displayed: October 1; Budget = Supplies for poster production $250.00 Accountable Person = Jim and Jane Activity 2 = categories above are repeated for each of the proposed activities.
Anticipated effects in students' lives and learning: what will students know and be able to do as a result of the activity? Short term/medium term/long term effects related to activities and Operation R-E-S-P-E-C-T
Anticipated support/deterrents of plan (people/policy/resources) and how support as well as deterrents, will be used to assure project success.
Assessment of results: Measurement of Success
Overall time line, budget, persons accountable for each phase or task.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: Why is respect for others important? Why is acceptance of differences not always an easy thing?

Engagement (Hook): Instructor walks into the classroom in attire that reflects another race, religion, etc.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
1. Write each of these terms on the board: Race, Religion, Culture, Ethnicity, and Character. Ask students to look up the terms in the dictionary and select one student per each term to write it on the board. 2. Lead discussion on the similarities and differences between the terms and how they relate to humans. Incorporate the amount of control a person has over these terms. Facilitate students thinking about character as an aspect of self that we can control. 3. Breaking the students into small groups, use the “A Stranger Among Us” worksheet to facilitate discussion. Randomly select students to report group findings. 4. Separate groups and ask students to individually write a response to: “What might you miss out on if you allow your fear and biases to take over and you don’t take the time to get to know the person behind the differences?” 5. Write student-responses on the board for review and further processing.	1. Students will look up terms individually and if asked, will write the definition to a select term on the board. 2. Participate in discussion using active listening skills. 3. Students will discuss their responses in small groups and be prepared to report on a random basis, at teacher discretion. 4. Students will work individually and respond to the question on paper. When students are finished writing, they will tell the teacher their responses as asked. 5. Students will look at the list of things they will miss out on by not accepting individual differences and come to a self-awareness.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Teacher can leave the list on the board and continue discussion if appropriate.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)

A Stranger Among Us

You currently attend a school with students who are all of one race. Today, a student came into your classroom who was of a different race. They looked different, they talked different, and they wore different clothing. The teacher asked them to sit at your table.

1. What is your initial reaction?
2. What might that student be feeling?
3. How can you show the student that you respect him/her?
4. Which interpersonal skills will become important in this situation?
5. What can you say to those who don't show accepting behaviors?

Final question:

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Summative assessment relates to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Students will complete a variety of worksheets and perform a variety of role-play situations to assess their understanding and ability to demonstrate accepting responsibility in conflict situations.

Brief Summary of Unit:

Students will begin to be able to identify challenges and conflicts that arise as such. They will practice how to stop and think about what is happening, the consequences, and preferred ways of handling the situation. They will identify their strengths and weaknesses and focus on building their strengths and maturing into young adults with sufficient and appropriate conflict-resolution skills.

Unit Goals:

Students will identify and utilize effective conflict-resolution skills in both role-play situations and real life.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Students will need to know the steps to solving a problem learned in the elementary grades in order to be successful. Students will also need to know what the definition of conflict is.

Unit # 3 Title: Conflict Resolution –I am part of the Solution!

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: What does it mean to utilize and accept personal responsibility in relationships with others? Why is it important to accept personal responsibility in our relationships with others?

Engagement (Hook): Put students in groups of 3 or 4 and give each group one wrapped food item (granola bar, fruit snacks, fruit roll ups, etc.). Tell the students to figure out who gets the food. Students should figure out that each one can have some food. Give students a chance to work on the problem and then discuss what strategies were used in the groups.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Tell the students you want them to help you list any new challenges they have faced this year as a sixth grader. Unit # 3 Title: Conflict Resolution –I am part of the Solution!

Lesson Title: “Re—Solutioning”: Practice Brings Out Our Best

Lesson# 2 of 4

Grade Level: 7

Length of Lesson: 2-50 minute sessions

Note: This lesson is designed for expansion in two possible ways. The first possible expansion includes making a film to use with younger children. The second possible expansion stops short of actually making the film, however, shares the work of the 7th grade students with younger students providing the opportunity for a quasi-service learning experience for the older students and connections with the future and education for the younger students.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Formative assessment relates to the summative assessment for unit (performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLEs). Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc. Students will write scripts for scenarios to be “re-solutioned”. One re-solution scenario will be role played for whole class.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: What is “personal responsibility”? In a relationship, whose responsibility is “personal responsibility”? Is taking “personal responsibility” a gateway to becoming a victim or a scapegoat?

Engagement (Hook): Without saying anything, begin lesson by playing a 1-2 minute segment of a video/dvd involving people (any video will do -- the process of re-winding and editing is the focus); freeze/pause the action; rewind with the picture showing and pause/freeze the beginning of the scenario.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
-------------------------------	-----------------------------

1. Ask for volunteers to describe what they observed happening and to project what will happen next (focus on the PROCESS of playing, stopping, re-winding, starting over). Guide students in discovering: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Actors have a script to follow.</li><li>• In filmmaking, the process of editing and/or re-doing a conflict scenario makes the final result “perfect.”</li><li>• In stage productions, rehearsals are held for weeks before the production opens.</li><li>• In real-life-action, we don’t have the luxury of a script and editing in conflict situations—OR DO WE?</li></ul> 2. Review with students their past learning in regard to conflict resolution, e.g., <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• STAR: Stop—Think—Act—Renew</li><li>• Steps in the conflict resolution process.</li><li>• Personal responsibility and problem ownership</li></ul> 3. Emphasize that we DO have the opportunity to stop our action in order to bring out the best – within ourselves and within the conflict. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Humans are capable of stopping action and starting over—however,</li><li>• Each person in a challenging situation has feelings and thoughts that may differ from the other’s thoughts and feelings about the same situation. (See 6th grade 2.3 lesson)</li><li>• Problem-solving and conflict-resolution skills are necessary to resolve conflict between people.</li><li>• Compromise is a positive step toward working out challenging situations—however,</li><li>• Courage is required when the conflict or problem is between human beings!</li><li>• Practice will help us be better prepared to say, “Wait a minute! I didn’t like the way I said that ...I’d like to start over.”</li><li>• In time, and with practice, putting ourselves “in check” will become more</li></ul>	1. Several (4 or 5) students will volunteer to tell about their observation of the play, freeze, re-wind, freeze process. Compare the ability of the VCR to stop when there is a problem with our typical ways of reacting to the challenge of real-life. Contribute by considering the ways people solve conflict on television. {A sidebar: Why do the producers of movies, TV shows, and video games depict violence as a way to solve problems with another person?} 2. Students will build on each other’s contributions by asking questions or providing more information about prior learning and solving conflicts peaceably, respectfully and productively. 3. Students will discuss the role of feelings, compromise, and problem solving in the conflict-resolution process. Identify a time you used courage to face-up to a conflict.

natural in our real-life action scenarios. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• R-E-S-P-E-C-T is at the heart of the motivation to bring out the best—within us and within the re-solution of the conflict.</li></ul> 4. Reminder and Review of 6th grade lesson: Students will need the sixth grade 2.3 Activity Sheet—How am I Responsible? (If students monitor year-to-year growth by keeping completed Activity Sheets in a “portfolio”—ask them [before the lesson] to have their portfolios available for this lesson. If they do not have portfolios [and as a back-up for those who forget or can’t find portfolios], copy the 6th grade 2.3 Activity Sheet—“How am I Responsible?” [attached]). Emphasize empathy and re-storying as critical aspects of personal responsibility in the problem-solving process. 5. Ask 3-4 students to (voluntarily) share relationship situations they have experienced since completing the activity sheet in 6th grade and the ways the process helped to “re-solution” the conflict. 6. Peer, Parents, and Teachers: Re-solutioning conflict in relationships with Peers, Parents, and Teachers. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Assign students to teams of two. Give each team three (3) index cards—one each of three different colors (e.g., yellow, green, blue),</li><li>• Students will develop three brief real-life conflict scenarios in which the solution applied is hurtful to all. The first scenario will be a real-life peer conflict, the second, a real-life conflict with a parent (or parents) and the third, a real-life conflict with a teacher.</li><li>• Write the completed scenarios on the cards: Peer conflicts--yellow cards; Parent(s) conflict--green cards</li></ul>	4. Remind students to bring their completed 6th grade GLE 2.3 Activity Sheet How am I responsible? 5. Students will review and refresh their thinking about resolving conflicts and will volunteer to share a personal situation in which using the problem solving procedure resulted in a stronger relationship. 6. Students will actively participate in work of team via such activity as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Contributing real-life conflict scenario(s) with peers, a parent, or a teacher.</li><li>• Volunteering to write scenarios on cards.</li></ul>
---	---

Teacher conflict--blue cards. (Note: colors are suggestions rather than mandates.) <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Scenarios will be put in stacks by color, shuffled (by color), and one of each color (3 cards total) will be given to each team.</li></ul> 7. Becoming filmmakers: Join two teams together (new teams of four). From the six scenarios the new teams will have, the team will select the “best” scenario for each color (Peer, Parent, Teacher). <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Cut six slips of paper; write “Parent” on two, “Peer” on two, and “Teacher” on two. Each team will draw one slip of paper from “hat”—this will identify which of the relationships each team will use as the basis for its film.<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• In final analysis, enacted + re-enacted scenarios will total 11.5 minutes or less. “It’s a wrap!” will include: two scripts – one for the scenario with a non-productive and hurtful solution and the second, for the re-enacted scenario with a respectful and productive solution. The final scripts will include characters, setting, props, dialogue, and description of actions—everything that will be needed for production of the scenarios.</li></ul></li><li>• The following steps will be followed:<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• All team members read and write “first thoughts” about story line, the characters and conflict resolution.</li></ul></li></ul> This is a good place to end the lesson for this day to be continued on another day. Ask each student to think about his or her team’s scenario and to write “first thoughts” before the next class. DAY TWO: 8. Review Day One and “homework” task: Writing “First Thoughts (above).	7. Students will work with other team members to make decisions about what to include in scenarios 8. Students will have their “First Thoughts” written and ready to discuss with team members.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• “First Thoughts” will be shared with Team and, as appropriate, incorporated into the team discussion and decision-making about the development of each scenario. The application of re-solutioning skills learned in prior lessons will be a part of this discussion.</li><li>• Scenario dialogues will be developed with all team members contributing.</li><li>• Cast of characters and descriptions will be developed; characters will be cast in roles.</li><li>• Read-through(s)—Once scripts are developed and the cast of characters known, scenarios will be read through by characters to get the feel of the flow and to modify scripts as needed. After each read, team members will talk about scenario and problem solving processes depicted in scenario.</li><li>• Blocking of action and character movement. After several oral read-throughs and additional modifications made to scripts, action will be blocked. During this “step” movement of the characters in each scenario is determined.</li><li>• Rehearsals will provide additional opportunity for modifications to occur.</li></ul> Please note: time availability will determine how much of the above will be implemented and whether or not the filming will actually take place. The strategies leading to the filming can be used to develop an understanding the relationship between “practicing” and the “re-solutioning” of a conflict/problem-solving situation. Practice in a safe environment makes it easier to re-solution conflict situations as they arise in real life. 9. Becoming “re-solutioners” in the process of filmmaking: It is inevitable that conflicts and problems to be solved will emerge during the process of students working as a team. Establish the process of “meta-processing” as a	Students will work collaboratively, cooperatively and cheerfully with other Team Members to develop scenarios for production. 9. Students will demonstrate courage by taking the risk to initiate and/or participate in meta- processing with the mind of a researcher—open curiosity.

required part of any team meeting. Learning to view “meta processing” as an expected part of the team’s agenda--first item as well as last—will help students develop skills to work positively with conflict when it occurs. Positive and productive problem solving fosters relationships that promote self-respect and respect for others AND greater team productivity (see Group Assessment Process [attached]). 10. Filmmaking? Maybe Yes; Maybe No. If you must end this lesson before the scenarios can be filmed, gain closure by having students “act out” scenarios in your classroom as well as in the classrooms of early learners. Use the checklist provided as a means for self-assessment, peer assessment and educator assessment.	10. Students will participate in assessment event as enactors or observers.

The opportunities for collaboration with the classroom teacher are endless. For example, if you (the Professional School Counselor) have provided the classroom teachers with an overview of curriculum framework and this lesson, the teacher will be able to use the concepts and skills developed during the Guidance Lesson(s) when relationship issues occur within the classroom.

Class discussion and worksheet will provide assessment.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: What does it mean to utilize and accept personal responsibility in relationships with others? Why is it important to have self-awareness during conflict?

Engagement (Hook): As the students walk into class, hand them a ½ of a note card with a famous person/character’s name on it and a piece of candy. Tell them to not talk about the card and do not eat the candy.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
1. Pair students using “Famous Couples with Conflict Cards”.	1. Students will find their “mate” and sit together.

2. Ask pairs to create one list of skills that they use when in conflict. Ask pairs to create another list of skills that they have seen used successfully, but they have not used themselves. Ask students to create a third list of skills that they wish they could develop. Each list must have at least 5 items. 3. Ask pairs to share their lists with the class. Instructor will make a comprehensive list on the board for later use. 4. Keep the students in pairs and pass out the shield worksheet. Ask students to draw lines that break the shield into 12 large parts. Ask the students to title the shield across the top of the paper (not on the shield) “My Conflict Shield”. 5. Ask students to review their lists from earlier or use the list on the board to complete the shield with 12 skills that they believe to be the most useful in conflict resolution. 6. Ask students to then color the sections of the shield that list the skills in which they are “excellent” in using. Emphasize to them the importance of being honest with themselves and that this is an exercise in self-awareness and improvement. Remind them that no one is perfect at conflict resolution and we all can continue to develop our skills. Have them discuss their decisions with their partner and decide how they can become better at the skills that are left white. 7. The students that displayed effort during the exercise will be allowed to consume the candy. 8. Ask the teacher if the shields can be laminated/protected and displayed inside or outside of the classroom for review.	2. Students will work together to create the lists that are described. 3. Students will share their lists and compare with others. 4. Students will design and title the shield worksheet. 5. Students will decide which 12 skills are the most useful in conflict resolution. There will be skills that they believe should be on the shield but do not have room for. They must decide the 12 most important and list only 12. 6. Students will color the shield accordingly with the goal of being honest with themselves and looking to ways to improve. 7. Students that receive approval from the teacher may eat their candy to celebrate self-awareness and the creation of plan to grow personally.

Formative assessment relates to the summative assessment for unit (performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLEs). Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Final performances and discussion during the role-play situation will assess whether the skills have been learned or not.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: What does it mean to utilize and accept personal responsibility in relationships with others? Why is it important to have self-awareness during conflict?

Engagement (Hook): “I need 2 volunteers.” After I have them, I ask them to spontaneously role-play a common conflict among 8th grade students.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
1. Ask students to think of a recent situation where they were involved in a conflict. It can be with a boyfriend/girlfriend, family member, someone at school, teacher/principal, someone in the neighborhood, etc.	1. Students will remember a recent conflict. They need to focus on the cause/purpose, the initial events, the escalation point, the intervention (if any), the final event, and the resolution.
2. Pass out the put Yourself In Check worksheet. Ask the students to write a brief description of the recent conflict using the focus points in the student involvement section.	2. Students will write a brief description of the conflict using the focus points above.
3. Have the students list the feelings and reactions that they experienced during the conflict (examples include sweating, anger, making a fist, heart pounding, walking away, frustration, hurt, disappointment, etc.). Ask the students to determine whether the action was appropriate/responsible or inappropriate/irresponsible for that particular situation.	3. Students recall feelings and reactions that they experienced during this conflict. They list these feelings and then determine if the feeling or reaction was appropriate/responsible or inappropriate/irresponsible for that particular situation.
4. Have students turn to a neighbor and discuss the situation, their reactions and their responses to their reactions. Each student should provide input to the other.	4. Students will share their situation and reactions with a neighbor and using active listening skills, the neighbor will respond to the reactions.
5. Select students to share their situation and reactions with the class. For any reactions that may have been inappropriate, discuss what the appropriate and responsible action would have been and how the situation may have been different.	5. Participate in discussion by realizing and expressing different reactions that might have lead to a different result. Students must begin to realize how personal responsibility in conflict can change the outcome and is a valuable tool in the growing-up process.
6. Ask for student volunteers to role-play another typical conflict but this time to use interpersonal skills and personal responsibility to resolve the issue.	6. Student volunteers will practice skills learned in class in front of peers.
7. Discuss the differences between the conflicts at the beginning of the class and those at the end of the class.	7. Students will become aware of the benefits of accepting responsibility and using interpersonal skills in resolving conflict.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Teacher will be able to use and refer to the skills learned during today's lesson during future conflicts in the classroom.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)

Put Yourself In Check

Think of a recent situation where you were involved in a conflict. It can be with a boyfriend/girlfriend, friend, family member, someone at school, or a teacher/principal. Write a brief description of the conflict.

The cause/purpose:

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Summative assessment relates to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

The instructor will review reflection pieces and observe students' oral responses with regard to decision-making, problem-solving and refusal skills. The counselor will provide small group follow-up for those students who will benefit from extra attention.

Brief Summary of Unit:

Students will review problem-solving skills learned from elementary grades. They will then utilize decision-making skills applied to problematic social situations. Refusal skills practice will be emphasized at the 7th-grade level and finally, students will look at a variety of problematic situations for which they will brainstorm potential solutions.

Unit Goals:

Students will utilize effective problem-solving, decision-making, and refusal skills to make safe/healthy choice in social situations.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Students will need to know the steps to solving a problem learned in the elementary grades in order to be successful. These steps will be reviewed along with decision-making steps prior to each lesson.

Students will be provided with a situation for which a decision is to be made. Students will write a reflection piece, outlining each of the decision-making steps they have used and what decision they have decided upon, which includes possible solutions, as well as possible outcomes for each solution. Students will also record what possible costs are involved with each possible solution. The counselor will review these reflections for understanding and provide small group follow-up for those students who will benefit from extra attention.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: How does one become an effective decision-maker/problem-solver in social situations?

Engagement (Hook): The facilitator asks students “How many of you have made a decision today? Students will be asked to share some of the decisions they have made today. The instructor will acknowledge that making decisions is a part of everyday life and that many decisions are made with very little thought, such as what to eat or what to wear. Students will be asked if the decisions they make ever have a cost to them.

The instructor will write the following scenario on the board: You are invited to a movie with your best friend. Two days later, a person with whom you have wanted to have a friendship asks you to go to a party with him or her on the same night. You need to make a decision about what you are going to do. Students will be asked to write a reflective piece on how they would utilize the decision-making steps to resolve the situation to their satisfaction, listing possible alternatives as well as the potential costs to them based on the decision they make.	6. ## STEPS TO EFFECTIVE PROBLEM SOLVING

1. Identify the problem.
2. Brainstorm possible solutions.
3. List the pros and cons of each possible solution.
4. Choose a solution and use it.
5. Evaluate the results.

The counselor will also review reflection pieces for understanding and provide follow-up for those students who may need it.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: How does one become an effective decision-maker/problem-solver in social situations?

Engagement (Hook): The facilitator poses the question, "Why is it so hard for adults and children alike to say NO."

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
1. The instructor poses the above question which leads to a provocative discussion. If necessary, the instructor can “prime the pump” by asking, “If I say no to you, will you still like me?” Possible responses include the need to be loved and accepted, or the desire to avoid conflict or rejection.	1. Students respond to the above question.
2. The instructor will then ask students when it might be very important to be able to say no or when one might want to say no, but not feel comfortable saying no. This discussion should lead into a discussion about peer pressure.	2. Students will respond to the question and engage in the discussion.
3. The instructor will advise students that the easiest way to feel comfortable saying no is to practice saying no in a variety of situations. Therefore, students are going to role-play situations in which people typically want to say “no,” but may find it hard to because of peer pressure.	3. Students listen intently.
4. Students will be divided into pairs or small groups. Each group will be given the “Peer Pressure Role-Play Situation” student handout. Students are also given the opportunity to create their own role-play situation.	4. Students will role-play the situations, either from the “Peer Pressure Role-Play Situation” student handout or their own creation. Students will then reverse roles until each student has had the opportunity to practice saying “No.”
5. The instructor will lead the discussion by asking students the following questions: a) How does it feel to be told “no?” b) What do you think of the person pressuring you? c) What do you believe he or she thinks about you? d) What do you think of the person who said “no?” Students will be encouraged to practice role-play situations at home with family or friends for further practice.	5. Students participate in the discussion and role playing.
6. Students will be asked to write a reflection piece on their experience with the role-play.	6. Students will write a reflection piece on their experience with the role-play.

PEER PRESSURE ROLE-PLAY SITUATIONS

Roles: Student & Teacher

Situation: The student asks to use the bathroom.

Roles: Student & Teacher

Situation: The student wants to be excused from homework because the family is going on vacation.

Roles: Two Students

Situation: One student wants the other's answers to last night's homework assignment. The students are friends, though, so the refusal must be done so that they can remain friends.

Roles: Two Students

Situation: One student is at his or her best friend's house after school. The parents are still at work. The friend goes to the refrigerator, takes out a beer, and opens it. The friend offers the student some of the beer.

Roles: Parent & Child

Situation: The parent wants the child to go on an errand, but the child doesn't want to. The reason for refusing may be that the child is legitimately busy or simply that he or she doesn't want to go.

Roles: Parent & Child

Situation: Parent & Child

Situation: The child wants to spend the night at a friend's house, but the parent refuses.

Roles: Two Students

Situation: One student is loaded down with work. His or her best friend asks the student to help him or her shop for clothes.

Roles: Parent & Child

Situation: The parent asks the child to help by staying home and babysitting for a younger sibling. The child wants to go out with friends, though, and he doesn't want to babysit.

Roles: Two Students

Situation: Two students are walking home from school when one of the students offers the other a cigarette.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Formative assessment relates to the summative assessment for unit (performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLEs). Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

The lesson will be assessed by counselor observation of students' oral responses with regard to decision-making, problem-solving and refusal skills.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: How does one become an effective decision-maker/problem-solver in social situations?

Engagement (Hook): The facilitator poses the following three brief scenarios and after each one asks the group, "What would you do?"

- A. Your friend has been drinking at a party. She wants to drive you home. What will you do?
- B. You visit one of your friends at her home. She offers you some beer from the refrigerator. You are not sure you want to drink alcohol. What will you do?
- C. They are passing a joint around at a party. Everyone has tried it. You are supposed to be last one to try it. You do not want to smoke marijuana. What will you do?

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
1. The instructor poses the above questions and then asks the students to write down a problem that might be encountered by students their age. The instructor will provide students with blank quartered copy paper for this task and a decorated “Pandora’s Problem Box”.	1. Each student will think of possible problems their peers may encounter in social situations, write the problem down on paper, and place in “Pandora’s Problem Box”.
2. The instructor reviews problem-solving steps and decision-making steps with students (See attachments).	2. Students will participate in a review of the problem solving steps and decision-making steps.
3. The instructor passes “Pandora’s Problem Box” around the room and asks students to draw a problem out of the box and read the problem aloud to the class. The instructor will write the problem on the board.	3. Students draw a problem from the box and share it with the class.
4. Then the instructor will ask students to brainstorm possible solutions to the problem. All solutions will be written on the board under the problem. One problem is dealt with at a time.	4. Students brainstorm and engage in problem-solving as they share possible solutions.
5. The instructor asks students, “What would you do? What do you think is the most helpful solution?” Students are asked to vote on the best solution.	5. Students will offer input as to what they believe is the most helpful or effective solution by voting on their perceived “best” solution.
6. The instructor places an asterisk by the class’s choice as the most effective solution. A volunteer is asked to write down the problem along with the class choice of most effective solution. These are placed in a 3-ring binder. Other	6. A student volunteer writes down the problem and the most effective solution for inclusion in the 3-ring binder. Other student volunteers design a display panel for the “Solution Book.”

STEPS TO EFFECTIVE PROBLEM SOLVING

1. Identify the problem.
2. Brainstorm possible solutions.
3. List the pros and cons of each possible solution.
4. Choose a solution and use it.
5. Evaluate the results.
6. If the results are not satisfactory, choose and use another solution.

STEPS TO EFFECTIVE DECISION-MAKING

1. What is the decision to be made?
2. What are some of the possible choices?
3. What are the possible outcomes after the decision is made?
4. Made a decision?
5. Look at the results and make a new decision if possible or necessary.

Caution: Thin Ice!

The wind whistled by as he ran down the hill toward the lake. An early morning snowfall meant no school for the day, and he was anxious to join his friends for an afternoon of fun. He noticed a small dusting of snow covered the surface of the lake, and he quickly read a sign that said “DANGER: Thin ice!” Surely that was for spring, he thought, it’s safe now. After all, everyone else was out on the lake on the other side. Everyone else was doing it, so it had to be safe.

Gingerly, he stepped out onto the lake. For a moment he reconsidered. He remembered his father’s warnings about the lake’s quick thaws, he remembered the sign... “Hey, Jimmy! Hurry up!” he heard from across the lake. He saw his friends motioning him over. To turn back now would mean having to face the taunts of the other guys. No way was he going through that!

A few steps later he knew he was in trouble. Lines of ice severed in all directions. He couldn’t go back. He couldn’t go forward.....

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Using the students’ bricks, the instructor will construct a bulletin board with the title “Building a Wall Against Risky Behaviors”. Using brightly colored paper, various risky behaviors are posted in the center of the wall. Student bricks are used to build a wall starting at the bottom and covering as much of the risky behaviors as possibly without losing the content. Wall should be placed in a prominent place in the school to be viewed by parents, staff and students.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)

EMS Code Blue

[Counselor dramatizes an event where a student is physically injured] “Oh no! Help, please help! My friend is hurt! Call the paramedics quickly....or a doctor! We must get a medical professional here as soon as possible. She fell in the gym and I think her leg is broken. She also has a contusion on her head and she’s not responding. If we don’t get help soon, she may die!”

What would YOU do?

My Friend Shelbi

[Counselor dramatizes an event where her friend shared that she was having thoughts of suicide.] “I’m really upset! My friend, Shelbi, came to talk to me yesterday. She’s been really depressed lately. I don’t know why. It seems like she has everything...great looks, a starter on the basketball team, all the kids like her...

Still, she seemed pretty out of it. She said nothing seemed to matter much anymore. She was never really happy...never really sad...everything was sort of nothingness. She said she really didn’t see the purpose of it all.

I didn’t tell anyone, but a couple of weeks ago I noticed something else. Shelbi has been cutting herself! She has all these little marks on her arms and legs. She said she used a razor blade.

I’m afraid if we don’t help her soon, she may commit suicide.

What would YOU do?

Where Are My Friends Now?

Cassie drags herself out of bed and before she even opens her eyes she reaches for the pack of cigarettes on the nightstand. With bloodshot eyes, she fumble for a lighter and relaxes as she inhales deeply. She hated the habit, one she acquired her junior year of high school when Tiffany had said, “Come on, don’t be such a drag, Little Miss Goody Two Shoes.” So to nix that awful nickname she had to join in....now she couldn’t quit.

Getting up from bed, she looked around the room. It was a far cry from the cool, modern apartment she had envisioned she would have when she went to college, but it was all she could afford. She hadn’t been successful in getting any job that paid more than minimum wage. If only she hadn’t listened to Kirk! “Come on, sweetie. Quit school and marry me. I’ll take care of you.”

Well, she had dropped out and even though she and Kirk had stayed together for two years, the marriage never happened and Kirk soon lost interest in her and moved out one day while she was out shopping.

And college? She had always wanted to be a fashion designer, living in a swanky apartment in New York City but when she dropped out, that dream ended. She had considered trying to earn her GED and entering a community college, but with no money that modified dream appeared to be out of her reach too.

Looking in the mirror, she saw the stress was causing a canker sore to flare... it was a gift from Derek her sophomore year. Why could she never say no?!

It all seemed so depressing. Cassie just wasn’t sure she could handle her life anymore. She had made choices to satisfy others that were not good for her, but now there seemed no way to make things better. Stressed, she reached for a beer. Lately, alcohol was all that seemed to make things better... a little trick she had also learned from her friends.

Her friends? Where were they now? Cassie thought of Derek, Tiffany and the gang—even Kirk. She never saw them anymore...but her choices because of them had left a lasting mark.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Formative assessment relates to the summative assessment for unit (performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLEs). Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
 Students will be provided with a scenario in which they will identify positive and negative coping strategies. Students will reflect on the positive and negative coping strategies and the implications in life situations.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: How does one weigh the value of positive and negative coping skills in life situations?

Engagement (Hook): The facilitator asks students, “How many of you have made a decision today?” Ask students to share some of the decisions they have made today. Acknowledge that experiencing stress when making decisions is a part of everyday life. Stress is OK because it can charge you with a sense of responsibility. When one does not know how to monitor stress, this may impact the effectiveness of coping skills. Many decisions are made with very little thought, such as what to eat or what to wear. Other decisions require a well thought out line of reasoning, such as how to choose a college major or how to say “no” when the result will be upsetting a friend. Ask students if the decisions they make ever have a cost to them. Ask students how they coped with the stress caused by the cost.

Procedures

1. The instructor presents the idea that when a decision is made in life, we all experience different levels of stress. The instructor states that one should be aware of what causes positive and negative ways of coping with factors that can interfere in decision making.	1. Students respond accordingly with a show of hands if they have made any decisions that day, how much stress they experienced, and what they did to cope with the aftermath of the decision.
2. The instructor indicates that there are many times when we are faced with life situations that require more consideration and more effective decision-making. Sometimes decisions that we make have a cost to them. The instructor states to students that there are positive and negative coping skills that will help one in dealing with these costs.	2. Students respond by looking at some of the more difficult decisions they make as well as potential costs for them.
3. The instructor explains that the purpose in making decisions is to deal with a problem or an issue. Instructor passes out a handout with a list of coping skills related to the stress associated with decision making. As the instructor reads with students a list of ways of coping with stress, students are asked to indicate with a + sign those that they feel are positive ways to handle stress. The student is also asked to indicate those that they feel are negative ways to handle stress with a - sign.	3. Students will follow the instructor’s directions.
4. The instructor processes the responses with the students, writing these questions on the board and asking the students: a) How are you doing? b) How many pluses? c) How many minuses? d) What do you need to do to lower the number of minuses as your usual coping skills? e) What kind of help	4. Students will listen and engage in discussion.

would you look for to assist and support you? 5. The instructor passes out index cards and asks the students to write skills that have been positive ways of coping with stress for them. The instructor asks the students to write coping skills that they have used that been negative ways of coping with stress. The following questions will guide the discussion: a) How does this personal card file of positive and negative coping skills look like now? b) If you were to rearrange any of the cards (positive or negative) in your file, what would you do?	5. Students will participate in class discussion, build their personal file of coping skills and reflect on the number of positive and negative coping skills and what this means in the decision-making process.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

The instructor will periodically discuss with the class how they have been applying their coping skills in their daily decision-making situations, emphasizing the importance of creating new and positive coping skills while replacing the negative coping skills.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)

STEPS FOR REACTING TO STRESS

You encounter stressful situations on a regular basis. Stress will be a normal part of the decision-making process. As you read this list of ways of coping with stress, choose those that you feel are positive ways to handle stress and put a + (plus) in front of it. Choose those that you feel are negative ways to handle stress and put a – (minus) in front of it.

1. Over-eating and under-eating
2. Discuss the problem and possible solution with a friend
3. Eat well as a part of your daily routine
4. Talk a lot or say very little
5. Take time to relax
6. Ignore the problem and pretend it will go away by itself
7. Act angry and irritable
8. Give up and do nothing to solve the problem
9. Withdraw from people and spend a lot of time alone
10. Try alcohol or drugs to cope with the problem

Count your pluses. Count your minuses. Answer the following questions:

- How are you doing?
How many pluses?
How many minuses?
- What do you need to do to lower the number of minuses as your usual coping skills?
- What kind of help would you look for to assist and support you?

Go over the list a second time and find out which reactions best describe your usual way to cope with stress.

Now let's build a personal card file of positive and negative ways to handle stress. Write on some cards the coping skills that you have used that have been positive ways of coping with stress. Write on other cards the coping skills that you have used that have been negative ways of coping skills with stress.

- How does this personal card file of positive and negative coping skills look now?
- If you were to rearrange any of the cards (positive or negative) in your file, what would you do?

Student comprehension will be assessed by the instructor observation of oral and written responses given during discussion and through the write up of coping skills and decision-making situations.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: How does one become an effective decision-maker/problem-solver when decisions are to be made in life?

Engagement (Hook): The instructor will invite students to engage in the activity, “Your Choice”, by asking the following questions:

“How do you go about making important decisions?”

“What determines how important a decision is?”

“How would you rely on your coping skills to help you deal with the pressure of making important decisions?”

Procedures

<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. The instructor will give the students a copy of the “Your choice” worksheet and ask them to choose the five of the ten that they consider to be the most important.</li><li>2. Students rank the five most important decisions, in the order of priority, with number 1 being the most important.</li><li>3. Instructor invites volunteers to share their ideas and justify their reasoning.</li><li>4. The instructor then asks students to consult their personal card file of coping skills (from 6th grade) to find which skills they applied during this activity.</li></ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. ### Teacher Follow-Up Activities

The instructor will invite students to practice the skills they learned with the following scenario:

Your group of friends has all decided to skip school on a certain day. You want to belong to this group and are afraid of group retaliation if you don't participate. However, you really don't want to do this and know your parents will be very upset if you get caught. What would you do? How would you cope?

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)

Your choice

Choose the five most important decisions you make and explain the reasons they are important for you.

1. To talk with your friends in front of school or look over your notes for math test first hour
2. To brush your teeth and wash your face or skip it and sleep longer
3. To cheat on your math test or do it on your own
4. To ride the bus home or walk with friends
5. To give your book report today or try to get out of it until tomorrow
6. To go to a party Saturday night with friends or to the baseball game with Dad
7. To watch a special on TV or study for your science test tomorrow
8. To rise early for a family gathering or sleep late
9. To bring lunch to school and save money or buy lunch at the school cafeteria
10. To wear something that looks cool (even if it is not appropriate for school) or to wear something comfortable

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE’s. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
Getting Your Grades Together survey and performance activity. Summative Assessment will take place during the 8th grade lesson. Learners will assess their own study skills via the Getting Your Grades Together survey. After assessing their skills, students will write an essay describing their plans for applying what they have learned in middle school to high school work. Essays will include the following elements: Discussion of strengths and limitations in the areas of: Self-Management Skills; Study Skills, and Test-taking skills and the steps to personal success in each skill area. This will be a formal essay and follow the conventions of standard English. To add interest, essay may be written as a letter to self.

Brief Summary of Unit:
 Students will participate in group discussions involving self-management skills, study skills, learning styles, goal-setting, and test-taking strategies.
 6th Grade lessons include strategies that help students explore the characteristics and skills of successful learners and strategies designed to help students identify their learning styles.
 7th Grade lesson is designed to help students become familiar with the purposes Self-Management Skills, Study Skills and Test-taking Skills.
 8th grade. As a summative activity, students will evaluate their current management, study, and test-taking skills using the survey and performance activity, Getting Your Grades Together.

NOTE: The counselor/instructor has some latitude with this unit. Some may wish to use Getting Your Grades Together for pre- and post-assessment. Others may wish to introduce this activity at the beginning of 6th grade and again at the conclusion of 8th grade. Still others may use this survey throughout the middle school process. The short-answer and essay questions are designed for the post-test phase at the end of 8th grade, but may be omitted when using the survey for earlier grades.

The counselor/instructor may want to use the survey information to work with at-risk students to discuss student perceptions versus student performance.

Unit Goals:

Students will evaluate their self-management, study and test-taking skills.

Students will develop a personalized-management system for each of the skill areas..

What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Basic working vocabulary related to self-management skills, study skills, and test-taking skills.

Show Me Standards: Performance Goals (check one or more that apply and identify relevant process standards)

X	Goal 1: Gather, analyze and apply information and ideas 1. Develop questions and ideas to initiate and refine research. 5. Comprehend and evaluate written, visual and oral presentations and works. 6. Discover and evaluate patterns and relationships in information, ideas and structures 8. Organize data, information and ideas into useful forms (including charts, graphs, outlines) for analysis or presentation.
X	Goal 2: Communicate effectively within and beyond the classroom 1. Plan and make written, oral and visual presentations for a variety of purposes and audiences 2. Review and revise communications to improve accuracy and clarity 3. Exchange information, questions and ideas while recognizing the perspectives of others
X	Goal 3: Recognize and solve problems 1. Identify problems and define their scope and elements 2. Develop and apply strategies based on ways others have prevented or solved problems

	3. Develop and apply strategies based on one's own experience in preventing or solving problems 7. Evaluate the extent to which a strategy addresses the problem
X	Goal 4: Make decisions and act as responsible members of society 1. Explain reasoning and identify information used to support decisions 5. Develop, monitor and revise plans of action to meet deadlines and accomplish goals 6. Identify tasks that require a coordinated effort and work with others to complete those tasks

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
 Learners will work in cooperative-learning groups to identify the characteristics of a successful learner. Students will identify characteristics that will be most helpful for them.
 Counselor/instructor will assess learners' cooperative work skills through observation.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:
 What does a successful student look like?

Engagement (Hook):
 Counselor/Instructor comes dressed as a "geek" and carries a stack of books and papers ... AND ... a report card with all F's, so is this really a successful student?

NOTE: If the counselor/instructor is short on time, he/she can show the students a picture of someone who looks like a "geek", posing the same types of questions.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures: NOTE: Counselor/Instructor actively encourages participation by all students and monitors student participation making note of	Student Involvement:
---	-----------------------------

those who do not participate. These students may be candidates for Responsive Services, e.g., small groups focusing on participation skills. <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Pose the following question: “What does a successful student look like?” Discuss the costume and/or Greta the Geek handout and ask the students, “Do I (or Greta the Geek) look like a successful student?” Then show the report card with all F’s. Point out that being a successful student requires more than “looking” successful.</li><li>2. Divide students into groups and assign group member responsibilities. Hold up the “A” Report Card and ask, “How can we transform Greta the Geek into Suzie the Successful Student?” Give the following instructions: “Brainstorm the qualities/ characteristics of a successful student. The group recorder will write those qualities on the handout “Characteristics of a Successful Student.” Monitor the progress of the group and check for cooperative behavior.</li><li>3. As the students share the results of their group work, the counselor/instructor or assigned student will write the characteristics of the successful student on the chart paper.</li><li>4. Pose the questions “What one characteristic stands out as being potentially helpful for you? How might you incorporate the characteristic into your actions?”</li><li>5. During the next lesson you will analyze your learning style: how, when, where, you learn the best. Between now and then, be aware of the choices you make about where to study.</li></ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Class discussion</li><li>2. Students work on the project in cooperative groups of four. Assign roles: Recorder, Encourager, Monitor and Reporter.</li><li>3. Students share results with the rest of the class.</li><li>4. Students identify characteristics and give an example of when and/or how the characteristic will be used. Have students write which characteristics will be the most beneficial to them and how they will use this characteristic to improve their academic success.</li></ol>

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Counselor/instructor posts the chart with the characteristics of the successful student in the classroom.
The teacher will reinforce the qualities/characteristics of a successful student periodically throughout the year.
The teacher/counselor/students will add at least quarterly other qualities/characteristics to the chart as the year progresses.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: Do we all learn the same way on the same day? Why or why not? How do you learn best? Engagement (Hook): The counselor/instructor meets with three confident students in advance of the lesson (giving them instructions for the activity described as student A, B, and C). To the class, the counselor says, "Let's watch each of these students study." Student A is studying the math fact "8 x 9" by writing it repeatedly on the board. Student B is studying the math fact by saying it out loud repeatedly. Student C is studying it by using his/her fingers (1 x 9 is 9, pinky on left hand down and holding up remaining 9 fingers; 2 x 9 is 18, holding up pinky on left hand, ring finger down, remaining fingers up, etc.).

The counselor takes a poll of the class, asking: Raise your hand to indicate which of the three students is studying correctly. A? B? C? The counselor continues, "Each of these students is studying correctly depending on his or her individual learning style. Today, we are going to find out how each of YOU learns best."

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
1. The counselor/instructor will assist the students in completing a learning style inventory, whether print or online.	1. Students will complete (score and interpret) inventory.
2. Divide class by their learning styles. Then give groups information about strategies that work for each learning style. Ask the students to pick out those strategies that they are already using and discuss those with their group. Strategies are available on the website listed above.	2. Students will discuss strategies that can benefit their learning.
3. Ask students if there are some learning techniques they haven't considered before?	3. Students will discuss alternative learning strategies.
4. Have students write a "What's my style and how can I maximize it?" paragraph about their individual learning styles and ways they can improve academic achievement using learning style strategies. Have students share their findings with a partner.	4. Each student will write a paragraph regarding his or her learning style preferences and discuss learning styles with a partners. Partners will give each other feedback about the strategies each one uses to enhance learning.
5. The counselor/instructor will keep copies of student learning style information for future reference.	5. Students will record the results of their learning style inventory in their portfolios and/or another storage system for future reference.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

The counselor/instructor will share inventory results with classroom teacher and encourage classroom teacher to use the information or to be aware of students' learning styles.
The counselor may also wish to send copies of the information home with students to make parents aware of their student's learning styles and ways that the student can study more effectively.

Sam the Slacker

Sam has a big test the next day. But he has put off studying until the night before the science test. But when he gets home, a friend calls and wants him to go to the mall. Sam decides to go thinking he will study when he gets home. But when Sam gets home, his grandmother has stopped by his house for a visit. It would be rude not to visit with his grandmother. So Sam thinks he will study after his grandmother leaves. But when his grandmother leaves, his girl friend calls and need to talk to him about what happened to her in PE. Sam decides he will study for his test once he gets off the phone with his girl friend. When he gets off the phone, he looks in his backpack for his study guide. But his backpack mess delays him. After searching for 30 minutes he can't find the study guide and has no idea what to study for the test. He decides to call Mark, a friend in his science class, but he does not have his phone number. Mom comes and says it's time for him to go to bed and he says he still needs to study for his science test. He decides to do the best he can and starts looking at his book. It was getting late, Sam is tired and he falls fast asleep. Since Sam stayed up so late the night before, he didn't hear his alarm and oversleeps. He is late and doesn't have time for breakfast. Sam is stressed out and worried that he will surely fail the test. He takes the test and fails it.

Bad Decisions Summary:

He decided not to create a study plan.

He decided to go to the mall when he needed to study.

He decided to talk with his girlfriend when he needed to study.

He decided not to make the most of his study time.

He decided to have a disorganized backpack.

He decided not to learn what to study.

He decided not to have all the materials he needed in his backpack.

He decided not write down phone numbers for classmates and/or homework hotline.

He decided not to get organized before bedtime.

He decided not get a good night's sleep and not to eat a good breakfast before the test.

He decided to think negative thoughts and to be stressed and worried.

He decided not to keep his mind on the test.

HANDOUT 2

Test Taking Tips

When you get the test, look over the entire test to learn the number and type of questions. Is the test timed? If so, budget your time accordingly.

Hints for Answering Objective Questions:

Multiple Choice	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Read the question</li><li>• Try to think of the answer before you look at the choices</li><li>• Read the choices</li><li>• Cross out the wrong ones</li><li>• Pick the most logical answer that remains</li></ul>
Matching	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Do the ones you know first and cross them off</li><li>• Do the best you can with whatever is left</li></ul>
Short Answer	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• If you don't know the exact answer, write down whatever you do know that's related. You may get partial credit.</li></ul>
True/False	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Read the statements very carefully. Remember that all parts of a statement must be true for it to be true.</li></ul>

Hints for Answering Constructed Response and Essay Questions:

Constructed Response/Essay	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Highlight or underline key words in the directions</li><li>• Use prewriting strategies, such as mind maps or outlines</li><li>• Rephrase the question as your topic sentence</li><li>• Write facts about the key words in the question</li><li>• Answer all of the question</li><li>• Use complete sentences</li></ul>

HANDOUT 3 Study Skill Tips

1. Listen actively in the classroom.
2. Ask questions in class.
3. Write down assignments.
4. Keep track of due dates, after-school activities, and family plans with a planner/calendar.
5. Ask for help before or after class.
6. Have a place at home to study with appropriate materials.
7. Complete your homework and hand it in on time.
8. Ask your parents or others for help.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE’s. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
 Students will complete the .Just Checking checklist to assess the degree of their use of a personal management system.
 Students will set goals for themselves based on the results of the Just Checking Checklist and will identify steps they need to use to accomplish their goals to improve academic achievement.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:
 What choices do you make that result in better grades?

Engagement (Hook):
 Counselor/instructor will read the “Introduction to the Just Checking Lesson.”.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures: 1. After reading the “Introduction to Just Checking Lesson”	Student Involvement: 1. Students will divide into groups of two to think/pair/share.
---	---

2. Ask students to write their definitions of a “management system” (think), discuss their writing with their partners (pair/share). Large Group (Public) Sharing: Generate a “public list” of definitions. Link students’ definitions of “management system” to individual differences in planning/self-management styles. 3. Distribute “Effective Management Tips” (Handout 1) to students. Allow time for students to glance through/read handout and to formulate questions and/or comments. Provide opportunity for students for students to ask their questions/make comments about components of effective management systems. Ask students to compare their current management system to those listed on the handout. NOTE: If your district has adopted a management system for students (e.g. Franklin Covey Student Planners), use that system for this lesson. 4. Hand out the Just Checking Checklist and ask students to complete it using their personal management system as the basis for completion of the checklist. 5. Using the Tips for Setting Goals information sheet as a basis for discussion, ask students to set realistic goal(s) based upon perceived strength and weaknesses from student checklists.	2. Students will write their definitions of “management system” (Think on own); discuss writing with a partner (Pair/Share); and contribute to the “public list” of definitions. 3. Students identify and discuss any discrepancies between the model and their personal management systems. 4. Students will complete the checklist (think on own); discuss results with their partners (Pair/Share). 5. Students will determine goals and write them on the checklist with steps for achieving the goals. Set a goal... Take The steps... GET IT DONE!!

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Teacher determines 4 to 5 follow-up dates for filling out subsequent checklists to assess student progress toward goals. This can be done daily or weekly for a prescribed period of time. Teacher will facilitate student reflection on progress and work with him/her to set a new goal based on checklist information.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)

Introduction to “Just Checking” Lesson

School and homework! Activities and chores! Sleeping and eating!
Ack! Do you feel that everything is piling up? Are you out of control!?!

Wouldn't it all be easier if time were like a DVD that you could slow down, speed up, fast-forward, or rewind? Or have you wished that time was like an arcade game, and when your time was up, you could just drop in some change and get more?

Well we can't change the speed of time or get more. What we CAN do, however, is manage our use of the 24 hours each of us is given everyday of our lives. This means that we:

- Consider everything we HAVE to do and WANT to do.
- Understand how much time each activity will take.
- Make a plan that helps us get through the day, week, or month without running around like a total wacko!

Hold your hand up if the “Out of Control Time Monster” is taking over your life... I have news for you... You can control your Time Monster, AND...If you learn to tame the time monster, you might be surprised at how much you can get done. The real reward, however, is that you'll probably feel less stressed, make better grades, and be happier. Wouldn't that be nice? 😊

Effective Management System Tips

The Key to Success in Middle School/Junior High

What management system are you using now? Even if you think you don't you do have a system in place. How does your system measure up against the following system?

Do you:

- * Use your planner everyday
- * Review your planner every week at the beginning of the week to help plan your week
- * Write down something in your planner for every subject (e.g., homework for the next day, assignments for the week {pages to read, questions to answer, and date assignments are due}, upcoming test dates and special project due dates, etc.)
- * Write clearly and neatly.
- * Refer to your planner before you go home at the end of the day to make sure you have everything you need (necessary books, folders, study guides, class notes)
- * Set weekly goals for yourself and write them down in your planner.
- * List helpful resources in your planner (e.g., websites, phone numbers of study buddies, homework hotline information, etc.)
- * Schedule time in your planner to study for each test
- * Set aside a homework time everyday with no distractions—no phone, no TV
- * If there is no specific assignment, you can read over your class notes, make math flash cards, or READ!
- * Use study halls to study
- * Ask for help as soon as you realize you don't understand
- * Keep all assignments, handouts, tests, etc., that are given back
- * Always record assignments as soon as they are given
- * Always use study time
- * Form a study group
- * Take notes and keep them organized and labeled
- * Do your best on every assignment

Just Checking Checklist

Rate your use of the following components on a scale of 1-5, using your current management system.

I never do it.	I do it once in awhile (making progress).	I do it sometimes for some classes.	I do it sometimes for all classes.	I do it every day for all classes.

What is working well for you?

Tips for Setting Goals

1. Goals must be clear and describe exactly what you want or will do.
2. Goals must be personal. They must be about you, not someone else.
3. Goals must be measurable. You need to know when you have achieved your goal.
4. Goals must have realistic time limits.
5. Goals must be manageable. Divide big goals into several, attainable goals or tasks. This will enable you to experience results in a shorter period of time and will help you feel like you are making progress.
6. Goals must be stated in positive rather than negative terms. (I will do something rather than I won't do something.)
7. Goals must be written down. People are more likely to achieve goals that are in writing. Written goals can be reviewed regularly, and have more power. Like a contract with yourself, they are harder to neglect or forget.

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Students will complete a rubric to show how effectively they are utilizing their planners, agenda, or assignment notebooks. The school counselor will determine the dates students usage of planners will be assessed. The rubrics will be given to students every two weeks or once a month and returned to the school counselor. Rubrics will be completed by the students (self assessment) on their own planner usage and by one other person e.g. teacher, parent or fellow student.

Brief Summary of Unit: Students will be learning how to plan for the new demands of middle school. Academics, changing schedules, extracurricular activities and other middle school activities will influence their success of their transitioning process.

Sixth grade emphasizes the skills of self-management and the usage of a planner. Students will review the "tasks" they need to accomplish in order and reach goals efficiently. Activity Logs and relating logs and utilization of personal planners will help in transitioning from grade level to grade level.

In seventh grade, greater emphasis is placed on the usage of a student planner and how they can be used as organizational and stress management tools to meet academic expectations at one grade level while preparing to make the transition to the next grade level.

Unit Goals:

Students will be able to demonstrate the ability to adjust to changing school structures and continue to meet academic expectations.

Students will be able to recognize ongoing academic expectations and develop strategies to meet increased demands.

What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

The steps to solving a problem, analyzing information, setting goals and refining goals.

Vocabulary: Transition, Planners, Agenda, Rubric

Students as self-assessment mechanism and by counselors and classroom teachers will use this rubric throughout the year.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
 Students will create a plan for success in getting “everything” completed for one evening. Previous learning about setting goals and using individual planners will be assessed using “Planner Usage” Rubric as a measurement.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: What is the process of transitioning and why is it important?

Engagement (Hook): Have a variety of small soft (Nerf like) balls labeled with the following: Homework for Science, Math, (1 for each core subject), Eating, Sleeping, Home Chores, Free Time, Sports, Clubs and Travel Time. Choose a volunteer from the class to demonstrate the process of “juggling” the balls. Explain that he or she will catch the balls tossed to them without dropping any or putting any of them down. Begin to toss the balls slowly to the student, naming the balls as you toss them until all balls have been tossed to the student...remind student that all balls need to “keep moving” during the demonstration.

Procedures

Pre Lesson Activity:                  Prior to the day the school counselor will be conducting this classroom guidance lesson, the classroom teacher will distribute the Activity Log to students. ---	-- activities in which he or she participates in after school “today”. The Activity Log is distributed. Students will return completed Activity Log the next day.

Instructor Procedures:

1. After the “juggling” demonstration lesson engagement hook, the counselor will ask the students to describe what just happened.
2. The counselor will ask students to take out the Completed Activity Log the teacher gave them the day before; if students do not have the Activity Log completed, supply one and give them 2 - 3 to list several activities.
3. The counselor will ask the students for examples of activities that were recorded on the Activity Log. The counselor will act as the recorder and list the activities that the students give on the board.
4. The counselor will ask the students to relate the ball activity to the activities listed on the board and on their Logs. Discussion may include: total time doing homework, scheduled activities and free time activities and how they had to plan in order to get all activities done after school and before bedtime last night.
5. The counselor will ask what difficulties students encountered in getting “everything” accomplished and list the difficulties on the board.
6. The counselor will ask students what they could have done differently to alleviate problems.
7. The counselor will ask students to examine their logs and note where different choices are necessary.
8. The counselor will have students use the third column on the Activity Log to plan the

Student Involvement:

1. Students will note that there were too many balls to catch and keep moving.
2. Students should have their completed Activity Log if they don't they will be given another Log to complete.
3. Students will report activities they listed on their Activity Logs.
4. Students will need to look at activities they listed on the board. Students will talk with a partner about activities that did not get done and what he or she did instead. Discuss how their time in an evening determines whether or not they could get “everything” accomplished they need to.
5. Students will share problems they had getting “everything” accomplished.
6. Students will discuss strategies that would have alleviated the problems.
7. Students will examine their logs for specific problems and note where changes are needed.
8. Students will create a plan using previous lesson information and planners to be

evening. The counselor will explain that each evening will be different and that individual changes will be necessary throughout a week based on each individual student's situation. The counselor will have students refer to their planners to identify assignments and homework that need to be assimilated into evening's schedule. 9. The counselor will discuss the need to plan so that students are not overwhelmed with what they must accomplish and what they want to do each evening. 10. Point out: Planning is a skill and can be learned; making transitions from grade to grade and level to level (Elementary to Middle School to High School) requires the individual to plan for the unknown. Being able to make meaning of ambiguity (the unknown) is a skill of effective transitioning.	successful in getting "everything" completed for that evening. 9. Students will continue to work on planning. 10. Students comment if needed or asked to.

Teachers will follow-up by working with students on planners and planning good use of time.

Periodically, the Planner Usage Rubric will be distributed to the students in order to assess effect use of the student planner, agenda, or assignment notebook. Students will complete the rubric to show how effectively they are utilizing their planner, agenda or assignment notebook. The guidance counselor will determine what weeks will be used to complete the rubric. The rubrics will be given out every two weeks or once a month and returned to the guidance counselor. Rubrics should be completed by the student on their own planner and, if possible, one other person e.g. teacher, parent, or fellow student.

(Optional) The counselor will instruct students to trade planners with a partner. With a partner answer the same questions about the partner's entries in their planner. Is what has been written and what has to be done clear, complete and coherent? 5. The counselor will project the overhead transparency, "Goal Suggestions" for all students to read. Counselor will read the suggestions. The counselor will provide an index card for each student. Student will write an academic goal based on the self and peer critiques	2. Students will orally provide organizational skills that should or could have helped the counselor come to class more organized. 3. Students will have planners out and will critique (review) their own according to the questions being asked. 4. (Optional) Students will trade planners and critique (similar to peer editing) each other's planners. Students will discuss what they found out about each other's planners and give ideas to one another about what could be done differently. Students will ask partner clarifying questions if entries are unclear. 5. Students will write their goals on the index card, and explain goals to their partners.
--	---

(reviews). The goal will lead to improved use of planners as an aid to success. Remind students that goals need to be do able, measurable, and fit a specific time frame for completion. The counselor will ask students to think about how they can reach their goals (plan) and who can help (resources). Remind students who successfully their planners that “maintain” may be a goal. Students will then explain goals and action plan with their partner. 6. The counselor will instruct students to tape their goal cards into their planners and remind them they need to review/reflect/revise goals periodically. 7. The counselor will end the lesson by reviewing the questions students need to ask themselves about the entries in their planners.	6. Students will tape their goal cards into their planners and will track progress toward their goal. 7. Student will reflect on questions the counselor poses and whether or not their use of individual planners is helping them attain academic goals effectively.
--	---

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

All teachers will be made aware that each student has set a goal to improve use of his or her planner as an aid to success as a student. (Some students may need only to maintain.) Suggestion: School Counselor can check for use of planning strategies to accomplish goals before beginning guidance lessons each month. Periodically, the “Planner Usage” Rubric will be distributed to the students in order to assess the use of the student planner, agenda, or assignment notebook. Students will complete the rubric to assess how they are utilizing their planner, agenda or assignment notebook. The counselor will determine the date’s students will complete the rubric. The rubrics will be given out every two weeks or once a month and returned to the counselor. Rubrics will be completed by the student for his or her own planner and one other person e.g. teacher, parent, or fellow student.

Goal Suggestions

- Write assignments as soon in planner as they are given.

What is the specific assignment?

For example page numbers to read, title of worksheet to complete, which questions to answer.

When is it due?

What materials are needed?

- Ask questions if you don't understand the assignment.
- Write long-term assignments and test date reminders in your planner so that you can be preparing for tests and long-term assignments.
- Write extra-curricular activities in planner and include scheduled homework time.

Students as self-assessment mechanism and by counselors and classroom teachers will use this rubric throughout the year.

Checklist / Short answer questionnaire (Found in Lesson 2)

True, active assessment will take place during the development of the Personal Educational Plan. The development of the Personal Plan of Study (Four Year Plan) will take place after both lessons are presented. It is advised that the counselor meet with each student individually to develop and/or finalize each student's Personal Educational Plan.

Brief Summary of Unit:
 In this unit, students will explore the similarities and differences between middle and high school and they will be introduced to a variety of high school concepts such as: academic credits, the differences between core and elective credits, the number of credits needed for promotion, extracurricular offerings, and the meaning of grade point average and how it correlates with credits and participation in extracurricular activities.

Unit Goals:
 The student will identify the information and skills necessary for the transition to high school.

What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?
 Students will need to know the elements of planning for future (e.g. goal-setting), how to complete the selected graphic organizer, the local organizational structure of middle school and high school (e.g. block scheduling). They will need to have heard information about high school from other sources.

HELP WANTED!!!

Sally decided it was time for a career change! She likes her volunteer work as a part of a local community service organization at the hospital, but the job really doesn't allow her to show her special skills and it doesn't match her personality and interests.

She knows she has excellent communication skills, some special training in animal care from working on her grandfather's farm, and has learned some really cool stuff through her family experiences at Joey's Petting zoo. Hey! She was even an official member of the Ranger Rick Club and has won several 4-H awards.

Her work history made her a perfect applicant for an assistant to the local veterinarian. She would love cleaning cages and helping to care for the animals. She was sure her grandfather would give her a good recommendation, too!

After developing a resume, selecting a few references and listing her work history, Sally was ready for an interview. "If I meet my objective and get the job, I'm sure I will still have time for classes and extra-curricular activities," she said as she dialed the number from the classified ads.

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
 Assessment for this lesson will be through observation of student contributions to discussions. The counselor will monitor the ease and fluency with which individuals contribute ideas and interact with others during the lesson.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:
 What types of life experiences have you had?
 How can they be classified on a resume?

Engagement (Hook):
 Hang laminated poster-sized resume on the wall of the classroom. Point out the vocabulary words students learned during lesson number 1.

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's.
 Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Assessment for the unit will be completed through review of final student works, i.e. graphs, resumes and personal goal plans.

Brief Summary of Unit:

In this unit students will analyze their strengths and weaknesses by graphing their grades. Using this information and a list of their life experiences, students will create their formal resumes and personal goal plans.

Unit Goals:

Students will analyze their knowledge of self and use this information to create resumes and personal goal plans.

What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Students need to have developed general knowledge of self and have an accurate view of their academic standing, career interests, etc...

Students will need to review specialized career vocabulary presented in sixth grade that also applies to this lesson.

Engagement (Hook):

The counselor asks the students to name successful business people. Counselor asks the students to list strengths of these business people. Counselor then directs the students to brainstorm weaknesses that these people might have.

Procedures

Counselor/Instructor Procedures:

1. The counselor returns the graphs from the previous lesson to the students and asks students to complete the graph or review graphs for trends.
2. The counselor instructs the students to look at their personal graphs and look for strengths, weaknesses, and trends with those strengths and weaknesses. The counselor asks the students to write a journal entry summarizing the strengths, weaknesses, and trends.
3. Following summarization, students will write a "So What" paragraph..." I know more about my strengths, weaknesses and trends. So what? What do I need to do to attain my goals?
4. The counselor collects and secures grades and files the completed graphs and journal entries in the students' career folder.

Student Involvement:

1. If graphs are incomplete, students complete graphs. If graphs are complete, students review graphs for trends.
2. Students self-assess strengths and weaknesses shown on their graphs and write a journal entry describing the data discovered through the graphing assignment.
3. Student will continue above entry with "So What" paragraph.
4. Students turn in their personal grades, completed graphs, and journal entries.

Pitfalls!

Student 1: What's the matter with you?

Student 2 (crying): My whole life is ruined! I just found out I may not get accepted into the school I want!

Student 1: Geez, what happened?

Student 2: Well, it seems that the school I want to go to expects me to have already taken algebra, algebra II, geometry, calculus and trigonometry!! In high school!!!

Student 3: Hey! I know you're an excellent student. I sat behind you in geometry. I don't think you ever missed a single problem.

Student 2: Yeah, well that's after I woke up. I didn't do very well in sixth grade, so I was put in 7th grade math instead of pre-algebra...and that meant I had to take pre-algebra as an 8th grader...and so on! Next year as a senior I will be one class behind to meet my career goal. Ugh!

Student 3: Well, all may not be lost. Sure, it would have been better if you had planned it all out, but according to the counselor there are other options. It might be as simple as just having to take a dual-enrollment class next year.

Student 2: Really!?

Student 3: Well, you'd better ask the counselor, but I think it would work. Now if I had as easy a solution to my problem.

Student 1: What's the matter with you?

Student 3: Well, I would be earning all sorts of honors in vocational agriculture if I had entered the program as a freshman....now, like her, I'm behind. I never thought it would make that much difference. I'll do well, but I could have done better if I had planned it all out ahead.

Student 1: Looks like planning is very important. Kind of like Lewis & Clark as they made their way across the United States. Do you think they just started out every day of the expedition not knowing what course they would take.....just seeing where they happened to end up?

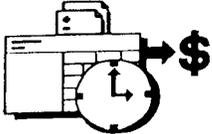

Student 2: I'm telling all my younger cousins and my little sister that planning is essential....and that what you do in middle school really can effect high school...even college!!

Student 3: Well, don't forget to tell them to ask a counselor if in doubt. I've heard they're good at helping kids find their way.

Student 2: Oh don't worry...in fact I'm headed to see the counselor right now!
Dual enrollment, huh?.....

Brief Summary of Unit:

A major focus of this unit is the introduction of the Personal Plan of Study/Career Portfolio. The Portfolio will be used by students to reflect and rethink past entries about interests, aptitudes, abilities and achievements; to revise/refine (as necessary) goals and plans for reaching goals.

Students will review the Career Path concept as a means of organizing the World of Work. Students will work in task groups to determine Career Paths in which various occupations may be categorized. The concept of traditional v. non-traditional work roles for males and females is explored via a student-led interview in the second lesson.

Unit Goals:

Students will be familiar with the Career Paths concept.

Students will use interviews to become familiar with the training and education associated with various careers.

Students will explore stereotypes regarding gender roles in the world of work.

Please note: This strategy requires the use of a product wrapper to emphasize the involvement and importance of the roles of all workers in getting a product produced and into our "hands". The Unit/Lessons were developed before the new Guidelines for Healthy Snacks were issued. We retained the use of the Tootsie Roll™ as an example with the caveat to review the Healthy Snack Guidelines and your district's implementation policy. As for any lesson involving food, allergies, sensitivities and health implications must be considered. Doing so puts into action our own respect for diversity and for our roles as agents of school board policies and Missouri's Rules and Regulations.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: How do the Career Paths relate to who YOU are?

Engagement (Hook): Students will be asked to think of something that they have to do, but don't like. Then, they will be asked to think of doing that activity 8 hours a day, 40 hours a week for 40 years. Although they would be paid well, they would be locked into that task.

Next, students are asked to imagine something that they enjoy doing. Then they will be asked to imagine doing that task 8 hours a day, 40 hours a week for 40 years. Students will be encouraged to recognize that if they are going into a career, it will be a good idea to choose something based on who they are and what they like to do.

Procedures for Session 1

Instructor Procedures:

1. Review Career Paths and the attributes of the individuals who work in them, utilizing Career Path description handout. Display Career Paths posters on the board or wall.
2. Divide students into task groups. Each group will be given the following materials: Activity Sheet: Career Path Group Project Forms, at least six Occupation Cards per group (see Resource: Occupation Cards), pencil, and sticky tack/tape.

Counselors and students will review the established group norms such as, respecting the opinions of others, cooperation, listening, etc.

Students are given a 5-minute time limit to perform the task.

3. The class will review the answers given by the groups as displayed on the board or wall and make any necessary adjustments based on class check. (NOTE: Some careers may

Student Involvement:

1. Students will respond to a question-answer session, such as, "Which path is the fixing and building path?"
2. Given occupation cards, students will confer in their task groups and determine which Career Path an occupation matches. Each student within the group will be assigned a cooperative group role: For example, a recorder who writes group answers on the project form; a materials person who is responsible for bringing materials to and from the group; a sticky tack or tape person who is responsible for this item; and a "poster" to post occupation cards on the board/wall.

Once the group has made a decision about where each of those jobs fits, the "poster" from the group will post the occupation cards under the appropriate path poster (on the chalkboard or wall of the classroom).

3. The class will check the answers with the following non-verbal signs: yes--thumbs up; maybe--thumbs sideways; no--thumbs down.

Writing down the names of the "interviewees" will strengthen students' commitment to completing the project. Note: The most "readily available" worker is a parent or caregiver—students may also interview someone from the community. Whomever students choose to interview may be employed in the civilian workforce, unemployed or a stay-at-home parent. Encourage students to consider whatever the interviewee is doing as his or her job. The same questions apply (with minor modifications) to any job and the students will gain a wealth of information about work, working and workers by interviewing people who are not in the civilian workforce. This will help students develop greater understanding and respect for all human beings. Alternatively, students may choose to ask individuals who are unemployed or stay-at-home parents to respond from the perspective of a past work role they have had in the civilian workforce.	13. Students will reflect on process and ask clarifying questions about the procedures and/or process. 14. Students will complete the worker interview forms in keeping with the instructions given by the counselor.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Ask the classroom teacher to collect student interviews in preparation for the next guidance session. Some communication arts teachers may be interested in working with the counselor in a team-teaching capacity by having students write an essay about their interview, using the interview form as a prewriting tool.

What led you to this career?

Average salary/wage range: Entry: _____ Mid-point in career _____ Upper _____

How many hours do you work each day? _____

How many days do you work each week? _____

Describe your work and working conditions (including your likes/dislikes):

What special skills or talents are needed for this job?

What high school courses helped you prepare for this job?

What education or training beyond high school prepared you for this job?

What do you want to be doing ten (10) years from now?

Unit # 1 Title: Who Am I as a Career?

Lesson Title: Tootsie Roll, Tootsie Roll, Who Art Thou? (Part 2)

Lesson: 2 of 2

Grade Level: 6

Length of Lesson: 30 minutes

Missouri Comprehensive Guidance Standard:

CD.7: Applying Career Exploration and Planning Skills in the Achievement of Life Career Goals

CD.8: Knowing Where and How to Obtain Information about the World of Work and Post-Secondary Training/Education

Grade Level Expectation:

CD.7.A.06.a.i: Use current interests, strengths and limitations to guide individual career exploration.

CD.7.B.06.a.i: Recognize the career path concept as an organizer for exploring and preparing for careers now and in the future.

CD.7.C.06.a.i: Identify males and females in nontraditional work roles.

CD.8.A.06.a.i: Evaluate career and educational information resources.

CD.8.B.06.a.i: Compare the different types of post-secondary training and education as it relates to career choices.

American School Counselor Association National Standard (ASCA):

Career Development

A: Students will acquire the skills to investigate the world of work in relation to knowledge of self and to make informed career decisions.

C: Students will understand the relationship between personal qualities, education, training and the world of work.

Materials (include activity sheets and/ or supporting resources)

Resources (see Resources for Lesson 1): *Career Path Descriptions

*Career Path Posters (set of six)

*Ideas for Personal Plan of Study/Career Portfolio

Activity Sheets: *"Worker Interview Questions" (completed by students prior to this lesson)

Lesson Preparation

Please Note: The concept of the Personal Plan of Study/Career Portfolio is introduced during this unit. The exact format for the Portfolio will depend, in large part, on the resources available to you in your district. Some districts have a well-developed system for student portfolios, some districts have adopted portfolio guidelines and do not yet have the "system" in place, some districts are in the "talking about" stage. We have included some general ideas (see Resource: "Ideas for Personal Plans of Study/Career Portfolios"); however, we suggest that counselors work with administrators and teachers in their districts to make the Comprehensive Guidance Program Portfolios an extension of the student portfolios used in other content areas. Essential Questions: How do the Career Paths relate to who YOU are?
--

Engagement (Hook): Have two students—one male, one female—dressed in white lab coats with stethoscopes sticking out of the pockets. The class is to decide what jobs are represented (Female is to be physician. Male is to be a lab technician or nurse). Sometimes it is easy to categorize jobs as male or female occupations, but do jobs have gender?

Procedures:

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Review information Career Path information from the previous lesson: What is the building and fixing path? What is the health care path? What path focuses on helping others? Creative and performing arts? Working with nature? Which path involves working with others to make and sell a product?</li><li>2. Divide class into small groups to present information gathered during their interviews with workers (see completed “Worker Interview” questionnaire). Ask the students to decide which Career Path each job belongs to and whether the job is considered a male or female job. (NOTE WELL: the purpose of this question is to create an awareness of students’ unintentional stereotyping of occupations—with the goal of increasing students’ awareness of their subtle/hidden biases.)</li><li>3. Discuss gender role stereotyping and males and females in non-traditional work roles. Distribute the “Job and Gender Role Survey” to student groups and review the directions. When groups have finished, they will be encouraged to debate and discuss (with a “friendly” attitude) opinions as a group, and then as a class, concerning “men only” and “women only” jobs. Students will be asked if there are real reasons why some careers should not be open to both genders.</li><li>4. Students will be given the “Student Career</li></ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Students will participate in the review process.</li><li>2. Students will present the information they discovered during their interviews with workers. Group members will listen and participate in discussion.</li><li>3. Student groups will complete Job and Gender Role Surveys and participate in group discussion.</li><li>4. Students return to their regular seating to</li></ol>

Path Survey”. The students are to mark the “bubble” for the statements that describe who they are and what they would like to do. The counselor may want to read each statement aloud, so that he/she can explain or define terms that are unfamiliar to students. NOTE: Students should be advised that while they may not have the ability to do all the tasks at this time, they are expressing their interests. 5. Once the survey is complete, the counselor will reveal which Career Paths are represented in each column. Allow time for students to reflect on the results of their surveys. NOTE: Students’ surveys will be placed in their permanent record or career portfolios (if used) to evaluate changes as they progress through middle school and to review at the time they develop their personal plan of study	complete the survey. When they finish the survey, they are to count the number of items they marked for each career path and record the number in the square provided. 5. Students will engage in a conversation with a peer-partner to review and reflect on their responses across Career Paths by similarities/differences and high/low markings in the categories <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>a. Activities of interest</li><li>b. Personal Qualities</li><li>c. Free-time Preferences</li><li>d. School Subject Preferences</li></ul> Upon completion of their conversation, students will consider the trends of their responses and identify Career Paths and related occupations that would fulfill the personal preferences noted.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

During classroom discussions that involve occupations or people in the news, point out those individuals in non-traditional roles and/or the skills needed to perform those jobs.

Resource: Ideas for Personal Plan of Study/Career Portfolios Developed by Carolyn S. Magnuson for Discussion Purposes Only

The ideas that follow are thought-starters as YOU and your colleagues formulate the guidelines for the Comprehensive Guidance aspect of student portfolios.

I. Foundation Principles:

1. The purpose of the portfolio is three-fold:
  - a. To serve as a storage/retrieval system for selected student work
  - b. To provide students and counselors with a “running record” of students’ achievement, their interests, their perceived aptitudes and abilities
  - c. To provide students with a place to collect their thoughts/feeling/wishes/goals regarding school, work, and themselves in relation to school and work as they progress through middle school and high school.
2. Portfolios are to be used FOR (not AGAINST) the student and his or her growth and development as a current and future citizen of the world.
3. Your ideas ....

II. Contents

1. Student’s Personal Plan of Study
2. Assessment Results (Informal and Standardized)
3. Student’s Life Career Goals
4. Student’s Reflections
5. Your Ideas ....

III. Storage/Retrieval/Access

1. Student Privacy is of utmost importance
  - a. The sensitivity of student-provided content is addressed “before the fact.”
  - b. Students are able to determine who has access to Portfolio
  - c. The district’s implementation policies/guidelines regarding The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act will be followed.
  - d. All access/retrieval policies and guidelines will be “transparent” for the student, i.e., not secrets and no surprises as a result of information student includes in portfolio.
2. Storage of Portfolio is the responsibility of the school district
  - a. Notebooks?
  - b. Electronic?
3. In the case of some documentation it may be more appropriate for student to maintain information.

 Mark did not do his math homework. He takes Shondra's homework, erases her name, and puts his name on her paper. You watch Mark make the change. What do you do?

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
1. Divide class into small discussion groups. Give each group markers and a large piece of butcher paper on which to write their ideas. Pose the following questions: "What are ethics?" "What if people didn't respect others?" "Why is honesty important?" "What about courage?" "Or responsibility?" "Or self-discipline?" "Or self-respect?"  [Note: The counselor may want to discuss what the terms are, or provide students with definitions of the terms from which to work.]	1. Students will write their ideas on the butcher paper and discuss the questions in their groups.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Ethical dilemmas present themselves everyday in the classroom. Encourage classroom teachers to point out situations in which students are presented with an ethical decision.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)

Activity Sheet: Ethical Dilemma Scenarios

Scenario #1:

As an employer, one of your employees arrives at work 10 minutes late everyday. It's just 10 minutes, right (the employee does not have a car and must rely on public transportation to get to and from work—and this is her second job)?

People Involved:
Points of View:
Possible Solutions

Scenario #2:

Martin works at the movie theater. He allows his friends to sneak in without paying for tickets. What's the big deal?

People Involved:
Points of View:
Possible Solutions

Scenario #3:

A customer drops a $10 bill as she pays Cindy for her groceries and doesn't realize it. What should Cindy do (it's the 21st of the month, Cindy is a single mom – and has no money to buy groceries)?

People Involved:
Points of View:
Possible Solutions

Scenario #4:

You are with a group of employees in the stockroom. A package of CD's is open. You watch as a couple of the employees take copies of the CD's for themselves. They ask you not to tell the manager. What do you do? What are the consequences of your choices (the other employees are individuals with whom you want be friends)?

People Involved:
Points of View:
Possible Solutions

Scenario #5:

Devon gets a job at the local fast-food restaurant. He has to wear a uniform everyday that the manager says must be clean and pressed. He is tired when he gets home from work and doesn't want to do laundry. He has school tomorrow and is scheduled to work after school. What does he do? What are his choices?

People Involved:
Points of View:
Possible Solutions

Scenario #6:

An employer asks Juanita to complete a job assignment by 11:00 a.m. She is almost finished at 10:30, when her friend, Rhonda, comes by. Rhonda wants Juanita to take her break now, so that they can eat a snack together. What should Juanita do (Rhonda is the sister of the person Juanita wants to date)?

People Involved:

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Students will participate in question and answer sessions.
 Students will develop a skill-based resume. Students will be able to explain resume-writing situations in which an ethical dilemma may present itself. Students will be able to project the personal consequences AND the ethics involved in presenting oneself in a positive, yet truthful, light. Self-evaluation tools will be used.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: What is a resume and what is its purpose? Why are personal, ethical, and work habits important to career decision making? How do these components relate to job-seeking skills?

Engagement (Hook): How will employers know who you are and what your capabilities may be before they have seen you? What is a resume? What skills and experiences have you had that would be valuable to employers and to employability in general?

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
1. Students will review prior the prior guidance lesson pointing out the importance of Personal Characteristics and Work Habits in the job seeking, getting and keeping process.	1. Students will identify personal characteristics and work habits and relate them to ethical decision-making at school as well as on the job.
2. Pose the engagement questions for this lesson to the class and provide information concerning job-seeking skills and how the resume fits into that process.	2. Students will contribute information/ideas to discussion, respond to the questions and will ask clarifying questions.

Best time of year to implement this Unit: Anytime

Lesson Titles:

Lesson 1: If the Career Fits, Explore It!

Materials/Special Preparation Required:

A Career interest inventory: Your local school district, most likely, has adopted an interest inventory. Review the inventory's purpose, district's use of inventory and relevance/application to 7th grader's exploration of their interests. If the district has not adopted a specific inventory, explore interest inventories available free via the internet and commercial sources. Examples of interest inventories include: Job-O, Career Game, COIN Career Targets, Kuder, CX Bridges Career Explorer, Choices

Lesson 2: If the Career Fits, Explore It! (Part 2)

Materials/Special Preparation Required:

Completed career interest inventory (See Lesson 1)

Career information resources: Print (e.g., Occupational Outlook Handbook) and electronic

Activity Sheets: "Who I Am..." "Researching a Career" (optional)

Lesson 3: We Are All Pieces of the Puzzle

Materials/Special Preparation Required:

Completed "Who I Am ..." and "Researching a Career" Activity Sheets (see Lesson 2)

Activity Sheet: "Map It Out" concept map (2 copies for each student)

Item(s) purchased locally and produced in another country

Data on careers and the training required.

Question answer, group discussion, group task completion.

Brief Summary of Unit: Students will identify personal strengths and interests through use of an interest inventory. They will evaluate the relationship between their preconceived ideas about work with information from a research project. They will also categorize the career with the appropriate career path.

When presented with a product, students will brainstorm the occupations that contribute to the production of that product, classifying the various careers according to the Career Paths.

Unit Goals: Students will complete an interest inventory; use the information from the inventory to investigate careers using written or computerized resources; create and present a career project incorporating personal interests; categorize an occupation based on the Career Paths model.

Students will investigate and/or brainstorm various careers/products to recognize the relevance of all workers and that they coexist in a global society.

Students' Prior Knowledge:

Student success in any learning endeavor is dependent upon prior knowledge. The Missouri Comprehensive Guidance Program Curriculum builds on each student's prior knowledge and understanding in academic content as well as Comprehensive Guidance content. Helping students develop a common vocabulary and common conceptual understandings rests upon the Professional School Counselor.

For the Career Development Strand the common vocabulary for seventh graders includes:

Work	Job Responsibilities of Workers	College, University
Career	Interests	Strength,
Limitation
Career Paths	Post-secondary Options	Ethics
Resume	Portfolio	Interview

For CD 7 the common conceptual understanding includes: the integration of self knowledge into life and career plans, adapting to changes in the world economy and work, respect for all work (and workers)

For CD 8 the common conceptual understanding includes: the career decision-making processes and the education and training requirements of careers.

At the seventh grade level, students are expected to have prior knowledge of:

The Concept and Titles of the Career Paths	Basic Goal-Setting and Planning
Skills
The Importance of All Work	The Value of All Workers
Basic Interviewing Skills	Their Personal Characteristics

Step 2 Directions: Place an O in front of the statements that are true for the career you researched.

Look closely at your responses. If there are both X's and O's in front of each of the statements, the career you are considering should appeal to you. If many of the X's (true for YOU) and O's (true for the career you researched) are not beside the same statements, you may need to rethink your reasons for considering this career as a potential career choice.

Unit # 1 Title: How Do the Pieces Fit?

Lesson Title: We Are All Pieces of the Puzzle

Lesson: 3 of 3

Grade Level: 7

Length of Lesson: 30 minutes

Missouri Comprehensive Guidance Standard:

CD.7: Applying Career Exploration and Planning Skills in the Achievement of Life Career Goals.

CD.8: Knowing Where and How to Obtain Information About the World of Work and Post-Secondary Training/Education.

Grade Level Expectation (GLE):

CD.7.C.07.a.i: Recognize the relevance of all work and workers and that they coexist in a global society.

American School Counselor Association National Standard (ASCA):

Career Development

- A: Students will acquire the skills to investigate the world of work in relation to knowledge of self and to make informed career decisions.
- C: Students will understand the relationship between personal qualities, education, training and the world of work.

Materials (include activity sheets and/ or supporting resources)

Completed “Who I Am ...” and “Researching a Career” Activity Sheets (see Lesson 2)

Activity Sheet: “Map It Out” concept map (2 copies for each student);

Item(s) purchased locally and produced in another country

Show Me Standards: Performance Goals (check one or more that apply)

X	Goal 1: gather, analyze and apply information and ideas 6. Discover and evaluate patterns and relationships in information, ideas and structures. 8. Organize data, information and ideas into useful forms (including charts, graphs, outlines) for analysis.
X	Goal 2: communicate effectively within and beyond the classroom 1. Plan and make written, oral and visual presentations for a variety of purposes and audiences.
	Goal 3: recognize and solve problems
X	Goal 4: make decisions and act as responsible members of society 1. Explain reasoning and identify information used to support decisions. 8. Explore, prepare for and seek educational and job opportunities.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's.
Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, portfolio, etc.
 Students will be able to use mapping skills related to careers and career paths.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:
 How are various occupations interrelated? How do those occupations relate to the career paths?

Engagement (Hook):
 Show students a small puzzle. Explain that without all the pieces, a puzzle is not complete. The same principle applies to the world of work. Each person who provides a service or who produces a product depends on others to make the process complete.

Procedures for Lesson

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Distribute students' completed "Who I Am ..." Activity Sheets. Have them complete the second part of the inventory: With one of the careers they researched in mind, students will mark the items that "fit" that career with an "0"</li> <li>2. Divide students into task groups. Give each group a "Map It Out" concept map Activity Sheet. Encourage the groups to choose a specific career that they find appealing. The students will write the name of that career in the middle bubble.</li> </ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Students will complete the second part of the Activity Sheet and review the "match" asking himself or herself if their preferences would make them a good fit with the occupation they researched.</li> <li>2. Participate in group discussion while respecting the views of others.</li> </ol>

Ask the groups to consider related careers. Related careers are those that may not be the specific career goal, but would allow students to be professionally involved in the career area desired. With every specific career, there are typically many related careers. The students will then brainstorm as many related careers as possible, placing them in the Career Path boxes. Encourage the students to come up with as many jobs in as many Career Paths as possible. Some jobs may have many Career Paths involved. Others may not. Example: A specific career may be a news anchor-person. Related careers might include camera operator, copywriter, freelance writer, reporter, producer, actor, and sportscaster. Allow 5 minutes for students to complete the concept map. <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>3. Review the groups' results, soliciting opinions from the rest of the class.</li><li>4. Present items purchased in the United States and produced in another country to the groups. Have them consider all the potential individuals who may have contributed to that product being available for purchase in the local store. Give the groups another copy of the "Map It Out" Activity Sheet to use for this activity; telling students to place the name of the product in the center and the names of occupations in the career path "boxes" surrounding the product. Allow 5 minutes for students to complete the concept map.</li><li>5. Discuss the results of the groups' concept mapping exercise. Students will contribute ideas and listen to others' ideas through brainstorming, group discussion, and class discussion.</li><li>5. Students will do a 2-minute writing as closure. X	Goal 2: communicate effectively within and beyond the classroom 1. Plan and make written, oral and visual presentations for a variety of purposes and audiences

	6. Apply communication techniques to the job search and to the workplace.
	Goal 3: recognize and solve problems
X	Goal 4: make decisions and act as responsible members of society 8. Explore, prepare for and seek educational and job opportunities.

This lesson supports the development of skills in the following academic content areas.

	Academic Content Area(s)	Specific Skill(s)
X	Communication Arts	Reading and writing
	Mathematics
X	Social Studies	Use of tools of social inquiry and relationships of the individual to the group
	Science
	Health/Physical Education
	Fine Arts

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
 Students will develop a Personal Plan of Study (POS) so that they can establish goals for the future (both short-term and long-term): The Plan will evidence: Student's integration of self knowledge with knowledge about career paths and potential occupations including, but not limited to, student's understanding of his or her personal values and the roles these values will play in career satisfaction; an assessment of his or her work and study patterns and a projection of how these might help or hinder the accomplishment of goals; clearly articulated short and long term goals (including personal change goals); and action plans for accomplishing goals.

Brief Summary of Unit:
 Students will develop a resume, complete sample job applications and evaluate their job interview skills. Students will develop a Personal Plan of Study at the completion of the eighth grade that takes into account portfolio information and self-evaluation tools. Students will develop an educational and career plan, establish specific goals and develop action steps for achieving the goals.

Unit Goals and Objectives:
 Students will learn how to write a resume, fill out job applications and the process of job interviewing.
 Students will learn what personal, ethical and work habits are and why they are important.
 Students will identify necessary components in a career portfolio.
 Students will assess and analyze personal, ethical, academic and work habit skills.
 Students will use personal, ethical, academic and work experience to make future career decisions.

Students' Prior Knowledge:
 Student success in any learning endeavor is dependent upon prior knowledge. The Missouri Comprehensive Guidance Program Curriculum builds on each student's prior knowledge and understanding in academic content as well as Comprehensive Guidance content. Helping students develop a common vocabulary and common conceptual understandings rests upon the Professional School Counselor.

For the Career Development Strand the common vocabulary for seventh graders includes:

Work	Job Responsibilities of Workers	College, University
Career	Interests	Strength,
Limitation
Career Paths	Post-secondary Options	Ethics
Resume	Portfolio	Interview

For CD 9 the common conceptual understanding includes: the inter-relationship of one's personal skills, (e.g., ethical behavior and work habit skills and attitudes), one's job seeking skills and work success and satisfaction.

At the seventh grade level, students are expect to have prior knowledge of:

The Concept and Titles of the Career Paths	Basic Goal-Setting and Planning
Skills
The Importance of All Work	The Value of All Workers
Basic Interviewing Skills	Their Personal Characteristics

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's.
Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
 Students will be able to report on the appropriate way to complete a job application and a job interview.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:
 What is a “good” worker?
 Have you ever applied for a job? Have you ever had a job interview? Why are personal, ethical and work habit skills important to an employer?

Engagement (Hook):
 Ask the students, “How can you lose a job in less than five minutes?”

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
1. Ask the “hook” question and seek responses from 4 or 5 volunteers. Write the essence of each response on the board. Ask students what they notice about the responses ... are ‘job-task’ skills listed?  2. Ask a follow-up “hook” question: “How can you lose a job before you have the job?” Record the essence of students’ responses on the board. Remind class of the elementary school guidance lesson about applying for classroom jobs – and to remember that the classroom job application	1. Students will volunteer responses to the question, review the list of responses and make an observation about the list on the board.  2. Students will volunteer responses the question.

was a way to “sell themselves” as a qualified candidate for their preferred classroom job. If they had not completed their applications neatly and accurately, they might not have gotten the classroom job they really wanted. So--one way to lose a job before you even have it is to be careless about the application submitted. <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>3. Ask students for ideas on the correct way to complete a job application.</li><li>4. Divide the class into groups of 4. Explain that they will to be given two completed job applications to review and evaluate as a group. They will indicate what is done incorrectly (highlight in yellow) and what is done correctly (highlight in green).</li><li>5. Ask each group to choose a spokesperson to give an example of an incorrect item and a correct item on one of the two applications. The instructor asks students whether or not they agree with each group’s choices.</li><li>6. “Good News, Students! You have just found out – your application sold you as a potential candidate! However -- You still have an opportunity to LOSE the job before you begin – How??” Write 4 or 5 responses on the board. Link responses to lack of or poor interviewing skills. Ask the students for ideas about how to make a job interview successful.</li><li>7. Each group is given the Activity Sheet: “Interview Scenarios” (interviews with Marvin and Raven). They are instructed to review, evaluate and highlight the “Interview Scenarios” in the same way they did the job applications, problem areas</li></ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>3. Students will share ideas they have on the correct way to complete a job application. Possible answer: It should be done neatly by being typed or printed legibly.</li><li>4. Students will get into groups. Students will review and assesses the two job applications and highlight in yellow those things that they think are incorrect and highlight in green those things they think are done correctly.</li><li>5. Students choose a spokesperson and the person reports to the class an incorrect item and a correct item from one of the applications. Students respond as to whether or not they agree with each group’s choices. If there is disagreement, a rationale must be given.</li><li>6. Students will share ideas they have on the correct way to complete a job application. Possible answer: Dress nice and use good manners.</li><li>7. Students will highlight the interview scenarios using yellow for problem areas (incorrect areas) and green for the use of effective interviewing skills (correct areas).</li></ol>

(incorrect areas) in yellow and effective interview skills (correct areas) in green. 8. Ask each group’s spokesperson to give an example of a problem area and an effective interview skill from one of the two interviews. Ask other students whether or not they agree with each group’s choices. 9. Review the pros and cons of each application and each interview with the students and ask, “Who will get the job?” “Could either applicant have lost the job before they had it?” Students will support responses with evidence from the examples provided. 10. Tell the students that next week they will be interviewing for jobs with people from the local business community. Job applications from at least two local businesses will be given to students. Students are to complete the applications and return them to the classroom teacher within two days. Review the applications and, at least two days before the interviews; inform students whether or not they have been chosen to be interviewed. (NOTE: If individual students choose not to complete and return the applications on time, help the individual use that choice as a piece of her or his individual “puzzle” in the self-evaluation process.)	8. Spokespersons report to the class a problem area and an effective interview skill from one of the two interviews. Students (in large group) discuss whether or not they agree with each groups’ choices. If there is disagreement, the rationale for disagreeing must be presented. 9. Students will, as a group, decide if Marvin or Raven (or neither) will get the job based on the information provided in the scenario. 10. Students will complete two job applications and return them within two days.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

The counselor will give the teacher envelopes to collect the applications; the teacher will remind the students of the assignment and possibly give class time to work on the applications. (This would work well in a communication arts class or careers class).

Instructions for Review of Completed Applications

These instructions for the review and evaluation of Raven Stone's and Marvin Smith's applications: Read each application and highlight in yellow the incorrect parts of each application and highlight in green the correct parts of each application. Write a summary of the strengths and weaknesses of each interview and compare how Raven and Marvin completed their applications. Use this page to make your comparisons and to write the summary of your evaluation of the applications.

Activity Sheet: “Interview Scenario” for Raven Stone Seeking Employment with Happy Hamburger House

Instructions for Raven Stone’s and Marvin Smith’s interviews: Read each interview and highlight in yellow the incorrect parts of each interview and highlight in green the correct parts of each interview. Write a summary of the strengths and weaknesses of each interview and compare how Raven and Marvin performed in their interviews.

Raven wanted a job at Happy Hamburger House. She had decided she needed to work during the summer in order to earn some spending money for college in the fall. Raven was dreaming of going to college and having a career in restaurant and hotel management. She had never worked except for the occasional babysitting job and was excited to be interviewing for a “regular” job doing something in the area she was considering as a career.

Raven had never interviewed for a job and asked some of her friends who worked at Happy Hamburger House what to expect during the interview. She felt confident about the interview after talking with her friend, Marcus, who had been the “Employee of the Month” recently.

Raven had an interview appointment after school at 4:00 and she went home after school to shower and change clothes before going to the interview. Raven put on a nice pair of slacks, a blouse tucked in with a belt and pulled her hair up into a ponytail.

Raven arrived 10 minutes late for the interview because of the time she had taken to go home and change. Mr. Langley, the manager, was waiting for her when she arrived and she greeted him with a smile and a handshake. Mr. Langley invited her to his office. Raven sat slouched down in the chair offered to her.

Mr. Langley: “Raven, I could not help but notice that you are 10 minutes late for the interview. Could you explain why you are late?”

Raven: “Well I went home to change after school and it took me longer than I thought it would.”

Mr. Langley: “Being to work on time will be important, are you going to be able to get to work on time?”

Raven: “I should be able to.”

Mr. Langley: “Raven, why do you want to work here at Happy Hamburger House?”

Raven: “Well Mr. Langley, I am going to go to school in the fall where I plan to major in the restaurant and hotel management program. I think that working here will give me some experience to help me in my future career.”

Mr. Langley: “It sounds like you have future plans. Let’s talk about what you are doing now. What is your school attendance and grades like?”

Raven: “I get to school when I can, I have a lot of sinus infections and just don’t feel like going to school. I have been on the honor roll 1 out of 3 quarters. I really don’t do much extra at school.”

Mr. Langley: “Do you think this job will create problems for you getting your academic work done?”

Raven: “I know that I will have to reorganize my schedule and have good time management and organizational skills to get everything done, but I believe I will be able to do it.”

Mr. Langley: “Do you have any experience or knowledge to share with me concerning the fast food business?”

Raven: “I haven’t ever had a job in fast food, my only experience is in eating at fast food restaurants. I have talked with Marcus about his work experience here and feel that I know what the job would be like and could do it.”

Mr. Langley: “When would you be able to work?”

Raven: “I have discussed it with my parents and I can work after school 3 days a week and on Saturdays.”

Mr. Langley: “Who is Mr. & Mrs. Conner on your reference list?”

Raven: “I have babysat their little boy on several occasions.”

Mr. Langley: “I will probably contact them, will that be a problem?”

Raven: “I don’t think so. It’s just that I haven’t sat for them since their son broke his arm when I babysat for them last time. He was jumping out of a tree while I was on the phone talking to a friend.”

Mr. Langley: “Oh, I see. Do you have any questions for me?”

Raven: “I was wondering how much money I would be making?”

Mr. Langley: “It will be minimum wage. Do you have any other questions?”

Raven: “No, I don’t think so.”

Mr. Langley: “Thank you for coming in.”

Raven: “You’re welcome.”

Activity Sheet:” Interview Scenario” for Marvin Smith Seeking Employment with Happy Hamburger House

Instructions for Raven Stone’s and Marvin Smith’s interviews: Read each interview and highlight in yellow the incorrect parts of each interview and highlight in green the correct parts of each interview. Write a summary of the strengths and weaknesses of each interview and compare how Raven and Marvin performed in their interviews.

Marvin wanted a job at Happy Hamburger House. He had decided he needed to work in order to earn some spending money. He was looking at Happy Hamburger House because several of his friends worked there.

Marvin had never interviewed for a job before and asked some of his friends who worked at Happy Hamburger House what to expect during the interview. He got a lot of different answers. Most of his friends said the pay was good and that they did as little as they could when Mr. Langley the manager wasn’t there to supervise. Marvin liked the sound of that because he was looking to make some money without having to do much or give up his weekend time. He wasn’t going to have a lot of time to study outside of school if he worked every night and he didn’t really want to have to work hard for the money.

Marvin had an interview appointment after school at 3:30 so he wore what he wore to school that day to the interview. Marvin was dressed in jeans with holes in the knees, a faded t-shirt and his favorite pair of sneakers.

Marvin arrived 5 minutes early for the interview and waited for Mr. Langley, the manager, to come get him for the interview. When Mr. Langley came to get him Marvin stood up and greeted him with a smile and a handshake. Mr. Langley invited him to his office. Marvin slouched down in the chair offered to him at first, but soon sat straight up.

Mr. Langley: “Marvin, why do you want to work here at Happy Hamburger House?”

Marvin: “Well Mr. Langley I am looking to make a little money to spend.”

Mr. Langley: “Let’s talk about what you are doing now. What is your school attendance and grades like?”

Marvin: “I have missed 5 days of school this year and I have been on the honor roll 2 out of 3 quarters. I’ve got Chemistry and it’s been kind of difficult this semester. I really enjoy school because I am involved in three organizations and hold an office in one of them.”

Mr. Langley: “Do you think this job will create problems for you getting your academic work done or hinder you from being involved in your organizations?”

Marvin: “I know that I will have to reorganize my schedule and have good time management and organizational skills to get everything done, but I believe I will be able to do it.”

Mr. Langley: “Do you have any experience or knowledge to share with me concerning the fast food business?”

Marvin: “I haven’t ever had a job in fast food, my only experience is in eating at fast food restaurants. I have talked with several of my friends and they say it’s an okay place to work.”

Mr. Langley: “Who are your friends that you talked to?”

Marvin: “I’d rather not say.”

Mr. Langley: “Okay. When would you be able to work?”

Marvin: “I can work after school 5 days a week, but I prefer not to work weekends at all.”

Mr. Langley: “Do you have any references?”

Marvin: “References? No, I don’t have any except my friends that work here.”

Mr. Langley: “Okay. Do you have any questions for me?”

Marvin: “When will I know if I’ve been hired?”

Mr. Langley: “I am hoping to hire someone in the next 3 days. I will call you one way or the other. Thank you for coming in.”

Marvin: “Thank you for your time and consideration.”

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
 Students will demonstrate their ability to identify interview skills that lead to success in the job-seeking process by participating in/observing an interview with an employer. During observation, students will use a checklist to validate their ability to identify the use of effective interview skills.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:
 What makes the difference between who gets a job and who doesn't?
 Would you "get the job?"

Academic Content Area(s)	Specific Skill(s)
X	Communication Arts Reading and writing skills
X	Mathematics Math skills; data analysis
	Social Studies

	Science
	Health/Physical Education
	Fine Arts

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

The culminating performance event for the Middle School Career Development Strand is a presentation by each student of his or her “My Design for My Life” and “My Personal Plan of Study”. The students will identify their “cheering section” – a small group of their strongest supporters e. g, parents, a favorite aunt, a middle school teacher, an elementary teacher, a school staff person (e.g. a custodian) and, of course, the Counselor! The student will creatively design the materials and the delivery method for the presentation. The materials will demonstrate the student’s written communication skills, (using writing standards specified by the Communication Arts department), the ability to organize documents so they are easily accessible, creative and critical thinking ability. The presentation will demonstrate the student’s ability to utilize technology, to orally communicate ideas in an engaging manner. Content will reflect the students: understanding and will answer the following questions: re: “My Design for My Life”: What do I want for me and my life (My mission and purpose)? What “thumbprint” do I want to leave via my personal contributions to my family, school and community (my philosophy about living in a global community). How does my work/occupation fit my design for my life? Re: “My Personal Plan of Study”: What skills and experiences have I had that would be valuable to employers and to employability in general, especially in my current career path of interest? Where can I go (now and in the future) to find information related to occupations that fit my interests and abilities? How do my skills, talents, and experience relate to academic/career planning? How do the Career Paths relate to my academic/career planning? How can I use my portfolio to help me retain, retrieve and review new data/information about myself and career paths and career clusters. How can I use that information to review/rethink and refine/revise “My Personal Plan of Study” regularly and systematically in high school (and beyond }

Brief Summary of Unit:

The purpose of this unit is to have students assess academic strengths, personal interests and abilities in order to develop a 4-year educational plan that targets a Career Path, which is tailored to their aptitudes, interests, and abilities.

Unit Goals:

Students will identify personal interests, academic strengths, and abilities. They will review Career Paths and careers within those paths that are specific to the students’ interests, academic strengths, and abilities. They will review previous information from their career portfolios to aid in development of career/academic plans, along with information regarding school and community involvement that may be related to those interests and abilities. They will determine what high school courses and post-secondary education will aid in the achievement of career goals.

Students’ Prior Knowledge:

Student success in any learning endeavor is dependent upon prior knowledge. The Missouri Comprehensive Guidance Program Curriculum builds on each student's prior knowledge and understanding in academic content as well as Comprehensive Guidance content. Helping students develop a common vocabulary and common conceptual understandings rests upon the Professional School Counselor.

For the Career Development Strand the common vocabulary for eighth graders includes:

Work	Job Responsibilities of Workers	College, University
Career	Interests	Strength,
Limitation
Career Paths	Post-secondary Options	Ethics
Resume	Portfolio	Interview

For CG 9 the common conceptual understanding includes: the inter-relationship of one's personal skills, (e.g., ethical behavior and work habit skills and attitudes), one's job seeking skills and work success and satisfaction.

Essential Questions:                  Life is a puzzle – A puzzle we create and put together for ourselves.                  Picture Your Ideal Life! What picture do you want the pieces of YOUR life’s puzzle to create?                  How can YOU shape and put together the pieces of your life’s puzzle to make your ideal life? Engagement (Hook):                  Enter the classroom with an enlarged topical map of California and a puzzle box filled with disparate puzzle pieces. Say something like: “Who can help me get to Tarrytown, New York? I have a map and a puzzle that, I hope, will make a picture of Tarrytown. I don’t know why I can't figure out how to get where I want to go...I've looked at the map over and over and tried to put the picture puzzle together—I still can't get to Tarrytown, New York!

(Hide a roadmap of the United States and a picture puzzle of a New England community (A "Legend of Sleepy Hollow" puzzle would be ideal)

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Arrange for students to have their Personal Plan of Study/Career Portfolios accessible throughout this unit.</li><li>2. Introduce this Unit to students by asking for help getting to Tarrytown, NY. If necessary, lead conversation to students telling you that you have the wrong kind of map and the puzzle pieces are from different kinds of puzzles and they won't fit together.</li><li>3. Make the following points via a conversation with students.<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• When planning a trip to an unknown destination, how do you know where to go?</li><li>• What are some places or ways you can get that information?</li><li>• Which methods and/or sources seem better than others FOR YOU?</li><li>• No matter where you are going, the key to arriving at your destination is planning.</li><li>• People often spend more time planning a 2 week vacation than they do planning their lives</li></ul></li><li>4. Continue: This Comprehensive Guidance Unit will help you become a proactive participant in your own life planning. During the next three lessons, I am going to be your guide and you will be the explorers – Together we are going to bring the pieces of your life's puzzle together into a meaningful picture for you – and then you will develop a Personal Plan of Study that will guide your way on toward</li></ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Students will have Personal Plan of Study/Career Portfolio available for use throughout this Unit.</li><li>2. Complete the career interest inventory.</li><li>3. Students will sit in a circle or another configuration that will allow them to engage in conversation. The conversation is intended to involve everyone and everyone is expected to contribute ideas, questions, opinions ...</li><li>4. Students will be provided the opportunity to contribute their ideas and to ask questions.</li></ol>

the ideal picture you want your pieces to make. <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>5. The final event will be your presentation of your Personal Plan of Study to a small group of your greatest supporters: people such as, your parents, your favorite aunt, a good friend, a favorite teacher and your counselor. On the first page of your portfolio, write the names of people you MAY want to include in your cheering section.</li><li>6. ARE YOU READY?? Then LET’S GET ON THE ROAD AND GO—toward your ideal life. Be sure to bring your puzzle pieces ... you will need them to help you reflect/refine/revise your choices as we travel!</li><li>7. Leaf through your Portfolio – it contains a wealth of information about what you have been thinking and feeling along your journey. All of this information will contribute to your decision-making about careers and courses of study. For example, when considering what career path you want to follow or what classes you want to take in high school, planning is important. Having information from assessments such as a career interest inventory and achievement test scores, can be a starting point for planning. You have those results in your Portfolio.</li><li>8. We are going to review those pieces of your puzzle, create some new ones and gradually put them all together so you can envision you living your ideal life—AND developing a Personal Plan of Study that will take you there!.</li><li>9. The first step is “kinda” boring for some of us... but we have to do it ...ORGANIZE. Review your portfolio pieces and make sure that you have the following</li></ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>5. Students will develop a tentative list of people they will include in their cheering section.</li><li>6. Students will respond with “I’m Ready – Let’s Go!” or some other chant to demonstrate the liveliness of the process.</li><li>7. Students will look through the materials in their Portfolios.</li><li>8. Students will ask questions and/or contribute ideas/opinions about using the information.</li><li>9. The Resource: “Portfolio Checklist” will guide the organization of the students’ portfolios. Students will work at desks or tables and begin sorting the materials</li></ol>
---	--

information readily available: The Resource: “Portfolio Checklist” will help you identify and organize into categories information about yourself based on assessment processes developed by others and your own assessment of yourself via reflections. Take about 10 minutes to begin the process of reviewing and organize the current contents of your portfolio now. 10. Distribute Activity Sheet “Back to the Future ...” Another important part of planning for the future is thinking about the past. The Activity Sheet “Back to the Future: Pick up the Pieces of Your Past and Bring them Forward: From then to Now to the Future” will help you remember some of the activities you loved doing earlier ... but perhaps have forgotten! Give students time to read the “prompts” on the Activity Sheet. 11. Explain each section of the Activity Sheet. Encourage students to thoughtfully reflect on their lives at each grade level and to be as thorough as possible when capturing their memories --- Ask: What questions came to your mind as we were going through the Activity Sheet? 12. Work through the first column (Kindergarten) with students – Help students have fun with their memory scanning. Tell students that between this guidance lesson and the next guidance lesson, complete the “Memory Magnifiers. During our next lesson we will continue the journey!	they have (some students are born “organizers” and will have their materials organized – use their expertise to help other students). 10. Students will read the “prompts” on the Activity Sheet and ask questions or contribute comments that will help clarify the items. 11. Students will follow the counselor’s explanation and ask questions to strengthen understanding of the task. 12. Students will explain what they will be doing before the next guidance lesson (organizing the information in their Portfolios and completing the Activity Sheet)

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

When discussing grades, test scores, etc. with students, point out the benefits that come from certain grades or scores. Encourage classroom teachers to allow students to work on “Memory Magnifiers” during “discretionary” class-time as appropriate.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)

RESOURCE: PORTFOLIO CONTENTS CHECKLIST

The “items” in the following list will be used during the process of “Putting the Pieces Together: Developing a Personal Plan of Study” Unit. You may have included other items in your portfolio (e.g. a reflection paper you completed in 5th grade) to include. This list is to help you begin the process of reflection and is not intended as “MUST have” items:

Completed Activity Sheets AND Reflections

Activity Sheet "Back to the Future: Pick up the Pieces of Your Past and Bring them Forward: From then to Now to the Future"

Developed by Carolyn S. Magnuson

Based on ideas gleaned through 35 years of learning from Sidney Simon (Values and Teaching) Richard Bolles, (What Color is Your Parachute), Jack Canfield (Self-Esteem Facilitator Training) and my long-time colleague and friend Ron Litherland (Lincoln University). At this point in my life it is difficult to know what came from whom—however, I give them each credit –they are a part of the whole!

The following requires a memory scan – get out your magic memory magnifiers and think back to the time you were in Kindergarten, then 3rd grade, then 5th grade—pick up the pieces of your puzzle and bring them forward to your planning in the present.

SCAN YOUR MEMORY	Kindergarten	3rd Grade	5th Grade	8th Grade
Where I Lived
When I Grow Up I Want to Be ... What did you imagine yourself doing: as work, at home, at "play" Write as many as you can remember –Don't worry if you can't remember everything!)
I Really Enjoyed .... What did you really enjoy doing? Collect baseball cards, fix up your room, help your mother when she volunteered, being the leader of a club
I was/am "good" at ... What school areas did/do you really like and consider yourself able to do fairly well?
Things that are really important to me are... What did/do you really value for you and your life e.g., honesty, taking care of others, being fair
Social Responsibility and Community Action: To make our global community better and as a socially responsible person, for what have you taken (or would like to take) a stand or action? e. g., Speaking out about pet abandonment or discrimination of other human beings.

Unit # 1 Title: How Does Who I Am Relate to Planning for High School and Beyond?

Lesson Title: Putting It All Together: The Personal Plan of Study (Part 2)      Lesson: 2 of 3

Grade Level: 8

Length of Lesson: 50 minutes

Missouri Comprehensive Guidance Standard:

CD.7: Applying Career Exploration and Planning Skills in the Achievement of Life Career Goals

CD.8: Knowing Where and How to Obtain Information about the World of Work and Post-Secondary Training/Education

CD.9: Applying Employment Readiness Skills and the Skills for On-the-Job Success

Grade Level Expectation (GLE):

CD.7.A.08.a.i: Develop an educational and career plan based on current interests, strengths, and limitations.

CD.7.B.08.a.i: Identify and explore a variety of resources to aid in career exploration and planning now and in the future.

CD.8.A.08.a.i: Compare personal interests with career and educational information.

CD.9.A.08.a.i: Evaluate personal, ethical and work habits as they relate to achieving the student's educational career plan.

American School Counselor Association National Standard (ASCA):

Career Development

A: Students will acquire the skills to investigate the world of work in relation to knowledge of self and to make informed career decisions.

C: Students will understand the relationship between personal qualities, education, training and the world of work.

Materials (include activity sheets and/ or supporting resources)

Students' Personal Plan of Study/Career Portfolio

Completed Activity Sheet: "Back to the Future: Pick up the Pieces of Your Past and Bring them Forward: From then to Now to the Future"

Activity Sheet: "The Pieces of Our Puzzles: Our Discoveries"

Activity Sheet: "The Pieces of My Puzzle: My Discoveries"

Show Me Standards: Performance Goals (check one or more that apply)

X	Goal 1: gather, analyze and apply information and ideas 10. Apply acquired information, ideas and skills to different contexts as students, workers, citizens and consumers.
	Goal 2: communicate effectively within and beyond the classroom
X	Goal 3: recognize and solve problems 3. Develop and apply strategies based on one's own experience in preventing or solving problems.

X	Goal 4: make decisions and act as responsible members of society
	1. Explain reasoning and identify information used to support decisions.
	5. Develop, monitor and revise plans of action to meet deadlines and accomplish goals.
	8. Explore, prepare for and seek educational and job opportunities.

This lesson supports the development of skills in the following academic content areas.

Academic Content Area(s)	Specific Skill(s)
	Communication Arts
X	Mathematics Data analysis
	Social Studies
	Science
	Health/Physical Education
	Fine Arts

Enduring Life Skill(s)

	Perseverance	X	Integrity	X	Problem Solving
X	Courage		Compassion		Tolerance
X	Respect	X	Goal Setting

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE’s.  Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc. Students will have an “organized” Personal Plan of Study/Career Portfolio. They will use their completed Activity Sheet: “Back to the Future: Pick up the Pieces of Your Past and Bring them Forward: From then to Now to the Future” and information in their Portfolios to develop a synthesis of the “puzzle pieces” from their past. Small group discussion (see Activity Sheet: “The Pieces of Our Puzzles—Discussion Guide) will help students narrow information and will provide background knowledge that will aid in their bringing shape to their discoveries (see Activity Sheet: “The Pieces of My Puzzle: My Discoveries”

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:                  How can I (you) “control” my (your) own future? Engagement (Hook):                  Arrive in class with a United States of America roadmap that shows highways from California to New York and a picture puzzle showing a New England town (Legend of Sleepy Hollow puzzle if Tarrytown, New York is your destination). “WOW! It surely will be easier to get to Tarrytown now that I have the right kind of map and puzzle pieces that fit together to let me see where I am going.”

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Ask students to relate “hook” statements to their own goals and plans; e.g. having a goal that is clear that “fits” with who I am makes it easier to develop a plan for getting there!. Explain that during this lesson, they will be putting more of the pieces of their puzzles together. They will be using their completed “Back to the Future ...” Activity Sheets” to describe and prioritize what they want their completed puzzles to be and in the next lesson will be considering the results of the assessments they’ve completed during middle school and comparing all of the data (information) they have completed about themselves to create their “Design for My Life” and “My Personal Plan of Study”.</li><li>2. Using the completed Activity Sheet: “Back to the Future: Pick up the Pieces of Your Past and Bring them Forward: From Then to Now to the Future” students will be able to answer the question: “What did you learn about yourself using your “magical memory magnifiers” to go back in time?</li><li>3. Allow about 12 minutes for students to work in groups of 3 or 4 and discuss their memory scans with peers. Guide their discussion by going through the Activity Sheet one row at a time: For each row guide students to discuss several of the following questions:<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• How have you changed/stayed the same since Kindergarten in this area?</li><li>• What patterns appeared?</li><li>• How have interests changed?</li><li>• What stands out the most?</li><li>• What is the most surprising?</li><li>• What similarities/differences are there among group members’ memories?</li><li>• (see Activity Sheet: “The Pieces of Our Puzzles—Discussion Guide)</li></ul></li></ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Students will volunteer responses that indicate an awareness of the need to establish one’s own goals and to develop plans to get to their goals.</li><li>2. Students will volunteer to identify 1 or 2 “things” they learned and/or discovered about themselves.</li><li>3. Students will work in groups to reflect on their memory scans and what they want to bring forward to the future as they create “Design For My Life”</li></ol>

4. Ask for 3 or 4 students to tell the rest of the class one discovery that was surprising. 5. Working individually, students will complete the Activity Sheet: “The Pieces of My Puzzle: My Discoveries” which is intended to synthesize students discoveries. (NOTE: Plan to have students complete the items in more than one sitting – otherwise the task will become tortuous rather than joyous!) 6. As this guidance lesson closes, preview the next lesson. They will be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Prioritizing their lists from the Activity Sheet “The Pieces of My Puzzle: My Discoveries”</li><li>• Reviewing the results of assessment tools such as, career interest inventories, achievement test scores, world of work explorations and reflections.</li></ul> Ultimately, students will evaluate the results of all their explorations relate to Career Paths of interest and/or career choices. They will be investigating the classes needed in high school and post-high school that will help them fulfill their life and career goals. Post-secondary education and training requirements for occupations in their career paths of interest will be considered when completing “My Personal Plan of Study” 7. Remind students to complete their “The Pieces of My Puzzle...” Activity Sheet before the next guidance lesson.	4. After working in small groups, all students will identify a discovery that was surprising. Three or four students will volunteer to publicly share their ideas. 5. Students will work individually to complete the listings of their discoveries. 6. Students will make sure they have the assessments mentioned and if not, will work with the counselor to obtain self-information from other sources. 7. Students will put the Activity Sheet with their other “take-home” materials.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Teachers may follow up in an advisory capacity, helping students with the high school planning process. Encourage teachers to “allow” students to complete their “Pieces of My Puzzle” Activity Sheet.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)

Activity Sheet: “The Pieces of Our Puzzles—Discussion Guide

The following will guide your small group discussion of your memory scans. Your counselor will identify the questions everyone will discuss – however, you and your peers may decide to discuss other questions in addition to those your counselor identifies.

Where have you lived? Which place was your favorite? What made it your favorite?

When I Grow Up I Want to Be ...What did you imagine yourself doing: as work, at home, at “play”

How have you changed/stayed the same since Kindergarten in this area?

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE’s. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc. The culminating performance event for the Middle School Career Development Strand is a presentation by each student of his or her “My Design for My Life” and “My Personal Plan of Study”. The students will identify their “cheering section” – a small group of their strongest supporters e. g., parents, a favorite aunt, a middle school teacher, an elementary teacher, a school staff person (e.g. a custodian) and, of course, the Counselor! The student will creatively design the materials and the delivery method for the presentation. The materials will demonstrate the student’s written communication skills, (using writing standards specified by the Communication Arts department), the ability to organize documents so they are easily accessible, creative and critical thinking ability. The presentation will demonstrate the student’s ability to utilize technology, to orally communicate ideas in an engaging manner. Content will reflect the students: understanding and will answer the following questions: re: “My Design for My Life”: What do I want for me and my life (My mission and purpose)? What “thumbprint” do I want to leave via my personal contributions to my family, school and community (my philosophy about living in a global community). How does my work/occupation fit my design for my life? Re: “My Personal Plan of Study”: What skills and experiences have I had that would be valuable to employers and to employability in general, especially in my current career path of interest? Where can I go (now and in the future) to find information related to occupations that fit my interests and abilities? How do my skills, talents, and experience relate to academic/career planning? How do the Career Paths relate to my academic/career planning? How can I use my portfolio to help me retain, retrieve and review new data/information about myself and career paths and career clusters. How can I use that information to review/rethink and refine/revise “My Personal Plan of Study” regularly and systematically in high school (and beyond)

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:
 So Many Pieces—So Many Options—How will I EVER be able to Make a choice.

The next step is to determine personal preferences and priorities. Introduce the “Turtle Bay” process to students (See Activity Sheet: “Setting Priorities The Turtle Bay Way” -- NOTE!! This can be a confusing process – however, once you have done it, the process is an easy way to compare and prioritize lists.) Students will need one “Turtle Bay” Activity Sheet for each category they will be prioritizing: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Home Activities</li><li>• Work Activities</li><li>• Self-Time Activities</li><li>• Enjoyable Activities</li><li>• “Good-Ats”</li><li>• Values</li><li>• Social Responsibility Actions</li></ul> 4. When students have prioritized their lists, have them write a 1-2 page narrative titled “My Design for My Life” (This will be a rough draft copy and will be refined as a part of the culminating presentation). 5. The next step is to review and summarize information about self as measured by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Interest Inventories, Achievement Tests, Aptitude measures,</li><li>• Grades</li><li>• Participation classes and school activities</li><li>• Reflections of work exploration experiences, e.g. job shadowing, worker interviews, observations of workers.</li></ul> 6. After reviewing the information they have collected about themselves via many data	3. Students will write the “items” they listed in each category of the “The Pieces of My Puzzle” Activity Sheet on a “Turtle Bay” prioritizing Activity Sheet (one Activity Sheet for each category) and proceed with the prioritization process. 4. When students have prioritized their lists, have them write a 1-2 page narrative titled “My Design for My Life” (This will be a rough draft copy and will be refined as a part of the culminating presentation). 5. Students will review portfolios to determine what information might be pertinent in the Personal Plan of Study building process. 6. Students will review and make “rough” summary notes about the information.

sources, have students create a grid to compare 9 or 10 of the occupations they are considering with the transferable/functional work-related factors (e.g. being able to afford a sports car; using my creativity in my work) that have emerged as high priorities for them as they have gathered the pieces of their life-puzzle. Consider: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Self Knowledge (Discoveries, results of inventories and reflections)</li> <li>• World of Work Knowledge:</li> <li>• Job tasks &amp; responsibilities</li> <li>• Salary</li> <li>• Working Conditions</li> <li>• Opportunities for Advancement</li> <li>• Post-secondary Education/Training Required</li> </ul> 7. The next step: Develop “My Personal Plan of Study”! The Activity Sheet: “Consider This” is list of questions/considerations that will help students focus their thoughts as they develop their “Personal Plan of Study”. Facilitate a discussion of the questions--challenge students’ assumptions. 8. With these considerations in mind, students will consult their priority listings, their career portfolios and academic information to complete the Personal Plan of Study template. Provide students with district graduation requirements. Some students will need information regarding NCAA approved core courses. Others will need college preparatory information. Provide any information students will need as they complete their “Personal Plan of Study”. Ideally students will be able to enter data for their “Personal Plan of Study” may want to complete the form in pencil, so that they can review and revise their plans as they progress through high school. 9. As students work on their plans, review	7. Students will develop a grid and compare their current jobs of interest with their life’s-design priorities. 8. Students will participate in a class discussion of the items on the Activity Sheet “Consider This”. They will ask clarifying questions and/or contribute ideas to the discussion. 9. Students will identify personal, ethical,

their progress. Ask the students to consider whether the Personal Plan of Study reflects who they are, their interests and their abilities. 10. Facilitate the development of students' presentations of their "My Design for My Life" and "My Personal Plan of Study"	and work habit skills that contribute to development of a Personal Plan of Study that reflects future academic and career goals. Students will engage in self-evaluation of their plans and will invite peers to review and make suggestions to improve their plans. 10. Students will develop presentations using guidelines provided in the "Unit Assessment" section of this Lesson Plan

ACTIVITY SHEET: SETTING PRIORITIES THE TURTLE BAY WAY

The Turtle Bay process is one of those strategies that has been around so long that the origin has been lost. Richard Bolles has used a similar process in his “What Color is Your Parachute?” materials (Ten Speed Press, Berkley, California)..

ACTIVITY SHEET: CONSIDER THIS ...

What is the current status of your:

- academic performance?
- study habits?
- academic skills?
- participation in after-school activities?

How will the above influence your choice of high school classes that will lead to your ideal life?

What options have you considered for your high school planning,

- math, science, language, and social studies requirements?
- elective courses should you consider that fit with your career path/cluster?

What personal contributions do you want to make?

What contributions have you made so far in the school and the community? Consider how these activities relate to your potential career path choices.

Have you thought about/considered:

A career technology center program during your junior and/or senior year of high school?

The extracurricular activities in which you want to participate?

Your post-high school plans; are you considering technical school, on-the-job training, military service, junior college, or four years of college or more?

How do the above questions and responses relate to helping you along the path to what you want your ideal life to be?

Essential Questions: Why is it important for teenagers to have a positive self-concept?                  Why is it important for you to balance your personal, academic, and work roles?                  How do people make the world a better place? Engagement (Hook): Begin an in-depth discussion by juggling 3 tennis balls. Explain that each ball represents a specific area of their life (i.e. Self-Concept, School Community, and Responsibilities).                  Begin juggling the balls and explain to the students that sometimes all three areas of their lives operate smoothly.

Drop one of the balls and explain to the students that sometimes one area of their lives may seem to be out of control or going poorly, but the other two areas can still be okay. Continue to juggle the other two balls.

Drop another ball and explain to the students that sometimes two areas of their lives may seem to be out of control or going poorly, but there is still one area that they can concentrate on that is going okay. Continue to toss one ball.

Drop the last ball and explain to the students that sometimes all areas of their lives may seem to be out of control or going poorly.

A variation of this activity is using paper, which is neatly organized into three stacks. Explain to the students that sometimes all three stacks are perfectly aligned and all three areas of their lives operate smoothly.

Blow/throw one of the stacks into the air and explain to the students that sometimes one area of their life may seem to be out of control or going poorly, but the other two can still be going okay. Point to the other two neatly stacked piles of paper.

Blow/throw another one of the stacks into the air and explain to the students that sometimes two areas of their lives may seem to be out of control or going poorly, but there is still one area that they can concentrate on that is going well. Point to the last neatly stacked pile of paper.

Blow/throw the last stack of paper into the air and explain to the students that sometimes all areas of their life may seem to be out of control or going poorly.

Use either hook to lead into explaining to the students that high school is a place where all areas will need to be juggled in order to have the best experience possible. Work with them as large groups, small groups or individuals to give them skills, ideas or opportunities to juggle all three areas successfully.

Instructor Procedures:

1. Handout the “Self-concept Checklist” worksheet. One area that will be impacted entering high school is your self-concept. Meeting new friends, experiencing peer pressure, trying to “fit in” are all issues 9th graders may go through. Explain that the self-concept checklist will help increase their self-concept. Allow students time to complete the checklist. Discuss responses and or collect them after the class period for

Student Involvement:

1. Students complete the self-concept checklist. Discuss what indicates positive or negative self-concepts.

formative evaluation. 2. After discussing possible responses, explain to the students that there are ways to improve their self-concept as well as maintain it. Allow them time to complete the “Improving Your Self-Concept” worksheet. Discuss and or collect for formative evaluation. 3. Ask students what they are most looking forward to doing in high school. Discuss responses. Ask students if they are aware of all the opportunities available to them in their new school community. Direct students to the “Clubs/Organization List”. Let them know about all the different opportunities they have to be involved with. Discuss the benefits of more friends (new friends), sense of belonging, school pride, learning new things, taking risks, organizing time and responsibilities and increased positive self-concept. Ask students to check or circle clubs they may be interested in learning more information about or joining. 4. Discuss and examine the different roles students have and the responsibilities of those roles. Pass out “Roles: How do They Impact Me and for What Am I Responsible” worksheet.	2. Students will complete the “Improving Your Self-Concept” worksheet. Discuss ways for developing or maintaining a positive self-concept. 3. Students respond to questions. Discuss benefits to joining clubs. Checkmark or circle clubs they may be interested in joining. 4. Students will identify how each role has shaped their self-concepts and list at least one responsibility they have in each role.

Teachers could identify students that are still projecting a negative self-concept and refer them to the counselor.

SELF-CONCEPT CHECKLIST

Having and maintaining a positive self-concept is a life long skill. Individuals with negative self-concepts may get involved with unhealthy life choices such as drugs and criminal activity.

Below is a list of statements. If the statement describes a positive self-concept characteristic, place a checkmark in the column entitled POSITIVE. If the statement describes a negative self-concept characteristic, place a checkmark in the column titled NEGATIVE.

If you believe the statement describes your own self-concept, place a checkmark in the column titled ME.

STATEMENT	POSITIVE	NEGATIVE	ME
Fear change or trying new things
Takes responsibility for ones own actions and mistakes
Able to take charge and show leadership when necessary
Awareness and acceptance of one's own strengths and weaknesses
Unable to show leadership
Tends to follow others
When victimized remains a victim and does not overcome the situation
Accepts change
Eager to try new things
Has self-respect and self-confidence
Always criticizes self
Finds blame in others
Depends upon approval from self and not others
Tends to see negatives in people and situations

Discuss the consequences of maintaining a negative view of self as well as the benefits of maintaining a positive self-concept.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

How would a positive self-concept help you grow?

Could this growth occur with a negative self-concept?

What suggestions could you give to someone who has a negative self-concept?

Engagement (Hook):

Demonstrate, with the scale and weights, how negative comments, activities, and situations weigh down a person's self-concept. How might someone's negative view of self be cancelled out by positive self-talk and positive comments? Students may participate by placing a weight for every negative comment and removing a weight for every positive comment.

Summative Assessment: Completion of Action Plan

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

Why do we need a positive self-concept?
 How do people balance their world?
 How do people make the world a better place?

Engagement (Hook):

Ask students (12th) how many have any personal possessions like a car, computer, ipod, etc. After assessing how many have possessions like this, discuss what types of things have to be done to them in order to keep them running in top shape.

It may be easier to keep the focus on a car at this point.

Discuss with the students that in order to keep their car or other possessions running in top shape, they have to be maintained.

Ask students what happens to their car when they do not keep it maintained.

Transition into the maintenance of their personal self-concept. Their self-concept is something that needs to be maintained. If it is not maintained, they can expect similar issues to those of not keeping their personal possessions maintained.

Action Plan For Maintaining Who I Am

Create a personal action plan to maintain your positive self-concept, contribute to your community, and balance your roles.

Below are strategies for maintaining/improving your self-concept. Please place a checkmark on the ones you will use as you go through life.

_____ Journaling

I can use a journal to help sort out my feelings, my responsibilities to various roles, to write down personal statements about who I am.

I have a journal: ____ Yes ____ No

If I don't have a personal journal, here is my plan to start and continue to use one:

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____ Positive Self-Talk

I will continue my awareness of self-talk. I will not put myself down; rather I will raise myself up with positive self-talk. List some positive self-talk statements I can use:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

_____ Exercise

Exercise can relieve stress, allow for time to think positively about myself and help to improve my physical and mental health.

I will exercise 3 times a week. Below are some activities that I will include in my exercise program:

- |                             |                      |                |
|-----------------------------|----------------------|----------------|
| _____ walking               | _____ jogging        | _____ swimming |
| _____ bike riding           | _____ weight lifting | _____ aerobics |
| _____ dancing               | _____ martial arts   | _____ yoga     |
| _____ competitive athletics |                      |                |

_____ Activities/Enjoyment

I will try to put aside some time everyday from my other role responsibilities to take time for myself. This time will be spent doing something I enjoy (hobby, interest, activity)
Below are some activities that I could do:

- |                    |                          |                               |
|--------------------|--------------------------|-------------------------------|
| _____ take a walk  | _____ listen to music    | _____ attend church functions |
| _____ play a sport | _____ make crafts/art    | _____ workout                 |
| _____ volunteer    | _____ mediate            | _____ write in a journal      |
| _____ video games  | _____ play an instrument |                               |

Brief Summary of Unit:

Standard PS2 focuses on helping students in grades K-12 know, understand and respect others in order to develop and maintain quality relationships. The learning includes developing an understanding of the similarities and differences of other and ways these similarities and differences contribute to working together in our diverse world. Students will learn about their roles in advocating for respect for all human beings.

Unit Goals:

1. Students will exhibit the interpersonal skills to maintain quality relationships.
2. Students will advocate respect for individuals and groups.
3. Students will utilize and accept personal responsibility in relationships with others.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

1. Knowledge of interpersonal skills that will help maintain quality relationships
2. Knowledge of strategies that promote acceptance and respect of others within the global community
3. An awareness of personal responsibility in conflict situations

At the conclusion of the lesson, students will write a reflection on their experiences with cliques. The reflection will be a first person narrative that will include the following:

- The setting (time, place, members of the clique)
- Scenario (e.g. event describing the actions of the clique)
- Overall thoughts, feelings, and any subsequent action as a result of the event
- Advantages/Disadvantages of being a member of a clique
- Advice to younger students regarding clique membership

- Instructor reflects on how cliques have affected his/her life and leads discussion on how they have affected the lives of the students.
- Classroom teacher is encouraged to be aware of cliques and to address issues of exclusivity.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)

The Clique

Joyce has just moved to the city and feels lucky that she has found a friend, Sandra. They like to do the same things and have fun together, but each allows the other freedom to go her own way. Joyce also meets Wanda, the leader of a group of young women who seem to have a lot of fun. Joyce is accepted into the group and is swept along with Wanda and the camaraderie. Eventually, the group asks Joyce to give up her friendship with Sandra and do some things Joyce thinks are wrong. The group has planned to visit a shopping mall on Saturday and “take” a few things. When Joyce tells the others that she plans to stay home, Wanda tells her that she must go if she wants to stay in the group. What would you do if you were Joyce?

Have students set up a piece of writing paper in the same way as you (i.e. two columns)</li><li>2. Students will write the words or phrases in what they view at the appropriate column</li><li>3. Students share their individual lists and brainstorm additional adjectives. A common consensus list will be developed by each team.</li></ol>

4. Bring the class back together to create a master list of the adjectives students used to describe men and women. Write the adjectives on the chalkboard or chart paper. 5. Instructor asks some of the following questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Are you happy with the master list that we have created? Do you see any changes you would like to make to the lists?</li><li>• Are there terms that do not belong under the heading they are under? Are there any terms that might fit under both headings.</li><li>• Is it fair to say that all men _____ or that all women _____?</li></ul> 6. Write the word “stereotype” on the chalkboard or chart. Ask students if they know what the word means. Share with the students the dictionary definition. (Definition: Noun: an overly simple picture or opinion of a person, group, or thing. Example: It is a stereotype to say that all old people are forgetful.) 7. Share the following phrases with students: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Men are better at math than women</li><li>• All politicians are crooks</li><li>• African-American men are the best basketball players.</li><li>• Asian men are born to be scientists</li></ul> Ask students to share their reactions to the list above and the master list. What do they observe i.e.: commonalities and differences? Are the statements true? What evidence did students use to form their opinions about the lists? Is it fair to make these sweeping generalizations about groups of people? 8. Send students back to their small groups and ask them to come up with additional stereotypes about people they have heard.	4. Each group will share its consensus list 5. Students will participate in the discussion. 6. Students share their definitions of the meaning of stereotype. 7. Students participate in discussions. 8. Students write down additional stereotypes.
---	---

9. Bring class back together to share ideas. Write each stereotype on a sentence strip. Examples that you may see: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Computer kids are geeky.</li><li>• Young kids are noisy.</li><li>• If you wear glasses you are smart.</li><li>• Poor people are lazy.</li><li>• Women are better cooks than men.</li><li>• Boys are more athletic than girls.</li><li>• Asians excel in math and science.</li><li>• Blondes are dumb.</li><li>• Doctors are rich.</li><li>• Tall people are great basketball players.</li><li>• Indians live on reservations.</li><li>• All Americans love baseball.</li></ul> Bursting Stereotypes 10. Instructor produces bag of balloons. Have each student holding a sentence strip come to the front of the room and read his or her statement aloud. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Hold up a balloon as the student calls on classmates to refute the stereotype.</li><li>• Once satisfied that the stereotype has been blasted, pop the balloon with common pin(s).</li></ul> Or <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Instructor stands by the colorful balloon bulletin board.</li><li>• Ask each student to read her or his sentence strip aloud and staple/tape it next to a balloon on the bulletin board.</li></ul> 11. When task is complete, lead a class discussion about each stereotype.	9. Students share stereotypes and write each one on a sentence strip. 10. Students will participate in activity. 11. Students will participate in discussion. Following discussion students will write in their journals describing new understandings as they relate to stereotypes and changes they will make in their lives to help “burst stereotypes.”

TEACHING TOLERANCE

www.teachingtolerance.org

Instructions for “Origins: A simple word game for use in human relations training”

Note to Instructor:

You need an inexpensive kitchen timer for this activity. Copying sheets on colored paper will make it easier for you to keep the question sheets for each round together. After handing out the instructions below to three randomly selected judges, the instructor does not need to do anything.

Instructions to Judges:

1. Put students in groups of 5-6 people.
2. Put questions for Round 1 face down at tables; start the timer with 4 minutes.
3. At the end of 4 minutes, tell the students to put down their pens. Ask each group to read its answer for 1. After each group has answered, read the answer from the definitions sheet. Each judge records the points on her/his score sheet. Continue doing this with each question. No one can challenge the judges’ scores or ask to see the score sheets.
4. Repeat #2 with questions for Round 2, etc.
5. Add each judge’s points on the board after each round and announce winners.

Instructions to Groups:

Each group will have 4 minutes for each round. For each round, give the common usage and origin of words or phrases on the sheet. You must come up with something even if you have no idea what it means. There are two possible points for the common usage and three possible points for the origin of the word or phrase. The judges will assign the points for each round.

ACTIVITY SHEET: ORIGINS: What do these words or phrases mean?

(Adapted from Sudie Hofmann's introduction to "Origins".
<http://www.tolerance.org/teach/activities/activity.jsp?ar=657> )

The word game Origins reveals the history and prejudice of many words or expressions commonly used in the United States. We use these words or phrases everyday without thinking about their original meaning. If we knew the origin of the words, would we use them? This game will help you decide for yourself.

Following is a list of words – Describe their common usage and their origins (if you don't know the usage or the origin, make up something that seems "right").

General Rules: Three judges will be selected from the class; the rest of you will work in small groups. There will be two rounds (your instructor will tell you which words from the list are included in each round); during each round you will have four (4) minutes to work together and write the common usage and origin for the designated words (you MUST write an answer -- even if you have no idea of the meaning or origin—make one up!); at the end of four (4) minutes, groups will report their answers.

Earning Points: Two (2) possible points for the common usage; three (3) possible points for the origin of the word or phrase. Judges will award points.

At the end of each round, the judges will read the actual definitions and origins of the terms from the key.

Teaching Tolerance

www.teachingtolerance.org

DEFINITIONS: ORIGINS: What do these words or phrases mean?

1. GYPED

Common usage: One has been cheated.

Origin: Belief that Gypsies (Hindu people from East India & Balkan states) will cheat you or steal from you.

2. JEW YOU DOWN

Common usage: Hard negotiation to lower a price.

Origin: Belief that Jewish people are cheap and unethical in business. Longstanding literary references promote stereotypes that relate Jewish people to the practices of money changing usury.

3. MULATTO

Common usage: One African American parent and one White Parent.

Origin: Spanish word for a mule, which is the sterile offspring of a horse and a donkey. There is some evidence that it is also an Arabic word.

4. LAME

Common usage: A statement or behavior that is foolish or not well reasoned.

Origin: Belief that someone with a disability is incompetent or stupid.

5. HICK

Common usage: To describe something that is unsophisticated, outdated or stupid.

Origin: 16th century nickname for the given name Richard. Refers to a person who lives in the country.

6. EVIL EYE

Common usage: Evil or dirty look.

Origin: Belief in Europe and the Middle East that women could possess an evil eye, especially common in European witch trials.

7. IRON MAIDEN

Common usage: Tough, humorless woman.

Origin: Large metal enclosure coffin shaped and lined with iron spikes. Used during witch trials to torture and kill woman suspected of being witches.

8. INDIAN GIVER

Common usage: Taking back a gift.

Origin: Indigenous American communities had a different concept of ownership; the focus was on sharing or trading. Things given to the colonists by Native Americans may have been reclaimed from colonists if they did not reciprocate.

9. PADDY WAGON

Common usage: Police van.

Origin: Derogatory term for Irish people based on the Irish name of Paddy. Although, in the past, many police officers on the East Coast were Irish, some also contend that this was a cart used to round up Irish immigrants for disorderly behavior.

10. RUSSIAN ROULETTE

Common usage: Potentially fatal game of dare with a revolver, which applies the concept of roulette.
Origin: Belief that Russian culture is fatalistic.

11. HAG

Common usage: Ugly or old woman.
Origin: Holy woman. Derived from Egyptian heq, meaning matriarchal ruler..

12. CHINESE FIRE DRILL

Common usage: All occupants of a car stopped at a traffic light quickly exit the car, run around the vehicle, and return to the car through the same door.
Origin: Belief that Chinese culture is chaotic and the implication is that Chinese people are stupid and would run back into a burning building.

13. CHINESE HOME RUN/HARLEM HOME RUN

Common usage: Perceived unfair homerun because of a mythical short fence around the field.
Origin: Stereotype originated in California, based on the reality that Chinese labor was cheap and the expression eventually meant “cheap shot.” Sportswriters have also referred to some homeruns as homer foo you, chow mein smash, and egg roll bingle.

14. JAY WALKING

Common usage: Violating pedestrian laws.
Origin: Belief that a jay, a person uneducated about city life, was incapable of crossing the street legally.

15. BURY THE HATCHET

Common usage: To settle one’s differences..
Origin: A 14th century British song titled “Hong up then hatchet and thi knyf.” No historical usage by Indigenous people of North America.

16. BEDLAM

Common usage: Noise and chaos.
Origin: Term derived from Bethlehem, a London institution for people with mental disabilities.

17. CORNY

Common usage: Stupid or comical ideas or behavior.
Origin: Belief that rural people, particularly people from farms, are foolish and uneducated.

18. HOLD DOWN THE FORT

Common usage: Stay behind and manage the affairs of the office or home.
Origin: Protect the forts (military term for fortifying the building) of European American colonists against attacks by Indigenous people.

19. WELSH (VERB)

Common usage: Renege on an agreement or promise.
Origin: Nursery rhyme “Taffy was a Welshman, Taffy was a thief.” Later extended to refer to English bookies who fled to Wales to avoid paying bettors.

20. LOW PERSON ON THE TOTEM POLE

Common usage: Used by non-Indigenous people to indicate that a person is low in seniority or significance in an organization.

Origin: American Indian culture and positions of clan members on a totem, e.g. Bears on the bottom for strength and Eagles on the top for flight. Balance and equality were stressed.

21. INDIAN SUMMER

Common usage: Unusually warm days in the fall.

Origin: Belief that American Indians engage in deceit and trickery in their dealings with British colonists. Indian Summer is a false summer. Indian is used in several contexts to denote something that is cheap or false, witness Indian-giver and Indian-corn. Also supporting this idea is the British phrase St. Martin's Summer referring to the same meteorological phenomenon. St. Martin suggests something cheap or false, primarily because dealers in cheap jewelry gathered at the location of London's Church of St. Martin-de-Grand after it was torn down in the 16th century. St. Martin's day is 11 November, which often corresponds to the spell of warm weather. (From <http://www.wordorigins.org>)

22. DUTCH BARGAIN

Common usage: Appears to be a bargain, but is in fact a bad investment.

Origin: Belief that people from Holland are unethical and will attempt to sell something of little worth to unsuspecting customers.

23. DUTCH TREAT

Common usage: Each person pays for her/himself when out for dinner or entertainment.

Origin: Belief that originated in England and perpetuated the stereotype that people from Holland are uncharitable or cheap.

24. REDNECK

Common usage: A white male who has unenlightened, narrow, and racist views.

Origin: Belief that white men who do day labor (sunburned neck) hold prejudiced views and are uninformed about social issues.

25. GYPSY CAB

Common usage: A taxi cab which picks up illegal fares, i.e. is only licensed to respond to calls but illegally searches the streets for passengers.

Origin: Belief that gypsies (Rumanies – Hindu ethnic group of East Indians living in Balkan states and the U.S.) steal and engage in unlawful activities.

26. ON THE WARPATH

Common usage: Description of someone who is engaging in angry, confrontational behavior.

Origin: Reference to American Indians waging war.

What does it mean to utilize and accept personal responsibility in relationships with others?

Engagement (Hook):

Instructor will pose the following question: Have you ever done something you knew was wrong but you did it anyway due to peer pressure? (Instructor will self-disclose a personal experience from his or her past.)

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
1. Instructor will provide the “Negotiating Skills Components” handout.	1. Students review list of “Negotiating Skills Components” handout.
2. Instructor will select two students to role-play a mock argument in which one student is trying to convince the other to skip school in order to be accepted into a group.	2. Students will volunteer to perform the mock role-play. Be sure to monitor the frequency of participation...to assure that no student monopolizes the time. Others students will watch and note which skills from the “Negotiation Skills Components” worksheet were utilized.
3. Instructor will facilitate a discussion of the role-play and the negotiation skills utilized.	3. Students will participate in discussion of role-play and skills utilized.
4. Instructor will direct students to work in pairs to create new role-plays involving peer pressure (use index cards).	4. Each student pair will develop a role-play and will write the scenario on an index card.
5. Instructor will collect and randomly select scenarios and students to perform role-plays as time permits.	5. Students will role-play selected scenarios incorporating skills from the “Negotiating Skills Component” handout.
6. After each role-play, instructor will facilitate a discussion of the role-play and skills utilized.	6. Students will participate in discussion of role-play the skills utilized and the relationship of role play to real-life conflict situations.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Instructor leads discussion on ways in which negotiation techniques can be used to avoid gang violence, and problems between friends, family, and school.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)

Negotiating Skills Components

1. Decide if there is a problem between you and any other person(s).
2. Inform that person(s) about what you think is the problem.
3. Meet face to face to discuss the problem.
4. Listen to each other with open minds.
5. Respect each other's opinions.
6. Take a few minutes to recycle the other person's opinions in your mind.
7. Try to determine why he/she felt that way.
8. Avoid "finger-pointing".
9. Work out a compromise that pleases both of you.

Student Self-Assessment: Students will review their responses to questions on handouts provided.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

What does a quality relationship look like and how is it maintained?

What does it mean to utilize and accept personal responsibility in relationships with others?

Engagement (Hook):

Everyone gets into conflicts, whether they are with a parent, teacher, friend, or stranger.

Conflicts can be over anything, big or small. Conflicts can have positive outcomes. Think of a time a conflict turned out well and a problem was solved, or a situation managed, or there was just a “clearing of the air.” Conflicts can also result in negative feelings that leave us feeling bad about ourselves and others. Has either happened to you? Share your answer with a partner.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
1. Distribute “Managing Conflicts” worksheet.	1. Students review “Managing Conflicts” worksheet, asking for clarification where needed. Role-playing may be used as a practice opportunity.
2. Direct students to answer questions on the second page of the worksheet.	2. Students ask and answer questions.
3. Facilitate discussion regarding students’ relationships and conflicts. The questions on the second page of the worksheet will serve as prompts to “break the ice.”	3. Students participate in discussion.
4. Distribute and discuss “Alternatives for Solving Conflicts” handout.	4. Students review and discuss “Alternatives for Solving Conflicts” worksheet.
5. Direct students to answer the following (or similar) questions: What did you learn about yourself during this activity? Which of the six alternatives would you like to try more often?	5. Students respond in writing to the questions.
6. Collect and review worksheets with student responses. Use as means to identify those who may be having difficulty negotiating conflict.	6. Students will hand in responses to worksheets.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Journal and role-play alternatives for solving conflicts. It will reinforce learning for students if they are provided time to use the skills learned in the lesson.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)

MANAGING CONFLICTS

Name: _____ Date: _____

Everyone gets into conflicts--with a parent, teacher, friend, or stranger. Conflicts can be over anything, big or small. Conflicts can have positive outcomes. Think of a time a conflict turned out well and a problem was solved, a situation managed, or there was just a "clearing of the air." Conflicts can also result in negative feelings that leave us feeling badly about ourselves and others. Has either happened to you?

RESULTS OF CONFLICTS

When hassles are eventually resolved, there are three possible outcomes:

Both people feel hurt: Both people fight (physically or verbally). When this happens, the problem continues. There is no respect for self or others as a result. More than likely, there will be another fight.

One person feels hurt and the other gets his/her way: One person fights (physically or verbally). The other person quits or runs. The problem may be settled, but both people disrespect each other and themselves. The loser may seek revenge or take it out on someone or something else.

No one is hurt: No one fights or argues. Each says his or her position. Each person listens. Alternatives are used to settle the hassle. There is no "loser" or "winner" and everyone maintains respect for others and themselves.

THESE THINGS MAKE CONFLICTS WORSE

Violence (Physical or Verbal): Violence destroys any basis for compromise and ruins friendships. It rarely deals with the real problem, and usually causes more problems. People don't often forget physical or verbal abuse.

Running Away: Running away prevents a person from really solving a problem. It just pops up again later. People who run away from problems lose the respect of others and themselves. It can become a habit. People who give in are usually taken advantage of by others.

Telling on Someone: Telling can make the problem worse. It makes others lose respect for you, and it can indicate you want others to solve conflicts and make decisions for you. However, there are times when telling IS appropriate. If a conflict has the potential of resulting in harm to you or to others it is important to get help from a responsible adult.

You and Conflict—Tell your story—Begin with a time you used violence, ran away or told on someone when it was not appropriate.

a. What was the conflict?

---

---

---

---

---

b. What happened? How did you handle the situation?

---

---

---

---

---

c. How did you feel about it?

---

---

---

---

---

d. How would you handle it differently if you could do it over?

---

---

---

---

---

Alternative for Solving Conflicts

1. Use “I” messages—State the problem in terms of how it makes you feel; do not place blame on the other person. Example of an “I” message: “I am really hurt when you talk behind my back.” Example of a “you” message that places blame: “You are so stupid when you talk behind my back.”
2. Listen closely—Let the other person know you are willing to listen to his or her side. Example: “I’m listening,” or “Go ahead; I’ll listen.”
3. Get help—Use others to help solve a problem. A third person can often bring a new perspective or solutions to a conflict.
4. Make a deal—Compromise. Being willing to give in to certain conditions if the other person is also willing can usually be done by making a suggestion.
5. Apologize—Let the other person know you are sorry the conflicts happened, whether you feel you are right or wrong. If you really feel as though you are wrong, you can gain respect from others by apologizing. Example: “We don’t seem able to solve this, but I am sorry you feel badly about it. I do too.”
6. Cool it—Dropping it is good for cooling off or avoiding no-win situations.

The Teaching Tolerance learning package “A Place at the Table” motivated the idea for this lesson. The message has broader meaning when the learning package is used; however, knowing that not everyone will have quick access to the learning package, the lesson was modified. You are, nonetheless, urged to “visit” the tolerance.org and teachingtolerance.org websites. The sites provide access to a wealth of information about such topics as race, gender, ethnic, and cultural issues. For example, valuable information about “hate group” activity in the United States as well as free or inexpensive materials for teachers are accessible from the website.

“A Place At The Table” video, book, and lesson plans are available for free at the website listed below:

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

Why is respect for others important?

Engagement (Hook):

Instructor will set a FORMAL place setting with multiple utensils. Students will be asked to identify the correct use for each eating/serving utensil.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. Instructor reviews the correct use of each utensil at the table and asks students to think about situations in which they felt uncomfortable or wanted a place at a table but access was denied. Lead the conversation toward the metaphorical meaning of the phrase “A Place at the Table.”
2. Instructor will show the video “A Place at the Table” and discuss reactions.
3. Instructor directs students to research their racial identity/heritage in relationship to finding a place at the table.
4. Students will be asked to develop a plan for their involvement with an advocacy group.

Student Involvement:

1. Students will actively participate in the discussion posing as well as answering questions. Students will share their experiences in small groups. Following the small group sharing, students will be invited to share situations in which they have felt uncomfortable.
2. Students will watch the video “A Place at the Table” and share reactions.
3. Students will begin their research by interviewing their oldest living relative. As students seek information, they will listen for their families’ struggles to find a place at the table. They will develop a creative expression of their heritage (write a short essay, poem, song, dance or rap about their findings).
4. Students will identify an advocacy group and develop a written proposal for involvement.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Instructor may have students write a research-based report on their cultural identity.

Students utilize, evaluate, review, and refine decision-making skills referencing dangerous risk-taking behaviors; address personal/safety issues, and management of life changing events through discussion and written assessment.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

- How do safe and healthy life choices affect our lives?
- What resources are available to manage life-changing events?

Engagement (Hook):

- John, you have just taken a sip of your father’s cocktail. Are you at risk?
- Jane, Mark wants you to “try” marijuana with him. Are you at risk?

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. Following engagement via “hook”, the counselor will introduce presenter or video.
2. Presenter will present or video will be shown.
3. Counselor will facilitate follow-up discussion.
4. Counselor will distribute “Presentation Review Assessment” worksheets.

Student Involvement:

1. Students will listen to introduction of presenter or video and write questions they have/hope to answer through the presentation.
2. Students will listen to presentation or watch video and take notes.
3. Students will participate in discussion in small groups.
4. Students will complete “Presentation Review Assessment” worksheet.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Teacher will refer student to appropriate resources with student concerns.

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
 The 3-part summative evaluation for the "Learning for Life" Unit is conducted in the 12th grade. The assessment culminates the work that students have completed in prior grades and encourages students to reflect and project regarding the knowledge and skill required to successfully achieve their goals and continue as life-long learners. This evaluation is located at the end of the 12th grade lesson.

Brief Summary of Unit:
 This unit will continue to develop and evaluate students' self-management, study and test-taking skills that they have obtained during their educational career. These skills will enable them to become life-long learners.

Unit Goals:
 Students will utilize skills developed during their educational career to become life-long learners.

What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?
 It will be important for the students to be familiar with self-management, goal setting, study and test-taking skills. They will need the ability for apply self-assessment processes.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
 Assessment for this lesson will be through observation of individual student participation in class discussions. The counselor will monitor the quantity and quality of contributions of individuals. The counselor may choose to collect student checklists to identify individuals that need assistance with specific study-skill strategies.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:
 Do personal habits influence study habits?
 What are my strongest study-skill strategies?
 What study-skill strategies do I need to improve in order to be successful in high school?

Engagement (Hook):
 Discussion of personal habits, both effective and ineffective. Transition this into a discussion of ways personal habits influence the development of effective study habits.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

A possible follow-up activity for the classroom teacher would be to choose one study-skill habit/strategy that a majority of students indicated as “weak” and implement that strategy in the classroom. The classroom teacher could spend some time teaching that study-skill habit to the students in his/her classroom.

Another possible classroom follow-up activity would be to have a question on the next test that asks the students to list the study-skill habits/strategies that they used to prepare themselves for the test. They could also have a classroom discussion while going over the test that would include how students studied for the test and identify the habits that provided the best test results.

Another possible follow-up activity would be for the classroom teachers to introduce a new study-skills habit/strategy at the beginning of each unit. The classroom teacher could stress the importance of using the new habit/strategy as well as others to study and review materials for the unit test.

DIRECTIONS: Read each question about your personal study skills and habits. Rate yourself and check the appropriate box. Answer the three questions after the survey using complete sentences.

Question	Yes	Sometimes	No
1. Do you have a regular time to study?
2. Do you have a regular place to study?
3. Do you try to study when you are alert/rested?
4. Do you begin the study of a topic by quickly glancing over the topic to see what it is about?
5. Do you think through or process information instead of just reading it?
6. Do you concentrate fully when you are studying?
7. Do you express in your own words what the author is saying?
8. Do you review material/information of each subject that you have studied from previous days?
9. Do you take meaningful/useful notes over what the teacher says in class?
10. Do you put notes in an outline form as soon as possible after taking them?
11. When reviewing your notes do you have enough details to remember what the topic was about?
12. During lectures, do you look and listen to the teacher?
13. Do you think about what the teacher is saying as well as listening to what he or she is saying?
14. Do you think about ways the subject you are studying may be helpful to you later in life?
15. When you are reading do you keep in mind the overall idea, topic or story?
16. Do you believe that in addition to learning the details of a subject it is important to know the overall idea as well?
17. Do you deliberately prepare yourself for participation in class discussions?
18. Do you deliberately prepare yourself for open-note quizzes or tests?
19. Do you think through the meaning of test questions before you answer them?
20. Do you write all homework assignments, tests and projects in your planner to remind yourself what is due?

Review your survey responses and then answer the following questions.

1. Do you think your study-skills habits/strategies are helping you be academically successful? Why or why not?

Study Skills Tip Sheet

Name: _____ Grade: _____ Date: _____

General Study-Skill Tips:

1. Set up a daily time and place to study.
2. Write down homework assignments, tests and project along with due dates.
3. Review your notes and handouts on a daily basis.
4. Begin intensive test preparation. Study everyday as if you have a test the next day.
5. Always look for new study-skills habits/strategies that may work for you!

Note-Taking Tips:

Good note-taking habits can improve your ability to learn and shorten your time when preparing for a test!

1. Listen carefully to the teacher.
2. Always write down things the teacher:
  - a. Writes on the board or overhead.
  - b. Says are important to remember.
  - c. Says over and over and over again.
3. Take your notes in outline form and write clearly!
4. Always put examples, page numbers or reminders next to your notes.
5. Leave room on your paper to expand or add to your notes after class.

Textbook Reading Tips:

Being able to read for content and take notes out of your textbook will allow for you to better understand big ideas and the vocabulary of the unit you are studying.

1. Get the “Big Picture” first. This means glancing through the chapter headings and subheadings.
2. Skim pages if you are looking for a general idea.
3. Read slowly if you are looking for details.
4. Read the summary paragraphs at the end of each section or chapter to get the general idea.
5. Use the SQ3R system (this system is best used over a period of a few days):
  - a. Skim: Skim the chapter before reading it. Be sure to pay attention to all pictures, charts, and diagrams.
  - b. Question: After skimming the chapter write down two or three questions about the chapter or section.
  - c. Read: Read the chapter carefully while taking outline notes of what you are reading.
  - d. Review: Review your notes and use them to answer the questions you developed after you skimmed the chapter (“b” above).
  - e. Recite: Quiz yourself over the main concepts of the chapter.

Test-Taking Tips:

Using these tips will help you be more confident when taking your test and will help alleviate symptoms of test anxiety.

1. Before the test:
  - a. Have several study sessions prior to the test day.
  - b. Do not cram the night before!

- c. Anticipate/predict test questions. Creating a practice test can help with this.
  - d. Complete any review sheets a teacher gives you.
  - e. Review all notes, outlines, note cards, quizzes and/or review sheets for the current test materials.
  - f. Take a deep breath before entering the classroom and tell yourself that you will do well because you have prepared well.
2. During the test:
- a. Relax and take slow deep breaths if you need to calm yourself down.
  - b. Look over the entire test first.
  - c. Manage your time so that you are able to complete all sections.
  - d. Read all directions very carefully.
  - e. Answer questions you know first.
  - f. Circle questions you can't answer; go back and answer them last.
  - g. Review all your answers before turning in your test.
3. After the test:
- a. Read any comments made by your teacher.
    - b. Correct any wrong answers so you can use the test as a way to learn more about a subject...AND to study for finals.
  - c. Talk with your teacher if you have any questions about an answer.

Short Hand Tips:

Developing a short hand system will allow you to take notes in less time.

1. Abbreviate words by:
  - a. Dropping middle letters such as "cont'd" (continued).
  - b. Dropping endings of words such as "Oct." (October).
2. Use common symbols such as:
  - a. c. -- for "about"
  - b. cf. -- for "compare"
  - c. fg. -- for "following"
  - d. i.e. -- for "that is"
  - e. e.g. -- for "for example"
  - f. w/ -- for "with"
  - g. w/o -- for "without"
3. Develop your own common symbols for words that you use frequently in note taking.

Keeping Focused While Studying Tips:

Keeping your body healthy and alert will make studying much easier and allow you to retain more information.

1. Take a short break. Get up and do something after studying for long periods of time. Stretch, take a walk, or get something to eat or drink.
2. After your break, go back to studying. Review your notes to get a fresh start on your subject.
3. Get plenty of sleep.
4. Eat a balanced diet.
5. Exercise regularly.
6. Take time out for fun!

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:
 How do I avoid time conflicts in my daily schedule? What are my priorities?

Engagement (Hook): Role play an argument between the teacher and counselor in which one of them plays the role of the student and one plays the role of the teacher. The argument will center on the following scenario:

The student approaches the teacher wanting to miss a very important club/activity meeting after school due to the student having to work. The teacher will inform the student that missing the meeting means he or she will be kicked out of the club/activity due to too many absences. The student will get upset and storm away from the teacher.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE’s. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
 The 3-part summative self-evaluation for the “Learning for Life” Unit is conducted in the 12th grade. The assessment culminates the work that students have completed in prior grades and encourages students to reflect and project regarding the knowledge and skill required to successfully achieve their goals and continue as life-long learners. The assessment follows this lesson—it may be photocopied for your students’ use.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Question: How do self-management, study, and test-taking skills influence life long learning and your attainment of personal goals?

Engagement (Hook): How do you rate yourself? Show me 5, 4, 3, 2, 1 (5 being the highest, 1 being the lowest) in each area by holding up your number of self-rating. Self Management “Show Me ...” Study Skills “Show Me...” Testing Taking Skills “Show Me...”

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:	Student Involvement:
1. The counselor will give each senior Part One of the “9-12 Summative Self-Evaluation for CG 4.” Part One allows for each senior to rate himself or herself in the areas of self-management, study skills, and test-taking skills.	1. Students will rate themselves Good, Average, or Poor for 27 skills they have learned throughout their educational experience.

2. The counselor will lead a brief discussion of the skills that were rated as the highest and which were rated as the lowest. 3. The counselor will administer Part Two of the 9-12 Summative Self-Evaluation for CG 4. Part Two allows each student to identify and discuss situations in which specific skills were used AND situations in which he or she didn't have the specific skills to be successful. 4. The counselor will lead a brief discussion about skills successful learners use. During the discussion, stress the need to continue to maintain strong skills as well as develop weaker skills in order to be a successful life-long learner 5. The counselor will administer Part Three of the 9-12 Summative Self-Evaluation For CG 4. Part Three encourages learners to project how they will use the three skill areas (Self-Management, Study Skills, Test-taking Skills) to achieve post-secondary goals and life-long learning. 6. The counselor will work with the Communication Arts teacher to devise a possible grading system for the personal essays. It is recommended that the counselor collect the CG 4 Summative Self-Evaluation, copy them and place one in the student's permanent folder and return the other to student.	2. In pairs students will describe their strongest and weakest skills and for discuss the implications for their success with their partners. 3. Students will give examples of times in which they used their stronger skills to be a successful learner as well as times they were not successful because their skills were not as strong or were not acquired. Students will complete a chart on which they list skills that will be important to them for their post-secondary choices. 4. Students will volunteer responses during the discussion and brainstorm possible ways to improve their weaker skills. 5. Students will write a personal essay in which they hypothesize how the skills they have learned in their educational experience will help them achieve their post-secondary goals and continue to be a life long learner.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

One possible follow-up activity would be for the teachers to discuss skills that students feel comfortable using when they are out of high school and skills that they feel they should continue to develop. The teacher may be able to incorporate these skills into future lessons to help the students continue to develop.

9-12 SUMMATIVE SELF-EVALUATION FOR CG 4
Applying Skills Needed for Educational Achievement
PART 3: DESCRIBING HOW SKILLS WILL BE USED AS A LIFE-LONG LEARNER

Write a personal essay in which you hypothesize how the skills you have developed during your school experience will help you continue to be a life long learner. Be sure to use specific skills and examples. This essay should contain proper spelling, grammar and punctuation. Please make your essay as long as is needed to voice your opinion.

Unit #1 Title: Applying the Skills of Transitioning Between Educational Levels

Grade Level: 9-12

Number of Lessons in Unit: 4 (one lesson each for 9, 10, 11, and 12)

Time Required for each lesson:

- 9th grade lesson will require 55 to 70 minutes
- 10th grade lesson will require 55 to 70 minutes
- 11th grade lesson will require 55 to 70 minutes
- 12th grade lesson will require 50 minutes per student

Best time of year to implement this Unit:

- 9th grade training will begin before the beginning of the freshmen year
- 10th grade during the first semester
- 11th grade any time during academic year
- 12th grade during the second semester

Lesson Titles:

9th Grade Lesson 1: Freshmen Mentor Program: Meeting My Mentor
(This program uses trained upperclass students to mentor freshmen throughout the 9th grade academic year.)

Materials/Special Preparations Required:

- Interview Guidelines
- Guidelines for Mentoring Program (sample provided)
- Trained mentors (sample program)
- Paper, pen, flip charts, and markers
- “How Well Do You Know Your School?”

10th Grade Lesson 2: Exploration of Post-Secondary Options

Materials/Special Preparations Required:

- Computer access for each student (Written information available if there is no computer access.)
- Written instructions for navigating the selected program or webpage
- School Alumni of High School

11th Grade Lesson 3: “Get Set For College” (Duplicate Lesson for CD8, Unit 5, Lesson 3 of 4)

Materials/Special Preparations Required:

- “Get Set for College Scavenger Hunt
- Pencil/pen
- “Get Set for College” ACT booklet

To obtain your free ACT booklets contact 1-319-337-1000 or download materials at

 Students past records for review

Missouri Comprehensive Guidance Standard:

AD.5: Applying the Skills of Transitioning Between Educational Levels

Grade Level Expectation(s):

- AD.5.A.09.a.i: Apply information and skills necessary to transition into high school.
- AD.5.A.10.a.i: Self-assess and apply information to expand awareness of the relationship between high school options and post-secondary options.
- AD.5.A.11.a.i: Increase knowledge and refine skills in preparation for the senior year and post-secondary options.
- AD.5.A.12.a.i: Utilize the achievement and performance skills necessary to transition to post-secondary options.

American School Counselor Association National Standard (ASCA):

Academic Development

- A. Students will acquire the attitudes, knowledge and skills contributing to effective learning in school and across the lifespan.
- B. Students will complete school with the academic preparation essential to choose from a wide range of substantial post-secondary options, including college.
- C. Students will understand the relationship of academics to the world of work and to life at home and in the community.

Show Me Standards: Performance Goals (check one or more that apply and identify relevant process standards)

X	Goal 1: Gather, analyze and apply information and ideas 1. Develop questions and ideas to initiate and refine research 2. Conduct research to answer questions and evaluate information and ideas 4. Use technological tools and other resources to locate, select and organize information 5. Comprehend and evaluate written, visual and oral presentations and works 6. Discover and evaluate patterns and relationships in information, ideas and structures 7. Evaluate the accuracy of information and the reliability of its sources 8. Organize data, information and ideas into useful forms (including charts, graphs, outlines) for analysis or presentation 9. Identify, analyze and compare the institutions, traditions and art forms of past and present societies 10. Apply acquired information, ideas and skills to different contexts as students, workers, citizens and consumers
X	Goal 2: Communicate effectively within and beyond the classroom 1. Plan and make written, oral and visual presentations for a variety of purposes and audiences 2. Review and revise communications to improve accuracy and clarity

	3. Exchange information, questions and ideas while recognizing the perspectives of others 6. Apply communication techniques to the job search and to the workplace
X	Goal 3: Recognize and solve problems 1. Identify problems and define their scope and elements 2. Develop and apply strategies based on ways others have prevented or solved problems 3. Develop and apply strategies based on one's own experience in preventing or solving problems 4. Evaluate the processes used in recognizing and solving problems 5. Reason inductively from a set of specific facts and deductively from general premises 6. Examine problems and proposed solutions from multiple perspectives 7. Evaluate the extent to which a strategy addresses the problem 8. Assess costs, benefits and other consequences of proposed solutions
X	Goal 4: Make decisions and act as responsible members of society 1. Explain reasoning and identify information used to support decisions 3. Analyze the duties and responsibilities of individuals in societies 4. Recognize and practice honesty and integrity in academic work and in the workplace 5. Develop, monitor and revise plans of action to meet deadlines and accomplish goals 6. Identify tasks that require a coordinated effort and work with others to complete those tasks 7. Identify and apply practices that preserve and enhance the safety and health of self and others 8. Explore, prepare for and seek educational and job opportunities

This lesson supports the development of skills in the following academic content areas.

Academic Content Area(s)	Specific Skill(s)
X Communication Arts	3. Reading and evaluating nonfiction works and material (such as biographies, newspapers, technical manuals) 6. Participating in formal and informal presentations and discussions of issues and ideas
Mathematics
X Social Studies	6. Relationships of the individual and groups to institutions and cultural traditions 7. The use of tools of social science inquiry (such as surveys, statistics, maps, documents)
Science
X Health/Physical Education	5. Methods used to assess health, reduce risk factors, and avoid high risk behaviors (such as violence, tobacco, alcohol and other drug use)
Fine Arts

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's.
Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Counselor will meet individually with seniors during the second semester of their senior year.
Counselor and student will complete a post-secondary checklist. (See appendix.)

Brief Summary of Unit:

This unit gives counselors the tools to help students successfully transition into high school, through high school, and beyond.

Unit Goals:

1. Students will successfully complete high school credits.
2. Students will complete necessary requirements to transition successfully into their post-secondary plan.

What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Students will need to have and understand their four year-plan and applicable vocabulary.

	6. Identify tasks that require a coordinated effort and work with others to complete those tasks 7. Identify and apply practices that preserve and enhance the safety and health of self and others 8. Explore, prepare for and seek educational and job opportunities

SAMPLE MENTORING PROGRAM

The following pages describe the Rockwood Summit High School Mentoring Program (M.P.)

Explanation of the manner in which Rockwood Summit High School began their mentoring program:

Rockwood Summit High School is currently in its third year of a freshmen mentor program. Our program matches upperclassmen with students chosen from our feeder middle school, Rockwood South. A team from each school meets to identify students who may struggle academically or socially, have a difficult transition to high school, or have family issues that may make high school even more difficult.

A team of teachers created this once per week program that meets every Wednesday when our school has a 30-minute academic contact time. Assistant principal Mitch Lefkowitz and reading specialist Chris Heerlein were the driving force behind this program.

Mentor training is usually broken up into two ½ day sessions. One session is in early summer, while the other is right before school begins. These sessions include getting to know you activities, guidelines, dates, etc. We use many activity books for these training sessions, including Activities That Teach, Tom Jackson, Red Rock Publishing, 1993.

The Bottomless Bag, Karl Rohnke, Kendall/Hunt Publishing, 1991.

Initiatives, Games, and Activities: An Experiential Guide, Dan McIver and Les McCarroll, Kendall/Hunt Publishing, 1999.

More Activities That Teach, Tom Jackson, Red Rock Publishing, 1995.

Quick Silver, Karl Rohnke, Kendall/Hunt Publishing, 1995.

Silver Bullets, Karl Rohnke, Kendall/Hunt Publishing, 1984.

Still More Activities That Teach, Tom Jackson, Red Rock Publishing, 2000.

You may also want to reference information about the Link Crew Mentoring Program at www.learningforliving.com. They have many short activities to engage your mentor and mentee.

We provide the booklets How to Get Good Grades in Ten Easy Steps and/or How to Get the Most out of High School for our freshmen. These are available through Woodburn Press (www.woodburnpress.com).

Included in this lesson:

- 2005-2006 Freshmen Mentor Program handbook: We go over this and do numerous team building exercises, getting to know you activities, t-shirts, etc.
- Donor letter: We receive a lot of tickets for sporting events, movies, food, etc. to reward both our mentors and mentees.
- Freshmen Mentor Program proposal

- Freshmen Mentor Program application for the upperclassmen mentors.

While our freshmen GPA's have remained pretty consistent since we implemented the program, principals do report a significant decrease in discipline referrals.

APPLICATION

Adapted from Rockwood Summit Mentoring Program
Created by Mitch Lefkowitz (assistant principal) and Chris Heerlein (reading specialist)

Thank you for your interest in the Mentor Program. This program is designed to assist incoming freshmen with their transition into high school. We are looking for students who are well-rounded and active in school and/or their community. The selection process consists of the following:

1. Answers to one short essay question
2. Academic standing (A “C” average)
3. Good attendance and behavior patterns.

Please read the following items, which explain the application process for the MP program. You must do Parts I and II. It is your responsibility to consistently check the morning announcements for updated information regarding the selection process. When you have completed Parts I and II, submit your complete application to your counselor.

PART I-Personal Information: Complete the following on the attached forms:

1. Student Profile Sheet (attached)
2. Resume (attached)
Note the specified categories:
  - co-curricular clubs and sports at HS
  - interests and hobbies
  - community activities (outside HS)
  - Leadership experience

PART II-Evaluations:

1. Short Essay: Please respond to ONE of the following prompts. Your essay should be at least 100 words. This can be typed or written on a separate sheet of paper. Be sure to include your name in your response.
  - A. “I wish to become an MP student advisor because...”
  - B. “I would be an effective MP leader and role model because
2. Grades: Please list your 1st semester grades on the form provided. Include the teacher for each course.
3. Teacher Recommendations: Please provide two teacher recommendations.

PART III-Academic Standing/Attendance:

MP Faculty Directors will review and evaluate completed packets, focusing on:

- Academic standing (C average)
- Attendance/behavior patterns
- Patterns of responsible behavior (hands in homework and projects on time, is attentive and respectful in class, communicates well with others)
- Strength of character (integrity, honesty, and respect toward peers and adults)

Freshmen Mentor Program

A Handbook for the Freshmen Mentor Program

Freshmen Mentors

You as sophomores, juniors, and seniors have the confidence and comfort of being a successful student in high school. We believe that by connecting you with a group of freshmen, you can offer them a recognizable face and a link to success at the high school. We know that the more familiar freshmen are with the daily schedule at high school, the more successful they are both socially and academically.

You have many roles to fulfill this year:

TO BEGIN WITH, you will be one of the very first contacts with the freshmen at the high school. When you make contact with your student, you will have the opportunity to create in their mind a positive idea of what high school can be. You will become a tangible figure that represents someone positive at school. As you guide them through the first couple of activities, you will not only be their leader but you will be a role model and an encouraging face. Please consider that as you prepare for the year!

SECOND, you will be a mentor for the entire year. You will work with your freshmen once a week for thirty minutes in a classroom setting. Our intention is that you will be someone they see in a formal setting each week in addition to the informal contact that you make.

THIRD, you will be a role model on campus. Freshmen will see you as a successful and known leader on campus. You will have a chance to answer questions and offer suggestions to the high school staff about the structure and improvement of the program. By acting responsibly inside and outside of the classroom, you will be a positive influence on the students you mentor, as well as your peers.

Thank you for being a freshmen mentor. You are making a difference in the lives of a number of students and affecting positive change at our school.

GOALS, EXPECTATIONS, AND TASKS OF THE MENTOR IN THE PROGRAM

The Mentor as a
FRIEND will strive to:

- Illustrate a warm and caring attitude toward the student
- Listen to the student
- Work to develop a trusting relationship

The Mentor as a
ROLE-MODEL will strive to:

- Act as a positive influence

The Mentor as a
MOTIVATOR will strive to:

- Nurture self-esteem within the student
- Help the student set and work toward realistic goals
- Give constructive feedback through positive reinforcement

The Mentor as a
PERSONAL ADVOCATE will strive to:

- Share information, knowledge, and skills
- Support and participate in the learning process
- Work with the student to find alternative ways of solving problems and searching for answers

The Mentor as a
EDUCATIONAL ADVOCATE will strive to:

- Prevent a student from dropping out
- Acquaint the student with the importance of self-reliance and possible career training
- Support the school in the educational process
- Provide extra educational help in a specific subject where improvement is needed

WHY MENTOR?

The mentoring relationship can best be described as a relationship between a committed, caring, experienced student and an inexperienced young person who lacks direction and focus. Through the guidance and counsel of a thoughtful student, the young person receives selective attention and inspiration. Where there has been a lack of success in school, feelings of achievement may begin; where there has been no joy of learning, the excitement of discovery may be stimulated; where there has been no future goal, ambition and aspiration are new desires.

WHAT IS MENTORING?

A WAY OF:

- Fostering a student's development
- Developing a student's self-esteem
- Helping a student Set and Reach his/her goals
- Encouraging a student
- Listening and Communicating
- Sharing your Time, Talents, and Yourself with others
- Showing a student someone cares
- Being a Friend, A Role Model, and a Teacher
- Re-Enforcing Educational Goals and Helping a student Strive for Academic Improvement

TYPES OF MENTORS

Educators will find their students are in need of mentors qualified in two particular areas. These areas are the Role-Model Friend and the Tutor. The emphasis may vary throughout the program.

ROLE-MODEL/FRIEND

This mentor is one who works on self-esteem improving skills, providing cultural enrichment, helping set goals, and expanding the student's knowledge of the world and the need for self-reliance as an adult in that world.

TUTOR/MENTOR

This mentor is the one who can offer his/her talents in tutoring by helping a student in a specific subject, assignment or project.

The tutor/mentor should be aware that:

- The tutor/mentor must use PRAISE effectively. The tutor is there to help raise grades and help the student with attitude, self-confidence and pride.
- Close contact with the student's teachers and counselors might be necessary.
- The tutor/mentor should not be afraid to try different approaches. Learning should be fun.

DO NOT BECOME DISCOURAGED, BECAUSE IMPROVEMENT MAY BE SLOW.

MENTORING

DO's	DON'Ts
Do appreciate any growth.	Don't think you are going to change the world overnight.
Do praise the student when deserved.	Don't judge the student.
Do Listen.	Don't forget that confidence is built on trust.
Do share with the student.	Don't preach or brag.
Do communicate.	Don't forget communication means listening, too.
Do follow the rules of the school and the mentor program.	Don't allow students to talk you into things that you know are against the rules.
Do remember to be a good role-model.	Don't exhibit poor language, or dress inappropriately.
Do show attention and concern. Be a friend.	Don't try to be a parent.
Do strive for mutual respect.	Don't settle for rudeness or foul language.
Do guide-show-ask.	Don't punish.
Do be honest.	Don't think a student can't spot insincerity.

CHARACTERISTICS OF A MENTEE

To better work with a student it is essential that the mentor understand that the mentee could exhibit some of the following characteristics.

MAY:

- Be energetic one minute and day dreaming the next
- Vary in size, shape, strength, and ability
- Be high emotional
- Have feelings easily hurt
- Be very self-conscious
- Be eager to prove themselves
- Like solitude and privacy but needs to belong
- Be impulsive, risk taking, thrill seeking
- Start a task with great enthusiasm but never finish it
- Want privileges and responsibilities
- Want to know what the rules and limits are within a system
- Be very social and want to be involved in special events
- Have varying degrees of attention span
- Range from immature to very mature in physical/emotional areas

STUDENT WELFARE

Practice confidentiality. If the mentor feels a student is being abused, using alcohol or drugs, or is in a situation that may be harmful to the student, the mentor should contact the counselor and share his/her concerns (The law requires that abuse be reported). The mentor should not try to solve the problem, but should seek help within the school. Confidentiality will be maintained. The well-being of the mentee should be the major concern.

PROBLEMS THE STUDENT MAY FACE

Academic Difficulties

Learning Disabilities

Physical, Sexual/Emotional Abuse

Sexual Development and Behavior

Pregnancy

FAMILY PROBLEMS

Divorce

Single Parent

Academic Failure

Isolation

Extended Families

Guilt

Peer Pressure

Family Pressure

Neglect

Poverty

COMMUNICATION

Studies have shown that students learn more from others when they feel the person cares and is serious about how they feel and think.

The basis of showing care and concern can come through good communication skills.

HINTS ON COMMUNICATION

Verbal Communication:

- Speak to the student on his/her level.
- Be an example to the student through good grammar skills, both verbal and written.
- Choose an appropriate sound level for the situation.
- Focus in on the student when they are talking.
- Do not say things or ask questions that can cut the lines of communication.

Non-Verbal Communication (Body Language):

- Be aware that our bodies talk and show our feelings. Note body gestures on your part and the student, analyze what they might mean.
- Positive body language responses are good eye contact, nodding head, positive facial expressions, unfolded arms, a smile.
- Negative body language responses are crossed legs, slouching, arms crossed over chest, poor eye contact, body language shows unconcern

Listening:

- Remember communication is a two way street – speaking and listening.
- Listen for meaning – You may even repeat back.
- Focus in on the student as he/she speaks.
- Ask questions or make comments to show you are interested.
- Learn to be quiet at the right times, too.

COMMUNICATION TECHNIQUES

Below you will find some techniques that may help you start a dialogue between you and your student. These will also ensure that you understand what your student is telling you.

Encouraging Dialogue:

Invite the student to talk

“Would you like to talk about it?”

“I’ll listen whenever you want to talk.”

Acknowledge student feelings

“You seem (upset, sad, happy) about something.”

“You don’t seem to feel well.”

If you feel you need more information:

Draw out the student

“How would you do that?”

“Can you share why you did that?”

“What do you like (most, least) about this?”

“Could you tell me more?”

“How does that make you feel?”

Listen without giving approval or offering solutions:

Ask leading questions that encourage the student to think

“What would happen if you did that?”

“What do you think you could do in this situation?”

“What’s the (best, worst) that could happen?”

“How would you handle this situation?”

“How would you feel?”

Respond neutrally. Do not approve or disapprove.

“That’s one way. What’s another?”

“How would your (best friend, parents, teacher) react?”

“What do you think is the best way to handle this?”

Ensuring that you understand what is said or felt:

Restate what the student said in your own words.

“Did you mean that ...”

“What I heard you say ...”

“Do you think that ...”

Look for clues. Check:

Tone of voice

Facial expression

Body language

Gestures

When the conversation stops abruptly:

Review your actions. Did you:

Change the subject?

Indicate disapproval or dislike by your facial expressions or body language?

Misread how the student felt?

Respond to how the student felt?

TYPES OF PROCESSING

Questions to ask:

- Did you notice...?/What did you notice?
- Why did that happen?
- Does it happen in school? Life? With friends?
- How can you apply it to ...? Your life? School? Family?
- Use a single word to describe your feeling/reaction during the activity.
- Watch other groups, process what you see.

Things to remember during group activity:
(What happened? So what? Now what?)

Ask open-ended and follow up questions.

- Group and/or leader is attentive to time limits.
- Energy flow/direction.
- Rapport/trust building within group.
- Use of humor.
- Group stays on focus/task.
- Participants are engaged.
- Opinions of all group members are encouraged.
- Body use and body language.
- Tone of voice.
- Eye contact.
- Facial expressions.
- Use of hands (gestures).
- Active listening.

FACILITATOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES

The facilitator is a catalyst for the group. Whether the goal is to achieve consensus, to have an honest and relevant sharing of ideas, or to create an agenda, the facilitator eases the road to communication.

REMEMBER YOUR VOWELS – AEIOU

Ask open ended questions – Who, how, when, where, why?

Elicit responses from all participants

Instill a sense of group – humor, eye contact, use peoples' names, etc.

Organize ideas in order to summarize

U(You) did not share your point of view

Giving Feedback by Asking Questions

At the end of activity, the process observer should take time to provide feedback to the group on the activity observed. The advisor can also show by example by giving feedback in both verbal and written forms. The Process Observation Forms are a useful tool for process observers to use while observing, noting both the positive and the areas of growth. When reporting behaviors, please keep the following in mind:

- Always first ask the group: What happened during the activity? What do you think that I, as the process observer observed?
- Team members give their analysis first.
- Give concrete information. BE specific about what you observed. For example, “Rosa, you had your chair backed out of the circle. How did you feel about participating in the discussion? Why did you distance yourself?”
- Don’t be judgmental; report observations and identify behaviors.
- Ask the group or an individual to identify strengths to build on and areas to improve.
- Ask the recipient(s) of feedback for their general assessment of what you have observed. Add your own ideas after they have responded.
- Vary the approach to feedback – written, oral, individual, group.
- When giving individual feedback, ask first if the person would like to hear about your observations.

EXAMPLE OF SAMPLE DONOR LETTER THAT IS USED BY ROCKWOOD SUMMIT HS

To Whom It May Concern,

Rockwood Summit is in our third year of a Freshmen Mentor program that has greatly enhanced the transition to high school for numerous 9th grade students. Our goals were to create a program that recognized academic achievement, built character education, and increased student leadership. Currently, we have 51 upper class students mentoring about 100 Freshmen students who have been identified as needing support to make their transition to high school more fulfilling.

Our Freshmen Mentors spent a great deal of time during the summer preparing a program that would make the high school experience positive. Last year, Rockwood Summit saw a reduction in discipline issues, while at the same time we experienced an increase in student achievement.

Rockwood Summit is looking for ways to reward the freshmen students and mentors for their commitment to school improvement. I am requesting any charitable assistance from you in the form of tickets, coupons, rewards, or other incentives that will recognize our students for their outstanding efforts in school.

Please contact me via phone, letter, or email if there is a possibility to receive items through your organization. Our students and staff would be very grateful for your commitment to Rockwood Summit High School.

Sincerely,

EXAMPLE OF A SAMPLE PARENT/GUARDIAN LETTER USED BY ROCKWOOD SUMMIT HS

May 17, 2005

Dear 9th Grade Parents/Guardians:

Welcome to Rockwood Summit High School. We are committed to working together with parents and community, to educate and challenge all students to achieve their full potential. This can be achieved if the students, parents, and staff work together.

Our students are entering a critical part of their education. The transition from middle school to high school isn't always easy. The staff at Rockwood Summit and Rockwood South have created a transition program to help students make the transition to high school a successful one. The Transition Team has selected your child to participate in our Freshmen Mentor Program this year.

The program will help incoming freshmen in several ways. Each freshman in the program will be assigned to an upperclassman and a Rockwood Summit teacher. These freshmen will be involved in several peer activities to help acclimate them to Rockwood Summit and high school in general. Your freshman will have weekly contact throughout the year in various formal and informal activities during Wednesday's FACT (Falcon Academic Contact time) session. Mentors and staff members will also focus on study skills for the incoming freshmen in this program. At no point will your child miss any class time to participate in the mentor program.

In order to continue the success of our Freshmen Mentor Program, we need the total commitment from parents and students. This will be our third year of the program and we expect to continue to improve the transition to high school for our students. The purpose of this letter is to inform you about the program and to assist with any questions you might have.

Please contact me at @rockwood.k12.mo.us should you have any questions about our Freshmen Mentor Program. On behalf of Rockwood Summit, we look forward to seeing your child in the fall.

Sincerely,

Freshmen Transition Proposal

School Improvement Plan: School Climate

Long Range Goal: Student and staff members will demonstrate increased ownership/involvement in all aspects of _____ High School (MSIP 6.5)

Rationale: In a healthy school climate the staff and students work together, to create a school environment that fosters student success and good character. (MSIP 6.5)

Evaluation Design: Establishment of new programs to provide avenues for student and staff involvement at school.

Strategies:

- 1) Create a program that will support and accelerate under performing students to close the achievement gap.
- 2) Each student will have opportunities to develop a career plan
- 3) Establish school-wide leadership programs including student volunteer, mentor, and mediation programs.
- 4) Continuation of Character Education program

Overview:

The creation of a freshmen transition program was born out of the _____ School Improvement Plan focused on the improvement of academic achievement and school climate. The Transition/Character Education program began in the fall of 2003. The ___HS committee worked with the counselor/principal from _____ Middle School to identify lower achieving students who would benefit, academically and socially, from a student mentor program as they made the transition to high school. In the spring of 2003, the ___HS committee selected students to act as mentors to 96 incoming freshmen for the 2003-2004 school year. Mentors were selected through an application screening focused on grades, effort, conduct, extracurricular activities, community service, and teacher recommendations. ___HS staff members will train mentors before the 2003-2004 school year. Twelve staff members will act as facilitators for each group of mentors/freshmen. Beginning in the 2003-2004 school year, Freshmen Mentors will meet weekly with 9th grade students to work on various skills that will promote learning and allow students to socially adjust to the rigors of high school. After the school year, the ___HS Transition Committee will complete an assessment of the program to determine if the number of students needs to be increased to include the rest of the freshmen class.

Time Commitment:

Students and Mentors will have contact for a 30-minute period every Wednesday. There will be about 39 meetings during the course of the school year.

Academic/Social Skills will be the focus, including:

Organizational skills	Time Management
Note Taking Strategies	CTBS/MAP preparation
Test Taking Strategies	Research Skills
Finals Preparation	Academic Enrichment
Peer Mentoring/Mediation	Character Education
Leadership	Community Service
Extracurricular Opportunities	Celebrate Successes

Structure of Program:

Mentors will meet with their students one time a week, for a thirty-minute block. Two mentors will be matched with six students (1:3 ratio). The focus of each meeting will be pre-determined before the beginning of the school year. Freshmen Mentors will run each meeting with guidance/assistance from one staff member. Staff members will assist mentors with planning/training strategies that will assist each 9th grader. Regular communication will be made with parents to update them on student progress/concerns.

Purpose:

The implementation of a Freshmen Mentor program at _____ will allow us to reach our School Improvement Goals, increase leadership opportunities for students, and improve the overall climate within our building. The involvement of staff, students, and parents will lead to the success of our student body. Students will benefit academically and socially through the implementation of new programming.

Grade Level: 9-11

MUST READ--THIS IS A VERY IMPORTANT NOTE: The sample curriculum strategies for the High School Career Development Strand are organized differently from the High School Personal and Social Development and Academic Development Strands. Five of the six High School Career Development Units (CD7, CD8, CD9) provide sample curriculum strategies for grades 9-11. The sixth High School Career Development Unit is a culminating/summative performance event to be implemented in the 12th Grade. The unit, titled “The Ultimate Career Development Experience for Seniors”, is an opportunity for so that students can demonstrate in a real life situation, evidence of knowledge, skills and understanding identified in the 12th grade outcomes for the Career Development Strand. The Ultimate Career Development Experience for Seniors may be found in the folder by the same name.

Number of Lessons in Unit: 4 (+ 12th grade “Ultimate Career Development Experience for Seniors”)

Time Required for Each Lesson: 55-70 minutes

Best Time of Year to Implement this Unit: The best time to implement Unit 1 is at the beginning of the school year, followed by Units 2, 3, 4, 5. The 12th grade unit/senior project (Unit 6 “The Ultimate Career Development Experience for Seniors”) requires independent investigation and research by each individual. It is recommended that Unit 6 be introduced during the early part of the senior year with checkpoints for monitoring student progress throughout the year. (See Unit 6: “The Ultimate Career Development Experience for Seniors” for details)

Lesson Titles:

Grade 9

Summative assessment relates to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE’s. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
 The summative assessment for the Career Development Strand is “The Ultimate Career Development Experience for Seniors” (see folder for Unit 6)

Brief Summary of Unit:
 In this unit for 9th, 10th and 11th grades, students will learn (and implement) knowledge, skill and understanding that will enable them to apply self-knowledge to the process of planning for post-secondary options, to find, evaluate and use career information and to define and understand the role of employment readiness skills in obtaining a job.

“The Ultimate Career Development Experience for Seniors” will be implemented at the 12th grade level. Senior (12th grade) students will convey their understanding of career exploration and planning in the achievement of life career goals, sources for accurate information about post-secondary options and requirements, and career readiness skills via a culminating senior project which will include presentations to 8th graders making the transition from middle school to high school.

Unit Goals:
 The student will know how to utilize knowledge of the world of work, personal interests, strengths, and limitations to reflect, review, revise/refine, reflect their present and future short- and long-term action plans such as his or her Personal Plan of Study (The Missouri School Improvement Program [MSIP] requirement for all students, see Missouri School Improvement Program Standards)

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

How have my interests, strengths, and limitations changed since I developed my Personal Plan of Study?

Engagement (Hook):

Open the panel by saying something like: “If I had known then (1957) that I wouldn’t be able to buy a Ford Thunderbird on a teacher’s salary, I would have saved and invested more money.” Invite panel members to share their own “I wish I had known” experiences with the students.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

NOTE: This lesson has three segments. The panelists will be involved in the first two segments and may choose to leave after the group conversations OR they may choose to observe the remainder of the guidance lesson (with students’ “permission”). The three segments are: the panel discussion (about 20 minutes); small group conversations between panelists and students (about 15 minutes; and time for students to review/ rethink/ revise/ refine their individual Personal Plan of Study.

1. Facilitate the panel discussion of community members. Panel members will communicate “things” they wish they had known prior to making their personal career choices (allot a maximum of 5 minutes for each person’s narrative).
2. Divide class into small groups. “Assign” a panel member to each group. In the small groups students will be able to enter into more personalized conversations with the panel members. Encourage students to discover what panelist would have (or has) done to proactively counter the lacking or mis-information.
3. Distribute the students’ Personal Plan of Study, career interest inventories and results (if available), high school graduation requirements (most current Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary

Student Involvement:

1. Students will listen and formulate personal questions as the panel members share their “I wish I’d known” reflections.
2. In the small groups, students will engage in a conversation with a panelist. They will be encouraged to ask insightful and thought-provoking questions about the lack of and/or mis-information one realizes after being in the chosen profession.
3. Students will review their Personal Plan of Study to remind themselves of the plan they developed in 8th grade.

Education and local Board of Education requirements for all students, listings of the minimum entrance requirements for a variety of post-secondary education and training options, including, but not limited to colleges/ universities/ technical schools and a planning form to guide those students seeking immediate. full-time post secondary employment. 4. Consider students' privacy rights and district policy to determine the appropriate level of student interactions with others (peers and/or adults). Facilitate/guide students' review of their Personal Plans of Study. 5. When students have had an opportunity to review and revise/refine their current plans; they will write a note to you explaining the changes they are making. As you review their revised/refined Plans, make notes for follow-up with students via a classroom guidance lesson and/or scheduled Individual Planning sessions. Arrange for the copying of students' revised/refined Personal Plan of Study and return the copy to the student.	4. Students will use the information gained during the panel discussion; their completed (and tentative) Personal Plan of Study; their career interest inventory results (if available), the counselor-provided listing of minimum entrance requirements for a variety of colleges/ universities/ technical/proprietary schools or plan for immediate post-high school employment to help them review/ rethink/ refine/revise their Personal Plan of Study. 5. Students will make changes to their plans as needed and will write a note to you (the counselor) explaining the changes.

Unit Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

The summative assessment for all units in the High School Career Development Strand is the “The Ultimate Career Development Experience for Seniors” (Unit 6). Students will create a media presentation chronicling their present career journey and showcasing this presentation to ninth grade students. Counselor and teacher will evaluate the presentation.

Brief Summary of Unit:

This unit helps students gain a working knowledge and understanding of their interests, of relevant and credible career exploration and planning resources, and ways to “try-on” work roles. Students will use career inventories, career resources and job shadowing to explore their career interests. “The Ultimate Career Development Experience for Seniors” (Unit 6) will provide students with the opportunity to convey their understanding of career exploration and planning for the achievement of life career goals.

Unit Goals and Objectives:

The student will know how to utilize knowledge of career exploration and planning to adapt to new career and educational opportunities as changes occur in the world of work and in their lives.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Knowledge of the purposes and elements of Career Pathways as a structure for the world of work—including, the names of the career paths the occupations that are included in each Career Path and the education/training required for specific careers.

Awareness of self and personal career interests

Computer use for research and composition of presentation.

Counselor Information Sheet for Job Shadowing

Goal:

The goal is to have the student experience the world of work through job shadowing.

Role:

The role of the student during job shadowing will be to observe an employee for a short period of time to learn about the business, industry, or profession of the employee. The student witnesses firsthand the work environment, employability and occupational skills in practice, the value of professional training, and potential career options.

Students will:

1. Review the Job Shadowing Choices Checklist
2. Contact the host to set up a time and date for the job shadowing by using the Job Shadowing Choices Checklist
3. Receive and have completed:
  - a. Parental Consent to Participate Form
  - b. Transportation Form
  - c. Classroom Teacher Permission Form
4. Review Workplace Tips
5. Arrive on time
6. Dress appropriately

Students will report to (pre-determined) workplaces for a learning opportunity, to experience “real life” work in a career field.

During the job shadowing experience, the student observes his/her host, collects relevant information and asks questions (e.g. “What do you like about your job? What kind of skills or training do I need?”)

Standards and Criteria for Success:

As a result of the job shadowing experience, the student will be expected to complete some of the following activities:

1. Write a thank you letter (REQUIRED)
2. Complete the Job Shadowing Reflection Form
3. Keep a journal describing the site, the people, the work, and the environment
4. Submit a written report on the job shadowing experience.
5. Make an oral classroom presentation or poster presentation on careers represented at the job-shadowing site.
6. Ask workplace employer/supervisor to complete a job shadowing feedback sheet regarding the student participant.

Workplace Tips

There are two general categories of factors that contribute to an employee's success at the workplace. First, employees must master a set of specific technical skills and experiences. Second, all occupations require general skills such as problem solving, communications and interpersonal abilities. During your job shadowing experience you will be introduced to employees using both technical and general skills. When you are at the workplace, think about these tips and what it takes to be a top employee.

Be honest.

Have a positive attitude. Be friendly, courteous, polite and cooperative with co-workers and clients.

Always be reliable and prompt. Customers and other workers are depending on you.

Notify the appropriate supervisor when you are going to be late or absent.

If you do not understand something, ask questions or ask for help. It is better to admit you are learning than to make a costly mistake.

Respond positively to constructive criticism.

Take responsibility for your actions.

Give your best effort at all times. If you have completed all your regular and assigned tasks, show initiative and seek additional work.

Challenge yourself to be a continuous, life-long learner.

Always be open to change.

Prepared List of Questions for Job Shadowing Experience

- How long have you worked here?
- What are your responsibilities?

- What basic skills and knowledge does he or she use?
  - Reading
  - Listening

- What are some advantages of this job?
- What are some disadvantages of this job?
- Why did you choose this type of work?
- Do you enjoy your work?
- What was the hardest thing to learn about the job?
- What do you especially like about the job?

Writing A Thank You Letter

Thank you letters are an important business courtesy. When you tell people how much you appreciate good things they have done, you reward them for their efforts and make a good impression about yourself.

It is important to thank your workplace host for the time and effort that has been given to help you in career exploration. The following is a model for a thank you letter.

Date (Month, Day, Year)

Your Workplace Host's Name
Your Workplace Host's Department
Street Address
City, State, Zip

Dear (Mr., Ms. Or Mrs. Workplace Host's Last Name)

Paragraph 1: Thank your workplace host for his or her time and helpfulness.

Paragraph 2: Tell him or her why the experience was important to you. Share some of the things you learned through job shadowing.

Sincerely,

Summative assessment relates to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE’s. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
 Formative Assessment for this Unit includes: Completion of “How I Relate to Others” Activity sheet, development of a timeline of change, an autobiography, and a community and school activity list. “The Ultimate Career Development Experience for Seniors” (Unit 7) will provide students with the opportunity to convey their understanding of career exploration and planning in the achievement of life career goals

Brief Summary of Unit:
 This unit has a two-pronged emphasis: 1. Developing respect for all work and workers and 2. The social responsibility of each individual living in a global society. The 12th grade outcome for GLE 7.3 recognizes the importance of students’ understanding that each of us (via our chosen work and related activities) contributes to the well-being and betterment of our world. Through this Unit, students will have opportunities to better understand how they relate to others. They will compare their school and community activities with their career goals and project what their life may be like in the future. Students will convey their understanding of exploration and planning in the achievement of their life career goals.

Unit Goals and Objectives:
 The student will respect all work as important, valuable and necessary in maintaining a viable global society.
 The student will understand social responsibility as it relates to the personal contributions one can make to society through one's work and non-work activities.

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Concept of the manner in which they relate to others

Understanding "respect" as it relates to people we don't know (e.g., workers in another part of our world).

An understanding of the term "global society"

Computer skills for research and composition of presentation.

Lesson Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE’s.
 Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Students will work in pairs or small groups to analyze and discuss the results of their “How I Relate to Others” Activity Sheet.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

- Is there any work that is NOT valuable?
- How does YOUR work contribute to the well being of OUR global society?
- What skills are necessary for the most effective interaction within group situations?
- How can I measure whether or not I have the necessary skills?

Engagement (Hook):

Before starting the activities of this lesson make the statement: “Ask not what your country can do for you, but what you can do for your country.” Then ask “What does President Kennedy’s 1961 statement have to do with you, your choice of activities now and your work in the future? That is the question that underlies our work in this unit. We will be learning more about our inter-connectedness and responsibilities to ourselves, each other and our global society—keep JFK’s words in your mind as you consider your career choices and opportunities.”

Procedures

Counselor Procedures:

1. Students will be chosen to role-play group situation(s) that show effective and ineffective group interactions. Engage students in a group role-play activity followed by a discussion of effective and ineffective group interaction.
2. Counselor will distribute the “How I Relate to Others” Activity Sheet. Introduce the Activity Sheet and emphasize the concept of conducting a self-assessment of relationship skills. Review each section of the Activity Sheet and ask

Student Involvement:

1. Students will participate in role-play or participate as observers.
2. Students will complete the “How I Relate to Others” Activity Sheet.

students to complete the activity. 3. When students have completed the Activity Sheet, the counselor will facilitate a discussion of the activity and students' responses with the group. One of the "prompts" might be: "What do you have to do differently in order to work more effectively with others?" 4. You may want to collect the activity sheets and save the results for students to review as a part of the 11th grade unit 3 lesson: "Peer Review of My School and Community Activities." (This is another instance when a "storage system" for students' work will be useful!)	3. Students participate in discussion by talking about specific and/or general items. 4. Students turn in their activity sheets.

Students will write a one-page paper discussing what they learned about themselves and how they will use the information to improve their relationships with others.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)

How I Relate To Others

This form will help you think about various aspects of your relationships with others and your skills in-group situations. It gives you a chance to set your own goals for development. The steps in using it are:

1. Read through the list of activities and decide which ones you are doing all right, which ones you should do more and which ones you should do less. Mark each item in the appropriate place.
2. Some goals that are not listed may be more important to you than those listed. Write such goals in the space provided below each subsection.
3. Go back over the whole list and circle the numbers of the three or four activities, which you will work to improve at this time.

Communication Skills	Doing all right	Need to do it more	Need to do it less
1. Amount of talking in group

7. Keeping my remarks on the topic
8.

Observation Skills	Doing all right	Need to do it more	Need to do it less
1. Noting tensions in group
2. Noting who talks to whom
3. Noting interest level of group
4. Noting who is being "left out"
5. Sensing feelings of individuals
6. Noting reaction to my comments
7. Noting when group avoids a topic
8.

Problem-Solving Skills	Doing all right	Need to do it more	Need to do it less
1. Stating problems or goals
2. Asking for ideas, opinions
3. Giving ideas
4. Evaluating ideas critically
5. Summarizing discussion
6. Clarifying issues
7.

Morale-Building Skills	Doing all right	Need to do it more	Need to do it less

Timeline

Imagine that you are a biographer writing your own autobiography. Project your life 30 years from now. How will the world and, thus, your life be different in the following areas?

CHANGES
Thirty years from now, I will be _____ years old.
I will be living in _____.
Technology	Environment	Economy	World Politics	Health Care

My Projected Auto-Biography

Imagine that you are a biographer-turned-autobiographer. You are writing about your life 30 years from now. Use the projections you wrote on your timeline to help you anticipate your life in 30 years. What contributions will you make in your own community and to the global society? By being your own auto-biographer, you will create a clearer vision about where you want your life to go and identify possible pitfalls and blocks that might prevent you from getting there – and what you will do to “work around, over, under” the pitfalls/blocks.

The summative assessment for all units in the High School Career Development Strand is “The Ultimate Career Development Experience for Seniors” (see Unit 6).

Formative Assessments are described in each lesson. Students complete and interpret career interest inventories, complete sample applications, and engage in job shadowing experiences as means of measuring GLE knowledge, skill and understanding; A media presentation is the authentic performance task/event via which each individual will demonstrate the six facets of understanding (explanation, interpretation, application, perspective, empathy and self-knowledge) related to the “big ideas” (CG Content Standards) of the Career Development Strand.

Brief Summary of Unit:

This unit will provide students with information, resources and competence to enable them to become life long learners and advocates for themselves when facing change and/or opportunities for change.

Unit Goals and Objectives:

The student will know where and how to obtain information about the world of work and post-secondary training/education, how to utilize career and educational information in career decision-making and know and understand the levels of training and education required for life career goals

Student Prior Knowledge: What prior knowledge do students need (e.g. the steps to solving a problem) to be successful in this unit?

Information about their previous interests

Ability to use computer for research and composition of presentations.

Unit #4 Title: Life Long Learning

Lesson Title: Revisiting the Personal Plan of Study and Lesson: 1 of 4
Post HS Requirements

Note: This 9th Grade lesson appears in two (2) units: in this unit (Unit 4) AND again as Lesson 1 in Unit 1: “Goal Setting“. They are identical Lessons and are provided in both Units for ease of access to those who may choose to implement one and not the other of the units.

Grade Level: 9

Length of Lesson: 55 to 70 minutes

Missouri Comprehensive Guidance Standards:

CD.7: Applying Career Exploration and Planning Skills in the Achievement of Life Career Goals.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

How have my interests, strengths, and limitations changed since I developed my Personal Plan of Study?

Engagement (Hook):

Open the panel by saying something like: “If I had known then (1957) that I wouldn’t be able to buy a Ford Thunderbird on a teacher’s salary, I would have saved and invested more money.” Invite panel members to share their own “I wish I had known” experiences with the students.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

NOTE: This lesson has three segments. The panelists will be involved in the first two segments and may choose to leave after the group conversations OR they may choose to observe the remainder of the guidance lesson (with students’ “permission”). The three segments are: the panel discussion (about 20 minutes); small group conversations between panelists and students (about 15 minutes; and time for students to review/ rethink/ revise/ refine their individual Personal Plan of Study.

1. Facilitate the panel discussion of community members. Panel members will communicate “things” they wish they had known prior to making their personal career choices (allot a maximum of 5 minutes for each person’s narrative).
2. Divide class into small groups. “Assign” a panel member to each group. In the small groups students will be able to enter into more personalized conversations with the panel members. Encourage students to discover what panelist would have (or has) done to proactively counter the lacking or mis-information.
3. Distribute the students’ Personal Plan of Study, career interest inventories and results (if available), high school graduation requirements (most current Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary

Student Involvement:

1. Students will listen and formulate personal questions as the panel members share their “I wish I’d known” reflections.
2. In the small groups, students will engage in a conversation with a panelist. They will be encouraged to ask insightful and thought-provoking questions about the lack of and/or mis-information one realizes after being in the chosen profession.
3. Students will review their Personal Plan of Study to remind themselves of the plan they developed in 8th grade.

Education and local Board of Education requirements for all students, listings of the minimum entrance requirements for a variety of post-secondary education and training options, including, but not limited to colleges/ universities/ technical schools and a planning form to guide those students seeking immediate. full-time post secondary employment. 4. Consider students' privacy rights and district policy to determine the appropriate level of student interactions with others (peers and/or adults). Facilitate/guide students' review of their Personal Plans of Study. 5. When students have had an opportunity to review and revise/refine their current plans; they will write a note to you explaining the changes they are making. As you review their revised/refined Plans, make notes for follow-up with students via a classroom guidance lesson and/or scheduled Individual Planning sessions. Arrange for the copying of students' revised/refined Personal Plan of Study and return the copy to the student.	4. Students will use the information gained during the panel discussion; their completed (and tentative) Personal Plan of Study; their career interest inventory results (if available), the counselor-provided listing of minimum entrance requirements for a variety of colleges/ universities/ technical/proprietary schools or plan for immediate post-high school employment to help them review/ rethink/ refine/revise their Personal Plan of Study. 5. Students will make changes to their plans as needed and will write a note to you (the counselor) explaining the changes.

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE's. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Students will successfully complete application forms and checklists. Each student will develop a "master" document which will include the kinds of personal information most applications require.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

Does anyone really look at applications or are they just pulled out of a hat?

Engagement (Hook):

Activity: Show an application that has been poorly completed and ask "What would you do with this application if you were a decision-maker in the admissions office (educational and training programs) or the human resources office (employers)?"

Procedures

What is a Portfolio? What good is it?
 What should I put into my portfolio?

Engagement (Hook):

Show students an example of a portfolio or counselor’s portfolio.

Procedures

Counselor Procedures:

1. Counselor shows his/her portfolio or an example of one.
2. Students are instructed to list items that they need to include in their career portfolio.
 A Limited List of Suggestions:
  - a. Personal Plan of Study
  - b. Personal Mission/ Worldview/ Philosophy Statement(s)
  - c. Evidence of Skill Development
  - d. Reflection papers
  - e. Post-Secondary Education Training Options
  - f. and there are many more ...
3. Students are instructed to design a “mechanism” for collecting AND organizing the information, e g., file box with dividers and folders; a cardboard box, loose-leaf binders for each subject.

Student Involvement:

1. Students observe the components of a portfolio.
2. Students will brainstorm a list of materials they need in their portfolio.
3. Students put a copy of their four-year plan in the portfolio and any other information they have already collected.

4. Students are instructed to continue to collect information for their portfolio as they continue through high school. Classroom guidance lessons will include processes and products that will be included; however, the portfolio is developed “By the Student—For the Student” and as such will require the students to think creatively about how best to represent herself or himself.	4. Students will keep their portfolio in a central location (home room or counselor’s office).

Procedures

Counselor Procedures:

1. Discuss the Martha Stewart, Enron or another story about ethical practices in business. Provide students with copies of the standards/codes of ethical practice for a variety of professions – include occupations you or the students may not ordinarily think of as having a code of ethics, e.g., exterminators.
2. Discuss ethical issues as compared to legal issues.
3. Have students fill out the Personal Code of Ethics Activity Sheet.

Student Involvement:

1. Students will actively participate in the discussion.
2. Students will actively participate in the discussion. Give examples at school.
3. Create a personal code of ethics.

4. Instruct students to break into small groups and list behaviors that are common on most students' lists, compare lists with school policy documents to determine similarities differences between students' list and policy document(s). 5. Make a "public list" synthesizing the group lists into one class-agreed-upon list. Again, compare with school policy documents. Discuss commonalities listed on the board. 6. In the same small groups, have students develop an advocacy plan for creating school policy that will promote an ethical school culture. Encourage the implementation of their advocacy plans. 7. Facilitate a large group discussion about using the ethical codes in a step-by-step decision-making process to resolve ethical conflicts. In small groups, provide the same school-related ethical dilemma to each group for discussion. Each group will explain the considerations and steps leading to actions that would resolve the dilemma. 8. Collect personal codes to put in each portfolio or have students place in portfolio.	4. A volunteer from each group will write the behaviors on the board. 5. Students will develop a list of behaviors group members agree all students at their school should follow. They will then compare their group's list with policy documents and make a list of the standards of behavior that aren't included in the discipline policy. 6. Students will develop an advocacy plan and describe it to the whole class. 7. Students will list the steps their group would take to resolve the ethical problem. 8. Students will place their Personal Code of Ethics in a prominent place in their portfolios.
--	---

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Encourage teachers to have students write a paper discussing the steps they took to resolve an ethical issue in the past.
Role-play an ethical conflict between 2 students and then 2 employees.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)
