Procedures

Instructor Procedures/Instructional Strategies:	Student Involvement/Instructional Activities:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. “Boys and girls, I am back to continue in our investigation of what people do at work. Let’s look at your activity sheets to find out what adults do when they go to work.” Ask students to show their drawings to a partner and explain what they learned about the adult’s job. 2. Each student will have the opportunity to speak about what his or her family member does at work, and what skills are needed to be able to do the work. 3. After the students finish, ask them to name the kinds of skills they need in order to do their work at school and at home. 4. End by telling the students that they have been great investigators of the world of work. Have them give a high five. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Students will tell a partner about two things they included in their magnifying glass illustrations. 2. Students respond by reporting what is written on their activity sheets. 3. Students will offer their ideas. 4. Students give a high five.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Teachers may display the students’ work as a booklet as delineated in the letter and may discuss how the skills students use in school can be used in many jobs.
