Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

Why is it important for teenagers to have a positive self-concept?

Why is it important for you to balance your personal, academic, and work roles?

How do people make the world a better place?

Engagement (Hook):

Begin an in-depth discussion by juggling 3 tennis balls. Explain that each ball represents a specific area of their life (i.e. Self-Concept, School Community, and Responsibilities). Begin juggling the balls and explain to the students that sometimes all three areas of their lives operate smoothly.

Drop one of the balls and explain to the students that sometimes one area of their lives may seem to be out of control or going poorly, but the other two areas can still be okay. Continue to juggle the other two balls.

Drop another ball and explain to the students that sometimes two areas of their lives may seem to be out of control or going poorly, but there is still one area that they can concentrate on that is going okay. Continue to toss one ball.

Drop the last ball and explain to the students that sometimes all areas of their lives may seem to be out of control or going poorly.

A variation of this activity is using paper, which is neatly organized into three stacks. Explain to the students that sometimes all three stacks are perfectly aligned and all three areas of their lives operate smoothly.

Blow/throw one of the stacks into the air and explain to the students that sometimes one area of their life may seem to be out of control or going poorly, but the other two can still be going okay. Point to the other two neatly stacked piles of paper.

Blow/throw another one of the stacks into the air and explain to the students that sometimes two areas of their lives may seem to be out of control or going poorly, but there is still one area that they can concentrate on that is going well. Point to the last neatly stacked pile of paper.

Blow/throw the last stack of paper into the air and explain to the students that sometimes all areas of their life may seem to be out of control or going poorly.

Use either hook to lead into explaining to the students that high school is a place where all areas will need to be juggled in order to have the best experience possible. Work with them as large groups, small groups or individuals to give them skills, ideas or opportunities to juggle all three areas successfully.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures:

1. Handout the "Self-concept Checklist" worksheet. One area that will be impacted entering high school is your self-concept. Meeting new friends, experiencing peer pressure, trying to "fit in" are all issues 9th graders may go through. Explain that the self-concept checklist will help increase their self-concept. Allow students time to complete the checklist. Discuss responses and or collect them after the class period for

Student Involvement:

1. Students complete the self-concept checklist. Discuss what indicates positive or negative self-concepts.

formative evaluation.

- 2. After discussing possible responses, explain to the students that there are ways to improve their self-concept as well as maintain it. Allow them time to complete the "Improving Your Self-Concept" worksheet. Discuss and or collect for formative evaluation.
- 3. Ask students what they are most looking forward to doing in high school. Discuss responses.

Ask students if they are aware of all the opportunities available to them in their new school community. Direct students to the "Clubs/Organization List". Let them know about all the different opportunities they have to be involved with.

Discuss the benefits of more friends (new friends), sense of belonging, school pride, learning new things, taking risks, organizing time and responsibilities and increased positive self-concept. Ask students to check or circle clubs they may be interested in learning more information about or joining.

4. Discuss and examine the different roles students have and the responsibilities of those roles. Pass out "Roles: How do They Impact Me and for What Am I Responsible" worksheet.

- 2. Students will complete the "Improving Your Self-Concept" worksheet. Discuss ways for developing or maintaining a positive self-concept.
- 3. Students respond to questions Discuss benefits to joining clubs Checkmark or circle clubs they may be interested in joining.

4. Students will identify how each role has shaped their self-concepts and list at least one responsibility they have in each role.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Teachers could identify students that are still projecting a negative self-concept and refer them to the counselor.

Communication Arts teachers could assign a paper/essay pertaining to the roles and responsibilities that students have in their lives.
