Feelings Worksheet

Lesson PreparationEssential Questions:

Why do people need to know about feelings?

Engagement (Hook):

Counselor explains that the class will be discussing feelings. There are 4 cards on the floor. With each card held up, the students will identify the feelings and demonstrate what that feeling looks like. Counselor participates with the group.

ProceduresInstructor Procedures:

1. Counselor tells students that today they will be talking about feelings. Each of the cards on the floor has one of the four feelings being talked about today.
2. Counselor randomly chooses a card, and shows it to the group. "Tell me the feeling that is on the card." "Now, show me how your face would look if you were feeling this way."
3. "What are some reasons that you might feel this way?"
4. "What are some different ways that a person might show this feeling?" (Counselor should focus discussion on appropriate ways of expressing the feelings.)
5. Repeat steps 2-4 for each feeling.
6. "Why is it important for us to express our feelings?"

Student Involvement:

1. Students are sitting in a circle on the floor.
2. Students respond accordingly.
3. Students give examples.
4. Students give examples.
5. Allow every student a chance to respond.
6. Students respond.

7. Students will complete the Feelings Worksheet. Counselor may need to lead the students in completion of the worksheet.	7. Students draw their responses.
---	-----------------------------------

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

The classroom teacher would compliment appropriate expression of feelings, and redirect any inappropriate expressions. The teacher and counselor would collaborate/consult on students having difficulties in any area.
