

Management

Have a class discussion on management styles. Encourage students to share their experiences with managers (without using names and businesses) and did their style work, why or why not.

Homework Project - Interview a manager at a local area business, find out what their job responsibilities entail. Determine what type of management style they use.