

1. Pseudo-code a system that will keep track of students and their individual grades for a year. After a new grade has been added, if the student's new average grade is a C or less, a warning message should be displayed.

2. Pseudo-code a system that will keep track of vehicle maintenance and miles. A warning message should be displayed when the miles between the last oil change reaches 3000 or greater. A warning message should be displayed when the miles between the last tire rotation reaches 6000 or greater. a warning messeage should be display when the miles between inspections reaches 15000 or more.